JACKSONVILLE.

Well, on account of the snow and rain, Sabbath was a pretty dreary day.

Thomas Beightol and grandson, Foster R. Beightol, left on Saturday afternoon for Waddle where Mr. Beightol intends to butcher for his two daughters, Mrs. C. E. Poorman and Mrs. H. C. Poorman. Well Tommie's all right; he knows how to handle the knives.

The death of little Mildred Strunk, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Strunk, of State College, was quite a shock to the community. She was laid to rest on Monday forenoon at Jacksonville.

M. S. Betz and his crew arrived home from hunting on Saturday with one deer.

Quite a few of our people attended the funeral of William Corman on Friday.

There were several of our people attended the funeral of Everett Johnson, at Hublersburg, on Saturday forenoon.

Church was not so well attended on Sunday on account of the stormy weather, and being so cold the people did not turn out.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heltman visited over last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Vonada's.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dolan, from below Jacksonville, were over Sunday night visitors with Mr. Doan's brother, Edward Dolan and wife, and daughter.

Leon Ertley, who has been working this summer at Zion, was seen on our streets on Sunday night.

Bruce came home all smiles on Saturday night, thinking of the last trip from the farm; he left Monday morning for a little trip.

Protracted meeting started at the Evangelical church Sunday night; everybody is invited to come and help a good cause along, and bring your friends and neighbors with you.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kline and family visited the past week with Mrs. Kling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Vonada.

Harvie Beightol, who is employed at Bellefonte, was down to spend Monday with his father, brothers and sister; come again, Harvie, we are glad to have you with us.

Mrs. Josie Dorman and two sons, Robert and Sherwood, of Avis, are visiting Mrs. Dorman's sister, Mrs. B. L. Noll and family.

Mrs. John Schaffer moved last week from her home in Jacksonville in with her brother, Jessie Vonada.

Some of the farmers aren't quite through husking corn; you will have to hurry or get cold fingers.

E. L. Noll met with quite an accident last week when his horse ran off, throwing Mr. Noll out and marking him up a great many places.

Butchering: On Monday, the 25th, H. Clayton Poorman, formerly of this place, but now of Waddle, butchered four of the finest hogs heard of so far this season. The first weighed 470 lbs; No. 2, 429 1/2 lbs; No. 3, 408 lbs; No. 4, 370 1/2 lbs; making a total of 1678 lbs. dressed, from which they received a little over 13 cans of lard.

Those who assisted at the butchering were: Mrs. Joseph Poorman, two sons, Raymond and John, and Clarence Poorman and family; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Long, Charles Sellers, Jessie Pennington, Geo. Stevenson, Thomas Beightol, son Bruce; and grandson Foster; Miss Laura Snook, Mrs. Joseph Loder and son Charles; and the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

On Tuesday, 26th, Clarence Poorman followed suit by killing his two large porkers, which weighed 600 lbs and he got 4 1/2 cans of lard. Those present: T. P. Beightol, sons Bruce and Foster; Mrs. Joseph Poorman and sons Raymond and John; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Poorman and children; Mrs. Jas. Loder and son Charles; and Chas. Sellers. All through by 3 o'clock and the scribe returned home on the evening train.

AARONSBURG.

Thomas Hull, who was employed at State College all summer, spent over Sunday with his family here.

Arthur Weaver, wife and interesting little girls, Sara and Marion, and Mrs. Rote and three children, all from Farmers Mills, spent part of Saturday with the former lady's parents, Gillard Eisenhauer's.

Mrs. C. P. Adams, from State College, spent a day very pleasantly at the home of her brother-in-law, E. G. Mingle's.

Mrs. James Strohm and Mrs. Goodhard, from Centre Hall, were welcome callers one day last week with their aged aunt, Mrs. J. G. Meyer, and their cousin, Mrs. C. G. Bright.

Last Monday evening Mrs. Rev. Geesey met with the Mission Band in the Lutheran church; all had a very nice and pleasant time, especially when they were called to partake of the fine lunch the ladies had prepared for the occasion.

Mrs. Rev. Eyre spent a few days very pleasantly with her brother, Dr. C. S. Musser, and her many friends; all were glad to see her.

Linn Haffey returned home to his aged mother, from Akron, Ohio, where he was employed all summer.

Miss Lizzie Yarger went to west Fairview to spend the winter months with her sister, Mrs. Luse; she will be greatly missed among her many friends and especially in her Sunday school.

Mrs. John Hains and two children, Marion and Franklin, spent last Saturday in Millheim with her brother, John Hosterman, and sister, Mrs. Shull.

