Bright, Newsw Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

MILESBURG.

The song service conducted by L. T. Eddy on the M. E. church lawn last Sunday evening was great. Let us have some more open air services on the banks of the old historic Bald Eagle.

Bessie Bryan and her Sunday school class of eight girls and one boy picnicked last week under the old Willow tree, near Dr. McCoy's old stone residence. The following were present: Margaret and Mille Lucas, Margaret and Elizabeth Smith, Miriam Barr, Ethel Letterman, Edith Ash, Helen Bloom, Leonard Bryan and Walter Rolston.

John McCoy, L. T. Eddy and Ed. Blanchard and lady friends were recent visitors.

Mahlon Baird, of Harrisburg, came home on the P. R. R. company's picnic day and stayed a few days with his parents and friends.

Roland Bryan was home over Sunday and took his sister Bessie to the Williams reunion.

Grace Kline visited friends in Boalsburg last week.

Joe Bechtol, of Eagleville, spent Sunday at the Ebbs home.

Maud Kanarr called on a few friends in Berwick last week.

Mrs. Samuel Campbell departed for Columbus, Ohio, a few days ago.

Mildred Shope spent Sunday at home with her parents.

Kathryn Austin arrived home last week. She says the city is the only place for her. Well we cannot censure her, because when a young person goes to the city from the country they just get their eyes opened.

Mrs. Henrietta Kline and Mrs. Ida Sullivan, of Bellefonte, were guests at William Kline's last week.

Harry Harro and family, of Boalsburg, were guests of Wm. Kline and family last week.

Mrs. W. F. Taylor and daughter Mable, of Tyrone, and Rev. F. Max Lantz and wife, of Spring Mills, visited relatives and friends in Milesburg last week.

I wondered why that crowd of people congregated at Harry Whiteman's Sunday, but upon inquiry learned that those folks had been attracted by Harry's smiles, caused by the arrival of a sweet little damsel, only a few hours old.

Harry Broom departed Saturday to visit at Niagara Falls.

Harry Estright and family, of Wingo, took dinner at Samuel Estright's on Sunday.

Hello Clyde, we were much pleased to meet your lady friend Topsy the other night.

Wm. Kline departed Friday evening on the 8:15 for Detroit, Mich., via Niagara Falls. He expects to locate there and move his family later.

Edith Milliner is visiting with friends in Bellefonte for a few days.

Miss Jessie Straw, of Berwick, is visiting Mrs. Lyman Fowler.

Mr. Fowler's friends will be pleased to learn that his health has very much improved of late.

Bruce Wallace fell at the brick yard the other day and fractured a rib, but continued to work.

Better keep an eye on your cows. Mr. Haupt wants that corn and cabbage and will expect the owners of cattle to pay damage to his crops.

Mary Boyle has been appointed to teach the Chestnut Grove school in Union township.

Harry Mann, superintendent of the Wallace Brick Co., moved his family here last week. They will occupy the Lewis Bullock house.

James McMullen is on the sick list suffering from hay fever. He went to see Dr. Young in Snow Shoe on Sunday.

Frank Wallace went to Tyrone and Altoona on a business trip last week.

Harry Wagner went to Galeton on Saturday on a visit and to accompany Mrs. Wagner home.

F. H. Hall and son and R. L. Hall, of Tyrone, were Sunday visitors at the Hall house, and Mac Hall left for Johnstown, Monday on business.

Enoch Hugg, from Phillipsburg, visited our town last week. He looks good for a man of his years.

Harry Peters came home Saturday from Renova. Why do you see so often Harry? Just like the song, when Harry comes to Milesburg, he doesn't intend to stay but he fell in love with—and he cannot stay away.

John A. White, of Pittsburg, was the guest of Miss Marcella Boggs, over Sunday.

A. T. Boggs spent the week end at Phillipsburg.

Mrs. George Moore, of Renova, spent Sunday in the bog.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Noll, of Tyrone, spent Sunday at the home of John Swartz.

