THE BIG CENTRE COUNTY FAIR

NOW IN PROGRESS ON THE FAIR GROUNDS AT THIS PLACE.

THE 13TH ANNUAL GATHERING

Some Fast Racing From a Big String of Horses—Large Crowd in Attendance Wednesday With Good Prospects For Balance of the Week.

The Thirteenth Annual Fair of the Centre County Agricultural Exhibition company is in progress at the fair grounds, below town, as we go to press, and, if the weather only permits, it promises to be one of the most successful and largely attended fairs ever held by the association. The crowd on Wednesday was up to the usual standard for that day and it is expected that a record breaking crowd will be present to-day with good prospects for Friday, the day on which it is said the best racing will occur.

The grounds present a very animated appearance and every body seems to be busy and enjoying themselves. The exhibits this year in certain departments are larger and better than ever, especially the exhibit of fruit and vegetables.

The fact that this is the first big fair in this section of the state, this fall, brought an unusually fine string of horses to take part in the speed program. There are thirty-two horses in the stables now, and among the number are some very fast ones, so that some fast and exciting contests are expected. The exhibit of fruit and vegetables is also a feature of the fair. The weather which has made the track very heavy, although if no more rain occurs it will be in good shape for today and Friday.

On entering the grounds the first thing to attract your attention is the very fine exhibit of poultry in charge of Samuel B. Miller. The fruit and vegetable exhibit is in the building formerly used as a restaurant, and it is full of as fine an exhibit of Centre County farm products, as you could desire to see. It includes fourteen varieties of wheat besides corn, cabbage, apples, potatoes, mushrooms, water melon, cantaloupe, grapes, beans, turnips, celery, etc. The tall stalks of corn are there, the tallest being 14 1/2 feet high. Rev. R. Critchfield has on exhibit the biggest potatoes, some weighing 3 1/2 pounds. A curious plant which is on exhibition is the Velvet Oka, this one being a very good specimen. Mrs. Abner Noll, of Pleasant Gap has two immense cabbages raised in her garden, one weighing 13 lbs. and the other 11 lbs. Mr. Samuel Decker is in charge of the building and credit is due him for the large variety of products.

The International Harvester Company have a fine showing of agricultural implements, gasoline engines and auto trucks. It is in charge of L. H. Musser.

Mr. Isaac Underwood, representing the Geisler people, also has a fine exhibit of agricultural implements, traction engines, etc. There is also a fine exhibit by the American Seeding Company and the Oliver Company.

In the main exhibition building there don't seem to be as many exhibits as last year but what there are fine. Beginning with the children's department in charge of Mrs. R. S. Brouse and Mrs. Thomas K. Morris, you will find everything for children. A very interesting collection. Then there is the exhibit of fancy work of the greatest variety and some of it very beautiful, showing the work of skilled hands. This is in charge of Mrs. Williams Jenkins, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Morris and Mrs. Sheldon. Then there is the exhibit of things good to eat, dear to the house wife; jellies, preserves, pies, cakes, bread, rolls and other articles that make a home comfortable. This department is looked after by Mrs. Harry Keller, Mrs. John M. Shugert, Mrs. Maurice Yeager, Mrs. Harry Yeager and Mrs. James Clark.

One of the finest displays of all is that of the Bellefonte High School. All kinds of beautiful baskets are on exhibition, and in addition, the ladies can be seen making the baskets. The work is very complicated as well as interesting and their work attracts great attention.

Other exhibitors are M. C. Gephart, pianos; Potter-Hoy Company, stoves; and the Pennsylvania State College with their usual fine exhibit of agricultural products, flowers, etc.

Among the special amusement features are the Tompkins Big Wild West Show; which made such a hit last year; the Bella La Creme Dancing Dolls; the Bartlett's acrobats and wire walkers; grand marine exhibition of the marvels of the sea; King Kelly, the world's acknowledged, highest flying aerialist.

On the Midway you can take a ride on the Circling Wave, have a throw at Mike, the educated dodging monkey, a real live monkey who can, with wonderful quickness, dodge a rubber ball thrown at him; see the Wild West Show, eat ice cream and red lemonade, patronize the novelty man and in fact have a general good time.

The Coleville band is in attendance and rendering their usual fine music to enliven the occasion.

