

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-A Happy New Year to one and all. -Joe Fauble, of New Castle, Pa., spent part of the holidays in Bellefonte. -Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Garbrick, of Philadelphia, spent part of their holidays in Bellefonte. -Mrs. Blair Shultz and little son, Teddy, of this place spent last week at the former's home in Phillipsburg. -Darius Waite and sister, Miss Ella, were guests of their brother, John Waite, in Lock Haven, over Christmas. -Charles Tripple, who travels over New York and the New England states was here during the holiday season. -Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harper, of Columbus, Ohio, came home to enjoy the holiday season with friends in Bellefonte. -Mr. and Mrs. Ward Fleming and little son John came over from their home in Phillipsburg to visit during the holiday season. -Mrs. Sadie Hill left on Sunday morning in Bellefonte for the South to spend the winter with her son, George Hill, who resides in Alabama. -Go to the Undine hall next Wednesday evening and take a hand in the "euchre." There will be prizes and refreshments. Admission 25c. -Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Goodhart, of Centre Hall, spent Christmas in Bellefonte at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Wagner Geiss, on south Thomas street. -David Mingle, of Iowa, arrived in Bellefonte, on Sunday morning, having come east on account of the death of his brother William B. Mingle, at Centre Hall. -Miss Ethel Gettig, a student at Irving College, took advantage of the holiday vacation and came home to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gettig. -Mr. and Mrs. Thomas VonBoskirk, of Williamsport, were guests during the holiday season of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Shope, on south Thomas street. -Mrs. Jennie Rogers, of Philadelphia, and mission, in Bellefonte was to attend the funeral of her mother, the late Mrs. Susan Powers, returned to her home last Thursday. -Dr. Lee Woodcock, an old Bellefonte boy, now one of Scranton's successful physicians, was greeting friends here last week. During his stay in Bellefonte, Dr. Woodcock was a guest of Senator Meek and family. -This week the work was begun on laying a new tile floor in the office of the Brockhoff House, and other improvements on the interior. When completed they will have one of the finest rooms to be found anywhere. -The parties who are promoting the new window glass plant for Bellefonte announce that they have succeeded in selling nearly all the stock and that sometime early in spring work will be started on the new industry. -David Washburn, of Vandegrift, spent the greater portion of his holiday season among friends in Bellefonte. While he holds a good position at the latter place there still seems to be a hankering in him to linger about Bellefonte. -Harold Kirk, who is employed in a large iron and steel plant at Tonawanda, N. Y., is spending the holiday season with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Kirk, Tonawanda at present is an exceptionally busy town, and both skilled and unskilled laborers are in demand. -No extra force of carriers or helpers were added to the list at the Bellefonte postoffice upon the adoption of the Parcel Post at the beginning of the year. It will require some time until the system is thoroughly understood and the use that will be made is to be determined. -Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Kane left for Harrisburg on Saturday preceding Christmas to spend the holiday season with Mrs. Kane's uncle, William Hendershot, who by the way is the only surviving brother of the late David Hendershot. Mr. and Mrs. Kane also planned to visit at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Riese, Mrs. H. Henry and Mrs. William Miller. -It will be our resolution to make the Centre Democrat better and newer during the coming year than heretofore. While doing that, we hope in other ways to make it more useful for the general public good than ever. We say this with no apologies for the past, but with the resolution to do still more and better in every way possible in the coming year. -W. Harrison Walker, Esq., is now comfortably located in the Masonic building on Allegheny street, having moved his law offices from High street to that place. Walker and Mrs. Walker, who now reside at the Bush House, expect to go to housekeeping about the first of April in the Sands property on north Allegheny street, now occupied by Mrs. Cameron Burnside. The latter is considering taking up a residence at one of the hotels. -William Clark who has had charge of the Tyrone gas works the past five years has resigned his position with the Tyrone Gas & Water company and has accepted his former position with the Bellefonte Gas and Steam Heating works. Mr. Clark is a thorough expert in the manufacture of gas and the company in Tyrone loses a good man in that department of the work. His place here will likely be filled by Samuel Morrison. Mr. Clark left for Bellefonte and will move his family there in a couple of weeks. -Herald. -The true Christmas spirit took possession of the many friends of Howard Martin a few weeks ago, which resulted in a well-planned donation that, by the time it reached the door of Mr. Martin's residence had assumed the size of a two-horse wagon load. Mr. Martin resides near the Hughes Field ball park, and for the past five months has been laid up with a broken leg sustained in an accident while at work in the stone quarry. As will be remembered he spent nine weeks in the Bellefonte hospital while the injury was healing, and upon returning home he made a misstep while ascending the stairs and re-fractured the leg. This necessitated another siege of confinement indoors, all of which he has endured with admirable patience. This thoughtfulness on the part of his friends is greatly appreciated by Mr. Martin, and especially does he feel grateful to Mr. and Mrs. John Hartsock and Frank Lockard, to whose efforts the success of the generous donation was due.