Margaret Miles and Verna Baird visited the Brower domicile near Unionville, Sunday, and walked it east and west. Our girls are good material.

I was unable to get a full statement of the following, but it is reported that the Methodist social was well attended and everything was fine and sold out early with about $15 profit.

The Red Men banquet was also held Saturday evening. Everything was delicious, and all reported having a good time.

Z. C. Bullock, Jr., moved his family to State College Tuesday. Mr. Bullock purchased a residence there which he will occupy.

May and Annie Shultz and Robert Hockenberry left for Tyrone Saturday for a short visit.

Reunion. A good many of our townfolk attended the Williams reunion. H. G. Ebbs disposed of 100 gallon of ice cream and a lot of fruit. They all looked tired when they returned home but report having had a good time.

H. Bradley attended to Mr. Ebbs business while he was away Saturday.

Churches. Methodist—Rev. Ash preached an old-fashioned sermon last Sunday night, red hot and good. Epworth League rally next Sunday evening at 6 p. m. Labor day services, Sunday A. M. at 10:30.

Baptist—Preaching next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and 7:30 in the evening by Rev. Clark.

Geo. McCullough is making improvements on his property filling in for his lawn, building stone wall, etc.

Look out for the street carnival next Thursday and Friday and the parade. And the Kinty Skull show in Wetzler's hall, Saturday night.

JULIAN.

On Sunday morning of last week at 6 o'clock sharp, Dr. Stepen Fugate and wife, accompanied by the former's sister, Mrs. Knottter and her husband, departed in the auto from their home in DuBois, Pa. for this beautiful and picturesque valley of "Old Bald Eagle" by way of Port Matilda, where Mrs. Fugate remained with her aged mother, Mrs. Weston, while the Dr. and the rest of the party drove on down to Silverdale (2 miles west of Julian), where they viewed the farm which at one time was Mr. Fugate's old home. At noon time hour they dined with merchant W. P. Parsons and wife, after which they resumed their journey homeward via Port Matilda, with the expectation of arriving at their home at DuBois, by 10 o'clock the same evening providing no mishaps befell them. Isn't that going some?

On Monday morning of last week the stork visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrews where it left a wee little lass.

The other morning one of those ponderous and gigantic modocs, with its bowsprit pointed eastward, passed through our town, trailing in the rear a train of 31 cars. Now who says that the people of our "Good old United States of America" are not great inventors of powerful machinery.

Mrs. Rolland Swisher arrived home last week from the Bellefonte hospital where she has spent the past 6 weeks during which time she underwent an operation. She is reported to be getting along very nicely and her many friends will be pleased to hear.

The panther controversy is still floating around among our natives. Not long ago some cruel thiefing wild beast invaded Isaac Holt's pig yard and after selecting one of his 6 or 8 weeks old piglets, killed and devoured it all but the head, skin and feet. The skin is said to have been eaten our perfectly clean which was undoubtedly the work of some cat-like critter. It came from pretty reliable authority that several of our citizens have recently seen at different times some cat-like animal which by the description, is a real panther, for which we should keep a vigilant eye lest some of our villagers or their children while on the mountains or out at night, should fall its victim.

On Tuesday of last week Myra, wife of Charles Myers, of Julian, arrived home on the night express from the Methodist hospital at Philadelphia, where she has been an inmate for the past month. Her many friends rejoice with her to know that she has been greatly benefited by the operation and able to be at home again, feeling much better.

William Stanton moved his family to Giltentown last week where he is employed.

Mrs. Irvin Craig, of Johnstown, is spending a few weeks here with old-time friends and relatives.

Recently a fine bouquet of those beautiful astors were sent to adorn the writer's desk by Mrs. J. C. Nason. Many thanks; many thanks.

James Andrews is having his house weather-boarded, and in the near future intends to add a new kitchen as well as a front porch, which will make living much more convenient for himself and family.

