

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Mrs. E. F. Barlet and three children, of Altoona, are visiting friends in Bellefonte this week. Burns H. Crider left for Atlantic City last week to spend ten days with headquarters at the Chalfonts. Mr. and Mrs. E. Harper accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Hart, autoed to Lock Haven on Tuesday. Mrs. Geo. Shapiro, of DuBois, is visiting her brother, Harry Cohn, and other relatives in this place at present. Arthur Dickinson, of this place, expects to leave today or the next for Detroit, Mich., where he will be employed. Farmers are so busy with their harvest these days that very few of them are seen in Bellefonte, except on very important business. Miss Emma Webb returned to her home in Bloomsburg on Monday, after a five-weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Hart, on Bishop street. The ladies of the United Brethren church will hold a social and sale on Saturday evening, August 3rd, in the room adjoining the church. The public is invited. This evening the Lyric will present a three-reel feature film entitled "The Way to Ruin." With the addition of other films, the Lyric promises a big show tonight. Merchant A. C. Mingle is happy since he has his Overland touring car out on the road again as it was in the hospital for six weeks or more, and the old Cadillac was again called into service. Miss Anna Joyce, of Jersey City, who had been visiting in Tyrone for the past two weeks, spent the first few days of this week at the Isaac Thomas home in this place, returning to her home in New Jersey on Tuesday evening. Rev. A. W. Irvine, of Altoona, will preach a ten minute gospel sermon in the Olive Branch chapel next Sabbath, at 3:30 p. m. sharp, on the golden text of the Sunday school lesson for the day. A cordial gospel invitation is extended to all to attend. Edward K. Rhoads and sister, Miss Rebecca, departed on Wednesday morning for a twenty-days' sojourn in the sea shore. They intend to visit in Philadelphia for a brief time and then seek one of the more quiet health resorts along the coast for the balance of their stay. Henry Packer, a young lad whose parents reside at Curtin, was brought to the Bellefonte hospital last week to be treated for a severe cut on the back of one of his legs. The boy had been in the field with his father, and was mowing grass with a scythe, and in some manner got within range of the keen blade, with the above mentioned result. Miss Winifred M. Gates is enjoying a two-weeks' vacation from her stenography duties by visiting among friends and relatives in Tyrone, Altoona and Williamsport. She departed on Monday afternoon, accompanied by Miss Maude Johnston, and for the next few weeks the latter will divide the time visiting friends in Philadelphia, Muncy, and Curwensville. The Tressler family reunion will be held one day earlier than announced in this paper last week. Next Wednesday, the 7th, has been decided upon as more propitious, and will thus enable a number of friends to be present, who otherwise could not have been there on the original date. These films are only secured at extra expense, but as the price of admission at the scenic is never more than five cents, you get the benefit. Last Thursday Mrs. Joseph Ceaders had a bad fall at her home on Allegheny street. She was on the second floor on her way down stairs and at the first landing she tripped or made a misstep and fell down the full length of the stairs. She sustained some severe body bruises and since then has been confined to her room. It is thought that no serious injuries resulted from the accident, and at this time she is much improved, but it will be some time until she will be able to be about with her accustomed activity. James Reed or "Dipper" as he is best known, was the victim of an accident on Monday night that came very near ending in a serious tragedy. During the evening, while in an intoxicated condition, Reed went down to the Central railroad station and sat or lay down on the turn-table, used by the railroad company for their engines at this place. As in the usual custom, when the night train arrived the engine was run onto the turn-table, and the result was that Reed was thrown off. When picked up it was seen that he was bleeding from a bad scalp wound and it was decided at once to have him removed to the hospital. This, however, Reed objected to, and he was taken to the office of Dr. Rodgers, who examined his head for any possible fractures, but a cut of several inches in length was found to be the extent of his injuries. On Monday morning an extremely vicious leak in the large water main along south Water street, just opposite the Bush Arcade, was dug up and repaired by the water superintendent. The water had been wasting at this point for a number of weeks past, but instead of coming to the surface of the street, it worked its way through the stone wall into Spring creek, and thus remained unnoticed. During the time the repairs were being made, the water supply was shut off all over the town, which it is presumed was entirely necessary, but in a great many cases brought forth storms of disparagement from residents who had no previous warning. There is no fault to find with the department in closing off the water supply when it becomes necessary, as it was in this case, but a scheme of some sort should be devised, and made public, for giving all the residents warning. Why not give a number of sharp blows of the fire whistle ten or fifteen minutes before the water is turned off.