The racing program shows some very good races with good purses. Dr. M. J. Locke is the starter this year, and is giving excellent satisfaction. The speed program for the week is as follows:

Wednesday.
1. 2:12—Trot and Pace...Purse $300
2. 2:30—Trot and Pace...Purse 250

—Harry Gehret attended the district convention of the Knights of the Golden Eagle at Renovo on Labor Day, as a delegate from Bellefonte. The gathering of the various Castles and Commanderies was very large, and at the business session held during the day Milton was chosen as the next place of meeting in 1913.

POORMAN REUNION.

Delightful Out-Door Gathering Held on Saturday.

The sixth annual reunion of the Poorman families, held in the Kohlmeier grove, near Milesburg, on Saturday, proved to be one of the most successful gatherings yet enjoyed by this well known clan. The day opened auspiciously and the happy crowd began to gather in the early hours of the forenoon with much greeting upon their faces and a hearty hand clasp for all. Relatives, neighbors and acquaintances all mingled together in one happy family, and after the usual greetings were over a spirit of reminiscence fell upon the crowd, and several hours were spent in conversation. The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. J. I. Zeigler, and was characteristic of the Reverend's interesting talks. The noon hour was devoted to refreshments and they were there in abundance.

The afternoon was taken up by a fantastic parade, races, contests, and a highly appreciated speech by James A. Gleason, of Clearfield, the Democratic candidate for congress. The races and contests afforded much amusement for the crowd, and were won by the following persons: Shoe-lacing contests for boys, won by Joe Gumsallus; 75-yard dash for boys and girls, won by Samuel Estrick, of Wingate; prize, a set of marbles; 75-yard race for boys and girls, won by Theodore Lucas, of Altoona; prize, a base ball; 75-yard dash for young men, won by Clyde Watson, of Moose Run; prize, a rubber doll; 75-yard dash for ladies, won by Mrs. Clayton Walker, of Runville; prize, a pin cushion; 75-yard dash for ladies, won by Miss Trixie Confer, of Yarnell; prize, a comb receiver; Candle race, won by Mrs. William Walker, of Milesburg; prize, a pin cushion; mile of white and lavender, the reunion colors. Three-legged race, won by John Shank and Clyde Watson; prize a comb receiver to each. The horse-shoe pitching contest between Fleming Poorman and Sol. Poorman, and Ed. Confer and E. R. Poorman, was won by the first two mentioned; prize, a box of dominoes.

In the evening everybody returned to their homes, feeling that it had been a day well spent, and hoping that they may live to enjoy many more such happy reunions.

Brief History of Regiment.
To give a history of a regiment in this Regiment in the space of a column is an impossibility. The briefest outline only can be given. Seven of the ten companies which composed the Regiment were in Centre county, except a small part of "F" Company. The seven companies were recruited and in camp Curtin between the 4th and 30th of August 1862, and were largely composed of young men and boys whose ages ran from 15 to 25, a few, a very few indeed, whose ages ranged from 25 to 40 years of age. The schools and academies of that day gave about all their pupils from 16 years and upward to this regiment. These noble boys gave up all their bright prospects of life, and in every walk of life that their imperiled country should live.

The seven companies from Centre county were, with one Company each from Carbon, Indiana, and Jefferson counties organized into the 148th Regiment on the 8th day of September, 1862, and on the evening of the 9th left Camp Curtin in cattle cars, and the next morning went into camp at Cocksburg, Maryland. The few months put in at this place the school boys, as well as those who followed other vocations were losing their individuality and were being wrought by their youthful Colonel (for he it was not yet 25) into a titanic war bolt. It was not the most delightful life in the world to be continually giving the military salute to some officer about the same age, and as green as yourself in military affairs, who delighted to intrude upon you, at moments, the most inopportune. In the forging of the war bolt officers and men came to better understand each other.

It is impossible to follow the Regiment to, and through, its various camps and battles. From the story of General Moulton, who for a time commanded the Regiment, it is very proper to quote, "The 148th Regiment was an ideal regiment. In battle, on the march, for picket duty, on the skirmish line, for inspection, for any and every duty the motto of the command was 'ready,' always 'ready,' and I fear that because of this, on many an occasion I assigned to them more duty than was their just share. Night or day, no matter when, or for what duty called, I knew the 148th was always 'ready' cheerfully 'ready,' and hence when time was a factor and the enemy pressing, I knew where to look for prompt response and willing hearts; and so, in offering at this late date to make amends for seeming imposition on those who are now my veteran friends I can, and do, plead justification in view of the excellent qualities of the 'Regiment always ready' and so often called upon, although not always next for duty."

