

ITALIANS OF ROSETO ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

Organize Wilson and Palmer Club and Adopt Resolutions Endorsing Ticket.

At a meeting of the Wilson and Palmer club held at Roseto, Northampton County, Pennsylvania, on the 26th day of August, 1912, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Democratic National Convention at Baltimore adopted a progressive platform, showing the determination of that party to restore real government of the people in this republic and to separate the government from the special interests, which have long been the beneficiaries of Republican rule, and

WHEREAS, The said Convention has nominated for President, Honorable Woodrow Wilson, who, as Governor of New Jersey, has demonstrated his ability and his fitness for the high place for which he has been named, and whose record is sufficient guaranty that his conduct as President of the United States will be in the interest of all the people; and for Vice President, Honorable Thomas R. Marshall, whose record as the Governor of Indiana shows him to be in sympathy with the progressive spirit of the times, and

WHEREAS, The Democratic party of this congressional district has nominated for a third term Honorable A. Mitchell Palmer, whose constant efforts in Congress have been directed toward the improvement of the conditions of the plain people of the land. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the Democratic national ticket and call upon our fellow countrymen who have become citizens of this republic to use their utmost endeavor to secure the election of Wilson and Marshall and of Congressman Palmer.

FRED FARACE, President.

PETER DEL GROSSO, Vice President.

JAMES D. CAPORASO, Secretary.

TONG DE CESARE, Treasurer.

LEONARDO FARACE,

LORENZO SHIOVONI,

GUISYPE FOLIONE,

CASIOLE ANTONIO,

DONATO F. DONATELLO,

Executive Committee.

DAFFYDILLS.

If a tooth aches will a campaign?

If boats have funnels have engineers?

If a lieutenant is fascinating is a brigadier?

If a pawnbroker is your uncle is a restaurant?

If you put grease in the meadow would the cow slip?

Could you say that butter is contagious because it spreads easily?

If a barber dies and goes to heaven will he be a sky scraper?

If you call the Prussians Germans would you call the Portuguese?

If the devil lost his tail would he go to a saloon where they retail bad spirits?

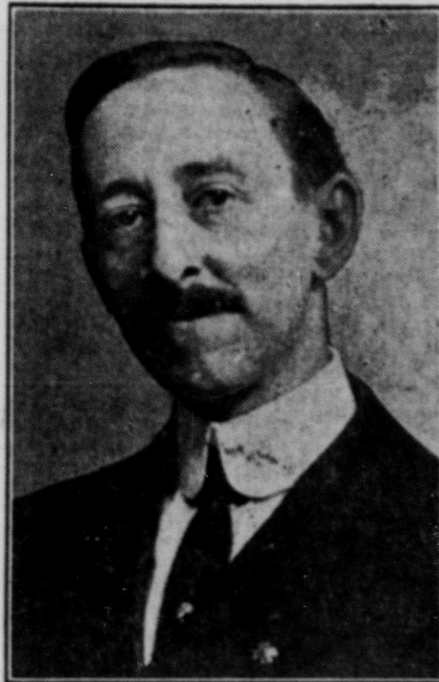

If old Bill Penn was happy on the Delaware what made Washington cross?

If a Frenchman was inoculated with microbes would he then be called a German?

Continued From Preceding Page.

have never appealed to him in vain, but have always found in him a sympathizing friend and generous benefactor. His home life is ideal.

GEORGE R. McLEAN Of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

GEORGE R. McLEAN, one of the Democratic nominees for Congressman-at-Large, was born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., January 24, 1873. After passing through the various grades of the public schools of that city he entered Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., from which institution he was graduated in 1895, receiving the degrees A. B. and A. M.

In 1898 Mr. McLean volunteered as a soldier in the war with Spain and served as Aide-de-Camp on the staff of General John N. Andrews, U. S. A. He had been connected with the National Guard from 1895 until that time in the capacity of Company Commander and Regimental Quartermaster.

Mr. McLean was admitted to the bar of Luzerne County in 1896 and was a member of the Board of Examiners for admission to the bar of the county from 1899 to 1903. He enjoys a large practice and ranks among the foremost lawyers of that exceptionally able bar.

Mr. McLean has taken an earnest interest in public affairs from the time he attained his majority. In 1902 he was elected Controller of Luzern County as the Democratic Candidate. In 1910 he was the Democratic Candidate for Congress in the Eleventh district and was elected but defrauded out of the certificate by his Republican opponent, and is now contesting the seat.

Mr. McLean is married and has five sons. He lives and enjoys the happiness of an ideal home in Wilkes-Barre.

The PRESERVING SEASON

*Cut These Out and Use
Them as Labels for Preserves and Jellies*

Grape Jelly
1912

Grape Jelly
1912

Grape Jelly
1912

Grape Jelly
1912

Grape Jelly
1912

Quince Jelly
1912

Quince Jelly
1912

Quince Jelly
1912

Quince Jelly
1912

Crab Apple Jelly
1912

Crab Apple Jelly
1912

Crab Apple Jelly
1912