

Correspondents' Department

Bright, Newsw Letters From the Various Sections of the County.

MILESBERG.

Visitors:
The party who misappropriated Toner Hugg's tape line.
M. M. Summers and wife were guests of Harvey Bradley and family Sunday.

J. W. Hall is spending a few days in Tyrone with his son and relatives.
Edward Bavarr and wife, of Phillipsburg, spent Sunday with her mother, Emma Bavarr.

Enoch Hugg and son Harrison, and James his grandson, ran their auto up to Walt, Smith's gate and made a few calls.

Nellie Hall visited her sister in Galeton for a few days and came home last Friday.

Bertha Watson went to Altoona last week to visit some friends.

A large dog knocked Mrs. Lee Smith to the sidewalk, a few days ago, seriously injuring her left knee.

Harry and Frank Kepler, of Renovo, are installing a steam heating apparatus in Dorsey Woodruff's home. Getting ready to make it warm for Mr. Zero.

Kathryn Adams visited Mrs. McKinley, of Howard, a few days last week. Charles, wife and family, of Pittsburg, and Harry and Mrs. Christ Jodon, of Altoona, are visiting at John Jodon's to see their mother, whom we are pleased to say, is getting along nicely.

Joseph Pressler moved his family from Bellefonte to the Shafter house on Pike street, a few days ago.

William S. Walker, who has been off duty for a few days, is occupying the time by painting the finishing work of his home.

Wilbur Cramer, of Berwick, Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Toner Hugg.

Sam Haupt received his first compensation from the Penna. Railroad Co. for charity's sake, Monday. Seady now, Sam.

John D. W. Bullock, of State College, spent a few hours at the home of Mr. Wilkinson, Sunday.

Samuel Baird, from Lewistown, spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baird, last week.

L. T. Eddy departed for Pittsburg Sunday evening on a business trip.

Mrs. George Watson and Mrs. Clarence Fisher, of Lock Haven, came on the evening train to visit at David Allen's.

C. B. Haupt and wife, William Lee and wife, of South Fork, made P. H. Haupt and family a call Sunday, then continued their journey in a big auto via State College, home.

James McMullen and wife caught twenty-six nice fish the other day. The Misses Derr caught sixteen. How is that for getting nibbles?

Wilbur Miles got a very interesting epistle to his parents a few days ago. He is employed by the State Highway department and is now located in the wilds of Clearfield county.

Violet Fisher, who has been visiting her brother John in Northumberland for several weeks, returned home Friday and reported having a good time.

Leroy Hall, wife and son, of Tyrone, are visiting with J. W. Hall and family, this week.

Edgar Miles, who has charge of the supply department of the P. R. R. in Altoona, will make a trip over other divisions to interview each foreman to learn what supplies they have on hand, and what is needed.

Edward Vonetta, from Rochester, N. Y., is visiting with his wife's mother, Mrs. Barbara Peters.

Mr. Scott, wife and son, of Tyrone, are guests at William Fetter's.

Mrs. W. L. Johnson, of Juniata, is visiting at the home of W. S. Johnson.

G. W. Rightenour went to Altoona to pass fireman's examination, and expects to be employed soon.

Miss Bessie Miles visited the Williamsport Seminary last week.

Those who break the speed limit take heed for Tiny Austin and Lee Smith have been selected as policemen for Milesburg borough; so those autolists who recklessly drive their cars through this town take warning. Some machines are driven so hard upon the iron bridge that the iron rattling can be heard one-fourth of a mile. All such will be arrested. Some even pass through without lights.

Mabel Austin came home Saturday, after visiting with friends in State College.

Rhoda Wartz is visiting her sister, Mrs. Homer Noll, of Tyrone, this week.

Wouldn't it be glorious to be locked in a cellar with a spoon and fifty gallons of ice cream. Ask one of our young men; he had some experience.

Rev. Clark preached a very impressive and appropriate sermon Sunday evening in the Baptist church.

There will be preaching in the M. E. church next Sunday morning and evening by Rev. Asst.

The Willing Workers of the Baptist church will hold a fair on thanksgiving evening.

H. G. Ebbs, wife and daughter Mabel and Esther Spicer have a tent at the Grange picnic this week. Ice cream is the main feature there.

Eva Kline is visiting with friends in Centre Hall, also attending the picnic.

Elsie Spicer has charge of the grocery and confectionery department of Ebb's store this week.

Grace Kline departed for Detroit, Michigan, Monday evening.

Mrs. Scott Walker and family, of Tyrone, spent Sunday with W. F. Peters and family on Pike street.

Miss Frances Houser, of Pittsburg, was the week-end guest of Miss Marcella Boggs.

Gea, but you ought to have seen the crowd at the corn roast last Friday evening. Who—who—anybody coming? No, no, a darned one. Maybe Grace and Budd knows something about it. Who's afraid? I'll fix em—a flash and a leaden missile pierced the dark shades of night. Then all was quiet; nobody hurt.

The corn crop on Christ Beezer's farm is fine.

Ben Alkey has been making one trip a day to Centre Hall with ice cream for Mr. Ebbs.

