—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kling, of Alto- toona, were over Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Julia Rine, of South Water street.

—Orrin Vail, one of Phillipsburg's well known citizens, and an active Democrat, was a business visitor in Bellefonte Tuesday.

—Mrs. W. V. Larimer is visiting this week with her son, Lee and family, Jersey Shore, and also with friends in Williamsport.

—Misses Ellen and Mary Shoemaker, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker, were over Sunday visitors with friends in Tyro- ne.

—Charles E. Dorworth, editor of the Republicans, was in Washington, D. C., Monday as a witness before the Senate investigating committee.

—Mrs. Maria Reaser, of State Col- lege, visited with Bellefonte friends Tuesday, while on her way home from a visit to friends in Snow Shoe.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Steingard, of Hartleton, spent Sunday in Bellefonte as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCoy, of North Thomas street.

—Mrs. Blair Yarnell and three chil- dren, of Snow Shoe, are visiting Mrs. Yarnell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McClellan, of East Lamb street.

—Harry Warfel, one of Phillipsburg's old Republican war horses and a just- ice of the Peace of that borough, was a business visitor in Bellefonte Monday.

—Dr. Joseph Brockerhoff departed on Tuesday morning for West Vir- ginia where the Brockerhoff estate are largely interested in coal and lumber lands.

—N. B. Spangler, Esq., left Monday for Scranton where he is interested in an important case to be heard this week before the United States District Court.

—Mrs. William Rees and daughter, Margaret, returned to their home in Patton Tuesday after a pleasant visit at the home of G. W. Rees on Reynolds Avenue.

—Samuel Morrison, who is working in Tyro- ne, spent Sunday with his family in this place. He was accompa- nied by Miss Eleanor Morrison, daughter of John Morrison, of Birmingham.

—Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt and Mr. C. T. Gerberich are attending the ses- sions of the Reformed church Synod at Lebanon this week as delegates from the Reformed congregation of this city.

—Ex-Sheriff William E. Hurley and family expect shortly to move from the Pruner property near the Friends Meeting House to the house on Blash- op street recently vacated by Oscar Yeager, who moved his family to Cen- tro.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of Belle- ville, Millin county, Pa., are visit- ing friends at Howard, Jacksonville, State College and Bellefonte this week. They were formerly from Jacksonville where Mr. Smith owned the cream- ery business. He is now in charge of a large creamery at Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Isenberg, of Schenectady, N. Y., were in Bellefonte this week while on their way to visit Mrs. Isenberg's old home at State College. Mrs. Isenberg is a graduate of State College and is now holding the position of head chemist for a large business firm at Schenectady.

—Miss Anna H. Nolan, the very efficient and obliging Deputy Register of Centre county, departed on Mon- day for Johnstown, Pa., where she will take the affidavit of a witness to the will of the late John Hoy, Jr., of Hubersburg. While there she visited the family of her brother-in-law, H. D. Otto, and returned home Wednesday evening.

—Samuel O. Mallin and wife, of Baltimore, Md., were pleasant guests last week at the home of his brother, W. L. Mallin of this city. Mr. Mallin was at one time train master on the Bald Eagle Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, but was later trans- ferred to Baltimore, Md. He is now on the retired list. They left for their home last Friday.

—We notice by the Lock Haven pa- pers that W. Harrison Walker, Esq., was in Lock Haven last week and probated the will of his father, the late Samuel E. Walker, of Salona, under which he is the sole executor and trustee of a certain trust fund under the will. This estate is a Clin- ton county's most progressive citi- zens.

—The latter part of this week Perry Moran, of Unionville, will leave for Philadelphia where he will enter the Methodist hospital to be treated for a long-standing case of lumbago. On the 21st of last June Mr. Moran came to the Bellefonte hospital where he has since remained seeking relief from his troublesome malady, and al- though he has shown some improve- ment, his complete recovery is not as rapid as he had hoped for, hence his desire to consult specialists in Phila- delphia. Mr. Moran is one of Union- ville's best citizens, and before his at- tack of lumbago was one of that town's most useful residents. It is to be hoped he may find relief and res- toration to health while in the city.

