HOWARD.

An able man shows his spirit by gentle words and resolute actions; he is neither hot nor timid.

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

Methodist Episcopal—This will be Anti-Saloon League Field Day, and Professor Holtsapple of Juniata College, at Huntingdon, will speak in Howard at half past ten, and in Howard at half past two, and at Beech Creek at half past two, and at Beech Creek at half past seven.

The Reforms will also hold Anti-Saloon League meetings at Jacksonsville at half past ten and in Howard at half past seven and they will be addressed by Prof. Roy Knouse, of the Pennsylvania State College.

GETTYSBURG SPECIAL WILL STOP HERE

The Gettysburg Excursion train, advertised to leave Bellefonte at 5:30 next Sunday, (18th) morning, will reach Bellefonte by way of the Bald Eagle Valley, and will stop at Mill Hill, Beech Creek, Howard and Milesburg. It will reach Howard at 4:30 Sunday morning. These stops have been arranged by the courtesy of Supt. J. K. Ohnston, who had been informed that many of our people wanted to go. Agent W. L. Cooke, and Asst. Agent D. W. Holter were important factors in securing this convenience.

Because of much absence from home and an overplus of work, the Howard letter has placed this week's scribbles in the hands of two of his bright young friends, the Misses Dorothy Weber and Myrtle Pletcher, to whom he gladly accords credit for whatever scintillations of wit and wisdom may appear. He reserves for himself, however, the right to assume full responsibility for all the blunders, follies and mistakes which may happen—excepting, of course, the habitual ones made by the printer!

Miss Ada Bowes came home last week to spend her vacation.

Mrs. Jesse Leathers is visiting her home friends in Northumberland.

Bertha Schenck spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Pletcher.

Mr. Water Muffly, of Buffalo, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Muffly.

Rev. Father McKinney spent several days this week with his mother who is seriously ill.

Mr. Russell Gray and wife, of Detroit, Mich., spent Monday with Mrs. N. G. Pletcher.

B. Frank Strunk came from his work at Renovo for a Sunday visit with his family.

Mr. Marius Stitzer, of Easton, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Marius Miner.

Miss Rebecca Lucas entertained Mr. Edward Weissinger, of Altoona, a few days this week.

Miss Genevieve Pletcher went to Clearfield on Friday to visit her uncle, Forrest Pletcher.

Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Kurtz are entertaining their niece, Miss Kathryn Kurtz, of Williamsport.

Miss Rosetta Yearick, of Jacksonsville, is spending a few days with her cousin, Marion Leathers.

H. J. Fulton and wife, of Conway, Beaver Co., are guests of their nephews, Carl McKinley and wife.

Let every one remember that this is the Schenck reunion year. The day will soon be here, Aug. 29th.

Mrs. Cameron Burnside, of Bellefonte, spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. Comerford.

Prof. and Mrs. J. C. Weirick, from Lock Haven, are spending some days with their home friends in Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cheesman, of Newark, N. J., are in Howard for a brief visit with their many friends.

The Misses Clara Kisting and Candice Leathers, of Snow Shoe, were guests of Miss Eva Neff over Sunday.

Miss Mabel Davis and Miss Elsie M. Wilson, of Pittsburg, are visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Lucas.

Miss Eva Neff was unfortunate enough to sprain her ankle in spite of which she hobbles around on a crutch.

Mrs. Samuel Bennisson and Miss Helen visited Mrs. Reed Worrick in Mackeyville on Wednesday and Thursday.

Little Paul Johnston celebrated his third birthday by giving a party to about a dozen of his young friends on Wednesday.

Dr. Louis Robb, pastor of the Reformed church, at Wording, is with his family, visiting the old home friends here.

Mrs. Huston McKibben, of Nittany, and Mrs. McCale, of Lima, Ohio, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowes last Monday.

Mrs. John Gillman and son Norman, of Washington, Pa., were last week's guests of Miss Thomas and Mrs. Clara Thomas.

Clarence Butler and daughter Eleanor, of Ardmore, were last week's visitors at the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Bower.

Miss Margaret Beck, daughter of W. H. Beck, of Nittany, spent a portion of last week with her relatives, M. L. Beck and Mrs. Decker.

During the temporary absence of J. D. Gledhill, dean of the operators in the tower, his place is acceptably filled by E. N. Harvey, of Lock Haven.

