WOODWARD.

Among the holiday visitors were the following viz: Chas. Knarr, of Lewistown; Noah Ketter, of Herrin Springs, Mich.; Hiram Goodman, of Loganton; Harry Zieme, of Milton; Fred Guisewitz, of Akron, Ohio; C. E. Kreamer, of Philadelphia; Dr. George Ard, of Spring City, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Meyer, of Coburn; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Eby, of Millheim, and Wm. Haines, of Iowa.

Mrs. Phoebe Wise and Rebecca Barner spent Saturday and Sunday with S. D. Orndorf's at Coburn.

The protracted meeting in the United Evangelical church is still in progress. The attendance thus far has been rather poor on account of the different holiday celebrations.

The Reish and Weaver Lumber Co. bought the Motz and Stover saw mill and outfit recently and have a body of men busily engaged erecting same near the south of this place, on the same location where Engle and Brungart had a mill some years ago. The present job is expected to last at least two years.

On Christmas Rev. Geesey, of Aaronsburg, performed a marriage ceremony at George Guisewitz's and in the evening the calligraphers were seen vending their wares westward. They were treated to cigars and cany.

Mrs. Ellen Bowersox, of Laurelton, Pa., is spending some time among her many friends in this community.

The Christmas program rendered by the Evangelical Sunday school at this place on Dec. 22, composed of songs, duets, solos, choruses, recitations, dialogues and pantomime was a decided success. The church was filled to its utmost capacity and it has been said by some of the older citizens that it was the largest crowd ever seen in this town on such an occasion.

Mr. Daniel Stover, one of our aged citizens, took sick on Sunday after returning home from devotional services. The doctor pronounced it a slight paralytic stroke.

Quite a number from this place attended the Christmas services rendered at St. Paul's on Monday night, at Coburn and Aaronsburg on Tuesday night and the exercise rendered by Miss Lida Winkelsch's public school children on Wednesday. Every service was nicely and successfully carried out and everybody that was in attendance must say, and does say, that it was a grand treat. Especially the song entitled, "Waiting for Santa," by Miss Tom's Hosterman, in the services at Coburn on Christmas eve.

Wm. Wert spent Sunday at the home of E. H. Musser.

Washington Camp No. 351 P. O. S. of A. held their annual election of officers on Saturday night and selected the following for the ensuing term, viz: President, C. D. Mott; Vice Pres., C. D. Haines; Master of Forms, M. O. Stover; Fin. Sec., E. H. Musser; Rec. Sec., Chas. Musser; conductor, E. F. Orndorf; Treas., E. Orndorf; Inspector, J. H. Bowersox; guard, H. E. Hoover; 18-mo. trustee, M. O. Stover; Asst. Rec. Sec., Edw. J. Sheesley; chap. I. W. Vonada; Right Sen. Wm. H. Fultz, and left Sen., S. E. Haines.

GEORGESVILLE, No. 1.

Our sick—Mrs. S. E. Briel and Mrs. A. F. Heckman are slowly improving. There was a grand nuptial and serenade in our valley on Christmas, Maynard Barger and Miss Ivy Henigh being the persons for whom wedding bells rang with those of Yuletide.

P. A. Auman left Tuesday for Philadelphia, Pa., where he will spend some time with his son, J. H. Auman, who is a dairyman, near that place.

Things seem dull since Guy left. But he says he'll be around to see us before he returns home; he also says that no doubt he was taken to court that bright "Good Morning" the other Sunday.

M. W. and W. B. Nala, with their families, Misses Mary and Sarah Zettle, spent Christmas with John Nala, of near Zeiglerville.

The female athletic club have a training school in our valley. Rates cheap, high kicking a specialty.

Harvey Vonada and J. D. Wagner were pleasant Sunday callers at Wm. Ripka's.

Miss Marion Finkle is suffering from an attack of the grip.

The following meetings will be held in the Lutheran church of the Holy Cross on Saturday, Jan. 4th, 1913; A. M. church settlement; P. M. cemetery association settlement. The attendance of all members is solicited.

Milton Barger and sister Carrie are spending the holiday season at home.