—On last Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock as Mrs. Foster Shearer and her little nephew, Nevin Shearer, of Zion, were driving along Logan street, the holding back strap on the harness broke and the horse took fright and ran away. It ran west on Logan street to Spring street and in front of Philip Bezer's residence both Mrs. Shearer and her nephew were thrown out, the buggy passing over the boy's legs. Mrs. Shearer and the boy were pick- ed up and carried into the Bezer resi- dence where medical assistance was summoned. While both were badly bruised about face and body yet for- tunately no bones were broken and they were able to be removed to their home in Zion on Saturday evening. The horse after going a short distance was captured. The buggy and harness were considerably damaged.

—James Noonan, the landlord at the Brant House, made a trip to Williams- port on Wednesday.

—Edmund Blanchard, Esq., return- ed home on Tuesday from a business trip to Philadelphia.

—Harry Haines, who is clerking in Chiles's store at Huntingdon, spent Sunday at his parents' home in this place.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Bergstresser, of Pittsburg, is a pleasant guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Crider of East Linn street.

—Harry Thomas, who has been visit- ing his mother in this place for some time past, left on Monday for Colum- bus, Ohio, where he is lucratively em- ployed.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor and his mother, Mrs. Irvin Taylor, have re- turned home from a delightful vaca- tion trip which they spent among friends in Ohio.

—Any boy who is ambitious and de- sires to learn a good trade should ap- ply at this office at once. Must have a fair education and reside in or near the town, and be over 16 years of age.

—Otho Garbrick, who was on a visit to friends in this section, left on Mon- day for his home in Dakota, Ill. This is a section of country where Centre County people are plenty and all are prospering.

—General Manager G. W. Creigh- ton, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, with headquarters at Philadelphia, Pa., passed through Bellefonte Wed- nesday in his special train on a tour of inspection.

—List of unclaimed letters for week ending October 19th, 1912: J. H. Harshberger, Miss Shirley Livingston, Wm. Mann, Mrs. Alice Gray Markle, R. K. Woodridge, Foreign: Ferritti Parlo, H. C. Valentine, P. M.

—Mrs. Rebecca Shorter remembered the editorial desk this week by leaving a huge bouquet of the choicest varieties that she gathered at her home. Mrs. Shorter distributes these gifts where they are appreciated.

—Rev. C. W. Winey, of the United Brethren church, departed on Wed- nesday for McEwensville, Northum- berland county, where he will make an address before the convention of Christian Endeavorers of that county.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith, of Da- kota, Ill., took the noon train on Mon- day for their home, after a visit of two weeks among friends in Walker twp. Mrs. Smith is a daughter of the late John Hoy, Jr., and was called home on account of his death.

—George R. Meek, Ad Paulie, John M. Shugert and Harry Green made an automobile trip to Phillipsburg and Osceola last Friday in Mr. Meek's au- tomobile. Returning they were caught in a rain storm which spoiled the pleasure of an otherwise pleasant trip.

—W. L. Mallin has been confined to his home on East Howard street the past week by illness. He was seized with an attack of vertigo while at the train last Friday and has since been suffering from a severe cold. We are glad to say however that he is now improving.

—Dr. W. L. Singer, president of the State Normal school at Lock Haven, will be the next speaker on the Y. M. C. A.'s Sunday lecture course at Petri- kin Hall. He will be here Sunday afternoon, November 19th, at 3:30 o'clock. His address will be preceded by a sacred concert.

—Farmers and all others who de- sire to contribute to the Rummage Sale now in progress for the benefit of the Bellefonte hospital can leave their donations at the old Moose home on Spring street, or at the W. C. T. U. rooms, Petrikin Hall. Canned fruit, etc., will be acceptable.

—Messrs. S. D. Gettig and W. D. Zerby, representing the firm of Gettig, Bower & Zerby, will be in attendance at Superior Court in Philadelphia next week where they will have several cases on the argument list. While in the city they will have the opportunity of attending the big Woodrow Wilson Rally and hear a few noted speakers like Ryan and Wilson.

