BLANCHARD.

In our Churches next Sunday. Christian—Preaching at 10:30, A. M. and 7:30 P. M. At these services you are cordially invited to attend. Samuel J. McCracken, Minister.

Baptist—No preaching in this church as the minister will preach at his appointment at Milesburg. S. S. Clark, Minister.

The supper that was tendered by the order of Odd Fellows of the town which was held in the Quigley Hall last Saturday evening, was well attended. It is easily shown their social features alone to their members but also friends. These suppers bring the people of our community together to mingle with each other and have a jolly good time and a friendly chat.

If only the citizens could come together in a great body to feast and meet each other like the Odd Fellows, it would be the greatest benefit to our community. The world is in need of many of these gatherings to bring man and man together. Among the refreshments that were served was oysters and all the fixtures such as celery, salads, etc., and meats for those that did not care for oysters; also rolls and many other eats that are too numerous to mention.

The cantata which was given by the Christian and the Baptist churches Christmas eve were well attended and at both exercises Old Santa distributed his gifts.

Mr. Brown, of Erie, Pa., was a week visitor with her father and mother Brewer.

Mrs. Brewer is going to spend a few weeks in Fayette county with her daughter. Then will go to other sections of the state to make visits with her friends.

George Kunes, son of Harvey Kunes, spent Christmas with his father.

Russel Bechdel, who is employed by the Armstrong Cork Co., of Oak Dale, spent Christmas with his mother and other home folks.

Samuel T. Smith, who is employed by the same company at Beaver Falls, was a home visitor over Christmas.

Joseph DeLong spent his Christmas with his friend in Howard.

Miss Rebecca Lucas, of Howard, was a guest of Mrs. Carrie Fore, on Friday.

Mrs. Laura Bechdel, who has been teaching school at Martha, spent a week at home over Christmas.

Mrs. Hoover, and husband, of Altoona, spent Christmas day with Mrs. S. H. Kunes.

Mark Champion and wife spent Christmas day with Mrs. S. H. Kunes. At a regular meeting of the Christian Cemetery Association, held last Friday afternoon, the members of Board present were: W. I. Harter, President; J. A. Bitner, treasurer; and trustees—John Earon, Temple Smith, Fred. Glossner and Nathan Bitner. Bill of $30.00 for fence for the front of cemetery was paid to W. I. Harter. There was discussion of having the association chartered, but no definite move will be made on this subject until later.

James Gonsallus spent Christmas at home, and returned to his work on Monday, at Clearfield.

David Cline, our oldest citizen who is now past 81 years old, has been confined to his bed; but at this writing he has improved a little.

Mrs. Joe Kunes has been sick for nearly a week, and is slightly better now.

Roy Burlaw was a home visitor over Christmas.

Collins Stull, who is employed at Jersey Shore, with his friend and with two other young men and ladies, was a home visitor Sunday.

James Quigley and family spent Christmas in Bellefonte.

Alex Heverly, who was hurt while working for the Penna. Fire Brick Co., at Winburne, went back to his work on Monday and will take charge of the prospect there.

Mrs. John Hartman, formerly of Beech Creek, took sick and died at the home of her daughters at Avis, Pa. Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church, and the interment was made in the Christian cemetery.

F. S. Dunham, of Howard, was a business visitor of this town last Thursday.

Henry Eaton, son of the John Eaton's first wife, was brought to this place Friday for burial on Saturday.

Foils A Foul Plot. When a shameful plot exists between liver and bowels to cause distress by refusing to act, take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end such abuse of your system. They gently compel right action of stomach, liver and bowels, and restore your health and all good feelings. 25c. at C. M. Parrish, Ph. G., Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Dec.

$3.50 RECIPE FREE FOR WEAK KIDNEYS. Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles, Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches theitches and pains in the back; the swelling muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin, sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, K319 Lock Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope.

As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you see it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.

Adam was handicapped in various ways. He couldn't even lay claim to the distinction of being a self-made man.

REBERSBURG.

Mrs. Allen Gilbert, from Snyder co., is at present visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Wm. Sholl, who had been spending the past year in Illinois and Wisconsin, has again returned to this place. Mr. Sholl is a very congenial and jolly gentleman and he certainly is welcome among his many friends.

Walter Hackman, who has been working for H. H. Royer, of near Rebersburg while helping to run a corn shredder, had the misfortune of getting three fingers of the right hand cut off. Mr. Hackman is an active and industrious young man on the farm and was very much thought of by Mr. Royer and wife. Mr. Hackman certainly has the sympathy of his host of friends.

Some of our people are willing to take the dollar, but not a joke. Shame on such razor-back people.

Mrs. Breen and her son Roy spent Christmas with her son Clayton Weber at Lock Haven.

J. C. Auman was through this vicinity shredding corn and sawing wood.

John Stover, one of our hustling farmers, did some fast wood sawing for some of our people last week.

Palmer Weaver, who is attending a business school at Reading, was home over Christmas.

C. R. Diehl, who is working in the Westinghouse plant at Pittsburg, was home over Christmas.

Ray Weber is the happy father of a bouncing baby boy.

The C. E. union meeting was very well attended. The time was well taken up by the speakers.