WINGATE.

Mike Parish and wife, and brother John and Maime Skelly, visited a few days last week with Mrs. Henry Estright.

Mrs. A. J. Long and children, Thomas and Fred, and her sister, Edna Murray, visited Wednesday their cousin, Harry Crust.

Miss Ella Wagner visited a little while Saturday with her grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Harnish. What's your attraction, Ella?

Miss Dora Stere and Anna Shank spent Sunday at the home of Alfred Hall at Osceola.

Toner Fisher and wife returned to their home at Iowa, after three weeks' visit with their friends and relatives, of this place.

A little daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Estright's last Friday morning.

Mrs. Eli Stere and daughter Dora spent Wednesday afternoon at Bellefonte.

Ryland Summers, wife and children visited the home of George Summers on Sunday. Glad to see you, Ryland.

Thomas Murray spent Sunday among his relatives at Altoona.

FORTY-FIFTH'S REUNION.

Proved a Successful and Pleasant Affair at Williamsport.

The second reunion of the Forty-fifth Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteer regiment, held in Williamsport last Thursday was a very successful one. The members of this regiment to the number of about twenty responded to their names when called at the business session during the afternoon. At this time it was decided to make the organization permanent. It has not yet been decided where the next meeting will be held. It was left to the committee to select the place and it is thought that it will be Gettysburg when the grand reunion of both the Union and Confederate soldiers will take place.

At the business session the following officers were elected: President, Reese G. Richards; vice president, E. E. Meyers; secretary, Allen D. Albert; treasurer, Williams Roberts.

John B. Emery entertained his comrades, and in addition to the campfire held in the court house the members were royally entertained at the Henry House at a banquet. The principal addresses delivered were the campfire were by Hon. Emerson Collins, Judge Reese G. Richards and Rev. Elliott C. Armstrong.

The members of the regiment, after the business meeting, enjoyed an automobile ride over the drives of the city and at 7:30 o'clock they met at the Reno Post hall headed by the old drum corps that headed them in war times, they went to the court house where the campfire was held. The old drum corps was but a remnant and consisted of two drums and cymbals. The Roberts brothers were the musicians and their music was of the kind that they played while at the front in the '60's. Albert Roberts, an old Bellefonte boy, attracted considerable attention by his manipulation of the drum sticks.

After reaching the court house, where the campfire was to be held, Rev. E. C. Armstrong was called upon and made a splendid address. Dr. Armstrong was followed by Hon. Emerson Collins. Mr. Collins spoke of how well officered the old Forty-fifth regiment was and spoke in glowing terms of the work of Officers Beaver, Welsh and Governor Curtin. Judge Richards followed Mr. Collins in his characteristic entertaining style. Other comrades gave entertaining talks.

W. H. Musser, of Bellefonte, told the story of how he secured a pair of boots near the close of the war. He did not care to draw another pair of the army boots and so he borrowed $10 from a substitute who had become a member of the company and the next day the substitute disappeared and never had the due bill Mr. Musser gave him cashed.

REBERSBURG.

After a few weeks of silence the Rebersburg scribe has again awakened from his slumbers.

Hard times that have been predicted in the event of a Democratic victory, have not yet appeared.

Mr. Clarence Weber, having again regained his health left for Philadelphia on Tuesday. We wish him well, although Mary has a sad heart that he has left.

Mrs. Cowan, from Pittsburg, is the pleasant guest of her sister, Mrs. Victor Walker.

A lock-up would be a good thing for some of our disturbers of the peace.

The Evangelical and United Evangelical Sunday schools will render a Christmas service on Christmas Eve in the Evangelical church.

Union Thanksgiving services were held in the Evangelical church, Rev. Binman preached the sermon. All the schools of town participated.

Thus far our hunting crew killed two deer.

Butchering is in full swing at present. Not much talking about monster hogs thus far.

Everybody seems happy that husking and hauling is are over. The crop was a good one.

Strange that some people's littleness is much bigger than their greatness.

Mrs. Kreamer's sale was well attended on Saturday and things generally brought good prices.

Prof. Miles Breen and wife, from Coburn, were the pleasant guests of friends of this place over Sunday.

Dr. Bright finally got a Ford automobile.

A secret: With whom was our local detective in a scuffle, and who got the worst of the bargain?

Mrs. Kras, who became sick while visiting at Mrs. R. D. Bierly's in improving and we hope she may soon be well again.

ROCK FORGE.