This from the Brigade Commander gives a fair idea of the heroic men who made up the regiment. They were all heroes, and their history covers three years of sacrifice, service, and heroism surpassed by none, and equalled by few. And these men came from the homes, farms, schools, hills, valleys, and mountains of Centre county.

The Colonel in closing his story of the regiment says: "I desire only to say that, whilst as a regiment and as individuals, none of us did more than our duty, it has always been a source of great gratification to me that officers and men alike in our Regiment, with fewer exceptions than would naturally be expected, in every time of danger, emergency and trial, rose to the demands of the occasion and, so (Continued at bottom of next col.)

GRANGE ENCAMPMENT.

Next Big Event to Take Place in Centre County.

The indications are that the 39th Annual Encampment and Grange Fair will be the largest and most instructive ever held at Grange Park, Centre Hall. The demand for tents now exceeds that of last year, as does also that for an exhibition privilege.

The State Forestry Department will make a large display of its work, having engaged an entire wing of the large exhibition pavilion. The Chestnut Tree Light Commission will have a separate exhibition and so will the Zoological Division, with lectures and orchard demonstrations. The dynamite farming people will make a large display of their work.

Men prominent in the order and in the public service will be among the speakers.

The Harvest Home services will be held Sunday, the 15th of September, at 2:30 p. m. Hon. N. B. Critchfield, Secretary of Agriculture, will deliver the Anniversary Harvest Home address.

The T. and L. Railroad Association has granted excursion rates over all its roads in Pennsylvania, including Baltimore, Maryland, and Elmira, New York. Tickets to be sold to the public without card orders.

Special trains will run to Centre Hall by the Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, September 17, 18, and 19th, between Bellefonte and Coburn.

The Soldiers Reunion will be held at Grange Park on Tuesday, September 17.

Parties wishing to exhibit implements should ship early, so that shipments will arrive in time.

Fruits for exhibition should be carefully packed and securely packed so as to arrive in good condition.

Additional announcements will be made next week. Do not miss this great opportunity for an outing.

The Result in Vermont.
For the first time in 10 years the Republican majority in Vermont was wiped out at the state election on Tuesday and the newly organized Progressive party has been responsible for it. As the matter stands at this writing no candidate for the office of governor of the State has a sufficient number of votes to insure his election.

The indications, however, appear to be that the Legislature will be strong enough to elect Allen M. Fletcher governor. The leaders of the Progressive movement throughout the State are elated with the result.

The vote for the five candidates for Governor from all of the six cities and from 196 out of 240 towns, was:

Allen M. Fletcher, of Cavendish, 22,356.
Harland B. Howe, of St. Johnsbury, 17,594.
The Rev. Frazer Metzger of Randolph, Progressive, 12,450.
Edward C. Briggs, of Morrisville, 11,200.
Edw. W. Sutter of Barre, socialist, 976.

Exciting Experience of Baggageman.
Edwin S. Burt, a baggage master on a Northern Central train, was forced to stand on top of a pile of baggage in his car for nearly 20 miles one day last week while a bull dog barked and tried to get at him. The dog was taken from near Williamsport to Philadelphia and broke his chain before Sunday. Burt took to the trunk for safety and fought off the enraged animal until Harrisburg was reached. An investigation by trainmen who did not see the baggage car opened when it reached Harrisburg showed the animal in possession. He was subdued and chained up.

far as my personal knowledge and memory go, brought to discredit upon the unimpaired record of the Regiment. We had an esprit de corps that was unusual, a well defined ideal toward which we aimed and a devotion to duty which met all demands and surmounted all obstacles. The comradeship born of the scenes and trials through which we passed as a Regiment, has continued to this day, as it continues to be, one of the greatest pleasures and most constant sources of enjoyment of my life."

By the very last men of this Regiment were not only heroic but faithful to duty and honor. Col. James F. Weaver who commanded the Regiment after Col. Beaver, by reason of his wound at Reams Station, in closing his article on the Regiment states that about the time camp Curtin on their way home they called to thank the commander of the camp for courtesies shown and kind treatment received while under his command. This man with warmth replied: "Colonel, you have the best behaved regiment that has been in this return camp. Your men are as orderly and gentlemanly in camp as they were brave on the field of battle." These quotations from the men who commanded the Regiment give a true idea of the men who composed the ranks of the 148th Regiment.

