Bright, Newsy Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

MILESBURG.
Last week was a very busy one for our town. The carnival, the home talent play, farmers getting in their fall grain, the birds congregating to go south, while the September fogs hang low and long over the valleys, with an occasional ray of sunshine breaking through to gladden the inhabitants of the hills. Rev. Clark sweeping the hall, Charley Sheekley helping Billy Smith put slate roof on F. Wetzel's house, Wm. L. Loss painting, A. T. Boggs distributing a small to every female as long as it lasts; the devil holding Sunday school over all the race.

Most everybody is gathering elderberries and eating roasting ears. Say I never heard whether or not there were any fish in the beautiful river the Good Book speaks about, anyhow I am sure there are no succors there. He a poor show for politicians and easy job-seekers. Well, I must stop or I may hurt someone's feelings. Talk about hurt feelings, I heard of a girl and her beau who were running to get out of a rain storm; her eye caught on something, and she fell head long into a mud hole and her escort helped her to get on her feet; then he asked if she was hurt. She gave him one long disdainful look, then replied, "Do you think any person can look like this and not be hurt?"

Poor little Jim Bradley went and got married last week. Hark, boys, you can almost hear the music to another wedding march.

Visitors:
E. M. Watt and Paul Moore, two of Swisvale's councilmen, are spending their vacation here with their friend, Howard Nagle.

Bessie and Robert Clark, of Curvesville, came to attend the fair and visit their friends, E. A. Bullock and family.

Mrs. A. G. Archev, from Pine Grove Mills, was the guest of Mrs. William Gingham last week.

Mrs. Susanna Zimmerman, of Bellefonte, will make her future home with her son, Carl Zimmerman.

Mrs. J. I. Lucas, her son and daughter, Lyell and Lucille, from Avonmore, are visiting at H. N. Jones.

Miriam Housel returned home last week from Altoona where she has been visiting her brother and friends.

Toner Hugg was in Philadelphia last week on business.

Robert Hockenberry spent Saturday evening at H. Bradley's.

Wm. Reeder moved his family to Williamsburg last week where he has secured employment in a paper mill. It is reported that Chares Emminizer will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Reeder.

Coria F. and Nellie H. went for elderberries last week—got left? No sir. Got into a cornfield.

Isaac Murray planted some cucumber seed last spring and raised a fine lot of cantalopes from them. Didn't you, Isaac?

Churches.
Rev. Ash preached a very appropriate and practical sermon Sunday morning; his topic was the Golden Rule. Next Sunday at 7:45 p. m. he expects to preach his annual temperance sermon.

Rev. Clark preached a very interesting Biblical Historical sermon on Sunday evening to a good-sized congregation in the Baptist church.

It is reported that Rev. Day will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening.

Thomas Harold Martin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Martin, died at his home in Boggs township, Thursday, August 29, 1912, after a short illness. The funeral services took place from his home Sunday afternoon at 1:30. Services were conducted by Rev. S. S. Clark. Burial took place in cemetery near Milesburg.

Miss Anna Packer, from Lock Haven, visited her old school friend, Ophelia Haupt, Sunday.

Henry Heaton, of Belleville, spent his 82nd anniversary with John Swartz and family.

Rose Haup came home Saturday after spending her vacation in the south.

The question was asked me how Long was Watt. Ask Margarette.

Joseph Williams and wife, C. W. Williams and daughter and Ethel Broadhead, all of Williamsport, were guests at W. S. Walkers last week.

Poorman Reunion.
Held in Kohlbeckers grove last week was reported a grand success with between three and four hundred in attendance. Speakers were, Rev. J. A. Zeigler, of Snow Shoe, and J. A. Gleason. The refreshments, singing and music were fine. They were also treated to a fantastic parade and races for which a number of prizes were given. The booty prizes were awarded to J. A. Confer, of Yarnell, and Florence Leathers, of Mt. Eagle. There were persons present from Snow Shoe, Tyrone, Avis, Orviston, Williamsport, Jersey Shore, Howard, Clearfield, Philipsburg, Mt. Eagle and Bellefonte.

That Carnival.
Well Milesburg was treated to a typical wild west parade Thursday and Friday evenings. It was like a panoramic play of semi-comic views. Anyhow you ought to have seen those boys and girls dressed in wild west style, pop guns and all; they even had Mexican pony riders and Swane River dudes and an imitation Irish woman who fell all over the street. They did not have a brass band; they didn't need any. Our boys and girls and married folks who took part in the fandango can't be beat, and more than that they can beat the band any time. Their receipts were about $72.