-Be sure and write it 1913. -"The Lion and the Mouse," Wednesday, January 15th. -Mrs. C. D. Tanner and son Forrest were the guests of relatives and friends in Hazleton last week. -The Neapolitan Band, the next number on the Star Course, will be seen in Petrkin Hall, on Monday night Jan. 22. -Mrs. Catherine Farley, who several months ago underwent an operation in the Bellefonte hospital, returned to that institution on Tuesday for further treatment. -Miss Mary Eberhart went to Mifflinburg to spend Christmas among friends and relatives, and much to the pleasure of each prolonged her visit over New Year's Day. -Miss Minnie Shade, who spent the past year in Bellefonte, caring for her grandmother, Mrs. D. K. Tate, on Bishop street, returned to her home near Boston on Monday. -Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Topel and little son Richard, of Brookly, N. Y., were Christmas guests of Mrs. J. J. parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brown, on south Thomas street. -Vincent Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Seneca Walker, is visiting his parents on south Thomas street. He is holding a good position in one of New Jersey's inland towns. -Miss Effie Snyder of Chicago, a cousin of Druggist Sidney Krumer, is a guest at the Krummer home at present. Miss Snyder is an instructor in the public schools of Chicago. -Owing to Farmers Week being in progress at State College this week there has been an unusual amount of traffic at the Centre. About 600 farmers are present, which is below the average. -Harry Schroyer, of Chicago, Ill., arrived in Bellefonte on Tuesday, being on his way to Lock Haven to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. George Evans, who died on Sunday at that place. -The famous magician, Keene, at the opera house Saturday, Jan. 11th, matinee and night. Popular prices, Night-25c to 75c. Don't miss the greatest living magician in his mystifying performance. -The members of the Undine Fire Company will give a public "euchre" "50c" in the hall on Wednesday evening, January 8th, 1913. There will be prizes and refreshments; all are invited to attend. Admission 25c. -On Wednesday night, Jan. 15th, the renowned play, "The Lion and the Mouse," will be seen at the opera house. This is the first appearance of this attraction in Bellefonte, and will be greeted by a crowded house. -Alfred Jury, a brother of Jacob Jury, of this place, died at his home in Duncannon, Pa., on Christmas night. Mr. Jury had just returned to Bellefonte from a visit to his brother, when he received the sad intelligence of his death. He returned at once to Duncannon and remained for the funeral. -Announcement has been made of the engagement of Mr. Samuel Hart, son of the late William Hart, of Bellefonte, and Miss Pamela D. Coble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Coble, of Brookly, N. Y. The wedding will take place the last of March. Mr. Hart holds a good position with the National Coal and Clank Co. of New York City. -Among the new advertisements to be found in this issue is that of the firm of Lyon & Company who have engaged a column space to tell our readers what is the latest news at the "Coca-Cola" department. Their announcements hereafter will be on page 7 of the paper each week. -If you are looking for bargains, don't miss their store news. -Dr. Hawes, pastor of the Presbyterian church, announces the following subjects for the opening of the year: Sunday, Jan. 12th, he will preach in the morning on the topic, "The Ship 1912." For the Week of Prayer the topics and dates are: Monday, "A Call to Prayer"; Tuesday, "Let Us Pray"; Wednesday, "Prayers Whose Answers Hurt"; Thursday, "Ceaseless Praying"; Friday, "Storming the Gates With Prayer." Sabbath morning, Jan. 12th, the congregation will celebrate the Lord's Supper. -The boarders at the "Tannery," or more specifically speaking, those who take their meals at the hospitable boarding house of Mrs. C. D. Tanner, on High street, opened their hearts and on the other hand will give the same Christmas gift of $20 in gold. A. A. Dale, Esq., the poet laureate, made the presentation speech and his effort is said to have added greatly to the pleasure of the event. The gift was a testimonial on the topic, "Good of Mrs. Tanner's efforts in providing comfort for her guests. -Early shopping is not only a good rule to follow, but will be an absolute necessity, as well, in Bellefonte hereafter, as beginning today all stores will close at 6 