W. B. Runkle made a trip to our town on business, Monday.

Uncle Ezra Says

"It don't take more'n a fill of effort to git folks into a peck of trouble, and a little neglect of constipation, biliousness, indigestion or other liver derangement will do the same. If ailing, take Dr. King's New Life Pills for quick results. Easy, safe, sure, and only 25 cents at C. M. Farrelly, Ph. G., Bellefonte, Pa. Sep.

NITTANY.

School opened last Monday, the 9th, with 40 scholars on the roll and still more to come. Our teacher is Mr. Albert Zimmerman.

Mrs. William Webber, of Lamar, and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Deltz, and two little daughters, of Windber, Somerset Co., were the guests of the former's brother, G. W. Tolbert and wife, one day the past week.

The Sunday school and church members in general will hold a big festival in the churchyard on next Saturday evening, Sept. 21, to raise money to put new steps and a walk in front of the church; it is hoped that everybody will turn out and help this worthy cause along.

There will be harvest home services in the U. E. church at this place next Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. Everybody cordially invited.

Quite a number of our people are attending the big picnic at Centre Hall this week.

Miss Edna Graden, of Lock Haven; Miss Ethel Winkelman, of Flemington; Floyd Phoenix, of Corning, N. Y.; C. W. Willow, of Corning, N. Y.; and H. W. Winkelman and wife, of Avis, were guests of Howard Brickley and family on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover and twin babies, of Hubbersburg, visited Mrs. Stover's sick mother, Mrs. Tate, on Saturday.

D. A. McDowell was to Mill Hall and Bellefonte last week on business. He is our up-to-date jeweler and also repairs sewing machines.

Miss Penina Shields, of Nittany, thanks her friends and relatives for their kind remembrance of her birthday by holding a handkerchief show for her on Sept. 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tolbert visited Mr. and Mrs. William Webber and family on Sunday at Lamar.

Charles Decker and family, of Snyderdowntown, John Deviney and family, of Hubbersburg, and John Hunt and wife, of Lewistown, were guests of H. A. Long and family on Sunday.

Don't forget the big festival Saturday night on the church lawn.

Miss Katherine Shields, of Lamar, and Mrs. Charley Tate, and her two sons, of Flemington, spent Saturday with Mrs. Hettie Tate and Miss Penina Shields.

Albert Zimmerman and his accomplished wife came down from Hecla and walked right into a furnished house here and expect to remain with us during the winter. Well, that's all right; we welcome you to our town, Albert brought his bound along and expects to do some hunting.

Our men who are employed at Mill Hall were home over Sunday.

Lester Poorman and sister Gertrude, of Williamsport, were the guests of their aunts, Mrs. Glantz and Mrs. Lockard, the past week.

Dan Diehl don't do anything but run around and thrash the farmers—I mean the farmers' grain.

John Williams has gone to Altoona where he expects to get employment.

W. E. Kessinger has the wall up for his new store building.

A man can't sympathize with anyone who has the toothache, unless he has had it himself.

Mr. Deibel, of Philadelphia, Miss Lense, his nurse, and Miss Walker, of Williamsport, were guests at the J. H. Beck home one day last week.

Mrs. Milo Randall, formerly Miss Marie Dorman, of Avis, is a pleasant visitor with Miss Mittie Winkelman at the present.

Miss Mabel Rayhorn, of Altoona, is a guest of Miss Margaret Beck. Miss Margaret suffered from a very severe attack at her heart last week but is better at this writing.

Mrs. G. S. Fisher and daughters, Margaret and Ruth, were Lock Haven shoppers one day last week.

Mrs. Chas. Zerby is visiting friends and relatives at Spring Mills and will be at Grange picnic at Centre Hall part of the week.

A number of our young people attended the cornroast given by Christine Harris and Florence and Katherine Smith at Lamar station, last Friday night. They returned with accounts of a most delightful evening. About sixty people being in attendance.

STORMSTOWN.

Those who attended the big corn roast were as follows: Miss Inez Sellers, Mary and Margaret Hartsock, Lillian Stine, Nora, Freda, Myra Gumbo, Myra Way, Messrs. Benner Gumbo, Roy Clark, Ross and Agnew Sellers, Lloyd Shuey, Boyd Johnson, Collins Way, Robert and Paul Burkert. They were chaperoned by Mrs. Blanchard Mattern. It was held on G. B. Gumbo's grove and they certainly had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wasson and Mrs. D. W. Shively and daughter Ethel went to Niagara Falls for a little recreation. We all hope they had a nice time.

Mrs. Wade Lytle and daughter Hazel spent Sunday in Avoca; Mrs. D. H. Thomas kept house for her.

There were three very popular young ladies out walking on Sunday afternoon and had quite a scare for there were some gooseanders along the road and made the ladies climb the fence.

Miss Ruth Stover is back at her old work again; everybody is glad to see and have her back again. She looks thin.

Sunday, the 22nd, will be the Sunday School Rally at the Stormstown church.