The Misses Anna and Caroline Valentine arrived home on Tuesday from an extended trip abroad. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Markle spent Sunday at the home of the latter's brother, Henry Noll, at Peru. G. S. Clements, the sewing machine man on Bishop street, has a ginseng advertisement in this issue. Miss Myra McCulley left on Monday for Dewart, Pa., to visit for a week with Mr. and Mrs. John Bauer. James Houser and wife, of Peru, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haag in this place. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Foust, of Altoona, were arrivals in Bellefonte on Tuesday afternoon for a visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rine, on West High street. Fred Landis, who has been working at Baltimore for the past two months, was an arrival home on Tuesday. He still denies having met with any matrimonial adventures. Dale Musser, of Bellefonte, and brother Byron, of Millheim, returned home on Monday after spending a week with each of their uncles—P. J. Weamer, at Altoona, and U. G. Ulrich, at Pittsburg. Rev. W. L. Foster, of Jenkins-town, Pa., preached two good sermons in the Presbyterian church on Sunday. Mrs. Foster, at present is visiting at her former home in Stormstown. Miss Anna Belle Kurtz, of Berlin, Somerset county, who spent the past two weeks at the Kurtz home on High street, left for home on Tuesday. Miss Hattie Hart accompanied her for a visit of several weeks at that place. Newton H. Tressler, of Pittsburg, spent a few days last week at the home of his father, William Tressler, in Bush's Addition. The young man holds a good position as book-keeper and collector for large firm, and is getting along splendidly. James A. Stine, the blind man, who has been making his home with his son-in-law, Miles Heaton, at Yarnell, came to Bellefonte on Saturday for a visit with his son, Al Stine. He expects to go to State College to visit another son, Harvey, in a few days. Harvey Shaffer, proprietor of the Shaffer Hardware store, departed on Sunday for a combined business and pleasure trip to Philadelphia. In his absence the business was carefully looked after by Charles Shaffer, who is right up to snuff when it comes to selling hardware. Howard Stover has been on the sick list for the past several weeks and consequently has been compelled to lay aside his duties at the Bellefonte Match Factory. Howard is boss of the big printing press at that plant, and as a usual thing when he is not there the wheels do not hum. Nevin Corman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Corman, of this place, returned on Tuesday night from Gettysburg, where he had been camping as a member of Co. L, left Wednesday evening with his wife for Washington, D. C., on a brief vacation trip before returning to their home at Renovo. Rev. A. W. Weaver, of the United Evangelical church, Bellefonte, is attending the camp-meetings this week of that denomination at Central Oak Heights, and at Island Grove, Mexico, Mifflin county. The Reverend expects to be gone about ten days, and during this time Mrs. Weaver will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hollibaugh, who are ill, at Oriental, Juniata county. Rev. C. W. Winey, of the United Brethren church, went to Aaronsburg on Monday and in the evening preached the graduating sermon to a class of twenty Sunday school workers who have finished their course in teacher training. This method of preparing teachers for Sunday school work is conceded to be one of the most important movements of the churches have ever inaugurated. J. C. Derr, the bill-poster, started on Tuesday morning for the country districts with a wagon-load of paper and paste that will be used in letting our rural neighbors know that Bellefonte is going to have one of the best fairs ever held here, on September 3, 4, 5 and 6. As the event will be held a month earlier than in previous years, weather conditions will no doubt prove more favorable than heretofore. F. W. Crider has come back to his former speed; he now is traveling over our streets with horse and buggy as of yore as his new electric car is out of commission. Believing that oil is cheaper than machinery he "soused" some of the bearings on the electric motor until the motor was flooded with lubricant and the coils short circuited or burned out and the thing quit until the electrical apparatus can be repaired. This is a case of killing a good thing with too much attention. Most autos are ruined from the lack of oil. Ambrose Ray, of Bellefonte, who since childhood has been almost entirely deaf, and for the past