HOWARD.

Suppose some man you don't just like, you know, loses his holt and slips down pretty low! Don't shake your head and say, "I told you so!"— Say something nice.

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will preach in Howard at half past ten, and at Jacksonville at half past seven.

Presbyterian—Pastor W. F. Carson will preach at Jacksonville at eleven o'clock, and because the church will be occupied in the evening by Elder McCracken, Mr. Carson will preach in Howard at three o'clock.

Methodist Episcopal—Pastor James Edwin Dunning will preach in Howard at half past ten; at Hunter's Run at half past two, and at Beech Creek at half past seven.

Christian Chapel—Elder S. J. McCracken will preach in the morning at half past ten and in the evening at half past seven. This will conclude the interesting series of evangelistic meetings he has held for the past ten days.

Council Meetings.

All members present excepting Messrs. Mayes and Neff. Phillip Crider Holter was chosen secretary to fill the unexpired term. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Street committee reported no work done on streets because it is impossible to get men. The walks about the properties owned by the Lucas estate had been rebuilt, but those on the H. A. Moore and Hayes Schenck properties had not been changed. The street commissioner has made no report. Carl McKinley's claim for a rebate of fifty cents on water rent because of non use was allowed. Messrs. McDowell and Pletcher were appointed a committee to settle with collector of water rent and borough treasurer. Special committee on lighting the streets, reported, through Mr. McDowell that after consultation with the borough attorney, N. B. Spangler, a contract with Wm. Wm. H. Long had been drawn, but was not yet closed, pending some minor modifications. Mr. Long being present said he was ready to close the matter and the committee was continued. Bills to amount of $339 were passed and ordered paid.

Roland Welsh was a home visitor over Thanksgiving week.

Mrs. J. Will Mayes spent Monday with friends in Mill Hill.

Miss Sue Holter, of Curtin, gave thanks among her relatives and friends here.

Miss Edythe Weber was hostess to Miss Grace Tome, of Jersey Shore, over Sunday.

Sincera Yearick and wife, of Philadelphia, were among our Thanksgiving home comers.

Miss Maud Thomas entertained her friend, Mr. H. H. Wetzel, of State College last week.

Mrs. W. E. Shively, of Port Matilda, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Cyrus E. Tice.

Miss Maud Keagle, of Avis, was an over Sunday visitor with her friend, Miss Emma Pletcher.

The Misses Trixie Confer, of Yarnell, and Lizzie Breth, of Tyrone, are guests of their friend, Miss Eva Neff.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heisel, of Pittsburgh, were Sunday guests of their cousin, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, of the Hotel Howard.

Will Lucas, wife and babies, came from Altoona to have a taste of the Thanksgiving goose at grandpa Isaac R. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan M. Kunes, of Blanchard, were very pleasant additions to the choir of the brick chapel last Sabbath evening.

Frank Gardner and family, of Bellefonte, came home for a Sunday visit with grandpa and grandma, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Gardner.

A new invoice of forty sturdy laborers last Tuesday afternoon, has added to the stir in contractor's work, and will materially hasten its completion.

N. Edward Leathers and Austin Gardner, among the Pennsy's reliable employees at Renovo, came down to spend Sunday with their relatives here.

John S. Holter and family came up from their present sojourn at Lock Haven, to have a good Sunday dinner with Mr. Holter's mother, Mrs. Samuel H. Bension.

Benson Confer and wife, of Pitsburgh, with their children, made glad the hearts of Franklin Confer and wife by coming home for their Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ertie, of Greensburg, swelled the crowd of those of our absent citizens who came home to give thanks and eat turkey with old home friends.

The big steam shovel has backed up to Walnut street and started upon what will probably be its last trip through the long cut. Possibly a little trimming will need to be done afterward.

"The Church of the living God, the pillar and support of the truth" was the text from which elder S. J. McCracken preached a strong and eloquent sermon in the christian chapel last Sabbath evening.

