

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Remember your donation to the Bellefonte hospital on next Thanksgiving day.
Harry Haines, of Huntingdon, was an over Sunday visitor at his parents' home in this place.
Col. Emanuel Noll, the efficient baggage master at the Pennsylvania station, spent Sunday with friends in Altoona, Pa.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Badger and son, Wilbur of this place, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Badger's parents in Millburg.
Mrs. Theodore Cherry, of North Thomas street, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Dawson at the latter's home in Philadelphia.
Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Barlett and three children, of Altoona, Pa., are visiting at the home of his father, Mr. David Barlett, of North Thomas St.
Miss Bella Drusin, of New York City, returned to her home Monday after a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cohen in this city.
Teacher's Institute will be in session next week in the court house, for that reason there will be more than the usual crowd in town the coming week.
Albert Hoy, of New York City, was an over Sunday guest at the home of his sisters, the Misses Hoy near town, returning to the metropolis on Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Young, of Pleasant View, are rejoicing over the birth of a little baby boy which arrived at their home on last Friday evening.
Because the ladies of Bellefonte held a successful rummage sale the past two weeks that does not interfere with anyone making donations to the Bellefonte hospital.
W. L. Malin, who has been confined to his home by illness for the past two weeks, is about to be about again and we are glad to say is on the rapid road to recovery.
Next week the Centre County Teachers' Institute will meet in the Court House, commencing on the 11th and concluding the 15th. The program promises to be one of the best in years.
Miss Catherine Cooney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cooney of East High street, departed on Monday for Hazleton, Pa., where she will enter the Hazleton hospital to learn to be a trained nurse.
Fred Reese, who holds a good position in the shops at Renovo where he has charge of the air brake supplies, came home to vote. He has been in Renovo since last August and has a good job.
D. O. Downing, of Taylor township, was a business visitor in Bellefonte, Monday. Besides looking after his large farm in Taylor township he also finds time to superintend his large lumber job at Martha, Pa.
Millard Hartwick, who is holding down a good position in Pittsburg, came in from the Smoky City Saturday to visit his father, Mall Carrier Hartwick. He will remain until after the election to cast his vote before returning home.
Mr. J. Fall Stover and family moved on Monday of this week from their former residence in the Beaver and Hoy row to E. C. Tuten's property No. 128 North Penn street. The house vacated by them will be occupied by William Rider's family.
On last Thursday evening Mrs. Hugh S. Taylor of East Linn street, gave a Halloween masquerade party for the children in that neighborhood. There were about twenty present dressed in fancy costumes and needless to say they had an enjoyable time.
Charles and Edward Richards were called to New York City Monday by the sudden death of their aunt, Mrs. Mary Dohmy. Mrs. Dohmy who has frequently visited in this place was in her 89th year and was the only sister of the late F. C. Richards, of this city.
Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wood, of Jersey Shore, are visiting friends in Bellefonte and Millheim this week. Mr. Wood is now conducting a large hotel at Jersey Shore but is always glad to get back among his Centre county friends who are equally glad to see him.
Edward Haupt's new house, on North Thomas street, is nearing completion and will soon be ready for a tenant. First floor construction is of concrete blocks and second story of frame. This is the second new house erected on North Thomas street by Mr. Haupt during the past year.
Nelson Lucas was one of those who came home to attend the election. As he lives in Washington he finds that if he desires to vote he will have to get out of that city and come to his native home. Mr. Lucas has been in Washington these many years, yet he regards Bellefonte and its surroundings as home.
List of unclaimed letters for the week ending November 2nd, 1912, in the Bellefonte postoffice: Joseph C. Baker, C. W. Barber, Mrs. P. Duncan, Dr. M. D. Gladstone, Rev. J. Goering Harris, Mrs. Bella Lahson, Robert Thompson McCracken, Fred Meyer, Mrs. Maria B. Poorman, L. W. Thornton, Frank W. Winslow, H. C. Valentine, Postmaster.
D. F. Fortney, Esq., spent part of last week in Bradford and McKean counties where he was sent by the State organization to address several large Democratic meetings. From the reports of those meetings he must have given them the right doctrine. When it comes to campaigning Col. Fortney is one of the most forceful stump speakers in the state.