J. H. Stevenson, third trim man at the Unionville tower, came down Saturday to look over the railroad improvements in this portion of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Confer and family and the Misses Myrtle Robinson, Elsie Wilson and Mable Davis spent Sunday at Beech Creek with friends.

Clyde Swartz, of Nittany, and Ralph Swartz of Detroit, friends of "Bert" Pletcher in Detroit, spent Tuesday with "Bert's" mother, Mrs. N. G. Pletcher.

Charles R. McMurtrie, at Hotel Howard last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Weber Thomas and son and Mrs. Linn, of Camden, N. J., and Mr. P. Edwin Thomas, of Williamsport, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thomas.

Dean Johnston was given a birthday dinner by his grandma Johnston on Friday, and included his friend Miss Charlotte Kurtz whose birthday comes on the same day.

The Misses Myrtle Pletcher and Dorothy Weber are going to spend the latter part of this week and first of next week with their friend, Fred Taylor, of Chariton.

Amber Confer and Arthur Confer, of Yarnell, and Eva Neff and Russell Wagner, of Howard, drove to Penn's Cave on Sunday and report that they had a very good time.

Reuben Moore, who died at Pocatello, Idaho, Aug. 1st, was formerly a resident of Flemington, Clinton county, was a foster son of Mrs. Ira C. Johnson, now of Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. M'Dowell Bennisson and son John, Mrs. Bennisson's mother, Mrs. Vetter from Pittsburg, arrived Saturday evening for a two week's visit with Mrs. Samuel Bennisson.

The dewberry crop is a bumper one in this section; many people are out daily for the delightful fruit, particularly B. M. P., who has developed a great taste for it, and spends many hours berrying.

Mrs. S. H. Bennisson, the Misses Jane and Mary Bennisson, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Wilson were among the Howard folk who attended the soldiers' reunion at Agar's Park, at Mill Hill last Thursday.

Mrs. S. O. Knoll is enjoying the gathering at her home of her entire family: Mrs. George Halfpenny and children, of McGee's Mills, Clearfield Co., and the Misses Margaret, Bertha and Nannie, of Philadelphia.

Prof. W. G. Ross, assistant in agronomy at the Pennsylvania State College, was in town over Sunday. He has been appointed Superintendent of farms at the new penitentiary, and will prove himself a fine success. He is one of the capable young graduates of the institution.

Mr. E. Charles Faxon, who was married to Miss Margaret Hazel in Bellefonte last Thursday, is a brother of Mrs. Bullock and Mrs. Diehl, now residents of our town, brought his bride here for a short visit with them.

They left Wednesday morning on No. 50 to visit other sisters and friends in Jersey Shore, and go from there to Ocean City for their honeymoon. Our young "calitupians" gave them a jolly send off.

A camping party departed on Monday for Nippono Park, where they will camp two weeks. The Misses Nellie Weber, Anna and Josephine Muffly, Edith Weber, Lauretta Weber, Olive Gardner, Blanchard; Lulu, Stover, Mill Hill; Maude Keagle, Avis; Alice Spangler, Chicago; Blanche Lindemuth, Dubois, chaperon. Balsar Weber, Willard McDowell, Ronald Welch, Harry Wetzel, Chester, Maude, Lewis, Morrison, Jersey Shore, and Earl Leathers.

MOSHANNON. Eugene Smoke, of Cleveland, Ohio, is spending some time at his father's, John Smoke, of this place.

The state road is going on nicely. It makes quite an improvement on the drive from Snow Shoe to Phillipsburg.

Grandmother Yaude, who has been very poorly, is no better at this writing.

Margaret McKinney, who has been visiting at Big Run for about three weeks, has returned home.

Frances Holt has returned home after visiting at Woodland for a few weeks.

Mrs. Maggie Hanscomb and daughter Sara, and little grandson Oscar, spent a few days last week with Mrs. Hancock's sister-in-law, Mrs. Yaude, who is ill.

Mrs. Lucy Watkins and little sons Raymond and Arthur, of Pleasant Gap, spent a week with her brother, William Holt, of this place.

Myles Ward, of this place, has gone to Williamsport where he has found employment.

Thomas Kelly was seen passing through our village on Sunday. Some attraction, Tommy?

Mr. Wagner has purchased a new horse and buggy. Look out girls, for the buggy rides.

Charles Mayes, of Valley View, near Bellefonte, is spending a few weeks with his friends in Frog Hollow.