—Evangelistic services will be start- ed in the United Brethren church on Sunday, November 17th. Rev. E. G. Sawyer, of Tyro- ne, an evangelist of note, will be present at the opening service, and will remain in Bellefonte so long as his time will permit. Rev. Sawyer conducted similar services here last year, and his presence and talents were productive of much good.

—As the election approaches the interest in the result is rapidly in- creasing. There will be several places about town where the returns will be received election night. The Elks and the Bellefonte Club have made ar- rangements to have special wires run into their club houses and will receive the returns promptly and at the same time the members will enjoy a ban- quet, while listening to the result of the election.

—The Bellefonte Academy and the Bloomsburg Normal will play a game of football on Hughes Athletic Field Saturday at 3 p. m. This promises to be an exciting game as Bloomsburg beat the Indian Scrubs and is an un- usually strong team. The home team know they have a hard fight before them but expect to beat them. This will be the last game but one on the home field so turn out you lovers of football and see an exciting contest.

—Miss Rebecca Rhoads departed on Monday morning for Tyro- ne where she met her brother, Joseph Rhoads and his wife, of Altoona, and pro- ceeded to Wilmington, Delaware, where they attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Naomi Rhoads Wal- ter, wife of the late Thomas R. Wal- ter, of that city, which took place on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Rhoads may possibly visit friends in Philadel- phia and New York before returning home.

—James J. Gramley was in town on Monday morning being on his way to Dakota, Ill., where he expects to make his future home with his sons who are prosperous farmers in that section. In fact Mr. Gramley had been out until the past summer and was on a visit to the eastern part of the county on business for the past few weeks. He says that his moving to Illinois will make him lose his vote this presiden- tial year, and that is a big loss to men like Mr. Gramley who has al- ways been a most enthusiastic Dem- ocratic worker. Mr. Gramley has reached that period in life when he feels that the time has arrived for him to relinquish the active duties and take life a little more leisurely.

—Mrs. Frederick Dale and son, Aud- ray, who have been visiting Dr. W. L. Dale, Dr. Dale's relatives in this vicinity, departed on Monday for their home at Fort Crook, Nebraska, where her husband, who is an officer in the regular army, is stationed.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Donley, of Ridley Park, Pa., has announced the engage- ment of her daughter, Elizabeth Don- ley, to Mr. Edmund Blanchard of this place. Miss Donley has visited in Bellefonte several times and is quite favorably known to many of our peo- ple.

—Herman Holtz returned home Tuesday evening from Nantux, York county, where he has been spending several weeks with his daughter, Mrs. Fried- man. His trip to New York was to take a much needed rest from business cares and to recuperate his health. We are glad to say that his trip greatly benefited him.

—The scenic furnishes the best grade of entertainment in Bellefonte, for but a nickle. Perhaps you have never realized the truth of this state- ment—accepting what is shown in the moving pictures without thinking of the several thousands of dollars are expended in both production and the best talent in this and foreign coun- tries used. In the scenic, Bellefonte has one of the finest photo-play houses in Pennsylvania, and the management is at all times alert to the comfort of its patrons. No matter what the weather conditions may be, the scenic is always a comfortable place to go.

—Sunday morning the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be held in the Presbyterian church. This service will be in the auditorium, the congre- gation returning to the church build- ing after the service.

—During which time the church has been thoroughly renovated, and beautified. The service in the evening will partake of the spirit of the event. Dr. Haves will preach in the even- ing on "Jesus, our Only and All-suffi- cient Saviour," on Wednesday and Thursday and Friday evenings in the chapel. A most cordial invitation is given to the public to worship with this congregation on the opening day.

—RECENT DEATHS.

SHIREY.—Ephraim K. Shirey, a prominent and respected resident of Clearfield, died recently at the age of 85 years. He was the eldest son of Jacob and Mary Shirey, who resided in Clearfield, Pa., at the time of his birth. One year later they moved to Clearfield, Pa. Deceased is survived by six children.