D. F. Luse, of Centre Hall, was in town Monday between trains, while on his way home from Stormtown, where he adjusted the loss by fire to the residence of J. W. Silvis, of Stormtown. The fire occurred during the night of October 25th and was in the basement of the house. Mr. Silvis and family were asleep at the time. The night before Mr. Silvis was preparing to go to the hospital loaded some shells and placed them on a window sill in the basement. The heat from the fire caused them to explode and this awakened the family in time for them to escape and prevent the total destruction of the house. As it was the loss was about $150 fully covered by insurance in the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Centre county. The cause of the fire is unknown.

"Robin Hood" at the Lyric theatre to-night.
William P. Humes, after casting his vote for President, departed Tuesday noon on a business trip to Philadelphia.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Lukenbach, of Tyrone, were arrivals in Bellefonte Tuesday for a few days visit among their Bellefonte friends.
John D. Meyer, Treasurer of the Altoona Trust Company, was in Bellefonte Tuesday, while on his way to his old home at Centre Hall.
Fred Croft, Superintendent of the American Lime & Stone Company's operations at this place, spent Sunday at his parents' home in Tyrone.
E. R. Taylor, military instructor at the Huntingdon Reformatory, came home Tuesday to cast his vote for President, returning the same day.
Daniel Martin, who is in the employ of the Street Railway at Pittsburg, was among those who came home Tuesday to attend the election.
William Rice, who has been visiting his parents in this place, left on Monday for Portage, Pa., where he is employed in a large printing office.
Milton Kern spent the past two weeks in Cincinnati, Ohio, on a visit to his brother Jerry. Mr. Kern was accompanied by his sister from Millheim.
Mrs. N. A. Boalich, of Deming, New Mexico, is being very pleasantly entertained this week at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Seibert on North Allegheny street.
Mr. Samuel Morrison, who is now steadily employed at Tyrone, Pa., was home for the election. He expects to move his family to Tyrone within the next few weeks.
Mr. Charles I. Boalich, of Canton, Pa., has returned to his home on his sisters, Mrs. Dr. J. L. Seibert and Miss Sadie Boalich.
R. B. Taylor, although busily engaged on his state road contract in Washington, Pa., took time to come home and cast his vote for his preference for the Presidency.
Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Faust, of Altoona, were guests at the home of Mrs. Faust's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rine of West High street, from Saturday to Tuesday.
Joseph Gulsewhite, of Cherry Tree, Pa., was among those who took advantage of election day to come home and vote and make a short visit with his parents in this place.
Hon. R. A. Beck was the first voter in the North Ward and that one went straight for Wilson and the banner of the Democratic Ticket. He wanted to give Wilson a good start.
Miss Emily Parker, of Somerset, Pa., was the guest over Monday night of her brother, G. Ross Parker and family, of South Thomas street while on her way home from a visit to Atlantic City.
Hon. J. W. Kepler, of Pine Grove Mills, was attending to business in town on Monday. He reports game a little scarce the past week except that one flock of young turkeys was obliterated on the mountains near that place.
Mrs. J. McClellan Davis gave a dinner party Thursday evening of last week at 6 o'clock at the Garman House in honor of her niece, Mrs. John Nichols, of Elmira, N. Y. About twenty-five ladies and gentlemen were present.
W. R. Gainfort departed on Tuesday morning for Philadelphia where he will join Mrs. Gainfort, who has been visiting friends in the Quaker City for the past two weeks. They will return to their home in this place on Friday.
Possibly the first ice for the season was formed on Monday morning in this section. Saturday afternoon there were slight drifts of snow seen, but not enough to be noticeable. Out in the Snow Shoe section they have had colder weather.
A picture of unusual thrilling and dramatic features will be shown at the scenic tonight. It is entitled "The Lion Tamer's Revenge," and depicts the story of a man who dominates twenty man-eating lions, but proves a victim to his own fiery temper. It is going to be intensely interesting, and you'll regret it if you miss going.
