HOWARD.

Bring ye sweet flowers to deck their lowly graves.
The noble ones who shed their life-blood free
And fighting, fell in freedom's cause that we Should hold it sacred, while the old flag waves!
Bring flowers, the fairest, sweetest, for our graves:
Roses and lilies. 'Twas for you and me they died.
Cover each mound that they may see
The living love that still a strong heart craves.

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

Reformed—Pastor E. F. Faust will preach at Saiona at ten o'clock; at Mt. Bethel at half past two, and at Huhlersburg at half past seven.
Methodist Episcopal—Pastor James Edwin Dunning will preach in Howard at half past ten, at Kennedy at half past two and at Curtin at half past seven.

More Good Sidewalks.

The numerous and large piles of well crushed and screened limestone which now adorn Main street are positive promises of a considerable extent of new and good sidewalks in the very near future, and the equally sure promise of better concrete than heretofore is found in those same piles of lime, because it shows that our people have learned that the native slate gravel does not make permanent concrete work and that lime stone does. It is good to know too, that though the working season is yet very young, similar promises for other parts of our town have already been fulfilled: For instance, at the corner of Grove and Black street, occupied by the new and handsome homes of A. C. and Jesse T. Leathers, a long stretch of most excellent walk was completed only last Friday, and on east Main, John Knarr put down a solid brick walk a few weeks ago. Near that point John Loder has also prepared for a brick walk. Coming on west side of E. F. Holter estate, Shuman Pletcher, Squire Samuel F. Kline and Mrs. Elizabeth Lucas have the limestone, and in some cases the sand and ashes also, on hand for concrete. Still further west L. H. Neff is at ranging for some sort of addition to the walks on his lawn, and only on Saturday last, Burgess George H. Leathers completed a series of good concrete walk around his new home. When these changes have been made Main street will have eighty per cent or more of first class sidewalks, and the fine reputation our little town has already attained in this regard will have been largely increased. Let the good work go on.

LeRoy Leathers Dead.

As the sun went down last Friday evening the last messenger called the spirit of "Roy" Leathers to the great endless night of death, and his poor body was relieved of the great suffering of the past several months. He died in the house in which he was born, April 18, 1877, being about five weeks more than thirty-five years old. Roy had never married, devoting his work to his life himself, to the dutiful task of making his mother and his only single sister, Miss Carrie M. comfortable, and never was this task more conscientiously and cheerfully executed. He was the youngest of the family, and as all the older ones had families of their own he assumed the charge of the old home and the remnant of the family, and made his work a labor of love. "Roy" was in all respects a "good citizen," and left no public or private duty unperformed. Nowhere was he more popular than with the very young boys and girls of the town, and by them he will be most missed—aside from the immediate family. In addition to his mother he leaves behind him the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Frank Lingle, of Johnsonburg; Nathan Ediger and Mrs. W. H. Gardner, of Renova; Jno. William, Lock Haven; Carrie M. at home and Mrs. H. A. Vaughn Newark, N. J. The funeral service, at the house, was conducted by Rev. W. H. Patterson, of Blanchard at two o'clock Monday afternoon, and interment was made in the Presbyterian churchyard at Jacksonville, where his one dead sister and his mother's relatives are buried, and close by the old school house of his boyhood days.

Forestry Meeting.

At eight o'clock in the evening of next Wednesday, in the school house, a meeting in the interests of forestry, will be held under the auspices of the State Chestnut Tree Blight Commission. At this meeting it is not known who will be the speakers, but the great importance of the subject should bring out a full house to hear them.

Mrs. W. H. Holter spent Thursday in Lock Haven.

Little Mary Mayes is visiting with aunts and uncles in Pittsburgh.

Miss Muffy was an eastward bound passenger on No. 50 Saturday.

Mrs. George L. Williams is visiting her husband in New York.

C. A. Moore spent the week end here with his family and family friends.

Miss Anna Muffy was a westward bound passenger on No. 51 Monday.