several years has been gradually losing the sight of his eyes, in spite of these misfortunes, still retaining his optimistic views of life. Although he can not see to read any more, he has not given up in despair, but on the contrary is learning to read by another method—that of the Moon system, or finger reading. This method of printing for the blind is done by having the letters raised, so that the reader, by passing the fingers over them, can read as quickly as a person with good eyesight could do. Mr. Ray deserves credit for his pluck. Next Thursday, August 8th, a picnic will be held at Hunters Park under the auspices of the Olive Branch Bible School. A cordial invitation is extended to all who can accept it to attend. The train will leave Bellefonte at 8:45 a. m. Anyone in Coleville who cannot buy round-trip tickets will be provided for by calling on Supts. Jas. Rote or J. K. Cole. There will be a common table for all Coleville families and preachers, and all the rest will be at lunch at other tables. Exercises especially interesting will begin at once on arrival at the park. Vocal and instrumental music, delightful games, and two surprises directly after dinner. Prizes will be given to all successful contestants except foot ball teams. If weather is unfavorable on Thursday the picnic will be held on Friday, and if that day should prove unfair, the weather prophets assure us that the atmospheric elements will interpose no hindrance on Saturday, Aug. 10.

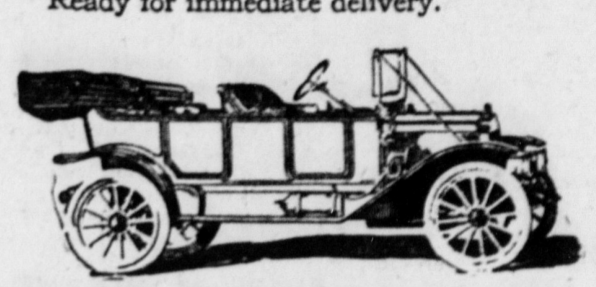

Consult us when you want job printing. That fishing season closed on Wednesday of this week. The seasons catch was far below the average. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boyce, of Clearfield, were guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harper at their residence on Howard street. The Phillipsburg Journal says: Mrs. Jennie Vaughn, of Bellefonte, who had been visiting her nephew, W. F. Carolus, went to Petersburg Monday afternoon to visit friends. Mrs. Ross Hickok and children were arrivals in Bellefonte on Wednesday afternoon from Bedford, where together with Mr. Hickok they had been spending the past two weeks. Miss Irene Pressel completed her three-years' training course in nursing at the Bellefonte hospital on Wednesday, and will hereafter devote her time to private nursing in and about Bellefonte. Mrs. H. L. Heckroth, of West Chester, is in Bellefonte as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Miles Walker, on Spring street. Mr. Heckroth is presently connected with the Grand Trust Company of Philadelphia. Miss Eudotia Adair, one of Bellefonte's oldest ladies, sustained a bad fall one day last week in which she received a number of severe bruises. The accident occurred while walking on the back porch of her home on east Linn street. John H. Reed left on the 1:05 afternoon train, Wednesday, for his annual summer visit with his two daughters, one of whom resides in Rochester and the other at Buffalo, New York. He expects to be gone a month or more. Mrs. A. C. Heverly, of this place, who has been a patient in the Lock Haven hospital for the past two weeks, during which time she underwent a minor operation, is expected to arrive home today. Her health has undergone a decided improvement. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sheehy, of Clearfield, spent part of the week in Bellefonte as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jackson, and renewing acquaintance with their many friends in this section. Mr. Sheehy was the former proprietor of the Garman House. William McMullen, of Johnstown, a former Bellefonte boy, and a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haag of this place, recently met with a misfortune in getting the large toe on one of his feet badly smashed a few days ago while at work in the Cambria Iron Works. Mrs. Edith Freedman and little daughter, Irene, of New York City, have been guests at the Holz home on High street the past week. Dr. Louis Freedman expects to join them later. Mrs. Freedman is the only daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Herman Holz, and her trips to Bellefonte are always an enjoyable visit to home. Mrs. William P. Rees and little daughter, Margaret, left for their home in Patton on Wednesday afternoon after a pleasant visit in this place at the home of Grandpa and Mrs. G. W. Rees, on Reynolds Avenue. Today Mr. and Mrs. Rees expect to have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hatten and Mrs. Ruth Jones, who will arrive in Mr. Hatten's touring car on an overland trip from their home at Wilkes-Barre. Little