A couple of young men from Pine Glen, boarding at this place, went down town the other night and were run over by a girl. The boys were badly scared. Be careful, boys! O you Pine Glen kiddos!

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Walker and little daughter Virginia were callers on Mr. Lenie Fye's of Pine Glen, on Sunday.

Gilbert Zimmerman passed through here on Saturday on his way to see his best girl.

Harry Diern, who has been spending a few weeks with his brother James, has returned to his home in Altoona.

MOUNTAIN—Gregg Twp. Brownie McNit took a nice flock of sheep through here on his way to Mifflin county on Saturday.

A. C. Confer, with his men, is getting out the timber from the tract he bought from Ellis Confer.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eisenhuth, a son, on August 1st.

Mrs. Susan Mitchell, of Milroy, is staying at Sam Lingle's, at present.

John Lingle and Mrs. Clayton A. Lingle and two children, and Agnes Lingle and son, all left for Berrington Springs, Mich., to visit a few weeks with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eisenhuth spent Saturday with their son Howard.

Corn and potatoes are fine through here.

William Lingle and daughter Bertha, from Tusseyville, spent Sunday with friends here.

Robert Auman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ockernoff, and Mrs. Wilmer Kerstetter spent Sunday at Howard Eisenhuth's.

The festival at Paradise on Saturday evening was well attended.

See the inside pages of this issue where the leading merchants of Bellefonte have inaugurated a Special Bargain Sale day for next Wednesday, August 21st. You will be able to buy anything from hardware to drugs at specially reduced prices at the stores mentioned in the list. The last special sale advertised in this paper was a great success and many pleased purchasers returned home loaded down with more value for their money than they ever had heretofore.

UNIONVILLE.

The champion hen of America still takes her daily pilgrimages from the barn to the house and as she crosses over the porch and pops down under it to her nest of clay, she merrily sings, or seems to sing:

Now listen what I have to say To lay an egg each day I'm bent. 'Till Woodrow Wilson's President. A cloud seems to hang over our town—Sadie Emerick left on Monday for her temporary home in Pittsburg.

Mrs. Emerick is a very pronounced Republican but she takes the Centre Democrat at the same, and cautioned Domino before leaving not to fall in sending in the weekly items or, as she said, "it would go hard with him."

Talk about female voters, is the best of my knowledge and belief, there is not one suffragette in our town.

Merchant J. B. Stere is spending his vacation at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Alice Smith Barton, of Philadelphia is home for an indefinite stay.

Miss Catherine Buck, of Williamsport, is visiting friends in town.

We are glad to announce that Andy Tate, who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever for a long time, is now convalescing nicely.

Mrs. Bertha Laughry, of Philadelphia, with her bright little daughter Mildred, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Alexander.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Eckenroth packed their trunks, put on their best "tub and tucker" and bid themselves off on a two week's visit to friends in McKeesport and other western villages.

Lost, strayed or stolen—a young black and tan fox hound. A liberal reward will be paid for any information that will lead to his recovery. Send notice to Harry Quick, Milesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Sinle Hoy were Sunday visitors at the home of Thomas Eckenroth.

Mrs. Nannie Williams is having a handsome porch erected on the side of her house fronting the railroad.

Her handy husband, Abednigo, is the artist and when completed will add greatly to the appearance of their beautiful home.

Mrs. Oscar Snyder, nee Erhart, with her bright little boy, of Trafford City, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles R. Eckenroth.

John Bruss and wife, of Tyrone, are temporarily located with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bruss.

Mrs. Sarah Culp, nee Harper, of Youngstown, Ohio, is visiting her parents. Sara, before leaving Unionville, was one of the most popular young ladies in town and, it seems, the way she is being feted by her friends she has not lost any of her popularity.

Mrs. Bess Brown Wray, another former popular and accomplished young lady of our town, but now of Driftwood, is visiting friends in town.

Charley Bruss has a pretty half-grown grey fox which he keeps in a large wire cage. He placed in the coop with him a fat old hen for him to feed on, but instead of making a meal of her, he made a playmate of her and the two are having the time of their life. Funny, isn't it?

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. John Becker, of Philadelphia, arrived here on Monday and will visit indefinitely at the home of the Dr's grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Brugger. Dr. Becker is an accomplished solo singer and, it is announced that he will sing in the M. E. church on next Sunday evening.