Schools.
Boggs township schools will open September 9. Miss Anna Schroyer has been selected to teach the Shope school where she taught last year. Samantha Fownell will take charge of the Moose Run school. Miss M. G. Harshbarger will have charge of the grammar school and Miss Anna Delaney the primary school of Central City. The borough schools opened Monday a. m., Sept. 2nd.

Budd Jones is shingling James Gray's house and doing other repairs.

Mrs. Viola Hastings and Rosetta Schenck of Howard and Mrs. Minnie Swisher and daughter Olive and granddaughters, Dorothy and Marie, of Mill Hall, were visitors at the home of E. D. Johnson's last week.

The farcical entertainment entitled "Ye District Skule at Blueberry corners" was given last Saturday night by the young people of the Milesburg Baptist Church. The school opened with nineteen scholars present, however two of these were late. Although it rained very hard without, yet Wetzel's hall was as full of people as the mountain stream is full of water in the spring. The school committee examined four applicants who varied in experience and looks. There was the old time spelling and the figuring was very good; the visitors found a great deal to laugh about. It was evident from the way the geography class answered the general questions that they had studied very hard, but strange to say each scholar seemed to think that his own town and swimming pool was the largest. If we are to take the congratulations sincerely which were given to those who took part we would say that it was a grand success. Since there were many who could not come on account of the rain another session of the school will be held this coming Friday evening September 6th.

W. Blaine Port and his young bride Della returned last week from their wedding tour in which they visited Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Wallace Red Brick Company received an order for 350 tons of Radial blocks. They were the last dies that were installed in the plant.

JULIAN.
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Irwin of Buffalo, N. Y., circulated among Mr. Irwin's relatives and old-time friends here the past few days. Mr. Irwin is now holding down a lucrative position with the Underwriters Fire association of New York state.

Mrs. John McCann, of Tyrone, spent Saturday with her many friends here.

Those who attended the funeral of George Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Parsons, of Unionville, on Friday afternoon were: Mrs. L. C. Bullock, Mrs. I. F. Davis, Mrs. Rebecca Swisher, Mrs. M. S. Harbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Mills Alexander, W. G. Taitelbaum, Mrs. E. J. Irwin, Mrs. Turner and Milligan Richards. George was well and favorably known here as his parents were one time residents of Julian, and the community extends their sincerest sympathy to the surviving family.

Mrs. Charles Catherwood, of Osceola Mills, spent the week's end with relatives in town, and of course didn't forget to call on the writer here.

Mrs. Cyrus Hunter, of Stormstown, visited town on Saturday.

Miss Eva Davis is off on her vacation, and during her absence she will observe the doings at Harrisburg, Halifax, Lancaster and Williamsport. Presumably the most enjoyable time will be spent at Halifax, but the "why's and wherefore's" the writer will keep in his vest pocket, this time.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Alf Rowan, the writer was presented with a liberal sample of large white old-fashioned peaches, Gee whikers! Minnie, what luscious specimens!

Last week's visitors entertained at the home of Mrs. Eliza Myers were: Mrs. John Redding, son and daughter, of Altoona, and the Misses Jennie and Effie Williams of Philipsburg.

Miss Elva Campbell departed on Saturday afternoon for a week's recreation visiting among friends and relatives at Tyrone, Bellwood and Altoona.

In a recent issue of a newspaper called "The Weekly Alliance," edited and published at La Grand, Oregon, the writer notes the marriage of Elmer E. Meyers who formerly was one of Julian's popular young men but for the past 2 1/2 years a resident of La Grand, Oregon. The article states that Mr. Meyers was one of the most genial and unassuming hotel men in eastern Oregon, and on Wednesday August the 14th, he and his bride, Miss Bertha M. Kelley journeyed to Walla Walla, Wash., where they were united in marriage in the Methodist parsonage at 8:30 p. m., after which they enjoyed a brief honeymoon tour to different interesting points in that western scope. It further speaks of Mr. Meyers as being one of the town's assiduous gentlemen, ranking among their most prosperous business men, and that he and his newly-wed-bride numbers among their most highly respected citizens. His many friends here extend their warmest congratulations and wish them a long, happy and prosperous future.

Station agent A. C. Irwin, of Bigler, arrived in town on Saturday morning in his new "run-about auto" to spend part of his vacation with his mother here. Drive 'im easy, Arthur.

Rev. Smith will deliver his farewell sermon before going to conference on September the 8th, at 10:30 a. m.; all should be present at this service.

Miss Minnie Gill, whom I mentioned last week as being seriously ill was taken to the Bellefonte, hospital, for treatment, and at this writing is said to be resting much easier.

Harrie Harbridge improved his property by adding a new corn crib; the job was done by his brother, Martin.