Mrs. Walter J. Kurtz and sister, Mrs. Wm. Weber, complied with the city advertiser's request to "shop early" by doing several hours of this fascinating work, preparatory to Christmas, at Lock Haven, last Saturday.

Miss Lou Stover illumined the social atmosphere of our town Saturday afternoon and evening by bringing her happy temperament and bright smile up from her Mill Hill home and dispensing them in all directions.

Mrs. J. B. Mayes, of Lemont, whose recent death at her home in that place was noted in last week's paper, leaves two families here to mourn her: Mr. J. Will Mayes, a son, and Mrs. John Mokie, a daughter, with their children.

The death of aged and well known Mrs. Zimmermann, which occurred on Wednesday night, in Bellefonte, reached Howard in its effects, one of her daughters being Mrs. A. M. Butler, who with her family, are all greatly broken at their loss. Two of Mrs. Butler's brothers, John W. Zimmermann, of Berwick and Harry L. of Hollivar, N. Y., who were summoned to the funeral, afterward came on here, and spent a day or two with Mrs. Butler and family.

Mr. Lewis A. Beightol, of Jacksonville, and Miss Cora R. Frazier, of near Howard, were married last Saturday evening, Nov. 30, at the U. E. parsonage in Howard by the pastor, Rev. M. J. Snyder. The young people have our best wishes.

"Ninety and Nine" is one of the most effective of gospel hymns when well sung, and it is very seldom the privilege of a Howard audience to hear it so given as it was in last Sabbath evening when Miss May Harter, of Eagleville, loaned her sweet and highly cultured voice to its rendition.

The shafts breaking loose from the axle of the buggy Friday, 22nd, caused a runaway and spill out which proved decidedly serious to landlord A. J. Fitzpatrick, though Mrs. Fitzpatrick, who was driving, escaped with much less misfortune. Mr. F. was so badly bruised externally, and torn asunder internally, that he is now walking about the house a very little and with much difficulty, though aided by a pair of crutches.

A good Methodist woman who came to town Thursday morning largely to hear Rev. Dunning's Thanksgiving sermon, expressed herself greatly surprised to note that there were but forty-seven persons in the audience. In truth the good lady is reported to have put it somewhat more strongly than that, and no wonder! A community of fully a thousand people within easy reach, that turns out less than five per cent for a Thanksgiving service must find precious little to be thankful for.

Our gallant young friend, C. A. Moore has gotten into the habit of winning a turkey about Thanksgiving time, and usually persuades his mother, Mrs. H. A. Moore, to put it into shape, and add the needed cetera for a little dinner for the inner circle of his young friends. His guests for the nineteenth twelve occasion last Saturday evening, were: The Misses Jane Stoner and Lulu Stover, of Mill Hill, Miss Grace Tome, of Jersey Shore, The Misses Anna and Josephine Muffy, and Emma and Lauretta Weber, of Howard.

It is on dit that when the family of an excellent neighbor Joseph Schenck went with hatchet in hand to make the preliminary arrangements for preparing the fine turkey which they had been feeding so generously for the Thanksgiving feast, they found an empty stall. He had disappeared. Though search failed to find him; offer of a reward for his return did not locate him; search of the neighbors' coops was all in vain. Whether it was a crow, (we hope not, for Joseph had to dine upon that table bird at an earlier date in the month, about the 5th, and once in four years is enough for that.) or roast pig, venison, capon or fine green goose which proved the deponent sayeth not, but sure it was not turkey. The morning after what-ever-it-was, however, when the barn was visited for the purpose of feeding the chickens, the tail of the turkey was noticed sticking out from under the feeding manger, where he had so safely stowed himself; and succumbed to the inevitable, he became the corner stone of the Sunday dinner.

VALLEY VIEW.

The warm weather last week thawed No. 1 scribe out again.

Scribe No. 2 went to Altoona last week and got a job firing on the middle division. Good luck, Paul.

Paul Eckley was to Altoona last week to visit his brother George.

