

Correspondents' Department

Bright, Newsw Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

JULIAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hoshard attended the funeral of Mr. Hoshard's sister, of near Unionville, on Thursday of last week.

Our rural mail carrier, Rollie Williams, of Julian, and Curtis Parsons and son Eugene of Parsons City, Kan., spent Tuesday of last week at the county seat shopping and taking in the sights.

It will be interesting to many of our citizens to know that the Rev. Merrill Howard Ake, former pastor of our M. E. church, has secured an excellent position in the ministry for the Protestant Episcopal church at Mansfield, Pa., at which place he has been preaching for this church ever since he departed from this charge here. Recently the writer received a copy of the Shamokin Dispatch from a friend, in which were the full details of the ceremonies at which the Rev. Merrill H. Ake, of Mansfield, Pa., and the Rev. Frederick Diehl, of Wellsboro, Pa., were ordained priests of the Protestant Episcopal church at the above named places where they are preaching and residing. The ceremonies took place in the new Episcopal church at Shamokin, Pa., at which were some of the following eminent divines: Rev. Dr. T. James Lacy, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Rev. James Henry Darlington, of Harrisburg, Pa.; the Revs. Hugh Griffiths and Hugh McGuire, of Jersey Shore; Rev. Robert Bell, of Williamsport, Pa.; Rev. T. J. Dewees, of Pottsville, Pa.; Rev. William E. Kunkle, of Milton, Pa.; the Rev. Walter Pugh, of Sunbury, Pa.; the Rev. Leroy Baker, of Sellersville, Pa., and others. Let our warmest and most fervent wishes be with Rev. Ake, our former minister, for a prosperous, successful and happy future.

Francis Droll, of Blueball, was a week end guest at the home of G. E. Campbell, on Railroad Avenue.

Mrs. Wm. H. Parsons and her mother, Mrs. Elmyra Richards, came up from Unionville on Tuesday of last week and spent the day very pleasantly circulating among old time friends and relatives at Julian.

Our farmers are cultivating their corn and doing all that is possible in order to induce it to grow faster and bring for the those golden ears.

What is more toothsome and what tickles the "Adams Apple-butter more than that ever welcome strawberry? In the garden of Mrs. Eliza Myers, which is cultivated by Miss Clara and Wilbur, is to be found a bed of those strawberry plants which produce a superior quality of this delicious fruit. Last week this harvest was in its midst of activity at which time the bereft. Many thanks; many thanks, writer was duly and liberally remunerated.

Mrs. Catherine Williams, a former and well known resident of Julian, came down from Tyrone where she had spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs. John Hoover, and is calling on all her old time neighbors, friends and relatives at this place. On Thursday she paid a visit at the parental residence of the writer, who greatly enjoyed her visit and conversation on different topics during the day. Come again.

Curtis Parsons and son Eugene, who have spent the past two months at Harrisburg, Julian, Osceola Mills and other points, took their leave on Monday for their home at Parsons City, Kan. Mr. Parsons is a railroad passenger engineer and also secretary for the Order of Railroad Engineers, and was sent east to attend their convention which was held at Harrisburg last month.

Rollie Williams is adding a new shed to his barn in which he will store the vehicles he uses to convey him to and fro over the road while on the mail route.

Elmer Williams, of Bellefonte, came up on Thursday last and spent the week end shaking hands with old time friends in his former home town.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert V. Miller drove to Philipsburg on Saturday afternoon to spend the Sabbath with friends in that sunny burg.

Mrs. Geo. Hoover, of Williamsport, came up to Julian on Friday to spend a short stay with her sister, Mrs. I. F. Davis, and her brother, James Turner, up Beaver street.

The flower that seems to be winning the most popularity throughout this section today, the flower that is the most prolific bearer and covers the widest scope of territory, is that innocent little daisy. If all these little daisies were daisies, Bill Tat's empty dinner would be a thing of the past. If this were only true.

Mrs. James Woods and Lee Catherine, of Osceola Mills, arrived in town on Saturday to circulate among relatives.

James Andrews lost a valuable work horse recently out of his new team which he purchased only a few weeks ago. Too bad, Jim.

John Swisher and family drove in from Philipsburg on Saturday to spend a short stay among friends and relatives.