There is one thing else to be said. As water of its own force never rises higher than its own source so the Regiment, in the service never rose above the man at their head. If he was ambitious, brave, a good disciplinarian, prompt, and a fighter, so the men however green became prompt, well disciplined, brave, heroic, and first class fighters. What, therefore, the men of this Regiment did, or were enabled to do, was due to the fact that they were commanded by one of the nearest, most trim and faithful, as well as able, brave, and heroic Colonels in the army. All was ready for a fight, and always in their hearts was an and apparently never as happy as when in the very heat of the battle and where the fight was the thickest. That the 148th was one of the best Regiments in the service is due to the fact that it had from the first, our fellow citizen, James A. Beaver, for its commander.

MANY PASS TO GREAT BEYOND

NAMES OF THOSE CALLED BY DEATH.

ELIAS HECKMAN SUCGUMBS

Former Centre Countian Passes Away at His Home in Orangeville, Illinois, Last Week—Other Obituary Notices of Well Known Citizens.

HECKMAN:—The many friends in Centre county of Elias Heckman, who was born and reared to manhood in Pennsylvania, will be sorry to learn of his death which occurred at his home in Orangeville, Ill., on Friday morning last at 4 o'clock. He had been suffering from a complication of diseases for a number of years, and last spring while in Bellefonte during the recent illness of his twin brother, Daniel Heckman, he was seized with a severe sick spell from which he recovered sufficiently to return to his home in Illinois. He was able to be about and apparently convalescing until Tuesday night of last week when he suffered a relapse which culminated in his death as above stated. Elias Heckman was a son of Frederick and Elizabeth Heckman, and was born Jan. 23, 1844, at Penn Hall, making his age therefore at time of death 68 years, 7 months and 1 day. At the age of twenty he went to Illinois and located near Rock Grove. He was twice married, his first wife having been Rebecca C. Chambers, of Rock Grove, who died in 1871. A few years later Mr. Heckman married Catherine Ritzman, of Orangeville, who died about twelve years ago. Deceased was a man of strict honesty and unswerving principles, and became one of Orangeville's most prominent citizens. He was a democrat in politics and served as postmaster under one of the Cleveland administrations. He also served as justice of the peace for a number of years. He is survived by one son, Vilas, who resides at Freeport; one brother, Daniel Heckman, of Bellefonte, and a sister, Mrs. Margaret Mark, of Spring Mills. Funeral services were held on Sunday, September 2, and were in charge of the Masons.

MORGAN:—William Morgan, many years ago a resident of Bellefonte, was a prominent citizen of London, or San Francisco. These days are arranged in two circles, with the local time dial in the center.

At first glance the design appears to be a steel engraving, but closer inspection shows that it is a pen and ink drawing in black and white, and exceedingly well executed. It is the work of Rev. John Toner, a local Methodist preacher and who was register and recorder of this county from 1859 to 1861; and his records to this day are models of neatness, and the best that are found in the court house. Mr. Toner was at one time a member of the firm of Humes & Co., merchants, who conducted a prosperous business in a building where the present First National Bank now stands and later moved from here to Canton, Ohio, where he died. He was the father of Mrs. Henry Harris, who lives on Howard street, Bellefonte.

First Prisoners Arrive.
The first lot of prisoners to be used by Superintendent Francis in the erection of the new penitentiary at Peru arrived in Bellefonte on Tuesday and were at once taken to the new prison site. There were eight of them in charge of three armed guards. The prisoners were a healthy looking lot, and could not have been told from ordinary travelers by a casual observer. They were neatly dressed and presented a well-cared for appearance.

The men arrived on Tuesday afternoon on the 1:25 train and were quietly transferred to the Lewisburg train standing nearby on a siding, which a few minutes later took them to Peru. The men are now at work clearing up the grounds, and will be kept busy for many months to come.

—Richard M. Reed, the affable and genial register and recorder of Clearfield county, was in Bellefonte on Wednesday on business connected with the estate of the late James Somerville, whose death occurred at Winburne last week.