LAMEY.—Mrs. Rachel Lamey, after an illness of eight weeks, passed away on Monday of last week, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Wolf, at Wood- ward. Mrs. Wolf was the only living child. Two sisters and one brother are left to mourn, as follows: Mrs. Caroline Hoover, Lock Haven; Mrs. (Dr.) Bowersox, Aaronsburg; Joseph Swenger, Millheim. Interment was made on Thursday morning at Woodward.

WILSON.—One of the oldest and most respected residents of Hunting- don county, William Wilson, Sr., of Birmingham, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Irene Baker, at Spruce Creek, at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morn- ing, aged 81 years and 20 days. Sur- viving him are one daughter, Mrs. H. H. and Miss Cora B., at home; Mrs. Minnie Miller, of Salona; Mrs. Annie Miller of Jersey Shore; also one sis- ter, Mrs. Amelia Miller, of Bellefonte. These, with nine living grand-child- ren, were the only survivors. The neighbors mourn her death. It being the first broken string in her family harp. The funeral cortege left the house at 9:30 Monday morning for the Union church at Farmers Mills where services were held and her body laid to its last resting place in the Union cemetery.

RUTE.—Mrs. Anna M. Catherine Rute (nee Snook), beloved wife of John B. Rute, of Salona, Clinton Co., Pa., was born near Loganton Jan. 8th, 1838 and died at Salona, October 17th, 1912, aged 74 years, 9 months, and 9 days. She was the daughter of Levi and Margaretta Snook. The deceased was married to her now sorrowing husband at Rebersburg on March 17th, 1861. To this union were born one son and six daughters, viz: Thomas E., Milford, Iowa; Magara M. (de- ceased); Sarah E., married to Rev. Ira E. Spangler, of Milton, Pa.; Bar- bara J. (deceased); Amelia M., now Mrs. Matthew B. Miller, and Catherine M., married to Maurice A. Brunard; the last two residing at Salona. Three sisters and two brothers survive. There are thirteen grandchildren and six great-grandchildren surviving. Mrs. Rute was converted and united with the Ev. Lutheran church soon after her marriage. She was a devoted wife and a loving mother, always ready to give the most helpful coun- sel. About three years ago she was stricken with paralysis which left her to be an invalid. With patience and fortitude she endured to the end. The funeral services were held at her late home on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and were in charge of her pastor, Rev. M. J. Ross, assisted by Rev. W. A. Graham of the M. E. church. Interment in the Cedar Hill cemetery.

A Serious Accident Narrowly Averted. On last Saturday evening what might have been a very serious fire with other disastrous consequences was narrowly averted at the residence of C. L. Gates on East Lamb street by the prompt action of Mrs. Gates and the assistance of neighbors.

It was about ten o'clock and the family were preparing to retire for the night when they noticed the lamp on the kitchen table acting strange- ly. Mrs. Gates fearing an explosion started for the door to throw it out. Just as she reached the door the lamp did explode throwing oil on porch and door frame and at the same time Mrs. Gates tripped and fell sustaining severe bruises to her hand and forehead, but fortunately escaping the oil which now blazed up fiercely. Mrs. Gates and her daughters were alone in the house at the time but their screams brought William Musser, who was passing at the time, and other neighbors and by their prompt action the fire was soon under control but not until porch and door frame were badly scorched.

Mrs. Gates and her family are to be congratulated on escaping what might have been a very serious catastrophe.

A Log on the Track of the fast express means serious trouble ahead if not removed, so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing the indigestion. Michael Hess- bauer of Lincoln, Neb., had been sick over three years, but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again. They have helped thou- sands. They give pure blood, strong nerves, good digestion. Only 60 cents. C. M. Parrish, Ph. G., Bellefonte, Pa.

and Mrs. Emma Cowdrick, of Niagara Falls; William, M. Bird Eckenroth, Belle and Lide, of Pleasant Gap. The funeral will be held this Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence at Pleasant Gap. Rev. Frank Methodist minister at the Gap will officiate. Interment in the Lutheran cemetery at Pleasant Gap.