We are glad to see our old friend, Ed. Justice around again, as he is home spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lowery Justice at this place.

Carl Garbrick and wife, Mr. Martin and Miss Lizzie Breth, from Tyrone, and Miss Rogers, from Runville, came down on Thursday evening to help A. J. Garbrick and W. Reed to butcher. They had a jolly time. Among them were: Apple eaters, a laugher, a bean catcher, a sausage eater, and a dish washer. They all departed for home Monday morning reporting having a good time. Eddy very nearly made it all right coming home from church Sunday evening. Try it again, Eddy.

Rev. John Shadle, from Juniata, Sundayed with his parents at this place, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Shadle. Rev. Shadle preached a very able sermon in the U. B. church Sunday evening and brought out some deep thoughts to his hearers.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Resides will butcher next Thursday. Everybody is invited to dinner.

Philip Walker still continues killing the big hogs; he killed one last week that tipped the beam at 513 lbs; it was a monster.

Our school teacher, Mrs. Snape, of Julian, is getting along very nicely with her school so far.

Our Sunday school will have an entertainment about Christmas; the children and perhaps some larger ones too, will be looking for a box of candy from old Santa. We will give the time later.

The fellow who gets a car and hasn't nerve enough to run it, ought to be kicked out of town. Ha, ha, ha.

Our friend George Rider had his leg badly hurt last week, but is getting along nicely.

George Eckly went to work again at Walker's quarry.

It was fun to see them two old fogies run for their guns one day last week when that turkey came down off the mountain; the one forgot to put a shell in his gun, the other old man forgot he had a gun so the turkey had an easy time getting back to the hill again.

Grandmother Eckley, who is past ninety years old, is not so well at present; hope she will again recover.

Our town is not so well represented at the five cent shows on Saturday nights any more. It's getting too cold, I guess. I suppose we will all stop at the Haag when we go to town Saturday evening. Look out, boys, some one might be watching.

Joseph Lowery has returned home after visiting his son William who lives in Ohio. Joseph says he had a very nice time.

Christmas Goods.

There is a box of Samoset chocolates down in our store waiting for a word from you. Call and see my line of Christmas goods. Fine box goods, Samoset chocolates and a full line of imported nuts. Also a full line of fruits of all kinds. We have a full line of pipes and cigars for Christmas trade.

Call and see me, near the Pa. R. R. station. J. S. KEICHLINE.

Nothing would be better for a present for Christmas, than a year's subscription to "The Centre Democrat".

UNIONVILLE.

Charley Rowan, wife and little son, of Bellwood, were Sunday visitors at the home of Charley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Rowan.

Mrs. Alice Bosworth and pretty little daughters, after spending a month happy under the parental roof, left for her home in Buffalo on Friday morning. She was "chaperoned" as far as Lock Haven by her sister, Miss Eloise Buck.

T. E. Griest, wife and daughter Marie, left on Wednesday for New Smyrna, Florida, where they will spend the winter for the betterment of Mr. Griest's health. It is hoped by his many friends, that he will return in the spring with a largely increased avoidpulis condition.

Merchant John F. Holt returned from the hunting camp somewhere in the Alleghenies where he had been employed as cook by a company of hunters from "somewhere" and reports that the "mess" shot 5 deer, one a piece. The report that they never found deer so plentiful and tame, and they also report having seen 13 bucks in one herd before breaking up camp. This seems almost incredible, but it comes from a reliable source.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Woolmer and daughter Edna, formerly of this place but now of Pitsburgh, were Sunday visitors to friends in town.

Sweet, bright, happy, jolly Ella Nora Comley, of Tyrone, is visiting her grandma, Mrs. Comley on Plank Road street.

Abendigo Williams, after several weeks of serious illness is convalescing slowly.

Mrs. Richards is now able to come down stairs with the assistance of some one.

Mr. Annie E. Stere has rallied again and is able to be "around" doing chores.

