HOWARD.

"One good mother is worth one hundred schoolmasters."

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

Reformed—Rev. I. M. Bachman, of Catawissa, will be on this circuit next Saturday and Sabbath, as a candidate. He will preach at Marsh Creek, Saturday at half past two, and in Howard at half past seven. On Sabbath he will preach at Jacksonville at half past ten, at Mt. Bethel at half past two, and at Salona at half past seven.

United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will preach in Howard at half past ten, and at Jacksonville at half past seven, at which latter place the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed.

Methodist Episcopal—No preaching because of pastor's absence on vacation.

Railroad Notes.

Continuing rains have hindered the contractors in their work. But they are making remarkable progress notwithstanding.

One or two men have sustained slight hurts by accident, but no serious ones have occurred.

The big steam shovel has made its first cut through the Burdine Butler farm, across Walnut street, and through the Bowes and Tipton lots, and turned back on its eastward trip through the same territory, widening the cut as it goes.

The fill has reached out across the canal and Butler lot and on westward across the Jackson Kline farm.

Progress on the new highway was entirely blocked during the past week by bad weather.

Walnut street is now closed at the north end, and will remain so until the bridge over the railroad and the approaches to it are completed.

In the meantime the public will be fairly well accommodated by the temporary road arranged across the Burdine Butler lot, and along the old canal by the contractors.

Trestle-work for filling the northern approach to the bridge is being placed.

Foundations for the heavy bridges which will carry both the old and new tracks over the highway at Mt. Eagle are making fair progress.

Miss Mabel Rayhorn, of Juniata, is the guest of Miss Emma Robb.

Miss Woodward is spending this week with friends in Williamsport.

Mrs. H. Shuman Pletcher spent the week end with Bellefonte relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Lucas spent Sunday with their daughter Miriam, in Altoona.

Albert Randall, of Baltimore, is the week's guest of his sister, Mrs. Geo. H. Bulkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Wagner attended to business affairs in Lock Haven Thursday.

Miss Maud Daily looked after some business matters in Lock Haven Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Henderson are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. Smith, of Centre Hall.

Miss Mollie Yearick and Mrs. Zelma Jordan were Lock Haven visitors between trains Monday.

Mrs. Bernard Spanghr, of Chicago, is at home with her mother, Mrs. Geo. Wister, for the summer.

Miss Jennie Wagner and her little nephews, Malcolm and Stanly, spent Wednesday in Bellefonte.

The recent death of a brother in Cleveland, O., took Mr. Jackson Kline to that beautiful city last week.

A. J. Fitzpatrick, of Galitzien, was the guest of his friend C. M. McMurtre for a portion of last week.

Miss Jennie Zimmerman, Washington, D. C., is the guest for a fortnight of her sister, Mrs. A. M. Butler.

The Misses Elsie and Jennie Keagle were over Sunday guests of their mother, Mrs. Katherine Bechdel.

Richard Hoffman, who has been having a fine visit in Williamsport, came home Saturday afternoon.

Robert Confer, who was away lumbering on the beautiful Chet River in West Virginia, is at home on a vacation.

Philip B. Loder and wife, of Pittsburg, are visiting Mrs. Loder's brothers, John Z. and William T. of this place.

John S. Holter and family, of Johnsonburg, are spending their vacation with Mrs. Holter's mother, Mrs. S. H. Bennisson.

Mrs. Weiser, of Pittsburg, a sister of the late Mrs. Bernard Lauth, is this guest of her nieces, the Mesdames Commerford.

Miss Jennie Holter, of Williamsport, one of our well known girls of former days, is spending a few weeks here with old friends.

Miss Bertha Knoll, R. N., of Philadelphia, arrived Saturday afternoon for a month's rest with her mother, Mrs. S. O. Knoll.

Miss Emma Pletcher was a visitor among Mt. Eagle friends, and dined with her friend Miss Florence Leathers, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Robb, Jr., of Romola, are enjoying a visit from their daughter, Mrs. Whippo, and her two children, of Latrobe.