Two car loads of horned stock left here last Friday for Franklinville, N. Y.

James Barger, now of Reading, spent the week end with his family here.

Miss Bertha Armstrong, of Potter's Mills, visited her aunt, Mrs. Bouse, on Saturday.

The Misses Bennison visited their old home in the east end of Nittany, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wagner were Lock Haven visitors between trains on Thursday.

The veteran Samuel Aley was a Bellefonte visitor by the Monday morning train.

Liveryman John M. Robb enjoyed a visit last week from his brothers, Edward and David.

Mrs. Zimmerman and daughter of Bellefonte, spent last Friday with her sister, Mrs. Bouse.

Miss Esther Shay left Monday morning for Bellefonte where she will remain indefinitely.

Mrs. Kurtz, Mrs. T. E. Thomas and Miss Mary Johnson were Bellefonte visitors last Thursday.

Miss Eulodia Ertle, of Jacksonville, was a Wednesday guest of Mrs. Jordan and Miss Yearick.

C. M. Fox has topped out his nice home with a new cedar shingle roof and three new chimnies and that makes him finer than any of his neighbors.

Former Jury Commissioner Fredric Robb, spent the week end with his son Harvey in Lock Haven. Charles Wylie, of McVeytown, visited his brother James, one of our old time citizens, over Sunday.

John Weber with his daughter, Miss Lauretta and son Walter, went to Philadelphia Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Bullock came down from their Julian home to spend Sunday with their son Edward.

H. C. Holter and sons have just put several fine improvements on the farm house of ex-Sheriff Robt. Cook.

Rev. W. H. Patterson preached his last sermon before leaving for his new field of work Sabbath evening.

Mrs. Matthew Rogers, Jr., and her mother, Mrs. Hetrick, visited Lock Haven between trains Saturday.

The Misses Mary Page and Alice Patterson with Garland Patterson were Sunday guests of Miss Gladys Holter.

Mrs. J. W. Mayes, Mrs. Henry Confer, Mrs. Alonzo Henderson and Miss Annie Confer were Bellefonte visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Jacob Robb spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. Eason, at the Lock Haven hospital and reports her improving finely.

Samuel Schenck, of Clearfield, came in to visit his sick brother, D. B. Schenck Saturday night, and found him somewhat improved.

Max Worthington, of Muncy, the well known grandson of Rev. N. H. Schenck, was a Saturday visitor among his friends here.

The Hon. John H. Wetzel, of Bellefonte, with his brother, the Rev. Frank Wetzel, of Stoystown, visited their relatives in town last Saturday.

Miss Nellie Holter and her friend, Alice Reber, of State College, spent a few days last week with Miss Holter's parents, 'Squire and Mrs. Joseph L. Holter.

Chauncy Pletcher, one of our busy blacksmiths, was noticed quietly getting some fine new furniture into his new home in the east end, last Thursday evening.

Merrill Smith and Merrill Schenck, two of our active young men who have been working at Niagara and Buffalo for some months, returned home Tuesday evening.

Frank Strunk, who has been laid by with a double-header attack of lumbago, is now able to go about the streets by the aid of a "big stick" albeit he goes very softly.

W. E. Tice's work of erecting and starting stone crushing and screening plants for making road metal took him to Jersey Shore last week and Mrs. Tice went down for a visit with him.

Roy Leathers's passing left a vacancy in the office of constable for the borough and David Thompson Allison has been appointed to the place. He has had experience and will make a good officer.

The stork which has been passing by the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Foreman of late years, called last week and made amends by leaving a fine boy and John is carrying his head very high just now.

Mrs. Charles E. McMurtrie whose health has been more or less precarious for some months, left Thursday for Philadelphia, where she expects to enter Jefferson hospital with the hope of a permanent cure.

Billy Shay, who purchased the fixtures and good will of the Isaac R. Williams barber shop has just completed a thorough renovation of the place and with its new paper and paint it is quite attractive.

