REBERSBURG.

Many can hardly wait for the next With the Chuches. issue of the Democrat.

Miss Mary Bright, who spent a very successful term at the Conservatory of Music, Warren, O. is at home again.

Miss Mary Meyer returned from Williamsport where she was one of the maids of honor at the wedding of their friend, Miss McCart.

Every one was delighted that Woodrow Wilson won. He is considered a sure winner in November. Floyd Gramly, the machinist, returned on Saturday from Lewisburg, where he spent four weeks in auto

The Misses Wetzel visited Miss Ethel Wolfe Harter and other friends the past two weeks.

William Weaver, of East Pittsburg, visited his wife and children last

Mrs. Sallie Styers visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shultz. Artist Stover made 1000 views of Rebersburg, Millheim Gap and other scenes recently, which our merchants

John Spangler, of Tylersville, for an after-supper walk, comes across the mountain and returns swiftly.

They say millionaire Tom. Harter will have a telephone to Rebersburg from Tylersville. "Tom" can have the earth, if he wants it. Great sympathy is expressed for the family of Reuben D. Bierly, during his severe and prolonged illness. When a minister of Christ forgets the collection three times successively, it is proof positive that his mind is absorbed with "things celestial" and not "things terrestial". Sabe? W. J. Carlin, Esq., has taken a pile of oil and gas leases for the Centre County Oil and Gas Co. Whilst this year's wheat crop does not stand thick in straw the heads

Mrs. Minnie Wolfe Brungart and ten. children, of Selinsgrove, are visiting with Mrs. John Harter and Mrs. Mary Frank.

The lillies of the Sholl lawn shed their fragrance abroad like the gen-tle aroma of the Elysian fields. Miss Lodie Weber, of Pittsburg, is visiting relatives. The festival of the Methodists, at Smullton, took the cake, financially, but that collision between the Millheim and Rebersburg sports came near upsetting the cream crock of brotherly love. John Stover, on Wm. Bair's farm, is the earliest bird of all. He is up before the lark—3 a. m. daily. He ought to catch the worm of wealth,

Dr. Harvey Miller reports an unusual frequency of milk fever in fresh cows. Mr. Jim Zeigler lost a valuable cow from this disease and some others narrowly escaped. The Republican mix-up between "Billy" and "Teddy" has put our Cephas into a box, now. We'll tell him how to get out, in a neighborly way. Be for Woodrow and you'll have an row to hoe.

Sidney Krumrine is suffering poignantly from injury internally, which may necessitate an operation. It resulted from lifting a heavy wagon

ROCK FORGE-Benner Twp. We are having very fine hay weather, but the gardens are all drying up with the heat. Rev. Eminhizer, from Ohlo, is visiting here the past week with his son, William Eminhizer. Berley Walters bought a fine driving horse, also a bran new buggy. Now girls, as this is leap year, this will be your chance. It is a bliss to miss a kiss, also to miss a buggy ride; now take the chance, at the first glance, and lay the walking fel-

Positively end Saturday, July 13th. An Honest Confession is Good For My Business. Being perfectly frank with the public is my hobby, and believe me, you've never yet failed me in a crisis! No one can accuse me of dodging an issue, or failing to face a condition honestly and squarely and that reputation is no little part of my success. You know what a season this has been! Facing the Crisis of My Business. A few weeks ago I was absolutely forced to slash into prices as I or no other merchant ever slashed honest prices before in order to Raise Cash Quickly. Some term this straight forward announcement as "sensational," and I have been criticised for facing this crisis as I am. Call it sensational if you wish, but the cold, hard fact remains that right now.