Mrs. James Holmes, of State College, spent a portion of last week in the families of S. L. Reber, A. L. Thomas and other relatives here.

Mrs. Henderson and daughter, of Pittsburg, who are relatives of Mrs. D. E. Holter and Mr. J. D. Loss, visited their friends last week.

Mrs. R. H. Holter, of Rochester, N. Y., formerly Miss Betty Stitzer, of Howard, with her son, is at home with her mother, Mrs. M. Miner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Condo, Mrs. Henry Confer, Miss Pearl Pletcher and Mrs. Clara McCallion were eastward passengers on No. 52 Saturday.

Harry Kaup and family, whose present home is McKees Rocks, Allegheny county, are the vacation guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Hoyer.

Mrs. Kathryn M. Long, of Clarksville, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. William Aley, of Niagara Falls, were last week's guests of Mrs. Clyde Long.

Mrs. L. C. Wilson, of Friendship, N. Y., remembered here as Miss Maud Quay, is here with her husband, to spend a short time with her parents.

Editor Dunham's Huster of last week was quite an improvement upon the usual output. It might pay him to let the "devil" run it for him permanently.

Mrs. H. F. Sickleco, of Silver Creek, N. Y., is at home on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Confer and has their little grandson, Ralph, with her.

The township supervisors did some good work last week on the back road leading from Johnson's truck garden to the crossing of the Bald Eagle Valley R. R.

Matthew Rogers, Jr., is much more than usually genial since the return of Mrs. Rogers from her two weeks' absence with friends at Altoona and other places.

Mrs. Abraham Weber, Mrs. C. M. Muffly, and Miss Helen Weber visited the camp at Nippono Park, of Howard young folks who are summing up there.

Mrs. John H. Diehl visited her mother, Mrs. Boony in Lock Haven, and took her little boys, Roy and Earl, whose snapping black eyes are known to everybody, with her.

Mrs. J. Z. Loder and daughter, Miss Mabel, entertained Mrs. Cleaver, of Reading, State President of P. O. of A., and Mrs. Dorman and Mrs. Hendricks, of Flemington, Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Miller, of Lock Haven, and former citizens of Jacksonville, passed through town Sunday morning en route to Curtin township, for a visit with their son, Ammon Miller.

Attempting to peel a tie while astride of it last Saturday H. T. Diehl, employed on the Bullock lumber job, struck the sharp axe into the shin bone of his left leg, and is temporarily laid off.

Mrs. Orin Brickley, who as Miss Nannie Long is well remembered here, died at her home in Lock Haven last week, and was buried in the family lot in Lockport, across the river from Lock Haven.

Another of our young ladies, who has carefully prepared herself for teaching, has found herself appreciated: Miss Lauretta Weber is chosen to teach the coming term at Weedville, Elk Co., Pa.

Word was received on Tuesday of the death that morning at Youngstown, Ohio, of Demetrius Buck, son-in-law of Mrs. Caroline Commerford. His wife, Miss Elizabeth Commerford, was well known here as one of our loveliest girls.

Mayor George H. Leathers' wife added thirty-three per cent. to the branches of the family vine and about five hundred per cent. to the Mayor's official dignity, last Thursday, by presenting him with another fine boy.

Orlando Bowes, a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, and now at the head of the Agricultural work of Columbia College, New York, came on to attend the funeral of his father last week, and afterward spent a few days with his friends here.

Prof. Samuel M. Robb and wife are guests of Mr. Fred Robb. Prof. Robb has been appointed supervising Principal of the High School at Eldred, McKean county, one of the most progressive towns of its size, in the matter of public schools in the state.

Mrs. John B. Leathers, of Mt. Eagle, reached her seventy-fifth birthday Saturday, and gives good promise of many anniversaries yet to come. A number of her friends, young and old and including several from Howard, gathered in to spend the evening in making her glad.

