Mrs. G. Oscar Gray and little son returned home Tuesday from a visit to relatives in Hazleton, Pa.

Miss Helen McGowan, of Moshannon, was a visitor among Bellefonte friends the fore part of the week.

Joshua Potter, one of Centre Hall's representative citizens, was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Monday.

J. A. White, one of Howard's well-to-do citizens, was a pleasant caller at this office, while in town on Monday.

Miss Claude Cook and daughter, Miss Eleanor Cook, left on Tuesday afternoon for a visit to friends in Philadelphia.

Clemens Dale, Esq., one of Bellefonte's leading attorneys, transacted legal business in Philadelphia Saturday of last week.

"Sunbonnet Sue" is said to be one of the finest comedies to be seen here this season. At the opera house next Monday night.

Lieut. Edward R. Taylor, military instructor at the Huntingdon Reformatory, spent Sunday with his family in this place.

Captain James A. Quigley, one of Blanchard's leading merchants, and father of H. C. Quigley of this city, transacted business in town on Monday.

Blagg Lattauer's representative will be at the Brockerhoff House, Saturday, October 5th, with a complete set of Ladies and Misses coats and suits.

A meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in the Y. M. C. A. building Monday evening, October 7th, 1912, eight o'clock. Members requested to attend.

Mrs. Marilla Dawson departed on Tuesday afternoon for Milton, Pa., where she will visit friends and take in the sights of the great Milton fair in progress there this week.

Charles Faxon, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of Millheim, was a Bellefonte visitor Monday, between trains, while on his way to visit friends and relatives in Williamsport.

Edmund Hayes, of Chicago, Ill., who is holding a good position in the Windy City, is spending this week with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes. He will return to Chicago Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Lingie, formerly of this place, but now of DuBois, Pa., were arrivals in town on Tuesday afternoon and are guests of Mrs. Edwin W. Garman and other Bellefonte friends.

Charles P. Hewes, Esq., one of the leading attorneys of Erie, Pa., is a guest at the Hutchinson home on east Howard street. Mr. Hewes is interested in some legal matters, pertaining to this week's court.

W. C. Armstrong, formerly Deputy Recorder of Centre County, but now book-keeper for the Bellefonte Lime company at Salona, Pa., spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Armstrong, of east Howard street.

Miss E. Catherine Meyer, a trained nurse, was summoned to Bellefonte the past week to take charge of a patient in this place. Miss Meyer is a daughter of J. S. Meyer, of Penn township, and a recent graduate of the University Hospital at Philadelphia.

Charles Larimer, who is in the employ of one of the large telephone companies, with headquarters at Johnstown, Pa., spent Sunday with his family in this place. Mrs. Larimer and little child are staying with Mrs. Schofield and wife of south Thomas street.

Joseph Thall and George Waite, Jr. are exhibiting their Circling Wreath at the Milton fair this week. Last week they were to have been in Clearfield but the weather was so bad that they did not unload their machine from the cars. The weather this week has been fine and it is hoped they will have good success.

Miss Maud C. Bear, one of the efficient teachers in the Bellefonte High school, departed on Monday evening for her home in Rock Island, Ill. where she was called, by some family matters, which demanded her attention. She expects to return here in a few days to resume her duties as teacher. In her absence her place is being filled by Miss Alice Lowery.

William Bryan, of this city, departed on Monday for Mt. Union, Pa., where he has accepted a position in the Harbison-Walker Brick Works. He will also play in the Mt. Union band, which is backed by the Harbison-Walker company, and is one of the best bands in Central Pennsylvania. This band is making a bit at the Loyal War Governors celebration in Altoona last week.

Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Graham, of Salona, were guests over Sunday of C. C. Shuey of west High street. Rev. Graham and wife participated in the church and Sunday school services at the Methodist church on Sunday, both morning, afternoon and evening. They both have fine voices and sang several solos at the different services, to the delight of the large audiences in attendance. In the evening Rev. Graham delivered an eloquent sermon which made a deep impression on all present. Rev. and Mrs. Graham left on Monday for Hazleton, Pa., where they will conduct services in the Methodist church there. They are both sincere christian people and are meeting with great success in their work.