TEMPLETON.—Amanda J. Temple- ton was born in Clinton county, Pa., on August 6, 1842, and died October 2, 1912, aged 70 years, 1 month and 24 days. She was the youngest of a fam- ily of 14 children born to Paul and Nancy Frantz, all of whom have died save one brother, John Frantz, who resides in Clinton county, Pa. After the death of her parents, at the age of 23 she decided to go west, arriving at Dakota on March 14, 1865, and has since been a resident of Stephenson county for 47 years. On Jan. 15, 1869 she was united in marriage with William Templeton of Dakota, Ill. To them were born two sons and one daughter as follows: William, who died in in- fancy; Samuel Paul, who died when two years old, and Anna Pruella, who died May 1, 1902. William Temple- ton, her husband, died Feb. 5, 1904. After the death of all the members of her family she took great interest in taking care of aged ones, and in assisting in caring at the sick and suffering. She united with the Re- formed church at Dakota, Ill., in Dec. 1869, to which she proved faithful to the end, taking an active interest in all its affairs, as well as bearing her share in the spirit of Christ, and in proving her faith in Him by her be- lieving with which she awaited His coming. She leaves a host of friends here and elsewhere where she was known.

WEAVER.—Thursday morning, Oc- tober 17th, at 10:30, Mrs. Lydia Straub after her wedding, Daniel B. Weaver, died at her home in West Brush Val- ley, Centre county, after a lingering illness of about four years of severe yet patient suffering with dropsy. She was born in Union county, Sep- tember 1840, and later she with her parents, emigrated to near Belle- fonte where, in August 1864, she was married to Daniel B. Weaver, but has resided in West Brush Valley for the past forty-one years. Her age at time of her death was 72 years, 1 month and 2 days. She was a mem- ber of the Lutheran church at Farm- ers Mills, and a devoted and loving mother. She is survived by her hus- band, Daniel B. Weaver, and the fol- lowing children: Newton E., of Altoona, Pa., at home; Mrs. Emma Hall, of Leola, Ohio; William H. and Miss Cora B., at home; Mrs. Minnie Miller, of Salona; Mrs. Annie Miller of Jersey Shore; also one sis- ter, Mrs. Amelia Miller, of Bellefonte. These, with nine living grand-child- ren, were the only survivors. The neighbors mourn her death. It being the first broken string in her family harp. The funeral cortege left the house at 9:30 Monday morning for the Union church at Farmers Mills where services were held and her body laid to its last resting place in the Union cemetery.

RUTE.—Mrs. Anna M. Catherine Rute (nee Snook), beloved wife of John B. Rute, of Salona, Clinton Co., Pa., was born near Loganton Jan. 8th, 1838 and died at Salona, October 17th, 1912, aged 74 years, 9 months, and 9 days. She was the daughter of Levi and Margaretta Snook. The deceased was married to her now sorrowing husband at Rebersburg on March 17th, 1861. To this union were born one son and six daughters, viz: Thomas E., Milford, Iowa; Magara M. (de- ceased); Sarah E., married to Rev. Ira E. Spangler, of Milton, Pa.; Bar- bara J. (deceased); Amelia M., now Mrs. Matthew B. Miller, and Catherine M., married to Maurice A. Brunard; the last two residing at Salona. Three sisters and two brothers survive. There are thirteen grandchildren and six great-grandchildren surviving. Mrs. Rute was converted and united with the Ev. Lutheran church soon after her marriage. She was a devoted wife and a loving mother, always ready to give the most helpful coun- sel. About three years ago she was stricken with paralysis which left her to be an invalid. With patience and fortitude she endured to the end. The funeral services were held at her late home on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and were in charge of her pastor, Rev. M. J. Ross, assisted by Rev. W. A. Graham of the M. E. church. Interment in the Cedar Hill cemetery.

