NITTANY.

There will be no preaching in the Evangelical church on Sunday on account of the pastor being away to preach for the Presiding Elder.

Mrs. Cal Wilson, of Hublersburg, was the guest of grandmother Wilson, one day the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Rachau were to Lock Haven on Thursday to see the biplane in which Walter E. Johnson made flights on the 10th, 11th, and 12th of last week. Mrs. Chas. Emerick, Miss Alice Emerick, S. R. McCaleb, W. H. Snavely, O. N. and D. A. Yarnell were also visitors to Lock Haven during the week.

The inducements at Lock Haven must have been great last week, as two of the Lamar young ladies, Ethel Krape and Christine Harris, walked from Lamar to Lock Haven. They just did it for fun and they report having had a fine time.

Grandmother Wilson attended communion services at Zion on last Sunday and then went from there to Leont for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. Etters.

Miss Edna Gunsallus left on Sunday afternoon for Centre Hall where she will spend the next two months with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney.

Any one wanting to get a flag pole should go to Albert Zimmerman as the pole they raised on last Thursday had three small flags protruding from the bottom of it on Friday morning.

John Diehl and wife, of Howard, were the guests of the former's brother, Dan Diehl and family on Sunday.

On last Friday afternoon the teacher and scholars of the Franklin school gave an entertainment to the public at which time they raised a flag, having raised the flag pole the previous day. The speaking and singing was fine as they only had a short time to practice. The teacher and scholars are getting along fine.

Miss Maggie Walker and her friend, Mr. Markie, of Bellefonte, were guests of the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Man Glantz on Sunday.

We were all glad to see William Billet on our streets on Sunday, he having been sick for some time.

D. A. McDowell attended the Milton Fair and reports having had a fine time.

W. E. Kessinger, who underwent an operation in the Lock Haven hospital returned home on last Saturday and is looking good. We are glad to have him in our midst again.

William Showers picked from an apple tree last week a nice large apple and a small one and also picked some blossoms from the same tree.

Miss Grace I. Beck, after returning from a 12-mile hike to Bellefonte last Wednesday, tripped and fell, breaking a small bone in her knee.

Margaret Beck, who has had a serious attack of heart trouble, is much improved at this writing.

Guests at the home of B. F. Shaffer last week were Mrs. L. E. Swartz, of Hublersburg, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Knecht and daughters Lillian and Mabel, of Lock Haven and McKinley Smith, Esq., of Lock Haven.

Mrs. Harry Stover, of Hublersburg, visited her mother, Mrs. Tate, one day last week.

Friends of Mrs. Thos. Shope a former resident of this place, will be glad to learn that she is now well enough to go to her home at Milesburg after spending two weeks in the Bellefonte hospital.

Samuel Tweed is much improved in health although not entirely cured. Dr. S. S. McCormick, of Hublersburg, made some professional calls here last week. His many friends are glad to see him about again after his long and serious illness.

Mrs. Charles Bartholomew, of Clintondale, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reyl last Saturday.

A very valuable cow, the property of J. A. Emerick, was struck and killed by the eastern train last Saturday evening.

JACKSONVILLE.

Among our sick we notice that Mrs. Henry Antis is still getting weaker with no hopes of recovery. Mrs. G. M. Betz is again able to attend to her house work as usual.

The gentle showers and warm sunshine the past week is giving the fall seeding a good start for the winter. Raising potatoes, picking apples and cutting corn has been the go the past two weeks, next will be house cleaning and corn husking.

The few cool nights and the wind blowing over the corn stalks and the leaves falling denote that winter is again on the way.

Mrs. Anna Poorman and children, of Waddle, came down on Saturday to visit at the home of her father, T. P. Beightol.

Clem Lutz, of Waddle, and Harvey Lutz, wife and son, of Bendertown, and Mrs. Transew, formerly Lutz, visited their sister, Mrs. B. F. Vonada, of this place on Sunday, the 13th.

Miss Alta is sad and lonely since Nevin has gone to Tennessee; hope he will soon come back.