Geo. E. Campbell and Francis Droll drove out on the mountain on Saturday where the speckled beauties inhabit the waters and caught a big string. Yes, and it wasn't a cord string nor a yarn string but a string of real trouties ranging anywhere from the legal size up.

Woods—Robert Woods a venerable gentleman who made his home for the past few years with Ira Green and family east of town, died on Saturday morning, interment on Sunday afternoon east of Julian.

WOODWARD.

Edward Sheesley, employed at Carroll, spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents at O. Stover's.

H. O. Feldler and wife and Mrs. M. O. Stover returned home on Friday, and Lester Feldler and wife on Saturday, after spending about three weeks in Illinois and South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller and Miss Stella Stem visited Mr. Miller's sister, Mrs. H. M. Wolfe, on Sunday.

Miss Maude Ard, a trained nurse of Philadelphia, is spending about six weeks with her parents at this place.

The sale of C. L. Rinehart on last Saturday was well attended and everything brought fair prices. The cow and a calf three days old, sold for $75.00.

Washington Camp No. 35, P. O. S. of A., of this place honored the departed members of their benevolent order on Saturday night by rendering the following Memorial program: Reading by M. O. Stover, singing, 1st verse of "Jesus Lover of My Soul"; reading—by S. S. Bowersox; singing—2nd verse, "Jesus Lover of My Soul"; reading—by E. H. Musser; singing, "Nearer My God to Thee"; prayer—by Chas. B. Musser; singing—"God Bless Native Land." Address—by Rev. Geesey, Camp 625, P. O. S. of A., of Aaronburg, which certainly was highly appreciated. He rendered very clearly the distinction between Decoration Day, and Memorial Day, and a holiday. He also very ably discussed the duty of a true American to his country. Singing—Centennial hymn.

Mr. Rinehart and Mr. Holland, two young men of near Allentown, Pa., who on a wager are undertaking a trip from Allentown to San Francisco, are bearing a letter from the Mayor of Allentown to the Mayor of San Francisco, on bicycles, arrived at this place on Saturday night having left Allentown on Tuesday the 18th at 2 o'clock, p. m. They kept quite a crowd of spectators laughing and enjoying themselves in profusion, at the Hosterman's hotel by their fine guitar music and comic songs. They left on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. James Smith and daughter, of Altoona, who spent last week helping her sister, Miss Minerva Rinehart, prepare for the sale on Saturday, returned to her home on Monday morning.

Some of the farmers have started cutting grass and the merry song of the mower can be heard as it lays low the beautiful red clover blossoms.

Hasten Long and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Long's parents, J. L. Grenoble's, of this place.

The School Directors met at Aaronburg on Saturday, and elected the teachers for the ensuing term. The schools were all supplied excepting the grammar school at Aaronburg, viz: Aaronburg intermediate—Ed. Wolfe; primary—Miss Mary Stover, Pine Creek—Wm. F. Winkleblich; Lese—Miss Helen Stover; Mountain—Adam Martin; Wolfe's Chapel—Fred Gulsewite; St. Paul's—Miss Lida Winkleblich; Vonada—Chas. B. Musser, and Woodward—Roy H. Musser.

Quite a number of the young folks in this community attended the festival at Coburn on Saturday night.

The Children's Day services in the United Evangelical church on Sunday night was attended by a large crowd, the services consisting of solos, duets, recitations and dialogues, very ably rendered, especially by the two little daughters of T. A. Hosterman, of Coburn.

Miss Mary Stover, of Aaronburg, spent some time with her friend, Mrs. Chas. Musser, on Sunday afternoon.

WOODWARD.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Rachau were Lock Haven visitors one day recently, the guests of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Hazel.

Sunday school next Sunday at 9:30, preaching at 10:30. Please come and bring your friends along.

Mrs. S. C. Gobbie, of Endicot, N. Y., visited some of her many friends through here the past week.

Don't forget the big time at Nittany, July the 4th.

Quite a number helping Mrs. H. K. Allison to celebrate her birthday on last Friday were: Mrs. Charles and Mrs. Joe Emerick, Mrs. Ed. Markle, Mrs. Mable Swartz, of Hublersburg; Mrs. S. C. Gobbie, of Endicot, N. Y.; Mrs. William Knecht, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. H. P. Zerby, of this place; from reports they had a royal good time, and they all departed for their homes wishing Mrs. Allison many more happy returns of the day.

