EDITORIAL.

Next Thursday is the time for giving thanks. No matter how great your disappointments, there are many reasons why you should rejoice, and be glad.

Gov. Wilson and family are spending a month's vacation in the Bermuda Islands. In the meantime the Democratic hosts are lining up at the pie counter.

Bill Flinn and Boise Penrose will furnish the amusement in the organization of the next session of the legislature. At present there is no definite idea as to who is who and what is what. Penrose may not be eliminated as easily as some predict.

On Tuesday the Bull Moose issued orders, at a meeting in New York City, that in the future no members of the Progressive Party can make alliances or fuse with any of the other parties, without special permit. Without fusion, Bill Flinn will be helpless in Pennsylvania.

The business world approves Gov. Wilson's announcement that congress will be convened in an early and special session for the purpose of passing a proper tariff bill. The sooner that matter is settled the better for all concerned, then the industrial world can adjust itself to the new order of things, and prosperity can be assured. Gov. Wilson's prompt decision is commendable. He is making a good start.

BRYAN CAN STAND IT.

The New York Sun is the leading "stand-pat" organ in the country. For years it has been the mouthpiece of the Goulds and Morgans and hence is the enemy of all progressive movements. The following is a sample of its bitterness since the defeat of Taft. It naturally hates Bryan, who was instrumental largely in Wilson's nomination and election. It recently said: "The best wish that 'The Sun' can express for the President-elect, a comparatively untried man facing an unparalleled opportunity, is that he may seize upon the windpipe of Bryanism at the very start, and with all the strength that the sinews of long, lean fingers possess, throttle that persistent and fatal thing into eternal silence."

"13" Lucky For Wilson.

It is found that there are thirteen letters in "Woodrow Wilson" that he was elected on "November fifth," again thirteen letters, and in "1912," the sum of which four numbers is thirteen. He will be inaugurated in 1913, and returns indicate that he will have 427 electoral votes, the three figures of which number, added together, make thirteen. Also, the number of letters in the name, "Taft" and "Roosevelt," four and nine, respectively, added together make thirteen letters, so that his opponents combined to make Wilson a lucky number.

PLEASANT GAP.

Mrs. Ward Showers was the winner of the "Popular Lady" contest which was conducted by Gieson's Medicine show which showed at this place last week. Mrs. Showers received a handsome set of silverware.

Mrs. Frank Weaver was the winner of the "Bean guessing-Pig racing" contest. She received an eight-week-old pig.

A spin to Bellefonte in an automobile on a nice moonlight night is a thing to be desired, and it is no wonder that two of our pretty and accomplished young ladies took advantage of the offer made them by two of Boalsburg's sports on Saturday night. Carl Noll, of Pittsboro, has been visiting friends and relatives of this place during the past week.

The Ladies Aid society of the Lutheran church of this place will hold their annual bazaar in Noll's Hall on Wednesday and Thursday, November 27th and 28th. An oyster supper will be served on Wednesday evening. On Thursday a chicken dinner and a chicken and waffle supper will be served. Yes, I think you would enjoy yourself. Come!

Of Interest to Old Soldiers.

Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart is about to issue a circular asking for information for the Gettysburg semi-centennial celebration. He desires the name, date of enlistment, date of discharge, name of organization and present post office address of all survivors living in Pennsylvania of Pennsylvania organizations who were in service to July 4, 1863, and who participated in the battle of Gettysburg. Grand Army posts and kindred organizations will be asked to assist in locating survivors.

There will be an entertainment held on Thanksgiving evening at Rock View school house for the interest of the school children's parents only. Other invitations will be extended as is thought best by the invitation committee. Doors will be open at 7:30.

When you have any job printing be sure and come to the Centre Democrat.

From all accounts the business world is not unduly alarmed over the election of Wilson. Many railroads have recently placed large orders for rails and increased rolling stock. Others are making vast improvements of terminals and roads. Manufacturing industries are bawling their invent-ability to secure enough help to operate their plants to the desired capacity. Everywhere prosperity continues to smile more hopefully, in spite of the fact that a Democratic president was elected.