The body of John Hoy, Jr., of Hublersburg, formerly a prosperous farmer and respected citizen of Marion township, on Tuesday was brought here and interment made in the Union cemetery, beside his first wife, who preceded him many years ago. What a meeting that will be when we all get home. Are you ready for that meeting?

There will be preaching and communion services in the United Evangelical church on Sunday, the 20th, at half past two. Rev. Dauberts, of Nittany charge will preach the word. All are cordially invited to attend this service.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. Smith and her sister, Miss Golf, of Pittsburg, are guests at the home of their friend, Mrs. Emma Stuart.

Miss Margaret Kimpfort and brother Adam, of Bellefonte, spent a few days with their aunt, Mrs. Mary Shugart.

Miss Laura Keller, of Tusseyville, spent Sunday at the Ira Rishel home. Mrs. Susie McEwen, of Unionville, visited her sister, Mrs. Laura Bricker over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Odenkirch and two children, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday at the home of Jacob Meyers.

Miss Myra Kimpfort, of State College, had a display of her millinery goods at Harrison's store Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Rishel, of Oak Hill, are mourning the death of their five-months-old baby. Services were held at the home Monday morning, burial in the Boalsburg cemetery.

Henry Fredericks is still quite a sick man. Mrs. Lizzie Meyers and Mrs. Bruce Loberger have been on the sick list the past week.

CURTIN.

Mrs. Joseph Adams and two children, of Pitcairn, are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Shultz, of this place. Mrs. Elmer Justice and two children, of Coleville, visited at the home of Orlando Bryan and wife over Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Brooks, who has been at Curwensville for some time, spent last Saturday at her home at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Culbert and two children, of Altoona, visited at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Shultz last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Stanley and children, of Bellefonte, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Shultz.

Miss Inez Wallace, of Milesburg, visited at the home of J. C. Barnhart, over Sunday.

A birthday surprise party was given Oct. 9th, in honor of John Crossmyre, it being his 40th anniversary. There was a beautiful cake with 40 candles all burning to represent the 40 years of Mr. Crossmyre's life. Those present were: Wm. Glenn, wife and children, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Crossmyre, Mrs. Edward Spear, Mrs. Gertie Aikkey and children, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shultz, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Glinger, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Prince, Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Bryan. A sumptuous repast was served to which all did justice. All departed at a late hour for their several homes, wishing that Mr. Crossmyre may live to see many more happy returns of the day.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of D. E. Shultz were, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stanley, of Bellefonte, Mrs. Nora Adams and children, of Pitcairn.

CURTIN, No. 2.

The festival held at K. of Labor Hall and given by class No. 6 of the M. E. Sunday school, was a grand success, financially and socially. When our young belles of Curtin take it in their heads to do a thing, it must go or die. The cakes were excellent and a lot of them; all sold at a good price. Ice cream was worthy of mention. We must not forget to give credit to the ones who so efficiently helped with the work and stayed with the girls to the last. Neither must we forget the kindness of a Howard gentleman who donated an excellent cake.

Harry Curtin spent a few days in Pittsburg and Gracetown, the latter place to visit his brother Latimer, who is manager of a large store there.

Next Sunday is Sunday school rally day. We hope our M. E. people will not forget this and all come and fill up the vacant pews, and will be glad to have our friends from other churches come.

Bion Williams had the misfortune of tearing the nail off his finger. A very painful accident, but getting along O. K.

Miss Julia Curtin, Jr., of Bellefonte, was spending the day with Mrs. Jennie Curtin of this place and to call on Mrs. Frederick Curtin, who is visiting Mr. Curtin's mother, prior to going to her California home in a week or two.

Mr. Corman has purchased a very nice auto. Glad he has a progressive spirit.

The Roosevelt admirers of this place are greatly excited over the report of our beloved ex-President being shot, and do hope it is not of a serious nature. We sympathize with him in the tragedy, but he don't need it politically.

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Dr. Frank Bowersox, of Philadelphia, came home last week for a few days' rest.

Bertha Smith spent Saturday at State College.

Miss Lucy Krebs is slowly recovering from a serious illness.

Mrs. Smiley, of Altoona, is visiting friends about town.

