

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-Dr. Joseph Brockerhoff was a Tyroner visitor on Sunday.
-Mrs. John Olewine visited Leomont friends over the Sabbath.
-Roy Landis, of Tyroner, was a recent guest of friends in Bellefonte.

-Watch the vote on the piano contest at Gilliam's store.
-Make all your arrangements to get to the polls on Tuesday and vote.
-The list of jurors for the next term of court will be found on page 7 of this issue.

-Mrs. Jos. L. Runkle and Mrs. N. B. Spangler were guests of friends in Tyroner over Sunday.
-Mrs. Salome Smith, of Coleville, left last week to become the guest of friends at Ligonier, Pa.
-Harry Clevenstine, who has charge of the Pruner Orphanage in this place, was a Tyroner visitor on Sunday.

-After next week it will be our aim to take a vacation on political discussions and devote more space to the news that is most interesting to our readers.
-Mrs. J. K. Noll, of Williamsport, who had been visiting at the home of Mrs. R. J. Roth in this place, left for Williamsport last Thursday accompanied by Mrs. Roth, who will spend a week or more in that city.

-The members of Bellefonte lodge of Rebekahs will hold a masquerade party this evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gheret, on Bishop street.
-William Mayes, who recently completed his work of clearing a number of roads of loose stone for the State Highway Department, spent Sunday in Jersey Shore as the guest of his brother, Thomas Mayes.
-If you want a steady job during the coming winter at good wages call up on the "Commercial" phone the "Hayes Run Fire Brick Co., at Orviston." They will put you next to a good job. You can get work there, if you want work.

-A large and newly painted hand on the corner of the Lyric building now points the way to a first class tobacco and confectionery store, that of C. W. Kuntz, who occupies one of the basement rooms. Look for the hand and talk it over with Charles.
-An attraction of special interest at the scenic tomorrow (Friday) night will be Alexander Dumas' masterpiece, "The Count of Monte Christo." Be sure to see this great feature. Also a good program awaiting scenic patrons Saturday night.

-The piano that Gilliam's Store will give away will be a handsome instrument. It is on exhibition at the store where you are welcome to inspect it. In addition to the piano there will be a fine lot of the best grade of silverware distributed among his customers.
-The Woman's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold an Exchange on Saturday afternoon, November 2nd, at 2 o'clock in the store of Mr. Paul Sheffer, opposite Petricken Hall. There will be on sale bread, rolls, cake, candy, etc. Your patronage is solicited.
-Mrs. Dr. J. L. Seibert and sister, Miss Sadie Bolick, left on Monday for Shamokin, Pa., to attend the funeral of their brother William who died in New Jersey. He had been in failing health for some time, but earlier in the summer had been visiting friends here in Bellefonte.

-When you vote on Tuesday get away from the political heilers and rousers. Remember that you are an American citizen and that the right of franchise is a priceless privilege. If you are an intelligent man you will go to the polls and vote as you deem best for the country and the home.
-The annual charity ball will be held in the Armory on Thursday night, November 14th. This event is held under the auspices of the Woman's Club, and will be given this year in the form of a peasant dance. It is desired to have as many as possible attend in this costume, representing whatever country they may choose.
-Mrs. H. S. Cooper, who has been spending the past summer in Bellefonte, at the home of her aunt, the Miss Benner, on High street, will leave this week for her home in Austin, Texas. Her daughter, Miss Emeline, left a few days ago for a brief visit with Miss Margaret Brockerhoff, in Philadelphia, and will join her mother on her homeward trip.

-Four extra pages in this issue are made necessary by the publication of the sheriff's election proclamation. The additional pages contain much matter that will be of interest to the voter. Every intelligent man should gather all the information possible relative to the issues involved in a great national contest, and for that reason our readers should not overlook the extra pages.
-The friends in this place of Robert T. Garman and family, of Tyroner, will learn with regret that two of the children are now sick with scarlet fever. Their little son, Robert, Jr., had been ill with the fever for about a week when his sister, Betty, contracted the disease. The silver lining in their cloud of adversity lies in the fact that both little patients are getting along nicely and their recovery promises to be speedy.
-The Bellefonte Elks will hold their annual memorial exercises on the first Monday in December. The Hon. Lincoln Walters, of Mt. Carmel, Pa., a former president of the Northern and Western county courts, will deliver the Memorial address. Judge Walters has made a reputation as an orator on such occasions and we can assure the public that a treat will be in store for all who attend. The exercises will be public and the details will be announced later.

-Everybody will remember what excellent satisfaction the first meeting of the Star Course gave in the "Kaffir Boys." The next entertainment while of a different character, will be equally as well pleasing and will take place in Petricken Hall, Friday evening, Nov. 8th. It is styled "The Pilgrim Girls," and is composed of six talented young ladies of rare musical ability. This is going to be one of the finest concerts ever heard in Bellefonte, at least we are so assured.
-Fred and Albert Haupt, two sons of Theodore Haupt, who have been working with their father in Akron, Ohio, were arrivals in Bellefonte on Saturday evening to remain several weeks. The boys expect to do some scouting in the woods after game, for a week or two after which they will return to Ohio. Mrs. Herbert Haupt, of the same place, also accompanied the young men to Bellefonte, and she will visit among friends for a while. Akron still continues to be one of the busiest places in Ohio, and offers inducements to men of all trades. Theodore Haupt, as well as his son Herbert will remain there during the coming winter with more work than they can handle.

-Saturday promises to be one big feature-day for foot ball in Bellefonte. It will not only be one of the hardest games the Academy has yet experienced, but will also close the season in this place. The contest will be between State College Freshmen and Academy, and the visitors are said to be but a few degrees less in strength than the Varsity team of that place, with whom they have been playing practice games. Accompanying them will probably be several hundred rooters, who will come down in a special train, and there is going to be some lively and exciting "doings" on Hughes Field. The boys will indulge in singing school and college songs and have a general good time; four policemen will be stationed on the field to keep order and to see that the fun does not become too obstreperous. Ladies will be admitted free. On this day the new blankets so generously donated by the Academy team by Mr. Shenk, will be used for the first. In four games the Academy has played to date the team has won 131 points to its opponents' 3, and while the Freshmen team is a formidable adversary, the local boys are confident of holding their own. Hughes Field should be thronged with Bellefonte lovers of the game on this day. Remember this is the last game to be played here this season, and as a windup it promises to be mighty interesting.

-A party of gentlemen, former parishioners of Rev. Ezra Yocum, when that gentleman presided over the Methodist congregation at Lewistown several years ago, auted to Bellefonte on a recent Sunday and paid Dr. Yocum the compliment of attending divine services in the morning. After taking dinner at the Garman House the party turned their autos homeward and arrived in Lewistown at 6:15 p. m. The following named made up the party: E. E. Ush, Allen and Earl Kirk, B. F. Brown, James McCartney, R. E. Hanawalt, James Muthersbaugh and brother, J. H. White, Elmer Henry, Dr. E. T. Barnett, Fred Landis, A. A. Aurand, M. S. Anders, E. A. Brubaker, Calvin Schell, Paul Fleming, John Treaster, Charles Baker and Austin Wagner.

-A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Daggett, at their home on Linn street, Sunday, last.
-A straw vote taken at the Scenic on Friday, Saturday and Monday this proved of much interest to the patrons, especially to the Bull Moose portion, as each night's count furnished a victory for Teddy. Wilson scored second, and Taft followed in third place.