Among the lucky hunters this week was Milton Kerns, the barber, who went out to Fillmore on the early morning train and returned at 9 o'clock with a fine wild turkey that weighed 17 pounds. Just where he got it and how he got it we can't say, but he brought home the bird nevertheless and walked up street as proud as a cock robin.
A wholesome American comedy permeated with the aroma of the simply life and the force of a moral essay combined, under circumstances of genuine fun, tersely but truthfully describes "The Fortune Hunter," Winchell Smith's charming play, which is to be revealed at Garman's opera house, Thursday evening, November 14, 1912.
In "The Fortune Hunter" which will be the attraction at Garman's opera house next Thursday evening, Nov. 14th, Nat Duncan has a scheme for winning a million dollars. It is an utterly plausible one, too, and is in operation in many neighborhoods at present time. He doesn't win the million but is in a fair way to win that sum at the finish of Winchell Smith's comedy, which is full of pathos, as well as humor. Written with a fine reality and an expert sense of stage-craft that compels admiration and commends it as a classic in comedy writing.
The ladies who had charge of the rummage sale for the benefit of the Bellefonte hospital cleared a handsome sum, but in order to make it over $1000 they have been donated the use of the Lyric theatre by Manager Harper, and on Thursday evening they expect to present a fine production. The picture films will be a fine presentation of "Robin Hood," along with which there will be special musical selections under the direction of Miss Mary Bradley and a trained quartet of Bellefonte's best voices. The admission will be 10 and 5 cents. Everybody should attend, as they will get the full worth of their money. The proceeds will go to the hospital fund, and for that reason all should make it a point to patronize the entertainment. Manager Harper is entitled to much credit for his liberality in this respect.

"The Pilgrim Girls" at Petriken Hall tomorrow night.
Don't fail to read Katz & Co's advertisement in this week's issue.
Mrs. Elmer Davis has been quite ill at her home on East Linn street the past week.
Read Slim the Clothier's special advertisement in this issue. You can depend on his guarantee.
Go to the Lyric this evening as the ladies will have a special program on for the benefit of the hospital fund.
Mrs. M. I. Gardner sustained a badly sprained ankle that has kept her in the house for the past few days.
The ladies of the U. B. church will hold an exchange of bread, rolls, puffs, ice cream and cake on Saturday evening, Nov. 9, 1912.
Mrs. Nora McClain, one of Bellefonte's oldest citizens, has been seriously ill the past week at her home on Allegheny street.
The next attraction at Garman's Opera House will be "The Fortune Hunter" and the date is Thursday evening November 14th.
M. Cunningham and Phil Garbrick, who are assisting R. B. Taylor on the state road at Washington, Pa., came back to cast their vote on Tuesday.
All that is new, all that is stylish and the latest designs from the best manufacturers of coats and suits can be seen at Katz & Co's Saturday, Nov. 9th, advertisement.
Communion services will be held in the Lutheran church at this place on Sunday morning and evening, Nov. 10th. T. C. Houtz, D. D., of Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, Pa., will conduct the services.
Mitt Johnson, the marble dealer, had his left hand badly scorched this week while handling a gas solder torch. His glove was saturated with gasoline which ignited and before it could be removed his hand was scorched by the heat.
Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, who have been attending the Fairs in different parts of the country, were arrivals here Tuesday morning. They were accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Jack Loutz, of Ardmore, who will visit friends in this place for a few days.
The Bellefonte Academy football team will go to Indiana Saturday to meet their old rivals, the strong Indiana Normal team. Last year they defeated the Normal boys by the score of 20 to 0 and hope to repeat the dose this time, although they know they will have a hard fight. The Academy will take twenty men with them.
The management of the Lyric theatre have secured as a special attraction for Thursday and Friday, Nov. 14-15 the most artistic and best equipped motion picture production ever made, Home "Odyssey" or The Adventures of Ulysses after the fall of Troy. The story is told in three full reels and is accompanied with full descriptive lecture delivered by Alexander Parke.
Another of the interesting sacred concerts being held by the Y. M. C. A. will be given in Petriken Hall on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Following the concert Dr. John P. Singer, president of Lock Haven State Normal will make an address, his subject having the unique title of "Nittany Valley One Hundred Million Years Ago." The meeting will be very interesting and no doubt will be largely attended.