George Rider's family, of Valley View, visited Mrs. Rider's parents, Harry Fike's, here over Sunday.

George Fike went home on Saturday to spend the winter, as his time is now up at Ira Benner's.

George Bhears visited at Scotia a few days last week with his uncle, David Bhears.

Henry and Clayton Walters, from Bellefonte, came home on Wednesday to help with the butchering.

Earl Walters has gone to drive team on the state road near Lemont.

Mann Houser returned home on Friday with his clover rubber after rubbing clover seed a week here at Rock.

Mrs. Ira Benner and daughter Romaine were housed up a couple days last week with lagrippe, but at this writing are getting better.

Mrs. Harry Fike and son George went to Valley View on Tuesday to help her son Will to butcher.

Every person around Rock are done husking corn and some have their fodder in.

William Hoy's, of Lemont, visited at Rock on Sunday.

LIVONIA.

Miss Maude Motz, of Middleburg, who with her father is stopping at Stover's, is seriously sick with appendicitis.

Mr. H. F. Critchley, who has been working on chestnut blight here has gone to Boalsburg, leaving the work here in charge of Mr. Robb.

Hunters in our surrounding woods are having good success, twelve deer having been secured by the various camps and large number of pheasants, rabbits, etc.

Miss Ruth Stover spent Saturday and Sunday at her home at this place.

Thanksgiving exercises will be held in our school Wednesday afternoon by Miss Jessie Adams, teacher.

ELOPEMENT IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Widower Chooses Married Woman Who Leaves Five Children.

The latest sensation in Pennsylvania is thus described by the Millheim Journal:

"Mrs. Emanuel Crader, of near Penn Hall, last Thursday hitched the family horse in the road wagon and with her three youngest children, drove to the home of her sister, Mrs. Luther Musser, near Woodward. On Friday morning she left the children with Mrs. Musser, stating that she wanted to go to a neighbor's house for a few hours.

"She did not return, and it has since been learned that she was met by Elmer Smith, a notorious character, and that the two made their way through the Pennsylvania narrows to Glyn Iron, where they boarded the afternoon train for parts unknown. Smith's wife, it will be remembered, died in the hospital at Cumberland, Md., in September last, and the remains were brought to Millheim for burial. It is said now that Smith spent much of his time since his wife's death at the Crader house.

"Last week Mr. Crader sold a fat heifer to P. P. Lietzel & Son, of this place, and the money realized is said to have been appropriated by the slopers. Mr. Crader, late Friday night, upon being apprised of his wife's actions, went to the Musser place and on Saturday morning returned home with the children.

"Mr. Crader, although poor, has the reputation of being a very hard working man and a good provider, and he is at a loss to know why the wife and mother of five children, the youngest scarcely four years old, could be persuaded to run away with a scoundrel like Smith."

Victim of Inhuman Hazards.

C. Hammock Smith, of Williamsport, was the victim of hazards at Dickinson college, at Carlisle, where he is a freshman, a few days ago, according to word received by his parents. Smith, who was regarded at the college as a particularly well-behaved freshman, was seized by masked students, who painted the word "fresh" across his forehead and daubed him over the face with nitrate of silver. According to a letter sent to his parents it is not believed that the black stains on his face will have any permanent effect. The matter has caused much feeling among both the student body and the faculty.

Fire Destroys Barn and Crops.

Shortly after midnight on Friday morning fire on the farm of W. Albert Hoffman, who lives on the Milton road, three miles south of Keney, destroyed the barn and crops of the summer and burned six valuable horses. The loss is estimated by Mr. Hoffman at $4,000, of which nothing will be recovered. The cause of the blaze is unknown. The six horses that are lost were valued at $1,000. A number of hogs, ready for butchering, were also burned up. It was with considerable difficulty that the flames were kept from communicating themselves to the farm house and other outbuildings in the yard.

HOW CHRONIC COUGHS

Are Being Cured by Vinol.

Did you ever cough for a month? Then just think how distressing it must be to have a cough hang on for three months.

Mrs. Maria Primrose, of 87 Newell Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I had a very heavy cold which settled into a chronic cough, which kept me awake nights for fully three months, and felt tired all the time because my rest was broken so much. The effect of taking your cod liver and iron remedy, Vinol, is that my cough is gone. I can now get a good night's rest, and I feel much stronger in every way."

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements, cods' livers, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron which makes Vinol so efficient in curing chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis—at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.

Try a bottle of Vinol, with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. C. M. Parrish, Bellefonte, Pa.
