MILESBERG.

The close of another week finds everybody busy.

Butchering season is here—pork chops and sausage is all the go.

While others are pitching their tents in the wilds of the Alleghenies for big game, also the revival season, the most important of all, is here; the invitation is heralded from every pulpit.

That elastic invitation, and who-so-ever will let him come and take of the waters of life freely, for we cannot live over the life that is miss spent.

Austin Watson spent Saturday at home. Mrs. William Kline, son and daughter Eva, left on Monday morning for Detroit, Michigan, but expect to spend a few days in Niles, Ohio.

Goodbye, Eva, we hope you will like the great city. Perry Kanarr and Roll Bryan spent Sunday at home.

Margaret and Rebecca Miles spent a few days visiting with friends in Unionville last week.

William Walker caught a stray boat the other day. Now for Salt River. Our neighbors are butchering their porkers and some fine ones, too.

But so far Wm. Gingham has the largest one to his credit. Geo. Chapman, who has been visiting with friends and relatives in Clearfield county, returned to Milesburg last Wednesday.

William Walker and A. F. Boggs hiked for the mountains for big game. Perhaps to look for the Bull Moose.

Margaret Mann, of Mill Hill, is visiting her brother Harry and family of this place. Miss Cathryn Moore, of Altoona, spent Tuesday at Urah House's.

Miss Bette Haupt has accepted the position of bookkeeper for the Wallace Brick Co. Peck, are you afraid of Mike? Poor Paul lost his bicycle and was standing beside it, like the lady who lost her spectacles and had them on her forehead.

H. C. Robinson transacted business in Pittsburg last week and came home on Thursday; he reported everything booming out there. Mrs. Frank Campbell, of West Port, dined with W. R. Campbell and Mary last Friday.

Geo. Keller, Harry Austin, Wm. Jordan and Harry Rhoads took dinner at Lawrence's William's butchery last week. All did justice to the good things set before them.

Enoch Hugg bought the Johnson property and moved from Phillipsburg to this place last week. Frank Beard vacated the house purchased by Mr. Hugg and moved into Wm. Kline's property.

Russel Rickard, of Orviston, spent Sunday with his parents here. Joseph Rightenour, of Hopeville, Bedford county, spent a few days with his son and family, G. W. Rightenour.

H. G. Ebbs, wife and family and Mabel, took a spin around the county Sunday, and stopped a short time at the home of Jos. Summers at Axemann; also at the Academy and hospital and at his farm in Halfmoon valley.

Mrs. Susan Zimmerman celebrated her 53 anniversary Sunday. A few of her old friends and acquaintances were present. It was quite a treat to the old lady. She seemed much pleased to have her friends call. She is now with her son, Calvin Zimmerman.

Ed. Grove spent last Sunday at Centre Hall. "Hello, Hello!" give me central at Centre Hall, please." Dog-on-it! Yes, and kept me away from one night's work, too. Hello, Clarence, did you see Letterman's pup anywhere?

Sick! One new case of diphtheria at Henry Bickler's, Mrs. Flack, Mrs. Heaton, Robert Spicer and George Letterman are all very much improved, which is good news.

Mrs. Ed. Hummel and two daughters, of Phillipsburg, spent Monday at the home of Edward Quick, of our town. W. B. Miles departed last Thursday for Philadelphia where he expects to have his eyes treated for cataract.

He expects to enter the Presbyterian hospital. His wife and son Wilber accompanied him. Lester Campbell, Latimer Bryan and Paul Ash were engaged in signal practice foot ball. Ash passed the ball to Campbell and Bryan tackled him.

Ash was thrown to the sidewalk, cutting a gash in his forehead. Campbell stepped backward and fell over Ash, bruising his eye with his heel. He is a sorry sight.

The largest hog killed in this section so far weighed 154 lbs. William Gingham was the owner. A fair will be held in the Firemen's Hall by the willing workers of the Baptist church, on Nov. 23. You can buy your Christmas presents there. They will also begin revival services on Dec. 2.

A union meeting for home missions will be held in the Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening, Nov. 26. A number of speakers are expected to be present. Revival services will begin in the M. E. church on Jan. 1, 1913.

BLANCHARD.

In Our Churches Next Lord's Day. Church of Christ—Minister, S. J. McCracken; preaching at 10:30 a. m. Minister will preach at Romola in the evening.