The chart for "The Pilgrim Girls" ladies orchestra and concert company is now open at the Y. M. C. A. This excellent entertainment will be given in Petriken Hall tomorrow evening, Nov. 14th, as the second number of the Star course. There are six members in the company, and each one is an artist. Miss Janet Chesney, one of the brightest and most versatile readers of the public, accompanies the ladies on their tour. This promises to be a rare musical and literary treat.
Edward Rine, accompanied by his wife, will be given in guests at Bellefonte friends over Sunday. Mr. Rine who was Adams Express Agent at Greensburg has resigned his position at that point and accepted the agency for the company at Tyrone where he assumed his duties on Monday of this week. His annual salary is $1200 and he can secure a suitable house. Mr. Rine is an old Bellefonte boy who has made good, having worked his way up in the Express business until he stands very high in the estimation of the company. We wish him success in his new position.
Rev. W. M. Traub, the young theological student who has been filling the Lutheran pulpit at this place for the past six months, was stricken with appendicitis on Sunday of last week and removed to his home at Selinsgrove where an operation was performed. His condition was quite serious but we are glad to state that he is improving now and it is believed he will soon be able to be about again. He is a student at Susquehanna University. During his stay in Bellefonte he made many warm friends. He is an able speaker and gives promise of a brilliant career. It is hoped that his recovery will be speedy.

MEETING OF COUNCIL.
Seven members were present at Monday night's session of council, and the first business considered was a petition signed by a number of east Curtin street residents regarding the grade on that street along the properties of L. R. Curtin, S. D. Ray and James A. Beaver, that is much higher than a new pavement recently laid by E. W. Crider. The matter was disposed of by the secretary being ordered to notify the owners of the said cut down to conform grade and relay their pavements. Street committee reported a new crossing laid at the intersection of Spring and High streets, from the Dr. Dale residence to the Garman residence. Also placed stone on portion of Willowbank street, and made a number of repairs on other streets. Water committee placed new fire hydrant at the American Lime & Stone Co's property near the glass works.
Report was made that Homer Carr had been served with a 30-day notice to vacate the Green mill property. Finance committee reported a balance of $756.26 in boro treasury. The same committee asked for order on treasurer for $111 to pay interest on $3796 note; also the renewal of a note for $5000 at 6 months, and one for $5000 at 4 months. The same were ordered to be drawn.
Street committee submitted a blue print of the proposed changes in the location of Bell Telephone Co. poles throughout the boro, and recommended that the same be accepted and filed with the minutes.
Boro solicitor Mitchell enlightened the members from a legal standpoint, as to the advisability of removing the strip from the breast of the dam above High street bridge. As the matter had been referred to him for solution, he stated that in his opinion the boro had a perfect right to remove the strip. Following a brief discussion Mr. Judge moved, seconded by Mr. Duggett, that the boro engineer be instructed to take off the offending splash board at once. This has since been accomplished.
The request of William Rine, of the water department, for an increase of 25 cents per day in wages, was granted.
The walk along the Humes and Spangler streets to Bishop street was reported to be in bad condition. A needed walk along a portion of the Haupt property at the extreme northern end of Thomas street was made known, and the same was referred to boro engineer for report.
In winding up the business for the evening council by motion decided to allow no bond fires to be held on the diamond.
An Auto Collision.
On Saturday afternoon about 1:15 o'clock an automobile collision took place between the taxi-cab driven by Will Kelchline, and Andrew McNitt in his E. M. F. runabout. Mr. Kelchline had just left the Brockerhoff House having in his car Mr. Schenk and son, John, and Rev. Biddle, of Lebanon. Just as they rounded Alkana corner they met Mr. McNitt coming east on Bishop street. Both drivers attempted to stop their cars but too late to avoid a head on collision. Fortunately their speed had slackened so that the passengers only received a good shaking up but no serious injuries. The taxi had a spring broken, both lamps smashed and one fender broken. The McNitt car had both lamps broken and a fender torn loose.
BOALSBURG.
Saturday evening, Nov. 9th, the members of the Reformed league will render a play, entitled "The New Minister." Everybody invited to attend.