There was a surprise party at Edward Gumbo's in honor of his wife's birthday. Those among the crowd were, Mr. David Eve's family, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Gumbo and two daughters, Freda and Myra, Mrs. W. W. Wilson Ghaner, Mrs. Micee, and Fred Gumbo. They all report having a nice time and left wishing Agnes many more happy birthdays.

MOSHANNON.

Christopher Smoke has returned to Pittsburg where he will attend the blind school for the winter.

Mrs. George Cartwright and family visited on Sunday at Fountain at her sister's, Mrs. James Fye.

Charles Mayes has returned to Valley View near Bellefonte, after working on the state road below Frog Hollow for about a month.

Josie Switzer spent a couple days last week at Philip Walker's in Frog Hollow.

Allie Hazard spent Saturday and Sunday at his uncle's home, George Cartwright, on Windy Hill.

Sarah Cartwright spent Sunday at her uncle's home, James Fye at Fountain. Oh, you black skates.

Clyde Fye, who is employed at Orviston, is spending a couple days at Tom Fye's.

JULIAN.

The stork while making his rounds through this section paid his respects at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Smay, leaving a little daughter.

Miss Mable Woods, a charming lass of Osceola Mills, is circulating among friends and relatives in our village. Franklin W. Dillen and wife took a steamer up the Potomac on Friday evening and upon arriving at the pier at Altoona, they disembarked, spending Saturday and Sunday very pleasantly at that place.

Those of our prospective boys and girls who are reported as attending school in Bellefonte this season are: John and William Holt, Gilbert Mattern, Herbert Williams, Roy Myers, Albe Walizer and Jennie Straw.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Straw, of Wallis, Pa., arrived in town last week to visit with relatives and to cheer Mrs. Straw's mother, Mrs. Colonel Andrews, who at this writing is seriously ill. Our kindest wishes to Mrs. Andrews for a speedy recovery.

Miss Sadie and Ida Turner and Lizzie Hand, a trio of our fair lasses, were entertained by friends at Hanna over the Sabbath.

The "apple cutting" at the home of Farmer C. M. Myers one evening last week proved to be a great success and much enjoyed by all present who were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Albert V. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Williams, Mr. and Mrs. William Pink, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. John Breen, Mrs. Maud Alexander, Mrs. Mollie Tallheim, Mrs. Ollie Gott, Mrs. William Miller, and the Misses Clara Myers, Sadie and Ida Turner, Cordelia Alexander, Lizzie Hand, Fern Gumbo, Ella Wilson and Elva Campbell; the Messrs. Charles and John Turner, John Turner, Harry and Gilbert Holt, Roy Myers, John Campbell, Harry Zimmerman and Howard Gott. After the required quantity of apples had been handled by these human paring machines, refreshments were served. Who ate the most roasting ears? And did it give them a pain?

Mrs. Askey, wife of station agent Dean Askey, of Osceola Mills, stopped off on her way home from Penn Cave where she visited friends, and is spending this week circulating among relatives in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

Miss Sadie Turner, who has spent the summer most enjoyably with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, of Williamsport, is spending the week at her home in Julian. She is accompanied by her bright little daughter, Miss Isabel Lenore Askey.

FRUIT TOWN—Potter Twp.

Mrs. John Dugan and Mrs. Wm. Dugan and son, of Bellefonte, spent a few days with the former's daughter, Mrs. John Venerick, at this place.

Chas. Fye, of State College, spent a few days with friends at P. C. City.

On Tuesday morning about 3 o'clock, J. S. Houseman was claimed by the death angel, taken from our midst to the great beyond to meet his loved ones, where good byes are never known and partings are no more. Mr. Houseman will be greatly missed by his many friends and neighbors; he was also a faithful member of the United Evangelical church and his death was a great shock in this community. Funeral services were held on Thursday morning at Zion which was largely attended. Services were conducted by Rev. Caris, also Rev. Martin.

Mrs. Mahala Nevel left for State College where she is employed in a restaurant.

Grangers picnic is all the go now. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Jordan, Mrs. Frank Bodgon, also grandson, Paul Runkle, of Pottery Mills, spent Sunday at the home of John Bubb's.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Royer and family, of Red Mill, spent Sunday with friends at Fruit town.

Harvey Bierley, of Centre Hall, spent Saturday night with his best girl in Fruit. That is right, Harvey, come back to the old love, as you will find it true, don't give up the old one for the new.

RUNVILLE.

Mrs. Daniel Poorman, of this place, and Miss Lizzie Weaver, of Milesburg, departed Saturday morning for Centre Hall to attend the Granger picnic at that place.

Mrs. Geo. Huyok and son Ralph, formerly of Williamsport but now of Rochester, N. Y., spent one day last week at the home of J. K. Johnston at Tyrone.

William Lucas, of Jersey Shore, commonly known as Boodle, was circulating among his friends on Saturday and Sunday.

On last Tuesday evening there was a heavy shower passed over this place during which Mrs. Ellen Priel received 72 post cards, it being her seventy-fifth birthday.

Last Saturday quite a number of people from this place attended the Red Men's picnic at Yarnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Poorman spent Sunday at the home of Joseph Rook.

Frank Marks, of Williamsport, visited on Saturday and Sunday at this place.