WORRICK.—Mrs. Clara Worrick, wife of H. W. Worrick, died at her home on East Howard street Sat- urday morning, aged about 84 years. She had been in ill health from a complication of diseases for the past year and heart failure hastened the end. Mrs. Worrick was well known throughout Nittany valley, and was regarded as a good, Christian woman. For many years she was a member of the Presbyterian church, having affili- ated with the congregation at Mill Hill.

SMITH.—Mrs. Catherine Smith, for many years a resident of Tyro- ne and Edinboro, died on Friday after- noon at the home of her son, T. C. Smith, in Clearfield, of heart trouble. Deceased was born at Bald Eagle Furnace, July 1, 1827. She was a daughter of the late Abraham and Elizabeth Smith, her husband, Broderick Smith, predecessor of T. C. Smith in Clearfield, died at his home Sunday morning for interment.

McWILLIAMS.—Mrs. Annie I. Mc- Williams, wife of William E. McWilla- ms, of Rock Springs, died at her home Sunday afternoon at 4:45 o'clock from a complication of diseases, aged about 60 years. She had been in poor health about three years and had been bedfast for the last few weeks. Her husband she leaves the fol- lowing children: J. M., of Tyro- ne; John and Harold, of Johnstown; Misses Sarah, Isabel and Nannie, at home. She is also survived by two brothers, J. M. and Thomas, of Tyro- ne, and R. G. Mrs. Frank Godwin, and Miss Belle Goheen, of Pennsylvania. Interment at Grayville cemetery on Tuesday.

WALTER.—On last Saturday morn- ing at 9 o'clock there died in New York City a lady who was quite well known to many Bellefonte people. We refer to Mrs. Naomi Rhoads Wal- ter, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Cooper, at the advanced age of 89 years. She was the last survivor of her four sis- ters and four brothers of the late David Rhoads, of Bellefonte, and had visited the Rhoads home in this sec- tion many times. She was married to Thomas R. Walter, a prominent resi- dent of Wilmington, Delaware, who preceded her to the grave several years ago. She was born in Philadel- phia at the old home of the famous sturdy Quaker ancestry. She belong- ed to one of the oldest families in this city, her ancestors coming to this country in the same ship with William Penn. The funeral took place Tues- day afternoon, interment at Wil- mington, Delaware.

ROSS.—On Tuesday morning at 2:30 o'clock, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Ross, a highly respected resident of Pleasant Gap, died at her home in Dakota, Ill., where he expects to make his future home with his sons who are prosperous farmers in that section. In fact Mr. Gramley had been out until the past summer and was on a visit to the eastern part of the county on business for the past few weeks. He says that his moving to Illinois will make him lose his vote this presiden- tial year, and that is a big loss to men like Mr. Gramley who has al- ways been a most enthusiastic Dem- ocratic worker. NAME

P. O.

Berry at Phillipsburg.

A big Wilson Rally will be held at Phillipsburg on Saturday evening of this week and will be addressed by Hon. William H. Berry, the nominee for State Treasurer. Berry needs no introduction to the people in that section. As he is one of the ablest cam- paign orators in the country, he no doubt will be greeted by a large au- dience. Go and hear Berry.

Fortunes in Faces.

There's a much truth in the say- ing "her face is her fortune," but it never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes figure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They purify health and beauty. Try them. 25 cents at C. M. Parrish Ph. G., at Belle- fonte, Pa.

Guaranteed Liver Treatment.

There are just two things to be borne in mind when you use Rexall Little Liver Pills. One is that they are especially designed to relieve all liver ailments promptly and effectively, and the other is that they are pos- itively guaranteed to do this, or your money back. We would not recom- mend Rexall Little Liver Pills unless we felt positive that they contained the necessary remedial agents in sufficient quantities and of sufficient strength to help relieve any ordinary liver trouble, as well as the other bodily ailments arising from a diseased condition of the liver. We could not afford to guarantee—or even to recom- mend—Rexall Little Liver Pills if we did not have confidence in them. We take all the risk, because our guar- antee means simply this—if they do not satisfy and relieve you, we will re- fund your money without hesitation. Price, 25 cents.
