MILESBURG.

Jack Frost made his first appearance Saturday morning; his presence so shocked this community that the corn stocks turned pale and the people vacated their verandas for the fire side.

There are two new arrivals in town. William McKinley is the happiest man around here just now. Why? what happened? A bouncing baby came to his home the other day.

I saw Thomas Shope going up the street smiling all to himself. I asked someone why Tom looked so pleasant, and they whispered, there's a boy baby down at his place.

Mrs. Henrietta Kline visited at the home of Wm. Kline's last week.

Fred Dyke and Paul Glinger visited Mr. Dyke's aunt in Altoona last week.

Mrs. George Gault, of Lock Haven, visited her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sellers, over Sunday.

Mrs. H. G. Ebbs, while recuperating from the affects of the Grange picnic, is spending a few days with her friends in Penna. Furnace.

Uriah Housel visited his two sons in Altoona last week.

Mr. Ebbs, while on business in Half Moon valley last week, sold his tract of timber.

Mrs. Aaron Hall, of Unionville, and Mrs. Annie Maroony, of Altoona, were guests at John Jodon's last week.

G. S. Aikens and son Carl, of Uniontown, Fayette county, attended the funeral of Henry Dyke and visited friends here.

William Shank and wife, of near Milroy, came here to pay respects to their uncle, Henry Dyke, deceased.

Chas. Jodon returned to Pittsburg, Saturday.

Ray Baird, of Snow Shoe, visited his parents, Joseph Baird and family, on Sunday.

Ed McKinley, of Tyrone, spent Sunday at the Dyke home.

Miss Maud Decker, of State College, Sarah Gallbraith and Anna Hall, were the guests of Margaret Baird, Sunday.

Marcella Boggs is visiting friends and relatives in Altoona and Pittsburg for a few days.

From a piece of ground 160x45, David B. Allen raised 125 pie pumpkins; most of them are so large that one would be all one man would care to carry for a short distance.

Christ Beezer has as fine a field of corn as there is in this section.

Ben Alkey made sauer kraut last week.

As butter for cream is scarce the people around here are busy making apple butter, and are talking of making pumpkin butter. We must have butter of some kind.

Miss Ada Baird is visiting in Huntingdon, Pa., at the home of her friend, Jessie Fetterhoff.

Jack Kidder was the guest of his friend Margaret Zimmerman, Sunday.

Oscar Sherry and Paul Brown called on their friends, Miss Nellie Hall and Cora Fisher, last week. Come again, boys.

The Rev. Wilks spent Sunday with W. B. Thomas on College street.

Win Lose gathered ten bushels of walnuts, Monday.

The sick are: Mrs. Geo. McCullough, Ethel Wallace, James Wallace's infant child, Mack Anderson, George Chapman, Mrs. Adam Fisher, Jane Shultz, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Elise, Mr. Parsons and Mrs. John Flack.

Hand or mail your news to the scribe.

The fishermen around here have made some good catches this fall.

John was sitting on the bank of Bald Eagle the other night.

I asked what he was doing.

He said: Just waiting for a bite.

Just then his line began to jerk.

His mouth did twist and pucker.

Then John pulled like a Turk

And landed a wholloping succor.

AARONSBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cranston, of Philadelphia, visited relatives living in town.

Thos. Hull, who is employed at State College, spent a few days with his family on North street.

J. W. Foster, accompanied by his sister Mary and Mrs. Sara Harper and Miss Sara Guisewite, spent a few days pleasantly with friends living in Lewisburg.

Walter Orwig, who is working at Altoona, spent the greater part of the week with his family at this place.

As the regular organist was not present on Sunday morning in the Reformed Sunday school, Miss Annie Elsenhouer very ably presided at the organ.

Cornelius Bower, one of our aged men, is under Dr. Frank's care; at this writing he is somewhat improved.

Miss Bertha Musser, who has been employed at the Bellefonte hospital for the past few years, is home on a vacation.

Harvey Crouse and wife and Wm. Guisewite and wife are attending Milton fair. They went in Crouse's automobile.

Geo. McCormick and family, of Pottery Mills, spent a few days with their parents, E. G. Mingle's.