Dan Showers is spending some time with his family here, he having got here while working at Waddle on a building.

Miss Mary Allison is in Lock Haven this week attending commencement and visiting friends.

Mrs. H. K. Allison and Mrs. S. C. Gobbie drove to Hublersburg on Sunday and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Swartz.

Mrs. Mollie Tate Fultz, husband and little son, of Milwaukee; Ed. Tate, of Ridgway, and Nerr Tate, of Utah, are all guests of their invalid mother at present.

WOODWARD.

Messrs. John and Ray Knecht were callers here one day last week.

We are glad to learn that Phillip Hurd has been elected to teach the school at this place.

The new concrete bridge at Knecht's has been completed. It is a fine bridge and not only beautifies the surroundings but it is a credit to the township to make such permanent improvements.

Class No. 6 of the St. Paul's Union Sunday school will hold a festival on the school house lawn at this place Saturday evening, June 27th. The Mackeyville band will be present. All are cordially invited.

Harry Rieker and family, of Salona, autoed to this place Sunday in their new auto.

Quite a few of our young people attended the festival at Clintondale last Saturday evening.

Lester Corman and family, of Beech Creek, were callers at Mr. Mesbell's on Sunday.

The Lutheran Sunday school will hold their Children's Day service at 7:30, Sunday evening, June 30th.

Miss Ethel Strunk has returned home after spending commencement at State College. Ethel reports having a splendid time while being entertained at the Beta Alpha Sigma.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hayes spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Nolan of Nittany.

WOODWARD.

Mrs. John Hockenberry, of Axer, and Mrs. James Miller, of Proserstown, were seen in town one day last week; this was a rare treat for their friends as they are seldom seen here. Come again.

Geo. Chapman has frequently been seen walking about town; notwithstanding his eighty-four years he is hale and hearty.

F. E. Wetzler is improving his home by building an addition on the rear end; after experiencing some trouble with a concrete wall, he is now replacing same with brick.

Geo. Chapman, Mrs. Harry Hockenberry, Mrs. H. Shultz, Miss Anna Shultz and Robert Hockenberry comprised a fishing party one day last week. Of course they were lucky, but what scared Bob nearly out of his No. sevens last winter is still a problem unsolved. Ask him about it.

The recent rains here have been appreciated.

Miss Emma Smith, from this place, Sundayed with her sister, Mrs. F. Flinn, of Altoona.

The surveyors have been through town again.

Mrs. Jane Shultz recently purchased the vacant lot adjoining their home from James McMullen. She is also improving her home by having same painted; it looks fine.

Miss May Shultz, from Osceola Mills, Sundayed at her home here.

Preaching services which have been in progress at the Presbyterian church have been well attended.

Linn Bradley, who is employed by Schab on the stone pile along the state road, has recently been nursing a sore hand which he had injured.

John Flack, residing at McCoy's Forge, one of our esteemed citizens, has been on the sick list for some time; hope for his speedy recovery.

WOODWARD.

Last Thursday morning the sad news spread through the community of the death of an aged and well known lady, Mrs. Dorsey Green, after but a week's illness. Her maiden name was Gregg; she was united in marriage to Dorsey Green to which six children were born, namely: Mrs. Ella Gray, Bellefonte; George, of Lock Haven; Samuel, of California; Rae, deceased; Bessie, at home, and Allen. Mrs. Green was a good, kind-hearted neighbor and was always ready to help her friends and neighbors, and always had a kind word to say to everybody. She has lived in Buffalo Run valley most all her life. She leaves to mourn her death her husband and five children above mentioned, besides a host of friends. Funeral services were held on Saturday at 11 o'clock at her home, conducted by Rev. Runyan, and Rev. Hawes, of Bellefonte. The remains were taken to Bellefonte where burial was made.

The clattering sound of the mowers have been heard among our farmers for the past week; the crop outlook is for a large pile.

Miss Mabel Norris and Miss Dora Kephart attended the Epworth League convention at State College, June 22nd and 23rd.

Miss Hazel Mingle, of State College, is spending a few days at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norris.

Mrs. T. G. Lomison and three children, accompanied by her husband returned home after a two weeks visit with parents and other relatives.

Owing to a pleasant evening a large crowd attended the festival at this place.