During the four hours the writer spent on the grounds at the Williams reunion on Saturday, much was to be observed. The aerial regions were filled with that beautiful odoriferous fog vomited from the stern of the numerous "horseless wagons" which were here. At frequent intervals the drum corps rendered some oldtime melodious strains which helped to boost the day onward toward a success. A fair crowd was present and as the day was a grand one, all enjoyed it with a marked satisfaction. Two ball games were hammered out, one in the forenoon by Martha and Stormtown the score being 10 to 3. As the Martha boys are the champions they out-rivaled the other boys in both instances.

A few former residents of this place who came back to attend the Williams reunion are as follows: viz: Mrs. Morgan Richards, son Paul and Mrs. Limbaugh, also Mrs. Rolland Richards and family, all of Jersey Shore; E. R. Williams and family, of Waddies; Thomas Burns and wife of Bellefonte; Dick Pink and wife, of Buffalo Run; John DeHass, of Eagleville; John Swisher and family, of Phillipsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shope, of Tyrone, and others, the names of whom I was unable to glean.

Rev. and Mrs. Taylor, of Junata, and Veris Henderson, of Woodland, were Sunday guests among relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cherry and daughter, Geraldine, of Bellwood, Miss Rhoda Dillen and niece Mitzie, of Buffalo Run, were royally entertained at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin W. Dillen on Sunday.

At this writing we are sorry to note the serious illness of Miss Minnie Gill, daughter of the venerable Geo. Gill.

Undertaker S. S. Osman, of Port Matilda, autoed down to our town on Sunday afternoon. Railroad Avenue is a fine driveway, Sammy.

ZION.

The warm wave brought quite a number to this favorite summer resort and at the same time drove some of our citizens to the sea shore. The following were registered at the Centennial House during the past several days: Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Kurtz, Fred Kurtz, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Oscar F. Gray, Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Elias Breen, Axemann; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hile, Red Bank; N. S. Robb and family, State College; Mrs. Michael Corman and her sister, Mrs. Wm. H. Miller, Bellefonte; Mrs. Harvey Keller, Pleasant Gap; Miss Edmie Keller, West Chester Normal School; Mr. and Mrs. William Clevenstine, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Breen, Axemann; Mr. Wheelan, Penna. Health Inspector, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. George Durner, Miss Mary Eby, Dr. Long, Pittsburg.

Charles F. Garbrick, of Bellefonte, transacted business in our town on Monday.

Mrs. Abbie Rockey and family are spending a week or two at Atlantic City and report having a very enjoyable time.

James Kane and his estimable good wife spent Sunday at Howard.

John Eby, our wide awake councilman, made an automobile trip to Rebersburg last Saturday to attend the reunion of the 143rd regiment. He was accompanied by J. G. Royer, Mrs. Sallie Wantz, Joel Royer and wife. John says it was the largest assemblage he ever saw in Brush Valley.

NITTANY.

Mr. and Mrs. Raver, of McKeesport, are visiting the latter's parents, G. W. Young and family for several weeks.

William Mauck and two sons, Harry and Charles, and their aunt, Mrs. Royer left on last Friday the 23rd, in Mr. Mauck's car for Brookville, to attend the funeral of Mr. William Hoover returning home on Sunday.

Miss Lillie Kessinger has gone to Philadelphia where she will visit friends for some time.

Our farmers are busy plowing. Corn and potatoes look good.

Mrs. Helen Minnick, accompanied by the family she lives with, in Lock Haven, were guests at the Snavely home over Sunday.

Hand your news to the scribe or leave with the clerk in the postoffice.

Mrs. Ruth Williams, of New York City, Miss Margaret Eddy, of Albany, N. Y., Mrs. Ida Kessinger, of daughters, of Somerton, Harry Worthington, of Trebose, Mr. and Mrs. James Gunsallus, May Showers, Mrs. Ollie Spicer and family the past week.

Mike Delaney and family, Mrs. Fisher and two daughters spent Sunday afternoon with Boyd Yearick. They were treated to plums and apples. Boyd isn't a bit stingy girl. Boyd is living fine and dandy.