As so many readers are sending me requests to include some of my poetical writings with my items, I may try to oblige them. It occurs to the writer that the following has been the fate of many an innocent bird.

A Lark's Sad Fate.
A meadow lark, one morning clear
Flew from his nest to him so dear.
To feed his young down by the stump;
Where he, a happy home has made
And where his Mate and young now stayed.
While "Old Tom" sat in the meadow,
Watching a mouse hole, saw him high,
He then crouched lower in the dew,
While straight in his direction flew:
The meadow lark, who was so free
No thought of danger, then, had he.
The lark alighted in the grass
Old Tom sprang out, and then, alas
A helpless captive now he lay
As Tom held tightly to his prey;
The feeble struggle which he gave
Helped him not, his life to save.
Beneath the stump, beside the lane
Waited his coming all in vain
The mother lark, who never knew
What had happened, nor where he flew.
'Twas a long, sad lonesome wait,
For the coming of one, who met his fate.
(One of a hundred poems by V. C. Harbridge.)

Young Man Has Eye Injured.
While Harold Packer and Arthur Taylor, two young men employed at Renovo, were playfully tossing bits of steel at one another, Packer was struck in the eye, and injured so severely that it may permanently impair the sight, and is now taking treatment at the Wills Eye Hospital in Philadelphia.

NITTANY.
Ex-sheriff B. F. Shaffer passed his 82nd milestone in life's journey on last Friday, Aug. 30th. Those who helped him celebrate were W. E. Shaffer, of Millinburg; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Shaffer, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. William Harter, of Tyroneville; William Meyer and Miss Margaret Harter, of Loganton; and Mrs. J. E. Swartz, of Hubersburg. Mr. Shaffer is in very good health and bids fair to become a nonagenarian. Other guests at the Shaffer home the past week were Mrs. S. E. Ralph and daughter Mary, of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Robb, and children, Ralph and Eleanor, of Altoona.

Miss Mittie Winkelman, of Philadelphia, arrived on Saturday and spent her house here. Miss Winkelman will stay until the first of October when she will return to the city for the winter.

P. E. Spicer visited his family at this place about Sunday. We are sorry to report the illness of his little daughter Margaret, the little tot having a siege of mumps.

Miss Verna Allison left on Monday morning to take up her duties as a teacher in the boro schools of State College. We wish her success in the new work.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Fisher attended the funeral of their niece, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich, of Hubersburg, last Saturday.

Some of our young people attended the corn roast given by Harold Hoy last Thursday evening and report a delightful evening.

Preaching next Sunday evening in the Evangelical church at 7:30. Everybody invited.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Percy Welner on next Saturday at 2:30 p. m. It is hoped all members and officers will be present.

Peter Evers, of Flemington, was a dinner guest of G. W. Young and family on Saturday.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Perry Rachau, who tramped on a nail some time ago and has been suffering a great deal since, is much better at this writing.

George Miller and wife of Flemington, were guests of Mrs. Howard Brickley, over Sunday.

Some of our people attended Armbruster's public sale, near Hubersburg, one day the past week.

W. E. Shaffer, of Philipsburg, visited his father and sister and many other friends here over Sunday.

Miss Helen Rossman and her sister, a friend of Mackeyville, spent Sunday with her parents here.

H. P. Zerby lost a valuable two-year old colt the past week. It had distemper and other complications.

Mrs. George Patterson and little daughter of Flemington, were the guests of the former's parents, G. W. Young and family several days the past week.

Israel Heckman, of Mackeyville, was the guest of Frank Toner, and family on Sunday.

Mrs. P. E. Zerby has returned home after having spent ten days very pleasantly at Atlantic City and Philadelphia and other large cities.

Monday September 9th our public schools will open.

Some of our people took in the big time at Renovo on Labor day to hear the Eagle scream.

Our farmers are busy plowing.

PORT MATILDA.
Owing to the inclemency of the weather last Saturday evening, the ladies of Black Oak, U. B. church will again be the guests of the home of G. W. Gates, on Saturday evening, Sept. 14th. Ice cream and cake will also be served. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Lawrence Dubbs and son Charles, of Tyrone, and Jesse Wood, Mrs. Jacob Woodring, Mrs. A. L. Cowher, Miss Maria Cowher, and Geo. Farnsler were all pleasant visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gates, on last Friday.

Miss Mabel Moore and brother, Beaver, two of Philipsburg's estimable young people, drove over the mountain last Saturday evening and enjoyed the social at G. W. Gates.

Miss Clara Thompson made a brief trip to Tyrone, last Friday, in order to be equipped to open her school last Monday.