Harry Gummo, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Gummo, of Hunters Park.

WOODWARD.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutz and children, of Bellefonte, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Barger, on Sunday.

Mrs. John Ausman and little daughter Virginia, of Sunbury, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Doughman, part of last week.

Miss Susan Rossman fell and dislocated her shoulder on Saturday. Under the skillful treatment of Dr. Huff, she is getting along very nicely.

Mrs. Miles Doughman was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday for treatment; her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Joseph Griffith, of Lewistown, is spending some time with his wife and daughter here.

Mrs. Adam Schroyer, of Milledale, visited her brothers, Elmer and Edward Bryan.

Calvin Bathurst has some notion of raising his fruit in his garden, Ha Ha.

Mrs. Sadie Larimer was the guest of Mrs. H. R. Curtin over Sunday.

Mrs. Ray Lutz and son, of Bellefonte, are spending a few weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bathurst.

Mrs. George Bryan, who has been on the sick list, is convalescing.

Mrs. Harry Cop, of Tyrone, is visiting her many friends in this place.

Mrs. James Smetzer and children are visiting the former's mother and sister, Mrs. John Riley and Mrs. Wm. Prince.

WOODWARD.

Jonas Stine met with a very sad accident while working at the saw mill at Waddle; he had his hand so badly hurt that he had to have it amputated. He has the sympathy of every one.

Miss Freda Gummo visited at the home of her uncle, Andrew Gummo, G. B. Gummo and W. G. Furst received some fine pigs from Rushsylvania, Ohio. They are certainly nice ones and full blooded O. I. C's.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Huey transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday.

Miss Helen Clark is down from Juniata. We are all glad to see her. Ida Daugherty is working for Mrs. Clemson.

Clarence Peters spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Wade Lytle's; how about it, Edythe?

Mary Rust went to West Chester last Tuesday but when she got to Stormstown she stopped at the minister's and had her name changed to Hall. We wish them a long life of happiness.

Mrs. Judson Williams is home for a few days.

Mary and Margaret Hartsock visited with Helen Clark on Sunday; ask them about the cherries.

Quite a number of people from Stormstown attended the festival at Fillmore on Saturday evening.

WOODWARD.

Mrs. John Hockenberry, of Axer, and Mrs. James Miller, of Proserstown, were seen in town one day last week; this was a rare treat for their friends as they are seldom seen here. Come again.

Geo. Chapman has frequently been seen walking about town; notwithstanding his eighty-four years he is hale and hearty.

F. E. Wetzler is improving his home by building an addition on the rear end; after experiencing some trouble with a concrete wall, he is now replacing same with brick.

Geo. Chapman, Mrs. Harry Hockenberry, Mrs. H. Shultz, Miss Anna Shultz and Robert Hockenberry comprised a fishing party one day last week. Of course they were lucky, but what scared Bob nearly out of his No. sevens last winter is still a problem unsolved. Ask him about it.

The recent rains here have been appreciated.

Miss Emma Smith, from this place, Sundayed with her sister, Mrs. F. Flinn, of Altoona.

The surveyors have been through town again.

Mrs. Jane Shultz recently purchased the vacant lot adjoining their home from James McMullen. She is also improving her home by having same painted; it looks fine.

Miss May Shultz, from Osceola Mills, Sundayed at her home here.

Preaching services which have been in progress at the Presbyterian church have been well attended.

Linn Bradley, who is employed by Schab on the stone pile along the state road, has recently been nursing a sore hand which he had injured.

John Flack, residing at McCoy's Forge, one of our esteemed citizens, has been on the sick list for some time; hope for his speedy recovery.

WOODWARD.

Miss Hazel Mingle, of State College, is spending a few days at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norris.

Mrs. T. G. Lomison and three children, accompanied by her husband returned home after a two weeks visit with parents and other relatives.

Owing to a pleasant evening a large crowd attended the festival at this place.

Harry Gummo, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Gummo, of Hunters Park.

WOODWARD.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutz and children, of Bellefonte, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Barger, on Sunday.

Mrs. John Ausman and little daughter Virginia, of Sunbury, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Doughman, part of last week.

Miss Susan Rossman fell and dislocated her shoulder on Saturday. Under the skillful treatment of Dr. Huff, she is getting along very nicely.