Homer Decker and sister Maud, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at home.

A large crowd from our town attended the "Wilson Rally" at Bellefonte on Tuesday evening.

Wm. Markie, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the home of Walter Weaver, on Main street.

Miss May Meyers, of State College, spent Sunday at her home on Main street.

Literary exercises will be held in the high school room on Friday evening, Oct. 18. The subject for debate is "Resolved, that vivisection is justifiable." Every one is cordially invited to attend.

"Chicken and noodle supper." The ladies of the Reform church will hold a chicken and noodle supper in the I. O. O. F. hall on Saturday evening, Oct. 19. Oysters, ice cream, cake and candies will be for sale. Don't miss the chicken and noodles. A big dish full for 25c. Proceeds for benefit of church.

LEMONT.

Linn S. Bottorf is still on the sick list.

Mrs. Darius Hite has been quite ill of late.

Frank Crawford was seen in town on Monday.

The old people's meeting held in the United Evangelical church on Sunday was well attended and all present were certainly pleased with the sermon delivered by Rev. Samuel Snyder.

George Bloom has been confined to his home for more than a week with the grip, but is better now.

Jan. C. Williams and family moved into their new home at Mill Brook on Wednesday.

The weather has been warm of late for October.

The farmers are almost through cutting corn now.

A woman is pretty low when she runs down the alley after a man and climbs on the fence to get a last glimpse of the hat.

Your Lungs and Throat.

The preparation mentioned by the Rev. Chas. Sager has been for over sixty years of inestimable worth to sufferers from consumption, asthma, bronchitis, catarrh, grippe, coughs, colds and all lung and throat diseases, and is a household remedy in many, many homes to which it has brought health and happiness.

Mr. C. A. ABBOTT, August 11, 1905, 66 Ann St., New York City. Dear Sir: I have known for over 40 years of the effects of Wilson's Remedy (Wilson's Preparation of Hypophosphites and Blodgett) in cases of pulmonary troubles. At this point I will say to you what you have not before known of, that 47 years since, while I was a resident of N. Y. City, I was severely ill with lung trouble. Physicians said I was a consumptive and my family physician told my wife that he thought I could not recover. My attention was directed to the Wilson Remedy, which I used with splendid effect. I have been on my feet and at work ever since my cure. Yours truly, REV. CHAS. SAGER, Pastor M. E. Church, Hunter, (Greene Co.) N. Y.

The above letter shows what a great boon the Wilson Remedy was to Mr. Sager, but it is but one of thousands received testifying to the curative powers of this wonderful remedy. Write at once to Mr. Abbott at the above address and he will furnish you convincing proof of the great worth to humanity of this preparation.

OAK HALL.

The thrashers and hay balers are making their finishing round.

The corn is about all cut and some of the farmers are husking. The corn seems to be nice and solid.

Mrs. Margaret Weaver, from Woodward, is spending some time at Emanuel Eungard's.

Earl Vonada is able to be on the job again with Andrew Rote.

Harry Bundgard, from Rebersburg, spent Sunday in this section.

Jos. Miller, from Rebersburg, spent Sunday with his friend, Boyd Vonada; always glad to meet him.

Dolin Decker is running his saw mill full time. That makes lots of lumber and slab wood. Dolin is a hustler.

That's right Paul, don't let one bugby wheel keep you from coming to see us.

Grand birthday surprise party in honor of Emanuel Eungard on Saturday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Mark, J. A. Eungard, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Vonada, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hagen and son, Ralph; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Foreman and family, Mary C. and Sara A.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Fetterolf and daughter Elizabeth; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Frankberger and family, Mary H., Sarah M., John E. and Chas. L.; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob T. McCool and family, John Almon and Robert; Mr. and Mrs. B. Gardner Grove and sons, Guyer and Russell; Mr. and Mrs. John Long, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swab, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Eungard and daughters, Maud and Mary; Mrs. George Long and daughters, Ethel, Mildred and Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Eungard and daughter, Helen and Sarah; Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Bartiges and family, Jennie, Anna, Harry and Albert; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Weaver and daughter, Maud; Mrs. L. D. Orndorf, Mrs. Margaret Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rote, Miss Ernest, Willard Hasenplug, Laura Foust. Lots of refreshments, then all went home.