o'clock p. m. This schedule of early closing will continue until about Sept. 15th. Wednesday and Saturday evenings all business places will be open until the usual closing hour. There will be very few instances where the above move will work hardships, and on the other hand will give the small army of tired clerks a few hours of recreation, which they otherwise could not enjoy. -Messrs. Perry O. Stiver, editor of the Freeport, Ill. Bulletin; Dr. David F. Stiver, of Chicago; and Dr. R. J. Stiver, of Lena, Illinois, were guests at the home of their sister, Mrs. Dr. J. E. Ward, on Curtin street, this week. They were called east on account of the death of their sister, Mrs. Wm. Krape, of Centre Hall. The Stiver boys are natives of Potter township and all are prospering in their various callings. We had a brief call from Ebor O. Stiver and found him one of those progressive kind of Democrats who are unusually interesting. In Illinois they have all kinds of Democrats and we were delighted to find that our editorial friend is of the right turn of mind. -While taking his customary daily outing with horse and buggy, Rev. Jas. P. Hughes, the patriarchal principal emeritus of the Academy, met with a slight mishap, from which he luckily escaped unscathed. As Mr. Hughes was driving up High street, opposite the Potter-Hoy hardware store, Geo. Sunday with his Ford car attempted to pass him from the rear axle bent. Mr. Hughes, with the nimbleness of a fifteen-year-old boy, landed on his feet at the side of the wreck, apparently the least disturbed of those who witnessed the accident. Mr. Sunday's car escaped undamaged.

-Mrs. J. R. Walter, of Somerset, Pa., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. D. Casebeer, and husband at their home on Curtin street. -Miss Minna Gerginski, of Baltimore, Md., a graduate nurse, well remembered as having been formerly connected with the Bellefonte hospital, is visiting friends in this place. -Miss Fanny Rose, a very comely little lady of Harrisburg, after being a holiday guest of Miss Elizabeth Walker, of Linn street, for several days, returned home on Tuesday. -The Lyric never enjoyed such liberal patronage as it does at present. The public appreciate Mr. Brandman's efforts to provide the best entertainment to be had for the small admission price of 5 cents. -The County Board of Auditors will be in session on Monday the 6th, to go over the accounts of the various county officers. The board consists of Jeremiah Brungart, Rebersburg; S. H. Hoy, Bellefonte; and W. H. Goss, of Ferguson township. -M. A. Meginnis, of Clearfield, on his return from Pottsville, Pa., where he attended the funeral of his mother, stopped off in Bellefonte over Sunday as a guest at the Schofield home. Mrs. Meginnis had been visiting her parents here during the holidays. -The "Lion and the Mouse" which the United Play Company will produce here on Wednesday, January 15th, is creating widespread interest among all classes of theatregoers is shown by the fact that not in a long time has there been such a demand for seats for a dramatic production. -Joshua Folk was taken ill one evening about a week ago while down town on his way to his home on jail hill. It was at first thought that he had suffered a paralytic stroke, but it later developed that acute indigestion was the cause of his indisposition. He is now able to be about again. -There will be nothing doing in the line of liquor license applications until the meeting of the next term of Argument Court. Last week testimony was taken on the remonstrances filed at Phillipsburg, and the same has been turned over to the court for review. The merits of the case will be argued by the various attorneys at that time. -Miss S. Ohnmacht, the well known music teacher, is able to be about again after a week's confinement to her room in Crider's Exchange with a sprained ankle. Miss Ohnmacht's injury was due to a fall by stepping upon a treacherous banana peel in addition to the sprain several ligaments of the ankle were torn, adding to the painfulness of the injury. -Recent guests at the home of Mr. William Tressler, on Reynolds Avenue, were as follows: His son, Robert L. Tressler, of Williamsport Seminary, and school friend, Mr. Seth Graham, of the same city; Mr. Tressler's relative, Mrs. Sadie Kaufmann, of Atlantic City, who returned to her home yesterday; Mr. George Meyer, of Chickasha, Iowa, who will remain among Centre county friends until spring. -The new year was ushered in without any