Mrs. Miles Doughman was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday for treatment; her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Joseph Griffith, of Lewistown, is spending some time with his wife and daughter here.

Mrs. Adam Schroyer, of Milledale, visited her brothers, Elmer and Edward Bryan.

Calvin Bathurst has some notion of raising his fruit in his garden, Ha Ha.

Mrs. Sadie Larimer was the guest of Mrs. H. R. Curtin over Sunday.

Mrs. Ray Lutz and son, of Bellefonte, are spending a few weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bathurst.

Mrs. George Bryan, who has been on the sick list, is convalescing.

Mrs. Harry Cop, of Tyrone, is visiting her many friends in this place.

Mrs. James Smetzer and children are visiting the former's mother and sister, Mrs. John Riley and Mrs. Wm. Prince.

WOODWARD.

Jonas Stine met with a very sad accident while working at the saw mill at Waddle; he had his hand so badly hurt that he had to have it amputated. He has the sympathy of every one.

Miss Freda Gummo visited at the home of her uncle, Andrew Gummo, G. B. Gummo and W. G. Furst received some fine pigs from Rushsylvania, Ohio. They are certainly nice ones and full blooded O. I. C's.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Huey transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday.

Miss Helen Clark is down from Juniata. We are all glad to see her. Ida Daugherty is working for Mrs. Clemson.

Clarence Peters spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Wade Lytle's; how about it, Edythe?

Mary Rust went to West Chester last Tuesday but when she got to Stormstown she stopped at the minister's and had her name changed to Hall. We wish them a long life of happiness.

Mrs. Judson Williams is home for a few days.

Mary and Margaret Hartsock visited with Helen Clark on Sunday; ask them about the cherries.

Quite a number of people from Stormstown attended the festival at Fillmore on Saturday evening.

WOODWARD.

Mrs. John Hockenberry, of Axer, and Mrs. James Miller, of Proserstown, were seen in town one day last week; this was a rare treat for their friends as they are seldom seen here. Come again.

Geo. Chapman has frequently been seen walking about town; notwithstanding his eighty-four years he is hale and hearty.

F. E. Wetzler is improving his home by building an addition on the rear end; after experiencing some trouble with a concrete wall, he is now replacing same with brick.

Geo. Chapman, Mrs. Harry Hockenberry, Mrs. H. Shultz, Miss Anna Shultz and Robert Hockenberry comprised a fishing party one day last week. Of course they were lucky, but what scared Bob nearly out of his No. sevens last winter is still a problem unsolved. Ask him about it.

The recent rains here have been appreciated.

Miss Emma Smith, from this place, Sundayed with her sister, Mrs. F. Flinn, of Altoona.

The surveyors have been through town again.

Mrs. Jane Shultz recently purchased the vacant lot adjoining their home from James McMullen. She is also improving her home by having same painted; it looks fine.

Miss May Shultz, from Osceola Mills, Sundayed at her home here.

Preaching services which have been in progress at the Presbyterian church have been well attended.

Linn Bradley, who is employed by Schab on the stone pile along the state road, has recently been nursing a sore hand which he had injured.

John Flack, residing at McCoy's Forge, one of our esteemed citizens, has been on the sick list for some time; hope for his speedy recovery.

WOODWARD.

Miss Hazel Mingle, of State College, is spending a few days at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norris.

Mrs. T. G. Lomison and three children, accompanied by her husband returned home after a two weeks visit with parents and other relatives.

Owing to a pleasant evening a large crowd attended the festival at this place.

Harry Gummo, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Gummo, of Hunters Park.

WOODWARD.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutz and children, of Bellefonte, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Barger, on Sunday.

Mrs. John Ausman and little daughter Virginia, of Sunbury, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Doughman, part of last week.

Miss Susan Rossman fell and dislocated her shoulder on Saturday. Under the skillful treatment of Dr. Huff, she is getting along very nicely.

Mrs. Miles Doughman was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday for treatment; her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Joseph Griffith, of Lewistown, is spending some time with his wife and daughter here.

Mrs. Adam Schroyer, of Milledale, visited her brothers, Elmer and Edward Bryan.

Calvin Bathurst has some notion of raising his fruit in his garden, Ha Ha.

Mrs. Sadie Larimer was the guest of Mrs. H. R. Curtin over Sunday.