Baptist—Minister S. S. Clark; preaching at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. Many of our hunting crews that go to take their usual vacation are going to take their chance at the sport as usual. Many of the crews have already gone. Among some are the Harter-Bitner crew, J. I. Wagner's crew, the Lingle crew, and many other enthusiastic hunters are taking their leave to spend the deer season.

Walter Davy was the slayer of a large wild turkey. Many of the rabbits have to take the offerings of the shot gun. The younger boys seem to have the elder sportsmen down in the killing of rabbits.

The State Highway department has abandoned the state road work. They have taken all of the teams off, while only four men have been left on the road to open the side ditches; they are expected to be taken off this week.

Election was symbolized by the home-coming of many of the voters who were entitled to a vote. Among some of them are J. B. Robb, Judge of election; J. C. Brumgardner, Thomas Winslow, J. B. Gamsalus, Olay Wanta, Virgil Ridge, and D. Smith. But regret to say that the greater part just came to lose their vote for the most of them were Bull Moose men. Although they have our consolation and that is, that there is a great day coming.

We are compelled to congratulate the Howard letter on the picture of the fine dress and the two good-looking young ladies that appeared in the Democrat last week. The attire was certainly well fitting for the occasion. John Williams came home from Phillipsburg where he has been confined to the hospital on account of the accident he sustained a few weeks ago while blasting rock; also we are glad to say that Alex Heverly and Chas. Kunes returned on Saturday evening on the 8 o'clock train, who were also confined to hospital of the same place. They all have improved remarkably well, but John Williams will lose an eye, it is feared. He is going to Philadelphia some time this week to have his eye treated by the most scientific doctors.

Mrs. S. K. Spangler has been confined to her bed for over a week and is slowly improving; the cause of her illness is nervousness to which she is subject. She could not be out of bed long enough to attend her husband's funeral.

Irvin Spangler and his daughter Ruth came to this place to attend his father's funeral. He is employed as a mail carrier at Berwick. At this writing Mrs. Hayes Pletcher is no better. Her condition is very doubtful.

Jesse Ridge brought to this place his baby to make interment in the Baptist cemetery. Mr. Ridge makes his residence in Lock Haven.

John Lingle who has been employed in the New York ship yards at Camden, N. J., returned home last Sunday to spend the deer season with his brother in the forests.

Mr. and Mrs. Dyer, of Montreal, Canada, who have been visiting their father, D. B. Kunes, returned home Monday.

Geo. Berryhill, who has been employed in Philadelphia, returned home last week. Chas. and Clyde Bitner, of Lock Haven, returned from Lock Haven to spend their vacation in the woods hunting deer.

Clement Dale was a business visitor in this town last Saturday. Norris I. Harter was a business visitor in Bellefonte, Monday afternoon. The teachers of the town went to Bellefonte to attend institute, this week.

Clair Bitner, of Altoona, was a week-end visitor with his home folks.

FOUNTAIN.

Mrs. Abbie Watson, from Stoney Lonsome, went away on Saturday to visit her sons and daughters in Altoona and McKeesport.

Elmer Watson made a flying trip to Renovo to see his daughter, Mrs. Maude Perry, who is on the sick list. Miss Syvilla Bullock was a caller on Miss Catherine Watson one day last week.

John Lyons, who has been employed for Sam Buddinger for some time, has moved to Stinktown for the winter. William Lauck and family moved on Wednesday from the company house at Butts station to Scotchtown.

Miss Catherine Lauck, who has been employed at Milesburg, is at home on the sick list.

Mrs. Gertrude Border, of Phillipsburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nannie Watson, of this place. Mrs. Nannie Houser spent Sunday evening at Mrs. Nannie Watson's.

Miss Covilla Bullock spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday with her cousin, Miss Sarah Cartwright, near Windy Hill.

Joseph Mayes, of Bellefonte, was a pleasant caller at his sister's, Mrs. Maggie Fye, on Sunday afternoon. George Mayes and two gentlemen friends, of McKeesport, came to this place to hunt for a week or so.

Ben Richard spent Sunday at Geo. Cartwright's, near Windy Hill. John Watson spent Sunday with James Fye.

Nothing worries a nagging wife so much as a husband who won't get mad.

DO YOU ENJOY EATING

Or Does Everything You Eat Distress You?

