LITTLE BOY KILLED BY HIS PLAYMATE

A SAD SHOOTING AFFAIR AT MILLHEIM.

Died Soon After-Boys Were Shooting Mark-Purely Accidental-Parents Reside at Coburn-Was Visiting Home of Friends at Time.

On Saturday afternoon last between two and three o'clock, Carl Malone, the eleven-year-old son of Fred Malone, of Coburn, was accidentally shot and killed by a playmate, Jay Winegardner, while at play in the yard of Louis Wingardner, at Millheim. The boys were shooting mark with a 22calibre rifle and a stray bullet entered the little fellow's head 2 inches above the left ear. He was taken into the Winegardner home and medical assistance summoned, but he never regained conscioussness and died about two hours and a half later.

There are several stories in regard to the sad affair but there is no doubt it was purely accidental. Carl accom-panied by his brother Blaine, had come Millheim that afternoon to have a tooth extracted which was giving him trouble, but owing to the swollen condition of his jaw the dentist was unable to do anything that day. The boys then stopped at their uncles, Louis Winegardner. Some of the older boys, among them Jay Winegardner, aged fifteen were shooting mark at a target located in the rear of the residence and near an outbuilding.
After they had been shooting for some time the Malone boys were sent to open the door of the outbuilding, and entered it. At the same time young Winegardner was getting ready to shoot at the boards in the door. Blaine ran from the building and on turning saw Jay had taken aim and was about ready to shoot. He called to his brother Carl to stay back but the latter had already started to follow him, and as he came in line with the open door the shot was fired. The bullet first went through the boards of the door and then struck the boy, with the tragic result as above mentioned.

The victim of this sad affair was the oldest son of Mr. Fred Malone, who superintends the creamery at Coburn. He was a bright little fellow and his untimely death has cast a gloom over that community. The body was removed to his parents' and the funeral services were held Wednesday morning at ten o'clock from the United Evangelical church, Rev. J. A. Dice, officiating. Interment took place at Millheim.

Edward Raymond Will Likely Face Charge of Absence Without Leave. The Lock Haven Democrat reports that Edward Raymond was delivered to the U.S. Army authorities at Fort Porter, Buffalo, by Constable W. W. Pettingill, following his arrest by the constable and detective Ellis Myers on the charge of desertion from the United States army. Raymond was taken to Buffalo, the nearest army post to Lock Haven, on telegraphic orders from the adjutant general's fice at Washington, D. C. It is likely that a charge of absence without leave will be preferred against Raymond, says the Democrat, in place of desertion. He was attired in his uniform when arrested, and was at his home at the time. Furthermore he has served about twelve years in the army, covering three enlistments, high power transmitting station are which will be a factor in minimizing an expert operator. INJURED MOTORMAN DEAD.

William Wert, Native of Centre County Dies in Altoona.
William C. Wert, a native of Centre county, employed as a motorman on the Altoona and Logan Valley street railway, died in the Altoona hospital on Monday morning of tetanus, or lock jaw, resulting from injuries received in a trolley accident a week THE BALL ENTERED HIS SKULL before.

On the morning of Monday, November 4th, Mr. Wert as motorman of a car, was conveying some thirtyfive laborers to the track improve-ments being made to the Tyrone diision between Bellwood and Tyrone. He laid out on a siding to allow the Tyrone and Bellwood shopmen's cars to pass and then getting a white signal he pulled out onto the main line and started eastward. At the Big Spring the car figured in a head-on collision with the East Altoona car, the fog being so dense that it was impossible for the motormen of the two cars to see each other in time to prevent a collision. Wert was the most seriously injured of the seven men that were hurt in the collision. He was caught on the front platform of his car, had the right leg badly crushed above the the left leg broken and both badly bruised and contused. He was removed to the hospital, and showed improvement until Saturday evening when he began to complain of stiff-ness in his neck. Sunday he grew worse and at noon on that day his ailment was diagnosed as tetanus, or lock-jaw, brought on by the intense pain he had suffered. He lingered until the hour mentioned above when death relieved him of his sufferings. William C. Wert was the son of Peter and Elizabeth Wert, deceased, and was born in Centre county on October 25, 1868. He was reared on the farm and remained at home until 19 years of age when he went to Altoona and secured employment of the Pennsylvania Railroad company as a brakeman on the Pittsburg division, winning promotion until he became a conductor. He left the company's service some seven years ago and on March 2, 1905, entered the employ of the Altoona and Logan Valley Railway company as a motorman. His wife preceded him to the grve ten years ago and he is survived by one son, George, of Millmont, Pa. He is also survived by three brothers and one sister, Harry E. and John W., of Altoona; Rufus L., of Sunbury, and Mrs. Kate Knauss, of Ambridge, Pa. The funeral took place from his late home Wednesday afternoon.