LeRoy Mensch has gone to the Peabody Musical Conservatory at Baltimore, Md., to resume his studies in music.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lomlinson, who had been located at Plainfield, Ill., the past two years, had their household goods shipped here and are now occupying part of Mrs. Sara Litzell's home.

FILLMORE.

Fresh water every day, as it most always rains every day in the week; the ground is soaked down a good depth.

The equinoctial storm last week gave us plenty of rain and cool weather.

Joseph Treasler and wife returned home last week after spending a few days in Altoona with his son, Dan Treasler, and family.

The birthday party that was to be held on Tuesday evening of last week for Henry Rockey was postponed on account of the rain; we will call on you some time again, Henry.

We heard of the large parade at Altoona on last Wednesday and suppose it would be the symptoms of the Fillmore fantasia.

Malcolm Peters is on the sick list with pneumonia; hope he will soon recover.

Mrs. Celena Fogelman is still on the sick list; we hope the aged lady will soon recover.

GEORGESVILLE, No. 2.

Wet, wet, it beats all for rain; when will the people get their seedling out, the late potatoes dug, and the corn cut off?

Mrs. Emma W. Sweetwood and son, and Miss Edna Wolf took a nice cosy ride through our town on Sunday afternoon.

John Lingle and Fred Auman were raising some of their potatoes on Friday and Saturday. Fred says they have fifty bushels out and would have fifty bushels more.

Mrs. Susan Crater, of Pochanburg, had bad luck last week by losing one of her horses.

News is a little scarce at present; for that reason the No. 1 called on me to help him out. Two weeks ago No. 1 talked about No. 2 being out selling jack knives; now right here let me tell No. 1, and the public, that No. 2 never sold jack knives nor he never scouted muddy creek and caught eels and skinned them, dried the hide, made whip crackers and sold them at a nickel a piece. I'll describe No. 2 and his location; he stands 5 ft. 5 in. in the air, 6 ft around the waist, weighs 225 lbs., wears a small beard and is bald headed; lives one-half miles north west from the jack knife agent. Now guess for yourself, but don't blame the poor agent any longer. Come again next week. Some time ago No. 1 spoke about a prize fighter; I would advise him to go to that fellow and get a few lessons before he comes down off the mountain to Zettie's hollow.

YARNELL.

We are having quite a bit of rainy weather here at the present time.

Anna Shank spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents here.

Those who are on the sick list: Mrs. Toner Fetzer's baby and also Mrs. Homer Fetzer's baby.

John Wolfe moved his family back to their old home last Thursday and everyone is delighted to have them with us once more.

R. G. Snook and wife spent Sunday with Tom Hubler near Rebersburg.

Quite a number of hogs are sick in this vicinity, but so far none have died and some seem to be recovering.

Potatoes are rotting considerably, owing to the wet weather, but as there is such an abundance of them we hope all will have plenty even if some do rot.

LIVONIA.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Geringerick are spending a few days with the latter's parents at Millmont.

John Wolfe moved his family back to their old home last Thursday and everyone is delighted to have them with us once more.

R. G. Snook and wife spent Sunday with Tom Hubler near Rebersburg.

Quite a number of hogs are sick in this vicinity, but so far none have died and some seem to be recovering.

Potatoes are rotting considerably, owing to the wet weather, but as there is such an abundance of them we hope all will have plenty even if some do rot.

LYONSTOWN.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnstonbaugh gave a party in honor of their daughter, Verna, it being her 20th birthday.

Mr. Morton, of Pittsburg, was called home to see his little son Frank, who has been sick the past week.

Wm. Lyons was one of the automobile party that went to Altoona on Wednesday. They had quite a jolly good time while there. They paid a visit to the Moose home where they were royally entertained.

Lyonstown can boast of a grocery store in the near future. How about it Edward?

Mrs. William King and daughter Grace, made a flying trip to Bellefonte on Saturday.

C. Sharp Sundayed at the home of C. Garbrick's, of Jacksonville.

Any persons wanting hair done up, call on Mrs. Wm. Lyons, as she has been putting out some very satisfactory work.