Mrs. Ray Lutz and son, of Bellefonte, are spending a few weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bathurst.

Mrs. George Bryan, who has been on the sick list, is convalescing.

Mrs. Harry Cop, of Tyrone, is visiting her many friends in this place.

Mrs. James Smetzer and children are visiting the former's mother and sister, Mrs. John Riley and Mrs. Wm. Prince.

WOODWARD.

Jonas Stine met with a very sad accident while working at the saw mill at Waddle; he had his hand so badly hurt that he had to have it amputated. He has the sympathy of every one.

Miss Freda Gummo visited at the home of her uncle, Andrew Gummo, G. B. Gummo and W. G. Furst received some fine pigs from Rushsylvania, Ohio. They are certainly nice ones and full blooded O. I. C's.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Huey transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday.

Miss Helen Clark is down from Juniata. We are all glad to see her. Ida Daugherty is working for Mrs. Clemson.

Clarence Peters spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Wade Lytle's; how about it, Edythe?

Mary Rust went to West Chester last Tuesday but when she got to Stormstown she stopped at the minister's and had her name changed to Hall. We wish them a long life of happiness.

Mrs. Judson Williams is home for a few days.

Mary and Margaret Hartsock visited with Helen Clark on Sunday; ask them about the cherries.

Quite a number of people from Stormstown attended the festival at Fillmore on Saturday evening.

WOODWARD.

Mrs. John Hockenberry, of Axer, and Mrs. James Miller, of Proserstown, were seen in town one day last week; this was a rare treat for their friends as they are seldom seen here. Come again.

Geo. Chapman has frequently been seen walking about town; notwithstanding his eighty-four years he is hale and hearty.

F. E. Wetzler is improving his home by building an addition on the rear end; after experiencing some trouble with a concrete wall, he is now replacing same with brick.

Geo. Chapman, Mrs. Harry Hockenberry, Mrs. H. Shultz, Miss Anna Shultz and Robert Hockenberry comprised a fishing party one day last week. Of course they were lucky, but what scared Bob nearly out of his No. sevens last winter is still a problem unsolved. Ask him about it.

The recent rains here have been appreciated.

Miss Emma Smith, from this place, Sundayed with her sister, Mrs. F. Flinn, of Altoona.

The surveyors have been through town again.

Mrs. Jane Shultz recently purchased the vacant lot adjoining their home from James McMullen. She is also improving her home by having same painted; it looks fine.

Miss May Shultz, from Osceola Mills, Sundayed at her home here.

Preaching services which have been in progress at the Presbyterian church have been well attended.

Linn Bradley, who is employed by Schab on the stone pile along the state road, has recently been nursing a sore hand which he had injured.

John Flack, residing at McCoy's Forge, one of our esteemed citizens, has been on the sick list for some time; hope for his speedy recovery.

WOODWARD.

Miss Hazel Mingle, of State College, is spending a few days at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norris.

Mrs. T. G. Lomison and three children, accompanied by her husband returned home after a two weeks visit with parents and other relatives.

Owing to a pleasant evening a large crowd attended the festival at this place.

Harry Gummo, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Gummo, of Hunters Park.

WOODWARD.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutz and children, of Bellefonte, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Barger, on Sunday.

Mrs. John Ausman and little daughter Virginia, of Sunbury, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Doughman, part of last week.

Miss Susan Rossman fell and dislocated her shoulder on Saturday. Under the skillful treatment of Dr. Huff, she is getting along very nicely.

Mrs. Miles Doughman was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday for treatment; her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Joseph Griffith, of Lewistown, is spending some time with his wife and daughter here.

Mrs. Adam Schroyer, of Milledale, visited her brothers, Elmer and Edward Bryan.

Calvin Bathurst has some notion of raising his fruit in his garden, Ha Ha.

Mrs. Sadie Larimer was the guest of Mrs. H. R. Curtin over Sunday.

Mrs. Ray Lutz and son, of Bellefonte, are spending a few weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bathurst.

Mrs. George Bryan, who has been on the sick list, is convalescing.

Mrs. Harry Cop, of Tyrone, is visiting her many friends in this place.

Mrs. James Smetzer and children are visiting the former's mother and sister, Mrs. John Riley and Mrs. Wm. Prince.

WOODWARD.