In addition to Mrs. Weber, who represented the U. E. Sunday School committee at Winfield last week, Miss Miriam Solt was appointed to represent the C. E. of the same denomination, and well fulfilled the duties of the place.

Edward Bullock, manager of the lumber job just above town, on the Bald Eagle mountains, moved from his home in Julian, Tuesday to the house on Main street, so long known as the home in which E. F. Holter raised his big family and which is yet owned by his heirs.

Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Kurtz, Wm. Weber and Dr. W. A. Hensyl, of Berwick, are in Pittsburgh in attendance upon the Grand Commandary of Knights Templar. They were train guests of the Baldwin Commandary of Williamsport, whose special train stopped here about half past ten Monday morning to take them on.

The Misses Alice Patterson, Lula Beightol, Mary Davey, Merilla Bolappue, Margriete Heverly and Miss Quigley were some of the members of a very pleasant party of young ladies from Blanchard, Beech Creek and vicinity who walked from their homes to our town last Thursday afternoon and spent a little time among their friends here.

The Mesdames George H. and A. C. Leathers, at the home of the former, entertained at tea, very handsomely, Saturday afternoon from three to five; introducing their new sister, Mrs. Jesse T. Leathers, formerly Miss Ruth, of Northumberland. The guest of honor contributed largely to the pleasures of the occasion in the exercise of her fine musical attainments.

A crowd of our Summer Normal students took a hike on Monday afternoon to Crider's greenhouse, below town, to view the alligators as well as the flowers. The following are the names of the crowd: Prof. Decker, Clara Smith, Mary Doyle, Mabel Ledger, Blanche Eisenhater, Russell Wagner, Amber Confer, Arvilla Gardner, Ira Lucas, Tessie Confer and Edna Rogers.

Two of our splendid Howard girls married husbands, whose duties require them to live in the new town of Jenkins in Kentucky, which is about thirty-five miles from anywhere. So last week the "girls" Mrs. C. G. Evans and Mrs. Shuman Holter, came home with their handsome babies to spend a portion of the summer with the older civilization of Howard. They are cordially welcome.

A delightful group of our very nice little girls took the early morning train Saturday for Mt. Eagle and made a whole day visit with their schoolmate Gertrude Leathers. They were: Rosetta Yearick, Charlotte Kurtz, Vonda Johnson, Pearl Confer, Marion Cooke, Anna Belle Litch and Esther Strunk. The little Mt. Eagle girls who joined them were: Bertha Bitner, Rhue Leathers and Gertrude Leathers.

J. D. Gledhill was chosen representative of the local lodge of I. O. O. F. to the meeting of the Grand Lodge at Reading last week, and he took a week off giving him time for an interesting trip. Taking Mrs. Gledhill with him as far as Lancaster, where she spent the week with friends, he spent Wednesday and Thursday in his official duties at Reading, and spent the rest of the time in getting glimpses of Philadelphia, Norristown, Valley Forge and other of our interesting points in the east. From Norristown he remembered the Howard letter with a handsome picture of the tomb of Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock, the "super" from the text "We are true men," quoted from Joseph's brethren which he had charged them with being spies. Rev. W. H. Patterson preached a thoughtful and strong sermon last Sabbath afternoon to the G. A. R. and the local organizations which turns out with them, including the P. O. A. F., O. S. of A., I. O. O. F., and S. of V. The announcement that the Grove Brothers Post originally had eighty members on its roll and now had but eight, one of whom is a non-resident, leaving but seven to parade, brought about a rather startling realization of the rapidity with which the old heroes are responding to the "taps" which call them to everlasting rest.

UNIONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Bullock with their son, Smith Bullock, boarded the train on Monday morning for Buffalo and Niagara Falls. I don't think it is true, why should people say that Smith kept singing, "Put me off at Buffalo" for the last week.