Harry Baker was to Howard and Parvin, the past week on business.

Miss Bertha Harpster and her lady friend, of Bellefonte, were guests of the former's grandparents, G. W. Young and family over Sunday.

On September the 22nd, there will be harvest home services held at this place in the Evangelical church. Everybody is cordially invited.

Mrs. Art Rossman and son, Jess, of Clintondale, were supper guests of the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tolbert, one evening the past week.

Grandma Gunsallus and her grand children, Paul and Foster Gunsallus and Miss Margaret Fisher went for huckleberries, one day the past week, and returned with their buckets full. Grandpa Gunsallus met them and brought them home.

Miss Mary Nolan and two brothers, Merr and John, are visiting friends in DuBois and Gettysburg.

Mrs. Pearl Brickley left on last Friday for Philadelphia to see her husband, who is in the hospital at that place undergoing an operation.

Our men from Waddle and Mill Hall were home over Sunday.

Mrs. H. P. Zerby left on Wednesday for a ten days' visit in Philadelphia and Bristol with her daughter, Mayme and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Clark and other friends. Mrs. Zerby and her daughter, Mayme, expect to spend a few days at Atlantic City.

Miss Cordie Dorman was home one day the past week, to get some sewing done.

W. J. Mauck and wife and son, Charles, and Mrs. Harry Mauck and son, Melvin, took a trip in their car to Lock Haven on Wednesday last.

Miss Edna Gunsallus visited friends in Howard on Sunday.

Russel Kessinger, who is employed at Centre Hall, visited his parents here Saturday night and part of Sunday and George Fisher and three daughters, of Somerton.

How would you like to be the ice man. Well, he has a cold job.

They say a cat has nine lives. There was about four times that many scattered around here the past week or so.

Visitors at the Kessinger home the past week were: Harry Worthington and two sons, of Trebose; Mrs. Walter Graham and son of Philadelphia, and Mrs. H. A. Kessinger and three daughters, of Somerton.

Sunday is the day of rest but did you ever know a man who felt rested on Monday morning.

D. A. McDowell says it doesn't seem right that a woman should have two ears for hearing gossip and only one tongue for repeating it.

Yes, we are all going to the Centre County Fair at Bellefonte. Are you? Mrs. Dan Diehl and children were to Lock Haven, one day the past week.

If a man's family includes a wife, three grown up daughters and a mother-in-law, he has no earthly use for a phonograph.

W. E. Kessinger will build quite an addition to his store room in the near future as he is having the material delivered on his ground at present. It also runs a boarding house. It's a good place to stay. Try it.

Recently about 30 of our people held an impromptu picnic up in Lee's Gap. The day was spent very pleasantly and everyone, young and old, did ample justice to the especially good dinner.

A good rule for the occasion would have been "visitors mustn't raise rough house with the host." Anyway the basket was only upset and nothing broken. Two of the party were lost but finally rescued by a searching party. To say the least, the picnic was a complete success.

HUBLERSBURG.

Miss Lulu Zerby, from Jersey Shore, and Miss Lavina Emerick, from Williamsport, were visiting Nellie Rathmell last week.

Mrs. J. W. Lee was visiting at Howard last Saturday.

Ezra Rathmell left for Philadelphia and Atlantic City last Thursday.

Madaline Spayd was visiting at John Delaney's last week.

H. H. Noll, wife and family are visiting over at Madisonburg and Millhelm.

Rev. Crittendon and wife were seen in our town a few days last week. Those who are on the sick list at this place are Mrs. Cart Carner, Mrs. Julia Kessinger, William Minick, and Dr. McCormick.

Miss Olive Wilson, from Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her parents.

Mary Weaver, from Zion, is spending a few days with Julia Decker.

Mrs. Martha Carner and children have returned home from a five-weeks' visit with her sister at Roaring Branch.

William Kelley, from Bellefonte, is visiting his many friends at this place.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional medicine. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; the cause of deafness is caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous membrane. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