Mrs. Levi Dunlap and Miss Carrie Boalich, of Port Allegheny. The remains passed through Bellefonte on Thursday of last week on their way to Ocochea where interment was made on Friday.

WHITEMAN:—Mrs. Catherine A. Whiteman died at her home in Snow Shoe on Sunday, aged 84 years, 5 months and 16 days. Deceased was the widow of the late Andrew Whiteman, who with one son preceded her to the grave. During her sickness she manifested a remarkable degree of patience and bore her suffering without a murmur. She is survived by the daughters above named and two sons, Samuel and John. Funeral services were conducted on Tuesday afternoon by Rev. J. Zeigler, of Snow Shoe intersection, and the body was laid to rest in Askey's cemetery.

Frazier, of Porter township; Mrs. Norman L. Hayes, of Salona, and Ellen, Margaret and Mabel at home. Deceased had lived in Nittany Valley all her life and for many years was an active member of the Reformed church. Her husband preceded her to the grave about a year ago. Funeral services were conducted from her late home on Monday forenoon by a former pastor, Rev. E. F. Foust, of St. Clair, Pa., assisted by Rev. W. E. Harr, of Lock Haven.

DEITRICH:—Mr. and Mrs. James Deitrich, of near Dunkles, are mourning the death of their 7-month-old son, John Henry Deitrich, who passed away on Wednesday of last week after a short illness with congestion of the brain. Interment was made at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning.

Mr. Reber removed from Centre county to Illinois where he resided for a number of years, and after the death of his wife in 1901 he became afflicted with creeping palsy. He lived in Vicksburg for many years, practically a helpless invalid. He was a highly respected citizen and a great lover of music, having held a number of conventions throughout central Penna. Surviving are four sons and one daughter: J. E. Reber, of Vicksburg; Thos. A., of Highland, Kans.; Clayton and Mrs. J. S. Carpenter, of Harrison, Ill. Also one brother, Michael Reber, of South Omaha, and three sisters, Mrs. G. E. Zehner, York; Mrs. Margaret Wand Korn, Madisonburg. Funeral services were held at the home of J. E. Reber in Vicksburg, on Tuesday, by Rev. S. A. Snyder, of Centre Hall, assisted by Rev. Koehler, of Millburg.

Young, of Nittany, died at his home in Port Allegheny on Wednesday of last week, at the ripe age of 77 years. Mr. Boalich will be remembered by the older residents of Bellefonte and vicinity, as about forty years ago he resided near Axemann. He married Miss Mary Ann Young, a Centre county lady, who preceded him to the grave a number of years ago. Up until about two years ago he had been employed as manager of the Liversidge store at Ocochea, when he retired and moved to Port Allegheny. He is survived by three daughters: Mrs. George McClellan, of Clearfield, Ky.; (Continued at bottom of next col.)

A WORK OF ART.

Executed by Rev. John Toner a Former or County Official.
On Saturday William P. Humes called at this office with a design in a frame that is worthy of note. It was a design to show the relative time at twenty-five different points of the globe. That is, if you took the time in Bellefonte you could tell from the drawing the hour of the day at twenty-five different points of the world. This was illustrated by the use of that many clock dials, with the hands on each dial pointing to a different hour for some prominent city in London, or San Francisco. These dials are arranged in two circles, with the local time dial in the center.

At first glance the design appears to be a steel engraving, but closer inspection shows that it is a pen and ink drawing in black and white, and exceedingly well executed. It is the work of Rev. John Toner, a local Methodist preacher and who was register and recorder of this county from 1859 to 1861; and his records to this day are models of neatness, and the best that are found in the court house. Mr. Toner was at one time a member of the firm of Humes & Co., merchants, who conducted a prosperous business in a building where the present First National Bank now stands and later moved from here to Canton, Ohio, where he died. First Prisoners Arrive.
The first lot of prisoners to be used by Superintendent Francis in the erection of the new penitentiary at Peru arrived in Bellefonte on Tuesday and were at once taken to the new prison site. There were eight of them in charge of three armed guards. The prisoners were a healthy looking lot, and could not have been told from ordinary travelers by a casual observer. They were neatly dressed and presented a well-cared for appearance.

The men arrived on Tuesday afternoon on the 1:25 train and were quietly transferred to the Lewisburg train standing nearby on a siding, which a few minutes later took them to Peru. The men are now at work clearing up the grounds, and will be kept busy for many months to come.