Thanks are due the gallant "Domino" for his neat little compliment to our competent young lady assistants, and he is assured that his guess as to their good looks is eminently correct. But, Mr. "Domino," they are altogether too young to think of the suggested change in the prefix.

Saturday last Mrs. S. H. Bennisson had more of her children at home together than for some years before. They were Miss Helen, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Bennisson and son, of Pittsburg; Mrs. George R. Worrick, of Mackeyville, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bennisson, of Marion, and Mr. and Mrs. John S. Holter, of Johnsonburg.

Encouraged by the pleasant weather of Sunday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Wilson, Thomas Bowes and James Leathers, drove to Hubbert's school house, in Clinton county, to attend a "Bush Meeting" conducted at that point by Elder W. H. Patterson, former pastor of the Christian Chapel congregation here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brouse and daughter Myrtle, of Trenton, New Jersey, are guests of Mrs. Mary Wentzel. Mr. Brouse is a trainmaster on the Pennsylvania, with headquarters at Camden, and has formed the very odd habit of spending his vacations here, this being the fourth year in succession. Miss Edith Warner, a cousin of Miss Brouse, and whose home is at Pottstown, Pa., is also of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Williams and family, who left last spring with the purpose of making their home in New York, where Mr. Williams' business centers, found that they could not resist the home attractions of Howard, and have returned to their first love. Their own fine new home has been rented for the year, they will temporarily reside with Mrs. Williams' mother, Mrs. Christ Holter, on Main St.

Mrs. S. H. Bennisson and daughter, Helen, entertained at dinner Thursday evening. The following named guests honored the occasion by their presence: The Mesdames Fearon, Harry B. Clark, J. S. Hall, E. J. Tibbins, W. Forsay, H. C. Williams, F. L. Quigley, Thomas N. Wynne, and the Misses Mothersbaugh and Bess Wynne, of Beech Creek and Blanchard; Mrs. Vetter, Mrs. Bertha Hoffman, of Howard, and Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Bennisson and son, of Pittsburg.

Mrs. Sophia A. Youdes, for many years a citizen of the township, died in her home at Moshannon, last Tuesday evening, and was buried Friday afternoon at one o'clock, in the Askey cemetery at that place. Mrs. Youdes will be remembered by those who knew her here as a good neighbor, faithful mother and earnest church worker. She leaves behind her the following named children: Arthur H. Youdes, of Howard; Clara Edna Fye and Rosy Yeager, of Moshannon, and Milford C. Youdes, of Johnstown.

Governor Approves Electric Merger.

A Harrisburg dispatch states that Governor Tener has approved the merger of six electric companies in the northern and central part of the state into the Central Pennsylvania Electric company of Lock Haven, with a capital stock of $30,000. The companies merged are the West Branch Light, Heat and Power company, Williamsport, Susquehanna Light, Heat and Power company, Jersey Shore; Logan Electric company, Bellefonte; Avis Light, Heat and Power company, Avis; Patterson-Scotac and Clinton Light, Heat and Power companies of Lock Haven.

How to Organize Wilson-Marshall Clubs.

First: Circulate a form of enrollment and secure signatures of ALL friends of Woodrow Wilson.

Second: Issue a call for meeting.

Third: Elect Officers.

Fourth: Notify W. W. Roper, Woodrow Wilson League, No. 145 So. Broad Street, Philadelphia, of the organization of the club, giving names of officers and members, and he will send supplies and literature.

DO IT NOW AND "WILSON WILL WIN."

Sunday School Convention.

The seventeenth quarterly Sunday school convention of the Runville charge, United Brethren in Christ, will convene at Pleasant Valley on Sunday, Sept. 1st, and hold three sessions during the day.

UNIONVILLE.

On the Wing: Miss Mary Lansberry, after spending three weeks visiting friends at Tyrone and Phillipsburg, returned home on Saturday.

M. G. Musser left for his home in Pittsburg.

James Alexander, after four or five weeks' hard work on the farm, left for Philadelphia where he is employed as a teacher in an industrial art school.