John Shope, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Reynolds Shope, of Newton street, had a narrow escape from drowning on Wednesday by falling from the Lewisburg railroad bridge, just above the passenger station. He was sitting on the bridge fishing at the time, and leaning over too far, he plunged into the water beneath, which is quite deep at some places. A young man whose name we did not learn, arrived on the scene in time to rescue the boy, after he had been in the water for several minutes. Emedeo Torselli, the High street shoemaker, was in the evening for New York, and in the course of a few days will sail from that city for Italy, his native land. Renewing old associations will occupy at least a month of his time, and on his return he will bring with him his wife and family whom he left in that country a number of years ago when he first came to this country. Emedeo is a naturalized citizen and for a number of years has been a resident of Bellefonte, where he has accumulated considerable property. This week a rumor was current on the streets that two of our leading citizens were about to change proprietors—that Fred Meester, of Altoona, was coming back to succeed Henry Kline, the present landlord at the Haag House; and that Richard Sheehy, of Clearfield, would succeed Mr. Davis at the Garman House. Direct inquiry was made at both places and each of the present proprietors expressed much surprise to hear of such rumors. Both declared that was the first that they had heard of any such deals. Strange what stories do get about! Tuesday noon Louis Grauer stepped off the train at Bellefonte and received a hearty welcome home from his family and friends. About five months ago he left here for Philadelphia where he underwent an operation, and later went to the famous Mayo brothers in Rochester, Mo., for further treatment where he underwent several operations. In all he was away over five months, and it was a great surprise to find that he returned looking so well and apparently fully recovered. Mr. Grauer's many friends throughout the county will be glad to hear of his restoration to health. On Friday evening William Winton, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winton, while fishing along Logan branch above the Nitzing Furnace, was bitten by a large dog owned by a Hungarian family. The animal was a watch dog kept at the car where the Hungarians were housed who have been engaged all summer in taking out slag for the Eys-Shoemaker Company. Young Winton was knocked down by the animal, which bit him on the thigh and above the knee cap. The boy was taken at once to a physician who cauterized his wounds, and it is now thought that no serious results will follow. The family who owned the dog at once took steps to prevent the authorities from getting it. They had their household goods packed and on Monday departed for Philadelphia. However, the dog was discovered at the station on Monday morning by the police, and it was taken to Squire Henry Furnace, to be held until the auctioneer, Constable William Irvin later took it out and shot it. The head was preserved and is sent away later for examination to determine whether the dog had symptoms of rabies.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Morrow, of Altoona, were Sunday guests at the Kurtz residence on High street. Miss Vida Wetzel, one of the nurses at the Bellefonte hospital will leave today to spend her vacation at her home in Stoytown, Pa. Miss Carrie Strunk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strunk, of Howard street, was a Saturday guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Kelleher, in this place. Richard Shalzer, Miss Lou Shalzer, of Lewistown; Rev. Welsh and his father, of York, Pa., were among those who attended the funeral of Chas. Eckenroth on Tuesday. Charles Rockey, Leo Sholl and Ned Heverly were a trio of Bellefonte young men who drove to Akron, Ohio, on Wednesday by the alluring prospects of good positions. Editor Geo. B. Wagonseller, publisher of the Middleburg, Pa., Post with his auto and party were in town on Saturday on their way to Philadelphia. Mr. Wagonseller is a progressive publisher of a lively weekly paper in Snyder county that sends out an edition of over 5000 each week and is prospering. He is a "Bullmoose" Republican. Company L arrived home from their encampment at Gettysburg on Tuesday night about midnight, on a special train. The boys had a royal good time and thoroughly enjoyed their outing, but were glad enough to get back to civil life again. There were very few "scars" displayed, considering the "fierce fighting" they were subjected to. We do wish that some member of the street committee would see to it that the sunken brick pavement about those iron plates is raised to make it fit for vehicles to pass over. The thing is a darn nuisance, a miserable job, and an eyesore. To say the least, it is a reflection on the whole council to allow such things to exist, and especially on the diamond. The Walker, who is employed as a civil engineer by the New York Central Railroad Company, with headquarters at Albany, N. Y., was an arrival home on Wednesday morning to spend his vacation period with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Miles Walker. While Lee had intended deferring his vacation until a little later, his business duties so adjusted themselves that he was enabled to leave at once, much to the gratification of his many friends in this place. On Wednesday our genial friend Cephas Gramley was in town on business and while in our office to attend to some business, took occasion to remind us that the Centre Democrat was a little harsh on him. Now all that we did was to intimate that he was one of Teddy's Bull Moose, and he would neither affirm nor deny the point, so we will let it go at that. While here Mr. Gramley received the news that his mother-in-law in Rebersburg had suddenly died that morning and he returned home in the afternoon train. THE HUNTERS PARK PICNIC. The members of the Olive Branch Union Bible school extend a cordial invitation to all who can unite with them at Hunters Park, Thursday, August 8th. More than one preacher will be present. Praising, playing, social talking, repeating the Beatitudes in unison and lurching will be the order for the day; and possibly a ten minute sermon. A copy of the Newton's elegant little book "The Way to Success" will be freely given to every Coleville and U. R. family represented in attendance on that occasion. Books and other prizes will be presented to all successful contestants in two interesting games. The Railroad Company will kindly grant round-trip passes to all preachers and their families. Any poor persons in Coleville who cannot pay for tickets, will be provided for. If the weather is unfavorable, the picnic will be held on Friday or Saturday following Thursday the 8th. ROMOLA. Miss Daisy Mann spent Sunday with friends at Howard. Miss Grace Bennett spent several days last week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. John Miller. Mrs. Tipton and Maude Daley attended the moonlight picnic at Yarnell on Friday evening. Paul Miller, who has been on the sick list the past week, is somewhat improved at this writing. Messrs. Mark Robb and John Poor spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Helen Tipton at Yarnell. Miss Iva Zug, of Carlisle, is at present visiting at the home of her uncle, J. W. Oyler. Marriage Licenses. Clyde H. Ripka - Pleasant Gap Pearl Hazel - Pleasant Gap W. O. Mingle - Aaronsburg Flossie L. Stover - Aaronsburg A WARNING. He is a d--- liar, and you will find it out, if you have any dealing with him. I refer to a certain man who is traveling over Centre county telling all persons who have sewing machines to repair, not to take them to "Clements on Bishop street, Bellefonte" as "the charges from $1 to $5 for only a half-hour's work." Now this is a false black lie. I seldom get a repair job that at the most exceeds $2.50, while the most of them average from $1.25 to $2.50, and not over $3 with shuttle. Don't exchange your old machine for what this agent represents as new—for they are only old machines done over—just like some men are done over in church. This reminds me of a story I heard of a young man who went out to preach, and instead, got to spooning and kissing all the attractive women of his flock, and they kicked him out of the church. The next Sunday he came to church and after the services Old Aunt Nancy invited him for dinner. On the way he told Nancy how Old Nancy was gossiping about him and called him a "Juno-eyed Polliparrot." Nancy told him not to worry and coyly remarked that she always "liked children" but that she only had a monkey and a parrot. As the preacher entered the door, while Nancy was cleaning her shoes, what a sight he beheld—blood and feathers all over the room, and no monkey or parrot in sight! Aunt Nancy called the monkey and it came out from under the lounge, covered with blood. When poly saw the monkey, it exclaimed "We had one H--- of a time, while you was gone!" This is what that sewing machine agent will have before he gets out of Centre county. G. S. CLEMENTS, Bishop street, x31 Bellefonte.