Miss Laura Tierney, of Ridgway, a former resident of this town, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Tierney.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davy and children, were in Bellefonte shopping on Saturday.

Peter has a very bad case of heart trouble, since Mary went home.

BRUSHVALLEY.

Farmers are finishing sowing, others are cutting corn while others are picking apples and making cider.

The chestnuts through here are plenty, but hickorynuts, we will not have any.

Miss Della Spayd has gone to State College where she intends to work this winter.

A. E. Limbert lost a valuable colt last week; J. W. Beck also lost a valuable colt last week.

Leo Homan purchased a new buggy; now for a speedy ride, girls.

When the milk man comes along in the morning you can see the cans flying any old way.

Some of our people expect to attend the Milton fair this week.

Those on the sick list are R. E. Wert and Wm. Keller.

Farmers' meeting was well attended at Hoy's school last week.

Paul Wert's buggy wheel that disappeared at time of bush meeting has not yet been found. Mr. Wert says he will pay any man who tells him where the wheel is.

We were visited by a heavy frost on Monday morning.

Fortunes in Faces.

There's often much truth in the saying "her face is her fortune," but its never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They promote health and beauty. Try them, 25 cents at C. M. Parrish Ph. G. at Bellefonte, Pa. Oct.

Your Lungs and Throat.

The preparation mentioned by the Rev. Chas. Sager has been for over sixty years of incalculable worth to sufferers from consumption, asthma, bronchitis, catarrh, grippe, coughs, colds and all lung and throat diseases, and is a household remedy in many, many homes to which it has brought health and happiness.

Ms. C. A. ABBOTT, August 21, 1905, 60 Ann St., New York City.

Dear Sir: I have known for over 20 years of the effects of Wilson's Remedy (Wilson's Preparation of Hypophosphites and Bloodlet) in cases of pulmonary troubles. At this point I will say to you what you have not before known of; that 40 years since, while I was a resident of N. Y. City, I was severely ill with lung trouble. Physicians said I was a consumptive and my family physician told my wife that he thought I could not recover. My attention was directed to the Wilson Remedy, which I used with splendid effect. I have been on my feet and at work ever since.

Yours truly, REV. CHAS. SAGER.

Pastor M. E. Church, Hunter, (Greene Co.) N. Y.

The above letter shows what a great boon the Wilson Remedy was to Mr. Sager, but it is but one of thousands received testifying to the curative powers of this wonderful remedy. Write at once to Mr. Abbott at the above address and he will furnish you convincing proof of the great worth to humanity of this preparation.

Graustark, a scene from which is shown above will be the attraction at the Garman Opera House, Friday Night, October 4th. The production is the original one with Baker & Castill's No. 1 Company of the fast express means serious trouble ahead if not removed, so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing the indigestion. Michael Heasler of Lincoln, Neb., had been sick over three years, but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again. They have helped thousands. They give pure blood, strong nerves, good digestion. Only 50 cents at C. M. Parrish, Ph. G., Bellefonte, Pa. Oct.

See the romantic play, "Graustark" at the opera house tomorrow night.

"Sunbonnet Sue" next Monday night at the opera house.

Jack and Jill went up the hill to get a pail of water, For Jill to wash her Dolly's clothes, as Anty Drudge had taught her, "Rub with Fels-Naptha soap and put them in, They'll be as white and as clean as a new pin."

What time on washday do you get through with your washing? Ten o'clock, noon, three o'clock or night?

If you do it the old-fashioned, boiling, hot water, hard rubbing way, you're lucky to get it done by sundown.

If you wash the Fels-Naptha way in cool or lukewarm water without boiling or hard rubbing, you can be done well before noon and take it easy all the time.

And your clothes will be cleaner, fresher, sweeter than ever before.

Fels-Naptha Soap is a great time-saver. In Winter and Summer.

A half-day every washday means twenty six days a year saved by washing with Fels-Naptha Soap.

Isn't that worth while in addition to the saving on clothes, fuel, health and labor? Time is money.

Use Fels-Naptha Soap every washday and save it.

Follow directions on the red and green wrapper.