Jonas Stine met with a very sad accident while working at the saw mill at Waddle; he had his hand so badly hurt that he had to have it amputated. He has the sympathy of every one.

Miss Freda Gummo visited at the home of her uncle, Andrew Gummo, G. B. Gummo and W. G. Furst received some fine pigs from Rushsylvania, Ohio. They are certainly nice ones and full blooded O. I. C's.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Huey transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday.

Miss Helen Clark is down from Juniata. We are all glad to see her. Ida Daugherty is working for Mrs. Clemson.

Clarence Peters spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Wade Lytle's; how about it, Edythe?

Mary Rust went to West Chester last Tuesday but when she got to Stormstown she stopped at the minister's and had her name changed to Hall. We wish them a long life of happiness.

Mrs. Judson Williams is home for a few days.

Mary and Margaret Hartsock visited with Helen Clark on Sunday; ask them about the cherries.

Quite a number of people from Stormstown attended the festival at Fillmore on Saturday evening.

WOODWARD.

Mrs. John Hockenberry, of Axer, and Mrs. James Miller, of Proserstown, were seen in town one day last week; this was a rare treat for their friends as they are seldom seen here. Come again.

Geo. Chapman has frequently been seen walking about town; notwithstanding his eighty-four years he is hale and hearty.

F. E. Wetzler is improving his home by building an addition on the rear end; after experiencing some trouble with a concrete wall, he is now replacing same with brick.

Geo. Chapman, Mrs. Harry Hockenberry, Mrs. H. Shultz, Miss Anna Shultz and Robert Hockenberry comprised a fishing party one day last week. Of course they were lucky, but what scared Bob nearly out of his No. sevens last winter is still a problem unsolved. Ask him about it.

The recent rains here have been appreciated.

Miss Emma Smith, from this place, Sundayed with her sister, Mrs. F. Flinn, of Altoona.

The surveyors have been through town again.

Mrs. Jane Shultz recently purchased the vacant lot adjoining their home from James McMullen. She is also improving her home by having same painted; it looks fine.

Miss May Shultz, from Osceola Mills, Sundayed at her home here.

Preaching services which have been in progress at the Presbyterian church have been well attended.

Linn Bradley, who is employed by Schab on the stone pile along the state road, has recently been nursing a sore hand which he had injured.

John Flack, residing at McCoy's Forge, one of our esteemed citizens, has been on the sick list for some time; hope for his speedy recovery.

WOODWARD.

Miss Hazel Mingle, of State College, is spending a few days at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norris.

Mrs. T. G. Lomison and three children, accompanied by her husband returned home after a two weeks visit with parents and other relatives.

Owing to a pleasant evening a large crowd attended the festival at this place.

Harry Gummo, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Gummo, of Hunters Park.

WOODWARD.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutz and children, of Bellefonte, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Barger, on Sunday.

Mrs. John Ausman and little daughter Virginia, of Sunbury, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Doughman, part of last week.

Miss Susan Rossman fell and dislocated her shoulder on Saturday. Under the skillful treatment of Dr. Huff, she is getting along very nicely.

Mrs. Miles Doughman was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday for treatment; her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Joseph Griffith, of Lewistown, is spending some time with his wife and daughter here.

Mrs. Adam Schroyer, of Milledale, visited her brothers, Elmer and Edward Bryan.

Calvin Bathurst has some notion of raising his fruit in his garden, Ha Ha.

Mrs. Sadie Larimer was the guest of Mrs. H. R. Curtin over Sunday.

Mrs. Ray Lutz and son, of Bellefonte, are spending a few weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bathurst.

Mrs. George Bryan, who has been on the sick list, is convalescing.

Mrs. Harry Cop, of Tyrone, is visiting her many friends in this place.

Mrs. James Smetzer and children are visiting the former's mother and sister, Mrs. John Riley and Mrs. Wm. Prince.

WOODWARD.

Jonas Stine met with a very sad accident while working at the saw mill at Waddle; he had his hand so badly hurt that he had to have it amputated. He has the sympathy of every one.

Miss Freda Gummo visited at the home of her uncle, Andrew Gummo, G. B. Gummo and W. G. Furst received some fine pigs from Rushsylvania, Ohio. They are certainly nice ones and full blooded O. I. C's.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Huey transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday.