Mrs. Judith Bierly has gone to Chattanooga with her son to spend the winter there.

The Christmas services on Wednesday evening were well rendered and well attended. The church could not hold all the people.

Lee Sholl and his sister, Mrs. Baker, from Pittsburg, spent a few days with friends and relatives of this place.

Dr. Edwin Royer, of this place, who finished his medical course last year in Philadelphia, and who is now better preparing himself for his life work by taking a year's work in surgery at one of the best hospitals in Philadelphia, spent Christmas under the parental roof.

Quite a loss. A hog was run to death in west Rebersburg for W. F. Bierly while trying to put the animal into another stable.

Harry Haines and wife, from Pittsburg, are visiting with the young man's parents.

Mrs. J. R. Brungart went to the Lock Haven hospital on Wednesday. S. S. Gephart took her in his auto.

C. J. Crouse and wife were to Millheim on Wednesday to enjoy the Christmas dinner at J. O. F. Housman's brother-in-law of Mr. Crouse.

By reports some one broke the sixth and seventh commandments. Look out, some one may catch you when you least expect it.

Miss Stillwell, from New York, is the pleasant guest of Mr. H. E. Corman.

Stover Detweiler, from Philadelphia, is at present visiting friends of this place.

There was a report in our community of the serious illness of Mrs. J. C. Morris who moved to Hunting-

Bilious?

One of Ayer's Pills at bedtime—just one. Acts on the liver. Gently laxative. Sugar-coated. All vegetable. Sold for 60 years. Ask Your Doctor.

don some time ago. We are glad to say the latest reports are favorable; Mrs. Morris is improving.

Victor Walker certainly has the sympathy of all in the sad accident that befell him and his auto. We are glad to say, while the auto is a wreck, he himself escaped serious injury. The auto will be repaired and will soon be ready for service.

Elmer Hubler met a big bear last week, face to face, not over 15 feet between them. But, sad to say, he had nothing but small shot. He gave bruise two loads of shot which put the beast on a rapid retreat.

Warren Bierly, while taking a load of young people to a party at O. F. Stover's, broke his sled and let them walk the rest of the way. The young people finally got there and after spending a pleasant evening were brought home by Mr. Stover's son, Mahlon.

Christmas is over, the old year is history. Have we resolved to live better in 1913? We wish every reader of these items, a Happy New Year.

SUMMIT HILL—Boggs Twp. Mr. and Mrs. Nick Lucas and family, of Skunk Hollow, spent Sunday last with her parents, Lewis Miller, of Pleasant Valley.

Miss Tipton, teacher of Mann's school departed last Saturday for Pittsburg, where she spent Christmas.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Fetzer's were, Mrs. Wm. Sayers and two daughters, Wilma and Fay, Miss Ella Mann and mother, also Miss Edith Wooster, of Pleasant Valley, Charley Chapman and Mrs. Mittle Mann.

Our school teacher, Miss Confer, gave quite a little entertainment on last Tuesday afternoon. The best of all was a charming solo sung by little John War, namely Casey Jones, and I tell you it was a beauty. If you don't believe it, just ask Cora.

William and Jennie McCartney spent Christmas with their grandparent John, of this place.

There was a shooting match held below Sayer's in that hollow, on Christmas day. There was quite a turnout and everybody enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent.

Those on the sick list are Miss Edith Miller and sister Frances; Miss Maude Mann and Mrs. Annie Fetzer, who is under the skillful care of Dr. Tibbens, of Beech Creek.

Boys, get your cow bells ready as there are a couple weddings in the near future.

O. Fetzer took in a few of the most interesting sights on the J. Howard Tipton estate on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Oyler and daughter Mary spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daley. Miss Daisy Mann is employed at O. Fetzer's for a few weeks.

On the other hand, lots of fellows who marry in haste hustle at leisure.

Higher Prices for Cross Ties

Anty Drudge Helps a Neighbor

Mrs. Jones—"No, Anty Drudge, I haven't even tried that new stitch. You can't do knitting with rough, swollen hands, and my hands get so sore and stiff on wash days, that I can't ever seem to get them well. It's having them in hot water all the time, and then going out in the cold to hang up clothes. I declare, I'm discouraged."

Anty Drudge—"So would I be discouraged, my dear, if I did my wash the way you do yours. How do you suppose I have time to knit and sew, and keep my hands fit to do it? I do just as much work as you do, but I have learned to use Fels-Naptha Soap. I won't do hard work, if I can make it easy, and with Fels-Naptha Soap you can."

Let Fels-Naptha Soap do the hard part of your work. It can and will, if you give it a chance. You like to have some time for pleasure, don't you? Like to have an afternoon once in a while, to visit your neighbors or go shopping? Every woman does, but busy housewives can't seem to get much time to do those things.

How would you feel if you got your washing done some Monday in time to spend the afternoon resting or visiting or shopping?

If you are a Fels-Naptha Soap woman, you can; but if you have never done your work with Fels-Naptha Soap, then you don't know how easy and quick it is. It is cheap, too. It works best in cool or lukewarm water. It does all sorts of cleaning and washing, and doesn't hurt laces nor fade colors if water alone will not.

The directions on the Red and Green Wrapper tell you just how to use it.