The Christmas service held in the Cross church was well attended.

Wishing a bright and prosperous New Year to all, I will say, "So long, till next week."

CENTRE MILLS.

The transfer auto took a slide down the steep bank near Edward Miller's mill box. The driver, Mr. Walker, and Lyman Smith were the only persons in it at the time of the accident and both escaped with but a few bruises.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hackenberg spent Sunday afternoon at Centre Mills.

Miss Minnie Kline expects to come home in the near future. She has been holding services since September.

Arthur Cummings is a happy man; it is a boy.

Miss Margaret Weaver, who has been on the sick list for some time, is some better.

Mrs. Harvey Lambert is very sick at present.

Fred Mess went to Altoona to visit relatives at that place and he will go to see his mother and brother. He has not seen either his parents or brother since he was 3 years old when he was taken from the Williamsburg home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kline spent Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. Godshall.

JACKSONVILLE.

Mrs. Susan McDowell, who had been a sufferer for seven years with rheumatism, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Dolan at NJ. on December 17th, and was buried on the 20th. Services were held in the United Evangelical church at Jacksonville, of which she was a faithful member; interment in the family plot connected with the church.

Samuel Aley attended the funeral of his brother in Union county on the 20th.

T. P. Beightol and son William attended the funeral of his brother-in-law, Thomas Kern, at Greensburg in Sugar valley, on the 20th and visited relatives over Sunday.

John Dietz left on Thursday, 26th, to attend the funeral of his sister-in-law at Danville, on Friday, 27th.

Chas. Rokey, who left his home at Zion some 33 years ago to reap the golden harvest in the west is spending a couple of months visiting relatives in his home land, and with his son William came to help to eat his Christmas dinner with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Yearick.

Those who helped to eat the Christmas goodies at B. F. Vonada's were, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Helpman, of Clintonia; Edward Vonada and family, from the farm; Franklin and family, of Altoona.

Those who helped eat the roast at C. E. Aley's were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Aley and son Ira, F. P. Beightol, sons Harvey, Bruce and Foster, and Miss Della Garbrick.

Edward Dulen and friend Miss Mable Butler, and Miss Ora Beightol spent Christmas in Lock Haven.

Mrs. David Long is spending her Christmas week at Jersey Shore.

Our sick are—Franklin Weight is improving slowly; Wm. Beightol's daughter is seriously ill with pneumonia; N. H. Yearick, our hustling merchant, is down with rheumatism and grip, and many others old and young have bad colds.

Mr. Rebecca Mattern, of Matternville, visited at the home of her aged father, Joel Kling, over Sunday.

The Christmas service held in the Reformed church on Sunday evening was a grand success. Each child received their part well. The choir was weakened by many having bad colds, but was greatly helped by the Rev. Hoover of Hubbersburg, with his clarinet, and Wilber Dunkle and two sisters, of Hecla, and Miss Spayd, of Hubbersburg. Mr. Dunkle had his violin with him. The music was much appreciated by all. Many others from Walker township, attended the Christmas service here.

Wm. Vonada, of Bald Eagle, visited his parents here on Sunday and with Richard Dolan and wife spent over Christmas with his brother Edward at this place.

Ora Beightol left on Saturday for Waddie to visit her sisters, Mrs. Mable and Anna Poorman, whose daughter has pneumonia. We wish all a speedy recovery.

Happy New Year to all.

LEMONT.
The Bell Telephone Company put up new wires between Lemont and Boalsburg last week.

Mrs. Alice Williams was on the sick list last week, but is much better now.

Linn Bottorf is some better at this writing.

George Roan returned home the last part of last week, after enjoying a week's visit.

Chas. Thompson and wife visited the old home for a few days last week. The snow and cold weather over Christmas made it more like the Christmas in town.

Prof. Robert W. Wasson, of Coburn, visited with his mother last week.

Dr. Schaffer and family, Louis Crossman and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Hutton and family all spent a week in town, helping to make the Christmas season one of peace and good will.