The "water men," after some heavy blasting, have succeeded in laying the main pipe across Bald Eagle creek. It is not probable, owing to the lateness of the season, that there will be any pipes laid through town before spring.

Mrs. E. M. Griest, of Phillipsburg, was a recent visitor to friends in town.

Excutee Teddy! Ever the children's teddy bears have evaporated.

William Bruce Hazel, aged 14 years, 4 months and 6 days, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Hazel, died at his home on Thursday afternoon about three o'clock of pneumonia. Deceased had been sick only about three days and the report of his death was a great surprise to all of our townspeople, as it was entirely unexpected.

Bruce was a merry, happy boy who always had pleasant words for every one he met. His funeral occurred on Sunday at 2 o'clock. Services at the home by the Rev. H. K. Ash. He leaves to survive him his parents and the following brothers and sisters:

Mrs. Edie Blazer, of Oak Hill; Roy, of the Philippines; Helen, Walter and Luella at home. Interment in lower cemetery. Patterson Holt, David Calhoun, Winford Calhoun and Laird Morrison were the pall-bearers. "Tis well with the child."

HUBLERSBURG.

B. W. Rumberger spent Thanksgiving with his son, D. R. Rumberger, at Harrisburg, and returned on Monday.

A party of twenty young people, of Pleasant Gap, spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Holloway Hoy's.

Miss Mary Rumberger took dinner at the home of E. L. Berkstresser last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Bierly and son Sherwin, of Bellefonte, and Miss Regina Bierly, of Parvin, visited their sister, Mrs. E. L. Markle; also Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bailey and daughter Eva, of York Co.; E. J. Markle, of Bellefonte; Guyer Ertley and Miss Mabel Bierly, of Jacksonville.

Miss Sarah Heltman, of Kriders Sliding, spent over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Heckman.

J. C. Berkstresser and lady friend, from Altoona, are visiting his parents here. Mrs. E. L. Berkstresser, of Hublersburg.

Frank Carner, who is working in Altoona, spent Thanksgiving with his family in Hublersburg.

D. E. Markle and wife, of State College spent a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Markle, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Markle.

Lewis Markle and Miss Helen Orr, of Hublersburg, were callers of Miss Miriam Beck, of Snyderstown, on Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Biner and children, of Lock Haven, visited her sister, Mrs. G. F. Hoy, at Hublersburg.

It was a mistake that two of the men of our town shot unlawful game, and the game warden should be sure, before arresting any one.

Sagging Bridge Caused Wreck.

The sagging of the bridge over the Trenton cutoff at Glen Loch was responsible for the wreck of the Pennsylvania railroad express train, resulting in the death of four persons and the injury of 50, Thanksgiving eve, according to the verdict of the coroner's jury, which completed its investigation Friday. The jury, which met in the Chester County Court House, at West Chester, did not attempt to determine what conditions may have been responsible for the depression in the tracks over the bridge.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church, of Boalsburg, will give an evening's entertainment in Boal Hall, Saturday, December 14th, at 7:30 o'clock. The program will consist of living pictures, readings and music. Come and see our Bridget, Mr. Peter Popjany, and all the notable people of the day. Admission 10 and 15 cents.

This is a Fair Offer.

For youth, for middle age, for old age—for either sex—we recommend Rexall Blood Tablets for enriching and purifying the blood and correcting the ailments caused by impure or impoverished blood.

Rexall Blood Tablets are emphatically guaranteed by us to help overcome the faults in your blood, and thereby to repair waste and help restore every organ to healthy action—or your money back. Do not delay if you are weakened and run down. You are liable to serious disease should any extra strain be put on any one of your bodily organs. Persons whose blood is not in perfect condition are far more susceptible to contagious diseases than those whose blood is pure. If Rexall Blood Tablets do not make your blood richer and purer, your nerves stronger, eye brighter, your complexion better, your muscles more elastic, tell us so, and we will refund your money. Price, 50 cents. Sold in this community only at our store.