PORT MATILDA.

Hello—Port is not dead, it is only asleep, but Jack Frost and the chicken thieves have been rousing it up a little.

An Indian show came to our town today. It expects to spend the week here and help the boys and girls get rid of their extra change.

Mrs. Young, who has been quite ill, is improving rapidly.

Mrs. Henry Bennett is still in a serious way.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Young have left for a few days' visit at H. C. Woodring's near Johnstown.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Williams were seen in our town today.

R. P. Williams came home from Tyrone today from where he had been employed with the P. R. R. company, but is now on the sick list.

Our milliner, Miss Catherine Williams, has all her goods in for display.

FILLMORE.

Everybody is busy picking apples and raising potatoes. The time will soon be here when corn husking will begin, as the time is traveling toward winter.

Most of our farmers attended G. B. Thompson's sale last week. The cows sold ten cents a hair.

Everybody is talking hunting, for they think there will be lots of game this year.

Miss Mabel Norris was called home on Friday from Juniata to attend the funeral of her little niece Hazel Mingle, at State College.

Mrs. Neal, of Matternville, came to this place on Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Foster Young and took sick; we are glad to say she is improving.

Thoman Huey, wife and little niece accompanied by Miss Ruth Stover and Miss Maud Huey, of Stony Point, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of James Huey's.

The Witmer Hunting Club, of this place, held a meeting last week and are preparing for their two weeks' sport on the mountain this fall.

Earl Lomison, of Orviston, is spending a few weeks at the home of James Huey's.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tressler were called to Ship on last Friday to see their son Harry who was very ill.

STORMSTOWN.

These are fine autumn days we are having.

The death angel has visited quite a few homes and made them desolate by taking the loved ones. Those whom it took are as follows: Mrs. Porter Burket, Mrs. John Shuey, Mrs. Cora Gill, daughter of Wilson Ghaner, and Mr. Rouse. These friends and neighbors have the sympathy of all.

Musser Ward's sale was largely attended on Saturday. It was so large having so many various articles to sell that they didn't get through on Saturday. They had to continue it over for Monday.

Mrs. H. H. Hall has gone to Juniata where she and Howard have gone to housekeeping; we wish them success.

Wetzel—Willow.

On October 9, 1912, at the parsonage of the United Evangelical church, at Lock Haven, H. T. Wetzel, of Howard, Pa., and Miss Sarah E. Willow, of Lock Haven, were united in marriage by Rev. Edward Crumling. The beautiful ring ceremony was used.

GREEN'S PHARMACY CO.
BELLEFONTE, PA.

Mary had a little lamb,
It's fleece was white as snow,
She washed it with Fels-Naptha Soap,
And that's what made it so.

Fels-Naptha Soap is more than a help—it's a right arm in your fight against dirt.

While you rest, it works.

When you've soaped your clothes with Fels-Naptha and put them to soak in cool or lukewarm water, you can turn to something else or fold your hands and rest.

The Fels-Naptha works on.

It attacks the dirt in your clothes and dissolves it; loosens every tiny particle.

At the end of a half hour it has dissolved all the dirt.

All that remains for you to do is to rub lightly, rinse and hang out to dry.

Clothes are whiter, cleaner, sweeter than ever before.

And all this in cool or lukewarm water, mind you.

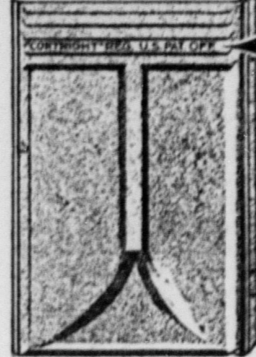

No boiling, no hot suds to stew over.

No back-breaking, knuckle-wearing hard rubbing on the washboard.

More than a million women employ Fels-Naptha Soap as an ally every washday.

To make it aid you in Summer or Winter, just follow simple direction on the red and green wrapper.