Miss Helen Clark is down from Juniata. We are all glad to see her. Ida Daugherty is working for Mrs. Clemson.

Clarence Peters spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Wade Lytle's; how about it, Edythe?

Mary Rust went to West Chester last Tuesday but when she got to Stormstown she stopped at the minister's and had her name changed to Hall. We wish them a long life of happiness.

Mrs. Judson Williams is home for a few days.

Mary and Margaret Hartsock visited with Helen Clark on Sunday; ask them about the cherries.

Quite a number of people from Stormstown attended the festival at Fillmore on Saturday evening.

WOODWARD.

Mrs. John Hockenberry, of Axer, and Mrs. James Miller, of Proserstown, were seen in town one day last week; this was a rare treat for their friends as they are seldom seen here. Come again.

Geo. Chapman has frequently been seen walking about town; notwithstanding his eighty-four years he is hale and hearty.

F. E. Wetzler is improving his home by building an addition on the rear end; after experiencing some trouble with a concrete wall, he is now replacing same with brick.

Geo. Chapman, Mrs. Harry Hockenberry, Mrs. H. Shultz, Miss Anna Shultz and Robert Hockenberry comprised a fishing party one day last week. Of course they were lucky, but what scared Bob nearly out of his No. sevens last winter is still a problem unsolved. Ask him about it.

The recent rains here have been appreciated.

Miss Emma Smith, from this place, Sundayed with her sister, Mrs. F. Flinn, of Altoona.

The surveyors have been through town again.

Mrs. Jane Shultz recently purchased the vacant lot adjoining their home from James McMullen. She is also improving her home by having same painted; it looks fine.

Miss May Shultz, from Osceola Mills, Sundayed at her home here.

Preaching services which have been in progress at the Presbyterian church have been well attended.

Linn Bradley, who is employed by Schab on the stone pile along the state road, has recently been nursing a sore hand which he had injured.

John Flack, residing at McCoy's Forge, one of our esteemed citizens, has been on the sick list for some time; hope for his speedy recovery.

WOODWARD.

Miss Hazel Mingle, of State College, is spending a few days at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norris.

Mrs. T. G. Lomison and three children, accompanied by her husband returned home after a two weeks visit with parents and other relatives.

Owing to a pleasant evening a large crowd attended the festival at this place.

Harry Gummo, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Gummo, of Hunters Park.

WOODWARD.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutz and children, of Bellefonte, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Barger, on Sunday.

Mrs. John Ausman and little daughter Virginia, of Sunbury, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Doughman, part of last week.

Miss Susan Rossman fell and dislocated her shoulder on Saturday. Under the skillful treatment of Dr. Huff, she is getting along very nicely.

Mrs. Miles Doughman was taken to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday for treatment; her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Joseph Griffith, of Lewistown, is spending some time with his wife and daughter here.

Mrs. Adam Schroyer, of Milledale, visited her brothers, Elmer and Edward Bryan.

Calvin Bathurst has some notion of raising his fruit in his garden, Ha Ha.

Mrs. Sadie Larimer was the guest of Mrs. H. R. Curtin over Sunday.

Mrs. Ray Lutz and son, of Bellefonte, are spending a few weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bathurst.

Mrs. George Bryan, who has been on the sick list, is convalescing.

Mrs. Harry Cop, of Tyrone, is visiting her many friends in this place.

Mrs. James Smetzer and children are visiting the former's mother and sister, Mrs. John Riley and Mrs. Wm. Prince.

WOODWARD.

Jonas Stine met with a very sad accident while working at the saw mill at Waddle; he had his hand so badly hurt that he had to have it amputated. He has the sympathy of every one.

Miss Freda Gummo visited at the home of her uncle, Andrew Gummo, G. B. Gummo and W. G. Furst received some fine pigs from Rushsylvania, Ohio. They are certainly nice ones and full blooded O. I. C's.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Huey transacted business in Bellefonte on Saturday.

Miss Helen Clark is down from Juniata. We are all glad to see her. Ida Daugherty is working for Mrs. Clemson.

Clarence Peters spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Wade Lytle's; how about it, Edythe?

Mary Rust went to West Chester last Tuesday but when she got to Stormstown she stopped at the minister's and had her name changed to Hall. We wish them a long life of happiness.

Mrs. Judson Williams is home for a few days