David K. Geiss, of Bellefonte, is in receipt of a letter from his brother, Jacob K. Geiss, which relates among other things, the fact that there is an epidemic among the horses there that is killing them off by the thousands. The veterinarians pronounce it epinal meningitis and say it is infectious but not contagious. There does not seem to be any cure for it, once a horse becomes infected. His letter also says that the Roosevelt sentiment out there is dying out and that everything is for Wilson. When David Geiss visited his brother last winter, the latter with his sons were red hot for Teddy, but they are now just as enthusiastic for the Democratic nominee. Straws show which way the wind blows.

Graustark tomorrow night at the opera house.

William E. Rice, of this place, attended the Free Methodist church conference in Tyrone last week.

Mrs. Cameron Burnside returned home on Monday evening from a visit to friends in Tonawanda, N. Y.

Mrs. Jacob Finkelstein and little daughter, Bernice, departed Monday afternoon for a visit to friends and relatives in Philadelphia.

Mrs. S. H. Bennisson and daughter, Miss Mabel Bennisson, of Howard, were pleasant callers at our office while in town on Tuesday.

Miss Ida Green, of South Water street, departed Monday afternoon for Philadelphia where she will be the guest of friends and relatives.

Miss Linnie Royer, of Tyrone, was a guest during the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crawford, of North Spring street.

Misses Louise Armor and Ann Fox departed on Monday for a ten days' vacation which they will spend at Niagara Falls and Thousand Islands.

Since State College is open and the Academy is in full swing it makes a perceptible difference in the town, and the business people note an increase of trade from these sources.

A Democratic meeting is booked for Bellefonte on Tuesday, October 15. Among the list of speakers are Governor Emmet O'Neal of Georgia and others. The list will be announced in our next issue.

Mrs. Daniel Daup and Mrs. James B. Storch, of Centre Hall, passed through Bellefonte last Saturday on their way to Onaway, Michigan, where they will visit their only brother, Robert Evans of that city.

Signum Joseph and Harry Keller, Esq., transacted business in Tyrone last Friday in connection with the Deener Orphanage properties at that place. Al Garman kindly showed them around the city in his Ford touring car.

Friday's Phillipsburg Journal says: Clement Dale, Esq., of Bellefonte, is in our city on professional business. He is an aspirant for Judgeship honors, and of course would not be averse to talking about the matter with his friends.

Wormy chestnuts have been in market the past week. We do not know whether Wilson or the Bull Moose is to blame for this defect. Thus far they have been blaming almost everything that is liable to go wrong, on the Governor of New Jersey.

Miss Jessie Kerstetter, of Millheim, who received her education as a trained nurse at the Bellefonte hospital, spent several days this week with friends in this place, while on her way to Chicago, Ill., where she will be employed during the coming winter.

The Reformed congregation are about to have their steeple repainted and the work has been given to Frank Eckenroth, who has made quite a reputation as a steeple jack. Frank came from his home in Sunbury, Monday night and will begin work as soon as possible.

Frank Crissman, eldest son of W. Homer Crissman, of this city, departed on Monday afternoon for Buffalo, N. Y., where he has accepted a position with the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad. His many friends in Bellefonte wish him success in his new position.

The Coleville band gave one of their delightful concerts in front of the Brockerhoff House on Saturday evening. This is one of the best musical organizations in Central Pennsylvania and Bellefonte should be justly proud of the progress made by this band and should encourage them wherever possible.

General and Mrs. James A. Beaver left Tuesday morning for Atlantic City, where they will spend the month of October, in the hope that the general may recuperate from the effects of his recent illness so as to enable him to take part in the Superior Court's sessions, during the first two weeks in November.