special ceremonies in our community. The young people had social gatherings and dances, others had card parties, and others had the more devout observed the occasion by holding "Watch Meetings." The ushering in of the new year was the signal for ringing bells, blowing whistles and shooting fire arms. In these sections they were reported in parades and demonstrations, but Bellefonte always is more dignified. -About the first of February the firm of Morris & Sheffer expect to open a general store, stocked with a complete line of dry goods and groceries, in the room now occupied by A. E. Schand the plumber on north Allegheny street. The partners are Paul D. Sheffer compose the firm, both of whom are enterprising young business men of Bellefonte. Mr. Sheffer at present is the manager of the S. & H. green trading stamp store in this place, he will resign in a short time. His place will be filled by a competent man from New York. It is the intention of the new firm to handle the above stamps and furnish them to all their customers. -The announcement that the Sarah Bernhardt "Queen Elizabeth" film is to appear at the Scenic, Friday, Jan. 16th, matinee and night, is sure to prove one of the most artistic and important entertainment events of the season. The divine Sarah, supported by her own superb company is seen in every picture to excellent advantage, every expression is distinct and the times have been delicately tinted and do not effect the eyes. This production of Moreau's historic play in four acts is an exact reproduction as represented by Madam Bernhardt and her excellent company in the Madama's own theatre in Paris, France, owing to the additional heavy expense in securing this superb attraction, Mr. Brown is compelled to charge 10 cents admission. This applies to the above date only, as at all other times the scenic is 5 cents.

MARRIAGES. Weaver-Houtz. David L. Weaver and Miss Mary Ellen Houtz, both of Scotia, were married at the United Brethren parsonage in Bellefonte last Thursday morning by Rev. C. W. Winey. Weaver-Houtz. At the parsonage of the United Brethren church in Bellefonte, David L. Weaver and Miss Mary Ellen Houtz, both of Scotia, were married on Thursday morning, Dec. 19th, by the pastor Rev. C. W. Winey. Meyer-McClellen. James Meyer, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Madeline McClellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McClellen, of Bellefonte, were united in marriage at the parsonage of the United Brethren church in Bellefonte on Tuesday, Dec. 24th, by the Rev. C. W. Winey. Both are popular young people whose friends unite in wishing them a prosperous matrimonial voyage. Adams-Marks. On Friday, Dec. 20th, Justice of the Peace W. F. Taylor, at his office in Tyrone united in marriage Miss Margaret M. Marks and John M. Adams. The bride is a daughter of John Marks of Port Matilda, and the groom is employed on the Tyrone dining car as a brakeman. The young couple will board until spring, when they will go to housekeeping in Tyrone. Packer-Dietz. Miss Nancy Dietz became the wife of Elmer Packer Sunday afternoon, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Samuel J. McCracken, pastor of the Disciple church, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. The bride is a well known young lady of Marsh Creek and her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett H. Packer, of Beech Creek. Krepps-Faust. On Christmas morning at 7:30 o'clock, William E. Krepps and Miss Amelia R. Faust were married at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church in Tyrone, by Rev. W. Hartman. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Faust, of Tyrone, and a highly esteemed young lady. The groom is one of the efficient employees at the State fish hatchery at Pleasant Gap. Shilling-McClellen. David C. Shilling and Miss Julia McClellen, two well known young people of Bellefonte, were married at the United Brethren parsonage on Tuesday, Dec. 24th by the Rev. C. W. Winey. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McClellen, and for several years has been employed at the shirt factory, Mr. Shilling is an industrious young man and a popular employee of the American Lime and Stone Co. Blanchard-Donnelly. The wedding of Mr. Edmund Blanchard, of Bellefonte, and Miss Ellen Donnelly, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Donnelly, of Ridley Park, Pa., took place Saturday morning in the Ridley Park Presbyterian church, Dr. S. T. Linton, officiating. Miss Katherine Donnelly, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. John Blanchard, of Bellefonte, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Owing to a recent bereavement in the family of the bridegroom, only the immediate members of his families were present. Batchelor-Thompson. The marriage of Miss Lenetta R. Thompson, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. J. K. Thompson, and Mr. Fred H. Batchelor, both of Phillipsburg, took place at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church, when Mrs. Sadie M. Baney became the bride of Walter D. Kaufman, both of that city. The bride was attired in a handsome grey traveling suit with hat to match. The bridal couple spent the first of the year in their new home, which is located on Mt. Vernon street, where she is esteemed by pastor and people for her sterling qualities. Mr. Kaufman is a well known and popular business man of that city. When they return and take up the residence on Mt. Vernon street, they will be glad to extend to them their felicitations. From Atlantic City paper. Stahle-Thompson. A pretty mid-winter wedding took place at Centre Furnace, December 18th when Miss Mary Irvin Thompson, eldest daughter of James I. Thompson, was united in marriage with Lieutenant Charles Thomas Stahle, of the U. S. Coast Artillery. No adequate conception can be given of the beauty of the scene, the large country house, the wide halls and spacious rooms, the beautiful decorations of evergreen and red mountain berries, and the large company of people, college friends of the bride and groom, and friends and relations of this old Centre county family from nearby and from Baltimore, Philadelphia, York, Lewistown, Milroy, Clearfield and Curwensville. The ceremony took place at noon. Preceding the wedding march, Mr. Walter Thompson, of Lewistown, sang "All for You," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. C. C. Robinson, of State College, who then played the wedding march from Loehgrin. The bridal party coming down the wide staircase moved along the hall through arches of laurel with wedding bells hanging therefrom, to the front of the hall, taking their stand under a large bell where the ceremony was performed by the pastor of the bride, the Reverend Samuel Martin, of State College, assisted by the Reverend J. R. Woodcock, of Birmingham, Pa., using the service of the Presbyterian church. The bride was given away by her father, Miss Hilda Patton Thompson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Lillian Weider, of Baltimore, Md., a cousin of the groom, Miss Mary Virginia Thompson, of State College, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Boyer, of Atlantic City. The best man was Mr. Harold Flag and the ushers Mr. Ed. Thomas, of York, Pa., Mr. Harold McCarty and Mr. Milton Stewart. The bride's youngest sister, Miss Alice Thompson, and her cousin Bruce Thompson were ribbon bearers. After congratulations a most delicious luncheon was served in the dining room, the table being decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums.

The favors were silver trinket holders. The large display of useful, as well as very beautiful, presents bore testimony to the love in which a large circle of friends held the bride, who is a graduate of Penna. State, class of 1912. Lieutenant Stahle graduated from the same institution in 1911 and entered the Coast Artillery, being first stationed at Fortress Monroe and more lately at Fort DuPont where the happy couple will make their home, after a short trip which included a return to the Thompson home for Christmas. The best wishes of the community go with Mr. and Mrs. Stahle. Nail In Cow's Heart. Recently a cow belonging to George T. Pletzer of near Clearville, suddenly developed a peculiar malady and died. Being curious as to the cause of the cow's death, Mr. Pletzer secured the assistance of J. W. Nycum and C. W. Wallace and held a post mortem examination on the animal, in the course of which they discovered a No. 8 nail imbedded in the deceased animal's heart. The nail was bent and rusty and had passed through the lungs of the cow. The Great Keene. Magician Keene is a truly brilliant performer who seems to have entered his difficult calling more for the love of it than from necessity. He is considered one of the greatest masters of magic the world has yet seen, having produced more new illusions in the past ten years than any other living magician has presented in a lifetime.