Seven of our grammar school pupils took the examination preparatory to entering the Bellefonte High school at Bellefonte, on last Wednesday. They are as bright as they are pretty and these are the kids: Mamie Smokey, Ruth Summers, Helen Moran, Jennie Parsons, Flora Holt, Margaret Brugger and Herman Fisher.

Our base ball team have arranged for a strenuous game to be played in Uncle Sammie Emrick's field on Decoration Day at 2 o'clock sharp. In the evening they will hold a box social in Grange Hall, at which a big surprise will be sprung on their patrons. Don't miss it. Patronize the "boys."

As Billy Peters was planting his potatoes he said there were at least a dozen big, lean, hardshelled potato bags on every fence post watching where he was planting the tubers. One big fellow had a paper and pencil taking notes. Come! Come! Billy: that sounds "fishy."

Mrs. Roy Peters, of Altoona, daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Peters of this place, has gone to Kansas in hopes of recuperating her health.

Oh Yes! Oh Yes! now is your time to get pure bred silver-white Orpington eggs for hatching, reduced from $1.00 to 50 cents per doz. eggs. The white Orpingtons are large, hardy and among the best of layers. Apply to station agent, Billie Parsons.

You can now see the beautiful addition to Grange Hall (in your mind). Anyhow the wall is completed. Uncle Jimmy McClincy was the contractor and Abeldigo Williams, the master mason. Oh! its coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence De Barrie, of Altoona, and Miss Clara Cadwallader who had been off on a visit for many months, are now occupying the Cadwallader home.

The Rev. H. K. Ash preached the Memorial sermon in the M. E. church on last Sunday evening and the tribute he paid to the memory of the old soldiers as well as to the few surviving "Vets" was most beautiful and inspiring. Only six of the old legionnaires of the nation marched into the church, single file, and took their usual seats in the front pew. They were as follows: J. C. Smith, William Resides, E. E. Erhart, W. R. Papp, Geo. W. Morrison and John W. Bales. Two others, I. G. Alexander and J. G. Sensor, who were absent for the first time at the annual Memorial services, being too feeble to attend. Dr. Russell also was absent for some unknown cause.

William Keatley—Another one of our oldest and most respected citizens passed away on Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. B. Hall. Deceased has been in ill health for more than a year with Bright's disease. He spent six or eight months with his son George, at Buckhanna, West Va., arriving home about four weeks ago. He came to this place about 40 years ago from Washington Furnace. He was a good citizen, a kind neighbor, a loving husband, and indulgent father. He leaves to survive him the following children: Mrs. Brettain Hall, Mrs. Larry Brisbin, of Tyrone; Geo. of West Virginia; David, of Unionville; and Mrs. Jos. Stover, of Tyrone; and one sister, Mrs. Martha Sheets, of Tyrone. Funeral services will be conducted at the house of his son David Keatley, in this place, on Thursday at 10 o'clock a. m. Interment in lower cemetery. Had he lived till next September he would have been 76 years old.

On Sunday evening, June 9th, at 7:30, in the M. E. church the Rev. Ash will preach the annual sermon to the Independent Order of Odd Fellows who will attend services in a body. It is to be hoped that all members of the order will be in attendance. Everybody invited.

Perry Moran, who has had a serious tussel with the rheumatism, is still confined to his bed most of the time.

The venerable John Spotts is becoming quite feeble and at times is unable to be up.

JULIAN.

Dark Swisher was seen in our town last week.

Miss Lottie Parsons returned home Friday, after visiting her parents in Driftwood.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Musser were in our town last week in their automobile.

Mrs. Carrie Green, who has been very ill, is able to visit her friends again.

Miss Ophelia Rowan and her little sister Bertha spent Sunday in Tyrone.

Mrs. Harve Fike spent Sunday with Mrs. Carrie Green.

Miss Bessie Moore returned home after spending a few weeks in Bellefonte.

Miss Margaret Marks, of Tyrone, spent the evening with Mrs. Cora Pink, at Julian.

Miss Olive Swisher spent a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Carrie Green.

Almond McCool spent a few days in Julian.