On Saturday we had a pleasant call from the Hon. William Tobias, of Millheim, who was here on his way home from the big celebration at Altoona. "Billy," as his friends around here always call him, is as spry as ever, and age seems to be dealing gently with him. He reports Wilson coming strong in his section of the county.

The ministers of the city will give every man an opportunity of a four years course in bible study at the Y. M. C. A. every Tuesday night. Supper will be served at 6:15, study at 7 o'clock. The course will be as follows: First year, "Bible and its way of teaching"; second year, "The life of Christ"; third year, "Old Testament Course"; fourth year, "Apostolic times." Every man is invited.

Sheriff Lee and District Attorney D. Paul Fortney spent Friday in Philadelphia and came home Saturday morning. They are Sheriff's auto across the mountains. They report they had the luck to see a large bob cat cross the road in front of them, and were close enough to have easily shot the animal, but they had no gun with them. Some funny questions are put to these county officials when they relate the incident, but they insist it is all true and they corroborate each other in every detail.

Friday evening there were some twenty automobiles lined up on the diamond, a sight that attracted attention and forcibly brought to mind that the modern method of travel is gradually displacing with the faithful horse that filled the bill for centuries. Saturday nights the automobiles that come in from the country usually are lined up on the diamond in front of the court house until all the available space is taken up showing that the auto is becoming practical for the country people to use, as well as for others.

Saturday afternoon Hon. J. H. Wetzel was in our office with a curiosity in the shape of a full grown strawberry that he picked in his garden today, and reports that there are quite a quantity on his plants this fall, being the second crop. The same evening we noticed in the Lock Haven Express that a truck farmer had been to their market that morning and had sold a lot of second-crop strawberries, so the same fruit is doubling up in other sections this season. The prolonged wet season the past few weeks may be the cause of the plants putting forth the second crop this year.

Fred Chambers, of Philadelphia, was a business visitor in Bellefonte this week.

Ex-Sheriff W. M. Cronister, of Marthia, was a business visitor in town on Tuesday.

Lewis Meyers, fireman on the Bellefonte shift, spent Sunday with his family in Tyrone.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Harris, Sr., returned home on Sunday from a pleasant sojourn at Atlantic City.

Miss Annie Parker, of Somerset, Pa., is a pleasant guest of her brother, G. Ross Parker and family of South Thomas street.

The County Commissioners are busy this week deferring the assessment blanks over the county for the coming Tri-ennial assessment.

Mrs. Helen Atherton Govier, daughter of the late President Atherton, of State College, was the guests of Bellefonte friends Tuesday.

Miss Mary Underwood, stenographer in the office of the Pennsylvania Match company, visited among friends in Tyrone on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Barlet and interesting little son, Harold, returned home on Sunday, after spending several days in Altoona during the big celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Mallilieu are rejoicing over the birth of a bright little baby girl which arrived at their home Monday morning. Congratulations are now in order.

A complete showing of all the novelties of the season in Ladies and Misses coats and suits, will be held at the Brockerhoff House, Saturday, October 5th. See Katz & Co's Ad.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Haupt and two children returned home Tuesday from a very pleasant visit to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Latham, of Sunbury, Pa.

Mrs. Margaret Kirby and little son, William Armstrong Kirby, Jr., of Trappe, Md., are pleasant guests at the home of Mrs. Kirby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Sechler, of east Linn street.

Mrs. John Bauer and children returned to their home in this place on Saturday after spending the summer season in Dewar, where Mr. Bauer is employed by the Eyre-Shoemaker Construction Co.

Mrs. Charles Shaffner and daughter, Miss Anna Shaffner, who have been spending the summer in Bellefonte at the Warfield home, on east Curtin street, left last Saturday for their home in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Noll, of Pleasant Gap, left on Saturday for an extended trip to Harrisburg, Philadelphia and Atlantic City. While in Philadelphia they will order her fall and winter stock of the latest styles of millinery.