He and Miss Laura Rumberger will also sing a duet. Everybody welcome.

Some people are glad to pay their taxes promptly, others put it off until the last moment. Irvin L. Morrison wanted to pay his taxes in the duplicate was in the hands of the collector. Lloyd Spotts was the first to pay his taxes, with Ed. Hauch a close second, one of the heaviest taxpayers, Mrs. Elizabeth Hogan, came in third.

Swat the flies! How can you when there are none. Never, in the history of the world have flies been so scarce as they have been this summer. There are, practically none is the verdict of many of our citizens. Is it so elsewhere? If so, why?

A heavy thunder storm accompanied with a heavy downpour of rain passed over this section on Sunday afternoon. Many apple trees were uprooted and limbs of trees broken off all over town.

HUBLERSBURG. Prof. Weaver, wife and family are visiting relatives at this place.

Mrs. Samuel Vonada, from Bellefonte, spent last Thursday with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Lee.

Mrs. Cart Carner is still very ill; we hope she will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney and daughter were entertained at Albert Spayd's, on Monday.

The stork passed through our town last Saturday morning and left little boy at Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Carner's.

Boyd Kramer, wife and family are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Andy Kramer.

Don't forget the festival at this place Saturday evening.

Miss Sarah Helpman is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Heckman's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clevenstine and children, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Clevenstine.

Jacob Berzstesser is spending a few days with his parents at this place.

There will be preaching in the Reformed church, Sunday morning at 10:30.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve McCauley died very suddenly Saturday morning, aged 26 days. Funeral services were held at the house Monday morning at 9 o'clock and interment was made in the new cemetery at Hublersburg. They have the sympathy of the community.

YARNELL. Miss Amber Confer and Arthur Confer spent Sunday with friends at Howard.

Miss Samantha and Miss Almada Powell are visiting friends at Galeton and Osceola Mills.

Miss Trixie Confer returned home after a week's visit with friends at Mt. Eagle and Howard.

Rev. Geo. J. Colledge returned to his work after a visit to Williamsport, Milton, Sunbury and Snow Shoe.

Mr. and Mrs. John Craft are visiting their daughter, Mrs. George Cunningham, of Nantyglo.

There will be a festival held at Yarnell, Saturday evening, Aug. 17th, for the benefit of the U. B. church. There will be singing and recitations. All are invited to attend.

Those who attended the festival at Romola were: Clare Shawley, Benjamin Pitzer, James Wentzel, Miss Nancy Velley, Milford Cox, Miss Myrtle Heaton, Carrie Wentzel, Rev. G. J. Colledge, Delphia Yarnell and Miss Anna Shank.

Miss Laura Powell is spending a few days in Bellefonte.

Miss Maude Brown accompanied by her nieces, Misses Lillian and Mildred Phillips, are spending a month with friends at Yarnell.

GEORGESVILLE.

We had the best rain on Saturday we have had for a long time; everything was under water for a short time. I tell you it makes the corn, grass, and garden truck laugh. Oats is a good crop, the corn looks somewhat spottier.

Moyer Gentzel is still on the sick list with "decline."

We heard Jeff Heckman is having sale in the spring and Wm. Bressler a mile east of the Old Fort would move on the farm that Heckman vacates. Alright for Billy, he knows a good thing when he sees it.

The huckleberries are about over for this year again, I truly believe that there were over 200 bushels brought out of the mountains. We had a regular club of pickers about our town of Beech. Emanuel Confer and his team did the hauling; they averaged five and six bushels a day; but the days were very long sometimes.

R. F. Finkle is out of a helping hand, since Moyer Gentzel took sick. He would have somebody every day. C. J. Finkle's stove job is about done in the mountains.

E. B. says maybe they may move out to the city with the mill.

W. W. Jamison is still on the sick list; he has a bad cold on his lungs and a good dose of rheumatism. Hope he will soon be over it, as he had his share for the summer.

The free bus took a load to the festival at Paradise, on Saturday evening.

Ralph Ungard made his home with Emanuel Confer's. He says he likes it there; he didn't need to work much and had lots of huckleberry custards to eat. Good for you Ralph, the other attraction we wont tell.

All are for Wilson in this valley, this fall.

One-half the world, being short, doesn't know how the other half gets along.

Next Wednesday is the time to save more than a day's wages in making your purchases. The leading merchants announce a general reduction over their stores. It will pay you to come to town that day and see how you can save money.