Experts declare that the reason stomach disorders are so common in this country is due to hasty and careless habits of eating. Stomach troubles and run-down conditions also usually go together.

John Lind, of Oneonta, N. Y., says: "I have been troubled with a bad stomach trouble for fifteen years, and became so weak that I could hardly walk or do any work. My appetite was very poor, and it seemed impossible to get any relief. Since taking two bottles of Vinol I find that it has already made a remarkable improvement in my health; my digestion is much stronger, and I have gained in weight."

Vinol makes weak stomachs strong because it strengthens and tones up the weakened, tired and overtaxed nerves of the digestive organs. Vinol is easily assimilated by the weakest stomachs, and is delicious to the taste.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.

AGED PEOPLE

cannot properly masticate solid foods and digestion is often upset—they do not receive the needed nourishment to make strength and preserve health, but if aged people everywhere could only realize the strength-sustaining nourishment in Scott's Emulsion they would take it after every meal.

It possesses the nourishing elements of cod liver oil, the vital powers of the hypophosphites of lime and soda and the curative qualities of glycerine, also perfectly combined that nature immediately appropriates them to create strength—nourish the organs and build the body. It relieves rheumatism and ailments due to declining years. It adds to the span of life. Refuse substitutes for SCOTT'S. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 12-63

ZION.

Quite a number of people are butchering. The corn in this neighborhood is very nearly all husked, and quite a bit of fodder hauled in.

The scholars have a week's vacation while the instructors are attending institute. Jim Kazee is the busiest man in town. He is getting his horse shoes ready for winter.

A. L. Shaffer had a paralytic stroke on the night of the fifth, affecting his left side to such an extent as to render him practically helpless for a few days. At present he is convalescing slowly and is able to be about the house.

Mrs. Liddia Lesh reached the ninety-first milestone in life's journey on the sixth inst. She has not been enjoying very good health for some time. Butcher stories are now in season and the scribe may be able to pick up some good ones.

Taft and Teddy were pretty badly snowed under on the fifth and it wasn't very good health for some time. Services were well attended in the three churches on Sunday.

Wonder how H. T. will take another auto-load of pears to town. The forestry department has a representative here looking after the chestnut blight. His headquarters are at J. J. Stine's.

Rumor has it that a doctor will locate here in the near future. He has rented par of Merrill Shower's house at the station. The state road is completed as far down as Hecla.

Three of Bellefonte's pretty girls are not afraid of exercise and good country air. We refer to the two Miss Cronemillers and Bertha Deltrich, who left the town of their nativity at ten o'clock Sunday morning and hiked it to William Clevenstein, just in time for dinner. Well, it was a good dinner all right and you should have seen them store it away for future use. After spending several hours very agreeably and taking a good rest they started on their return trip at three o'clock, and hiked it back to town, by five. That's hiking it some, for a bunch of town lassies. The distance from town to Mr. Clevenstein's is seven miles, or a fourteen-mile hike. Come again, girls.

The orators of the Progressive and G. O. P. are awfully short-winded since the election. And so it goes in politics.

Once a fisherman, not always a liar. When a man does talk sense at least half the people don't recognize it.

Lameness

Sloan's Liniment is a quick and reliable remedy for lameness in horses and other farm animals.

"Sloan's Liniment surpasses anything on earth for lameness in horses and other farm animals. I would not sleep without it in my stable." MARTIN DOYLE, 432 West 19th St., New York City.

Good for Swelling and Abscess. Mr. J. M. Gibbs, of Lawrence, Kan., R.F.D. No. 2, writes: "I had a mare with an abscess on her neck and one 50c bottle of Sloan's Liniment entirely cured her. I keep it all the time for galls and small swellings and for everything about the stock."

is a quick and safe remedy for hog cholera.

Governor of Georgia uses Sloan's Liniment for Hog Cholera. "I heard Gov. Brown (who is quite a farmer) say that he had never lost a hog from cholera and that his remedy always was a tablespoonful of Sloan's Liniment in a gallon of slop, decreasing the dose as the animal improved. Last month Gov. Brown and myself were at the Agricultural College building and in the discussion of the ravages of the disease, Gov. Brown gave the remedy named and for everything about the stock."

SAVANNAH DAILY NEWS. At All Dealers, 25c., 50c. & $1.00. Sloan's Book on Horses, Cattle, Hogs and Poultry sent free. Address Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Boston.