Prof. Walter H. McIntire, of the Tennessee State University, formerly a member of the Penn. State Faculty, and a son-in-law of the late J. Calvin Meyer, of this place, was a business visitor at Bellefonte and State College during the past week.

Mrs. George Garbrick will close her residence on east High street for the next few weeks while visiting her son Charles in Philadelphia. Mrs. Garbrick expects to leave tomorrow, and will be one of a party of several who are making an autumn visit to the city.

James Williams, book-keeper for the Potter-Hoy Hardware Company, attended the funeral of Elmer E. Adams at Lock Haven Wednesday.

The deceased was a son-in-law of conductor James Waddell, of Lock Haven, and was a prominent business man, being secretary and treasurer of the Eagle Brick Company and interested in other enterprises. He was fifty years of age and leaves a wife and two children.

John J. Kintner, Esq., the well known Lock Haven attorney, was in Bellefonte this week in attendance at court as one of the counsel in the Bittner-Gardner case. Mr. Kintner is not only a good attorney, but he is an enthusiastic advocate of socialism, and frequently delivers addresses on the subject in many parts of the county. Judge of Blair county, on the Socialist ticket and made an excellent showing, although, not a resident of that county.

On Wednesday afternoon Rev. J. W. Stein, former pastor of the Methodist church here, passed through Bellefonte on his way to Danville, where he stepped off and shook hands with quite a number of his friends, who happened to be at the station, at the time. He wished to be remembered to other friends in the Danville district and quite successful in his work.

L. C. Daugherty, of Cleveland, Ohio, who has been visiting at his home in Pine Glenn since last Friday, was transacting business in Bellefonte on Wednesday. Mr. Daugherty is a clean-cut young man, the kind who make good in any environment. He has been a resident of Cleveland for almost a year, being employed as a conductor on the street railway. A two-week's vacation allowed him an opportunity to visit the home folks and also transact important business of which we will have more to say next week.

We are in receipt of a postal from Mrs. Ada V. Runkle, of York, Pa., in which she states that on October 2nd, she leaves York for Baltimore from where she takes passage for Jacksonville, Florida, on the boat. Powhatan, which she will alight for three days and a half landing in Jacksonville Sunday morning, leaving there by rail for her future home in Bradentown, Florida, the land of sunshine and flowers. She says that if any of her Centre county friends come south she hopes they will find time to visit her family, which now consists of her two little boys, Harry and Fred Conde and their mother and the latter's husband, Charles Anderson. They are located on a fruit farm and the many friends here hope that their future life may be happy and prosperous.

Jacob Kast, of Waddle, who recently caused the arrest of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Jones, of the same neighborhood, on a charge of larceny, was himself made defendant in a suit before Squire Musser on Monday.

Last week's session of court Grant Jones was found guilty of stealing from Kast, and was sentenced to six months in the county jail, while his wife was discharged. Mrs. Jones, however, brought a charge against Kast of stealing a chair from her, which is said to have been found in the yard of his premises. The evidence at the hearing on Monday was insufficient to convince Squire Musser that larceny had been committed, and he therefore favored dividing the costs and dismissing the case. This did not meet with the approval of the prosecution, and the matter ended by the Squire throwing up the case.

"Sunbonnet Sue" at the opera house next Monday night.

George Eberhart is doing carpenter work in Tusseyville this week.

See the romantic play, "Graustark," at the opera house tomorrow night.

Miss Mabel Haag spent the latter three days of last week with friends in Altoona.

James C. Furst, Esq., left Wednesday afternoon to take in Thursday, the big day at the Milton Fair.

Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell departed on Wednesday afternoon for a visit to friends in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dr. M. P. Fiedler, of Millheim, was a pleasant caller in town on Tuesday, returning home in the afternoon.

Editor S. W. Smith, of the Centre Hall Reporter, was among those who served their country as a juror this week.