Game Supper a Lineman's Reward. Harry Sewart, a Pennsylvania Rail-road telephone lineman, of Lewistown, had pheasant for supper Monday night. When he went to repair a broken line he found that a large cock pheasant had snapped the heavy copper strand by flying against it. The bird, with its head severed, lay close of the court house, and when the hat was rescued it resembled Teddy's the morning after election. (T) hat's all right,

PENNA. R.R. BRANCH FOR STATE COLLEGE

TO BE BUILT FROM LEMONT TO PA. FURNACE.

Will Prove A Great Convenience-Through Connection From Montandon to Tyrone-Report From Reliable Sources.

The Centre Democrat hesitates in putting out rumors of local improvements unless there is real foundation to it. This week we can announce upon what we consider reliable authority, that arrangements have about completed for the building of a branch road from Lemont to State College by the Penna. R. R. Co., and from that point westward to connect with the Spruce Creek branch in the vicinity of Penna, Furnace that is controlled by the Penna, R. R., and connects with the main line at Ty-rone. This would make a direct line through of the Lewisburg branch to Tyrone, as was originally intended.

The citizens of State College for a number of years have petitioned the Penna. R. R. Co. for this extension as they have felt the need of it in the recent growth of the institution and the town. Up to this time the only railroad to State College has been the Bellefonte Central, and the service and length of the line makes it unsatis-This will give them a direct outlet to the east and west.

Important negotiations have been in progress on this improvement for some time, and in the past month assumed such a situation that we are informed the Railroad company had decided to build the connection. We give this upon the information of prominent citizens of State College who are in position to know what they are talking about. Further details could not be secured.

The above report in substance was confirmed on Wednesday by another prominent citizen of State College. Recently representatives of the company were at State College to go into all the details of the proposed extension.

A further rumor has it that the Bellefonte Central R. R. is soon to acquired by the N. Y. Central for the purpose of extending their lines westward to Huntingdon and thus reach the coal fields in that part of the state.

A NEW BIRTH OF FREEDOM.

Under the leadership of Woodrow Wilson the Democratic party has won its greatest victory since 1852. But this victory is no tawdry partidence in the Democratic party as a party. It is a mandate from the people, and woe be unto the leaders of this Democracy if they falter in obed-

The country is seething with political discontent in spite of its unparalleled material wealth and prosperity. This discontent is confined to no particular class or section. Rich and poor alike, children of fortune and children of poverty, have begun to lose faith in the efficacy of their Government to establish justice and promote the general welfare. They are not sure where the fault lies; they are not united as to the remedy; but this they know-that their institutions have been seized by privileged interests and turned against them; that subtle. mysterious forces operating unseen have proved time after time that their power over public affairs was greater Mr. Bryan went to the Lindell ho-

For sixteen years the Republican party has been in continuous control of national affairs. In 1896 it polled votes. But suddenly this seemingly invincible organization came crashing down to ruin because it had not kept the faith. The Democratic party in turn will go crashing down to their ideals; that his courage is their courage, and that he will find a way to right the wrongs against which they have protested.

A man of lesser character, of lower ideals, of small ability, could not have won the victory that Gov. Wilson won. He could not have appealed to the imagination of the country as Woodrow Wilson appealed to it. No man has ever been elevated to the Presidency who was more fully the people's President than this college professor who scorned alike the support of the bosses and the support of Plutocracy, It is a tremendous compliment that the voters have paid to him, but the responsibility is equally great.

If he should fail, the consequences must be doubly disastrous. If he succeeds, as The World believes he will, a new era will have begun in American history, with a new vindication of republican institutions and a new vindication of the immortal principles of the Republic. This Nation will indeed have a new birth of freedom .--World.