Mrs. Clara Elder, of Tyrone, was a recent visitor at the home of her brother, Dr. C. A. Van Valin.

Dr. Boyd Irwin, after a week's visit while "chum," George R. Griesel, in Phillipsburg, returned home on Saturday.

Handsome Wilber Erhart, wife and mother, Mrs. E. E. Erhart, of Trafford City, are jolly visitors at the home of Charles E. Eckenroth. Wilber wanted to buy the champion egg-laying hen but she is not for sale—she is still at it.

D. G. Morrison, of Altoona, after spending a month or more in the Bellefonte hospital, is visiting friends in this place before leaving for his post in a railroad office in the former place.

Postmaster J. W. Smith is off on a two-weeks' jaunt to Ocean Grove and during his absence, assistant P. M. Alice Smith Barton is handling out the letters, newspapers and "Please remits."

Mr. A. L. Loughrey, of Philadelphia, is visiting his sister, Mrs. P. J. McDonnell.

Miss Sue Shipley, who has been engaged in New York City as professional nurse for many months, returned home recently and has taken charge of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Potter, professionally, who is critically ill.

Mayor George H. Leathers is off to the sea shore where he will spend most of his two weeks' vacation. Of course he will take a dip or two in the briny deep.

Other Newsy Items:

The new opera house is almost completed and will add greatly to the appearance to that part of the town.

D. Hall's brick house is also taking on shape and it will not be long till Mr. Hall will have the handsome residence in town. He is putting in a hot water system of heating. Henry and Michael Holter, of Howard, two gay young "Mooseers," are doing the carpenter work.

Wanted:—Two strong young men to act as pushers to start one of Linx's automobiles. The measly thing gets contrary and soon starts.

A straw vote taken at a "social" the other evening resulted as follows: Wilson 17; Roosevelt 11; Taft 2.

On account of the Odd Fellows picnic, "The Ladies Aid" will have no exchange next Saturday evening.

Rev. James Pratt, Presbyterian minister, of Norristown, occupied the pulpit in the M. E. church on Sunday. Mr. Pratt was born and reared in this town and his host of friends were delighted and charmed with his excellent discourse which was full of inspiration and showed great depth of thought and wisdom.

Recently, Mrs. Malissa Bing left her parlor door, fronting the street, open for the purpose of airing the room and while she was in another part of the house some miscreant entered the room and stole—yes, actually stole—her pocket book containing less than two dollars. She prizes the pocket book very highly and says that if the thief will return the money holder, he may retain the money for his trouble.

The Poet Laureate, of Milesburg, composer of "Hen" poetry, has won first prize, stop writing items, and writes poetry.

Don't forget the jumbo picnic to be pulled off in D. Hall's field and grove on Saturday afternoon and evening. Beautiful shade trees, close-cropped sod, nice drive, good water, lots of fun, loads of chin music, (Mrs. Sadie Emerick can't be present). Everybody come and encourage the Odd Fellows, which is the best secret order in the world. Come!

It is a young man living with his brother in Union township, was bitten just above the ankle by a copperhead snake several days ago and was brought to Dr. Russell for treatment. The doctor cauterized the wound and the lad is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Dora Fisher's cider manufacturing plant will be in operation on Tuesdays and Fridays of each week until the close of the season, beginning next week.

J. E. Jones, of Upper Dix Run, has purchased Mrs. Frank Ammerman's property across the creek, and will occupy it after the election.