On Tuesday evening Miss Mary Thomas entertained a party of friends at cards at her home on North Allegheny street.

Mrs. Lillian Phelps, after a two week visit at the home of Miss Emily Natt left last Saturday for her home in Orange, N. J.

Mrs. Charles Wolfe, of Avis, spent a short time in Bellefonte on Wednesday, on her way to Tusseyville to visit friends and relatives.

Mrs. Jennie R. Hastings was a passenger Wednesday afternoon en route to Philadelphia where she will visit her friend, Mrs. Rogers, for a few days.

Miss Kate Moore, who has been spending the summer with Isaac Miller and family at the toll gate, left Wednesday afternoon for her home in Tyrone.

Mrs. Frank E. Naginay left Thursday of last week for Wellsville, Ohio, where she will spend the next three weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Edward Wolfe.

Mrs. Louisa Harris departed on Wednesday for Evanston, Ill., a suburb of Chicago, where she will spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Robert DeGolyer.

Mrs. Lewis Blaney Harvey with her two children will leave this week for their home in Richmond, Va., after spending the summer at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis.

Robert Hood, Richard Brouse, Frank Sasserman and Frank Bartley made up a jolly party, who left Wednesday afternoon in Mr. Bartley's touring car, for Milton where they will attend the big fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Custard, of State College, were Bellefonte visitors between trains on Tuesday, while enroute for a trip along the southern coast to New Orleans. The weather is most propitious for present traveling and their chances are very favorable for a delightful time.

On Tuesday of this week Ellis Keller, Esq., and Mrs. Harry Keller, Esq., celebrated his fifteenth birthday anniversary, and in honor of the event Mrs. Keller gave a dinner party Tuesday evening to a number of his boy friends which proved to be a most enjoyable event.

Don't forget that the scenic has an extra good picture tomorrow night. The title is "The Daughter of a Spy," and is said to be one of the best yet shown in Bellefonte. Show starts early to allow you to attend before other entertainments begin. The scenic will be extra good all next week.

The Bellefonte Academy defeated the Altoona shops, at foot ball, Saturday afternoon, on Hughes Athletic Field, by the score of 41 to 6. During the intermission between halves one of the Altoona boys started a heated altercation with an Academy player, which resulted in a general fight in which the Altoona boy got considerably the worst of it.

Mrs. Edward Hill and two children left Wednesday afternoon for Northumberland, their future home. Mr. Hill, who was formerly a brakeman on the Lehigh Valley freight, having been transferred to the Harrisburg division, it necessitated their making their home in Northumberland and accordingly they moved their household goods from their late home on east Lamb street to that place this week.

The card party which was to have taken place Thursday evening of last week at the McQuistion home on west High street, was postponed until Tuesday of this week when Mrs. M. A. Kirk and Miss Mary McQuistion entertained a party of twenty-five or thirty guests at the home of Progressive Euchre. During the evening choice refreshments were served which all enjoyed and later, the guests departed for their homes, feeling that they had spent a most enjoyable evening.

"THE SERVANT IN THE HOUSE."

Great English Play Will Be Seen on October 9th.

"There's a lot of brothers knockin' about the world as we don't know of." This striking scene, spoken by the Drain Man in the second act of "The Servant in the House" furnishes the keynote of the play which comes to the Garman opera house on Wednesday, October 9th. The play, which has been acclaimed from coast to coast as one of the greatest plays in all the wide range of English drama, and as a lasting contribution to English literature, is built on the idea of universal brotherhood and teaches with compelling force the lesson that man's highest happiness comes from unselfish service to others.

The central figure in the play is a quiet, impressive man, garbed in long, flowing Oriental robes, who has taken a place as butler in the home of an English clergyman, and who wields a strange, uncanny influence over everyone with whom he is brought in contact.