B. F. Hoy and wife and Harvey Tressler and wife and daughter enjoyed a week among friends in Altoona.

ROMOLA.
Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Welsh spent Christmas in Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bechtol, of Clarence, spent Christmas at Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McCloskey's.

Harris Boone and Miss Ruth Baker were quietly married on Christmas last week.

Miss Annabell Boone left for Elmira last week.

Miss Esther Gardner, from Howard, is visiting Mrs. George Emehizer; some attraction Esther.

Dempster Gardner, of Pittsburg, spent Christmas with Miss Marguriete Bowes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Whippo, of Latrobe, returned home on Wednesday.

Frank Robb, who has spent the summer in Prophetstown, Ill., has returned home. Glad to see you Frank.

Maines Bowes spent Christmas at Clearfield.

Miss Gertrude Parker, who has been working at Jersey Shore, has returned home.

Household Economy

How to Have the Best Cough Syrup and Save $2, by Making It at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 1/2 pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly.

And you will find it the best cough syrup you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually stops the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, hoarseness, asthma, chest pains, etc.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in gualic acid and all the healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This recipe for making good remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Only the best lamp oil can give you the bright, clear flame you should have.

OAK HALL.
Now that Christmas is over, every one should come forth with good resolutions for the new year. Christmas was enjoyed by old and young and especially by those who were fortunate enough to have their trees laden with gifts, beautiful and useful. The health of the people in general is fair. A few have suffered the grip. Among those afflicted are Mrs. Benner, Mrs. Sara Dale, Mrs. Mary Miller and little Sara Brown. All are improving.

Thursday evening of last week our hiking club hiked to Rock Hill and back. Those comprising this club are Wayne Snyder, Mary Rishel, Walter Snyder, Vera Korman, Dock Korman, Mary Reish, Keller Blazer, Ruth Snyder, Margaret Rishel and "Chippie" Snyder. This same party hiked to the Branch and O, joy, the return home.

Mrs. H. R. Benner spent a few days visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm Fishburn, at Bellefonte.

Miss Jean Marshall, of State, Sunday with relatives here.

Clayton Eiters and wife attended the funerals of Mrs. and Mr. Jacob Shuey, of Centre Furnace, both occurring last week.

Merchant B. J. Lowder is stocking up his already full store house of hunting bargains; call on Ralph.

Miss Carrie S. Rishel, of this place, has been chosen to finish the unexpired term of school at Houseville, Miss Ann having gone to Williamsport with her parents.

T. D. Boal recently purchased the home of Wm. A. Bohn; price $275.

Adam Blazer spent the holiday season with his family.

Christmas day the home of C. W. Whitehill was the scene of a reunion of the Whitehill and Love families. Of course turkey and lots of good things to eat were the principal features. Those present were the venerable Oliver Love, Henry Oliver, Emma, Matt and Tevella Shuey; Wesley, Ida Rankin, Andrew, Marie and Teckla Tate; Maud, Marion, Helen, Esther, Margaret, Harold and Walter Whitehill; Charles, Alice, Mildred, Claude, Maurice and Edith Whitehill; Elmer, Forest, Minnie and Nonie Evey.

Several young men interested in the organization of Sunday schools were here a few days ago. Why not fall in with the good work and thereby have a Sunday school in our midst when those who have no other way of going to getting to Sunday school at Boalsburg but walking can, during the winter months at least, attend a Sunday school nearer home.

STORMSTOWN.
Wish you all a Happy New Year.

Miss Elsie Hartsock and Nora Harpster went up to Altoona on a short visit last week.

G. B. Gummo and daughters sprung a surprise upon Mrs. G. B. Gummo. It was her birthday. Those who were present were, Frank Pennington and wife, and Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Gummo, Fred Gummo, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hartsock, Mrs. Minnie Mattern and daughter Esther, Helen Clark, Andy Gummo and son Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Williams. They had a fine time, candy, peanuts, bananas, oranges and all kinds were served. Miss Esther Mattern brought her kodak along and after dinner she took a picture of the group.

Those on the sick list are as follows: J. N. Nearhof, May Zeek, Lillian Stine; we hope for their speedy recovery.