Miss Emma Reese departed last Sunday evening for Tyrone, where she was reassigned the responsible position as teacher of one of the principal schools.

Dennis Reese, having built an all to his house, has greatly improved the appearance of the same.

The hucksters, automobilists and all who travel the mountain road leading from this place to Philipsburg, greatly appreciate the work that is being done on the road.

GEORGES VALLEY.
There is a certain man in our valley who is in the commercial business, passing 3-cent pieces for dimes.

Miss Pearl Heckman Sundayed at Nathaniel Zettle's.

One of our married men has formed quite a nice path up along the mountain towards Beech. This will be quite convenient to the rabbit hunters this fall.

John Ripka and family spent Sunday with his father, Wm. Ripka.

W. W. Jamison and wife spent Thursday evening at P. A. Auman's.

One of our young men lost his shoes and stockings on Saturday evening coming home from town; he is now suffering with frosted feet. Sorry J. L.

ORVISTON.
Rev. Clark, of Milesburg, preached a very interesting sermon to a large audience of eager listeners on Monday evening. Rev. Shafter preached his farewell sermon on Sunday night; he expects to return to school in a few days. His many friends will be sorry to see him go.

Henry Heaton, of Blanchard, visited friends at this place last week.

Harry McCaslin has returned home from the Lock Haven hospital with her little boy, who was recently shot with a signal cap in a most mysterious way and is somewhat better. There are still three pieces of metal in his head.

George High, while engaged in braking on the clay train, stepped between cars to couple them up, was caught between the bumpers which resulted in getting one leg smashed. The doctor thinks there is probably no bones broken but he is suffering a great deal of pain.

The stork passed over our town last week and left at the home of Albert Williams a baby girl which we are glad to say is getting along in fine shape.

Mrs. Fred Young and children are visiting friends in Williamsport.

Thelma Nelson is visiting her grandmother at Mill Hall.

Harry Mann has moved from this place to Milesburg.

Flick, Earl Straw, Alfred Rowan, Charley Hoover, El Miller, Clark Swisher, Orlando Andrews and Welford Morrison. They all departed for home during the wee small hours of the morning, thanking the family for the very pleasant evening spent and wishing Mr. Douley many more happy birthdays.

Good Reports From Young Pastor.
Editor The Democrat:
Many of your readers will rejoice to know that the Rev. Wellington M. Hoover, the recently installed young pastor of the Hubersburg and Zion churches, has evidently begun what I and my wife (here at the Hubersburg Hotel for a much needed outing) had the pleasure of attending, with a large audience, his morning service. His discourse was a brief gospel sermon delivered in a modestly quiet, effective and sincerely earnest manner. I am sure that all of his favored auditors giving heed to "the words of eternal life" were not only profitably instructed, but spiritually edified. One of his right hand men, Supt. David Detrick, has what may be rightfully called a model Bible school. If any one doubts the veracity of my report, it may be safely repeated what Phillip said to inquisitive Nathaniel as King "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Phillip answered him, "Come and see."

Lock Haven Man's Horse a Winner.
Eather W., the fast trotting mare owned by Barton Pardee of Lock Haven, and who has been one of the classiest speeders on the Grand Circuit during the season, again scored a victory on Thursday and incidentally won $5,000 for her owner, when she captured the classic Massachusetts stake for trotters eligible to the 2:12 class at Roadville, Mass.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure, sent for circulars.

Sold by Druggists. J. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Remedies are Needed

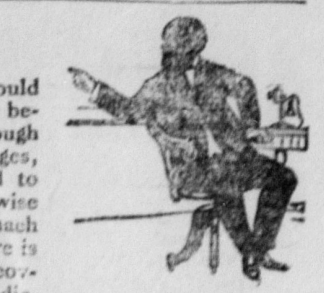

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses.

To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has its outside wrapper the Signature

You can't afford to accept a cheap substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine or expect to get any benefit from it, even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little extra profit.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery invigorates stomach, liver and bowels. Sufferers should take as candy.

Baby Born With Too Heads.
With two perfectly formed heads rising from a single neck and normal body, a 3-days-old child is engaging the attention of physicians of the Johns Hopkins hospital at St. Louis. The child is the daughter of Lola Williams, 18 years old, of De Soto, Mo. Both heads are normally formed. There are two complete sets of eyes and ears, two noses and mouths. It was reported that the child was thriving and taking nourishment. The mother was also doing well.

While twins have been born, like the famous Siamese pair, bound together by skin and ligaments, never before, it is claimed, have two bodies been merged into one as completely as in the case of the Williams' child.
