Come to the Harvest Home on Saturday evening at the Baptist church.

On Friday night a birthday party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baird in honor of their daughter Verna, it being her 17th birthday. There were about seventeen present, viz.: Rebecca Boggs, Kathryn Austin, Lillian Miles, Eva Kline, Mildred Shope, Miriam Housel, Miriam Baird, Harriet and Margaret Baird and the hostess, Paul Ash, Claud McKinley, Samuel Barnhart, Ralph Gishner, Fred Dyke, Cameron McKinley and Victor Barnhart. She received many useful presents. There were many interesting games played and about 11 o'clock refreshments were served which all enjoyed. Then after wishing Verna many more such birthday greetings, they all departed for their homes. But two had the girls all went home alone in the dark.

Fred you should have loaned a little of your nerve to the other boys. They were either too bashful, or afraid of the dark, for all the girls except one went home from the party alone. Of course we do not include Cameron in this list, for we all know where he went.

No need to go to Mexico to see fruit and blossoms in the same season, Joseph Baird has them now on a pear tree.

JULIAN.

A. V. Miller "the coal man" unloaded and delivered a car of coal to his patrons last week. Good coal free from slate and stone is what he takes to keep the shivers from perching on our anatomy during the bleak days of winter which will eventually drive up to our door.

On Thursday of last week Johnnie Milton moved his family from the Easter Richards property on west railroad Ave., up to on the farm and K. Mattern's tenant houses near Mudlick hollow.

What is the use of this township, or any other township, county or state, paying out the "poor man's" hard earned money in taxes to repair and keep up our public highways when these big motor cars in real muddy weather will do more damage than many days work will repair. How often do we watch the large touring car coming down over the long stretch of road west of town on a rainy day, the driver slipping off the side of the road into the ditch, and then to the other likewise, the powerful wheels plowing and scraping all the loose mud and dirt from the middle of the road down into the ditches. The result is that a man with a team and a drag is required several days to drag the dirt back up into the road again thus repairing the damage. What is the use?

Mrs. F. W. Dillen accompanied by Miss Elva Campbell spent a day last week in that shopping centre, Bellefonte. The most enjoyable part of the day was spent in the dentist's office. What! Did I hear Nannie say that was a mistake? Errors will happen sometimes.

The prize which was offered by our former United Brethren pastor, G. E. Smith, (in regard to his photo post cards in connection with the raising of his salary) to the competitor having the greatest number of points or credits, through the above named cards, was awarded upon the close of the contest last week to little Miss Margaret Campbell who expresses her true appreciation by the blushing smiles which she is carrying about. The prize being a handsome framed portrait entitled, "Christ in Gethsemane" a unique piece of art by Hoffman, one of the world's famous artists.

On last Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock the Rev. Gilbert delivered a very able address to a well attended audience. After the services he made an announcement to the effect that he would begin his revival services on next Sabbath evening October the 20th, at the usual preaching hour which is 7:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend and to come regularly, and to help to push the good cause onward.

We are glad to note that the sick of our community are reported at this writing to be improving nicely.

Owing to a little recklessness on the part of the conductor on our 9 o'clock mail train on Saturday morning, eastward bound, John Adams a P. R. R. track hand and a passenger along with the rest of the crew here to Bellefonte, where they had been called by the Co. to do some work, escaped narrowly from what may have resulted fatally. It came about in the following manner: When the above named passenger train slowed down at our Broad street station on this particular morning, Mr. Adams along with the rest of the force exerted every effort in loading their tools into the baggage car and mount before the train would assume its forward motion, and because the passengers were on the "All aboard Signal" was given and the train moved off, and in the required hasty scramble to get on board he almost fell between the coaches. Thus illustrating what a little carelessness or thoughtlessness on the part of some one individual may bring about.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Cora Gill, wife of Geo. Gill Jr., of this place who died in the Bellefonte hospital after being a fever patient in that institution for about two weeks. She was aged 7 years and was the daughter of Wilson and Ellen Ghaynor, of Benore. She leaves to survive her at home, the husband and two small children, namely: Thelma and Lewis. Interment at Pine Hill on Monday at 10 o'clock on October the 14th.

Among the many Sunday tourists through our town we noticed S. S. Osman, of Port Matilda.

George James, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer, of Mountain Orchard, near VanScovoc, has been promoted to traveling fireman on the Tyrone division Pennsylvania railroad. Mr. James went to Tyrone about four years ago and accepted a position as an extra fireman on the Tyrone division. From the beginning of his service with the company he showed ability in his work, and through his efficiency he was soon moved along to a regular position and then to traveling fireman. He is one of Tyrone's very best young men and fully competent to fill the position to which he has been appointed. The very best wishes of his many friends are extended him in his new labors.

Farmer Brown and the Crow.
A crow flew from a pine tree tall
One morning early in the fall
The morning was so bright and clear
He circled thrice the woodland near
And then called off, at rapid pace
While others joined him in the race.

While in the corn field not far down
Behind a shock, sat Farmer Brown
A "Marlin" lay across his knee
Again the farmer peeped to see
They came still closer all the while
And Farmer Brown then cracked a smile.
The farmer now peeped through the sight
As Jim Crow, and his friends alights
A loud report, "Jim" was no more
While in the air the others soar
The crows now fear old Farmer Brown
And to his fields will not come down.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure, sent for free trial.