It must not be imagined however, that "The Servant in the House" is a dry preaching, a dramatized sermon, or a prosy succession of speeches. It is a drama that throbs with life, that is instinct with power and dramatic force, and it is acted by one of the best equipped companies recently seen on the American stage.

A company which includes among its members no less than three former stars and is headed by one of the most popular of younger American players, Mr. Victor Lambert.

RECENT DEATHS.

GRAMLEY.—Mrs. George Gramley, a most estimable woman, died at her home near Rote, Clinton county, on Saturday morning, after a year's illness with heart trouble and dropsy. She was aged nearly seventy years, and leaves her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Fred Nixon, of Porter township. She is also survived by three sisters: Mrs. Kate Erhard, of Rebersburg; Mrs. May Herr, Indianapolis; and Mrs. Robert Brown, Chicago; also four brothers: Samuel, Henry and Luther Brungard, all of Salona, and Jacob Brungard, of Avis. Interment was made in Cedar Hill cemetery on Monday forenoon.

DYKE.—Henry Dyke, a well known and respected citizen of Milesburg, died on Thursday of last week at his home in that place, at the ripe age of 80 years. Two years ago last July Mr. Dyke suffered a stroke of paralysis which left him practically helpless. He was born in Pottsville, and came to Centre county in early manhood. He had been a resident of Milesburg for a great many years. He is survived by his aged wife, one brother, Grant Dyke, and a sister, Mrs. Edward McKinley. His two children, William Dyke and Mrs. Emma Alkens preceded him to the grave a number of years ago. Funeral services were held at his late home on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, services being conducted by Rev. Clark. Interment was made in the Advent cemetery.

WILLIAMS.—Ross Williams, a former resident of Bellefonte, died at his home in Coshocton, Ohio, Saturday morning, as a result of a complication of diseases following an operation for gall stones. The deceased was born in Clearfield, Clearfield county, about fifty years ago. When a young man he learned the printer's trade which he followed all his life. For several years he was employed in the different printing offices in Bellefonte and on the older people he was a paper in Driftwood. About twenty years ago he went to Ohio, where he has resided ever since. He was married to Miss Ellen Eberhart, a daughter of Daniel Eberhart, of this place, who survives him with two sons and two daughters. He also leaves a sister, Belle, of Clearfield, and a brother, Dorsey, of Altoona. He was a member of the Methodist church and also affiliated with the Odd Fellows. The funeral took place Monday afternoon, interment at Coshocton, Ohio.

Meeting of Woman's Club.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Club will be held on Saturday, October the fifth, at 3:30 o'clock. Come.

A rare treat is promised for this meeting to which the public is most cordially invited. Mrs. Callaway will give a "parlor talk" on her trip around the world. Those of us who have heard her will enjoy listening again and those who have not will be grateful for this opportunity. That she is entertaining and instructive to the young and the older people is attested by the primary and intermediate pupils of the Bellefonte Academy when she talked to them. She tried to close her talk several times but was urged to continue until the time she reached one and one-half hours. The pupils consented then for her to retire only when she promised to return at a later date. Mrs. Callaway brought home with her many interesting curios which with her "memory claim" she will exhibit.

Bring your friends and young people to see her. All will be welcome. Petriken Hall, Saturday, October 5th, at 3:30 o'clock.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE, Bellefonte Woman's Club.

The Ladies' Bible Class of the Lutheran church are planning to hold a social next Thursday evening, the 10th, at the home of John Garthoff, on Reynolds avenue. Proceeds to be for benefit of the church.

To Beautify Your Furniture.

Reflecto Furniture Polish is the most satisfactory thing of its kind we have ever handled, because of the splendid finish and lustre it imparts to any polished surface—whether of chair, table or piano—and also because it is a most excellent polish and cleaner for hard-wood floors, wainscoting, marble, tiles, hearth, and, in fact, any polished surface. Use it, and if you are not gratified with the results—if you do not find it a preparation that makes for cleanliness as well as economy—just tell us, and we will gladly refund the money you paid for it.