Golden Wedding:

On August 24th, 1862, Mr. Nathaniel Lindemuth and Miss Sarah Snyder, two popular young people of Columbia county, were happily joined in the holy bonds of matrimony, and for 50 years this happy pair trudged life's journey together, sharing each other's joys and sorrows and bearing each other's burdens. About 30 years ago they came to Centre county where they have lived ever since, at their farm home on upper Dix Run. On last Saturday, August 24th, just 50 years after their marriage, they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at which more than 100 persons were present to participate in the joyous event. The day was spent in social chat, pitching horse shoes, target shooting, music and dancing, and last but not least, stowing away under the waist bands the car load of "provenider" that had been provided for the occasion. Mr. Lindemuth, the host, is an expert "fiddler" and entertained the crowd with choice selections such as: The Devil's Dream, Irish Washerwoman, Durand's Hornpipe, etc. Had Ole Bull, in his day, heard Mr. L. play, he would have broken his own fiddle into splinters and went way back and sat down in the grass. It was hard to keep one's lower extremities from keeping time to the music; in fact one lady from Jersey Shore and Larry Brisbin actually did some graceful dancing and were loudly applauded. All in all, it was one of the most enjoyable occasions it has ever been my pleasure to participate in. All of their children and nearly all of their grandchildren and one great-grandchild were present. The following is a list of the guests as near as I could collect them, to wit: Mrs. Wm. Senser, her daughter Laura, Fred Senser and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Westbrook, of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lindemuth and daughter Violet, of Unionville; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Spicer and Herman, Nathaniel, Christian, Mabel, Elwood, and Sarah Spicer, their children; Mr. and Mrs. Lenore Lindemuth and children, Martin and Sarah Anna; Mrs. Geo. Ingram and daughter, Mrs. Senore Lockyer; Mrs. Howard Ingram, of Millville; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Brisbin, G. B. Brisbin, Mrs. Frank Budd, Miss Agnes Brisbin, Margaret Brisbin, and Samuel Brisbin, of Tyrone; Mrs. John Glenn and Mrs. Samuel Weaver, of Lemont; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Rumberger, Miss Francis Brady, Miss Margaret Brady, Miss Hannah Thompson, Mrs. H. E. Holtzworth, Mrs. M. Brugger, Joseph Brugger and wife, Mrs. Malissa Bing, Mrs. Annie Weaver, all of Unionville;

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Underwood, Prof. J. S. Fox, wife and son; David C. Hall and daughters, Anna and Harriet; Sarah E. Hall, Mrs. Clara Jones, Geo. Neiman, Mrs. Neiman, Helen Sanderson, Mrs. Frank Peters and daughter, Vera, Helen Ammerman, Mrs. Amanda Lannen, Mrs. H. A. Scholl, Mary Neiman, Miss Carry Neiman, Miss Hannah Scholl, Mrs. Ammerman, Mrs. Sam. Stere, Howard Scholl, Mark Hall and wife, Grover Lanning, Mrs. Ola Stere, Alice Stine, Mrs. Ada Hall, Mrs. Albert Peters, Margaret and Helen Peters, William, Catherine and Joseph Stere, Mrs. Olive Sanderson, all of Union township; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bitting, of Jersey Shore; Mrs. Harriet Ingram, Mrs. Levi Westbrook, of Tyrone; Miss Adeline Conner and A. P. Ryan, Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Cherry, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mowry, and last but not least, the great bear and coon hunter, Samuel Deebie, of Shamokin. Hoping you may continue to lead life's journey together till you reach your diamond wedding anniversary, I am

MOSHANNON.

Mrs. Amanda Fye, son and little daughter have returned to their home in North Bend, after spending a week with her friends in this place. All again Amanda, we all like to see you come.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Walker, of Frog Hollow, spent Monday in Phillipsburg. Grace Fye, who was scalded a couple of weeks ago, is getting along nicely. Hope she will soon be able to be around again.

Milford Yaudes, after attending his mother's funeral here, is spending a few days at his home.

Picnic at West Brushvalley.

The United Evangelical Sunday school will have a picnic in F. P. Duck's woods, Saturday, Aug. 31st. There will be music and a big dinner. Everybody is cordially invited.

The following is an extract from a letter from Jas. H. Corl, of Chicago, formerly of Bellefonte: "I find the Wilson sentiment in this city very strong while the Roosevelt sentiment is on the wane. They are betting two to one on Wilson."
