FISHERMEN SHOULD KNOW.

Judge Albright in Decision Defines Trespassing and Public Streams.
Bellefonte has a large number of fishermen and it is almost daily that some of them seek streams to indulge in the sport. There are ome things they should know concerning streams they fish and they can be enlightened by a decision handed down by Judge Albright, of Lehigh county, in a case before him of three fishermen for fishing in violation of the state laws. They were fined a total of $116.79. Judge Albright, in his decision in the case, outlines the rights of fishermen in fishing a stream and when become trespassers. He says: "A fisherman is guilty of trespass who enters a stream and fishes without the permission of the land owner, although he wades the stream and does not touch dry land." Another point he brought out was "the fact that the state has stocked the stream with fish does not make it a public

Any fishermen in Centre county is likely to encounter just such conditions in fishing streams and by heed-ing the law as laid down by Judge Albright will escape trouble.

Cost $7,200 to Discover America. Accounts have reached this country from Madrid of the discovery at Palos, Spain, of a series of old royal account books giving details of the outlay made by Columbus on his expedition to the new world. The quipment of his little fleet cost 14,000 pesetas and the personal exincluding wages, of Columbus and his crew during the eight months' oyage reached a total of 22,000 pesetas. The grand total spent for the discovery of America, therefore, was 36,000 pesetas, or about $7,200.

Autoes For the State. The State Highway Department has contracted for the purchase of fifteen automobiles to be used by the inspectors and engineers in traveling about the State to inspect the conplated this summer. It is considered more economical to use the motor car than to travel by rail and much more work can be done and ground covered more rapidly. Besides, it enables inspectors to go to places distant from the railroads at small cost. It is said that the autos will
