

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Mr. George VanDyke left on Tuesday for a business trip to Pittsburgh. Last week the jury commissioners drew the list of jurors for the next term of court and the same appears in this issue. The stock of goods in the W. H. Macker store was disposed at auction on Tuesday and attracted a large number of buyers. The annual meeting of the Patrons Fire Insurance Company was held at the Garman House on Tuesday and was well attended. Mr. and Mrs. Theo. E. Haupt and little son returned home on Saturday from Pittsburgh, where they spent the Christmas season with friends. The annual meeting of the Bellefonte Board of Trade will be held in the public building on Howard street, Thursday, January 9, 1913, at 8 p. m. Miss Annie Peters returned to her home in Philadelphia last Thursday, following a pleasant holiday visit with her sister, Mrs. Cheney Hicklen, in this place. Hon. John Noll took in the skirmish at Harrisburg this week where the fight was on to reorganize the present legislature and revise the rules. The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Blanchard on Linn street was the scene of much rejoicing on Monday, all on account of the appearance of a little daughter who has been more than thrice welcome. Merchant John Smith, of Spring Mills, was in town the past week shaking hands with his many friends. He is one of the Democrats who will parade down Pennsylvania avenue when Woodrow Wilson is inaugurated. Miss Margaret Alleman, of Littlestown, Pa., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cheney Hicklen, on east Logan street. Miss Alleman has the distinction of being the daughter of the editor of the Adams County Independent. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donachy departed on Tuesday for Akron, Ohio, to visit their daughter, Mrs. Tucker, and family who reside in that city. Mr. Donachy, in spite of his advanced years, is still a hard working man, and the little trip will be greatly enjoyed by him and his wife. Mrs. Edith Friedman, of New York City, came here this past week and on Monday accompanied her father, Herman Holz to her home. For some time Mr. Holz has not been enjoying the best of health, and will remain in New York City for a time to be away from business cares. S. K. Emerick, of Union township, was in town on Tuesday attending the annual meeting of the Grange Insurance company. Mr. Emerick will quit the farm this spring and move to Unionville as he finds farming too strenuous when help is scarce. Mr. Emerick announces his sale for March 14th. H. H. Zeigler, son of J. T. Zeigler, recently appointed janitor at the Court House, left Bellefonte on Saturday for Indiana where he will enter the freshman class of Valparaiso University. The young man goes promising of achieving a successful career, and his friends rejoice in his high ambitions. List of unclaimed letters remaining in the Bellefonte postoffice for the week ending Jan. 4th: Dr. B. Bernhart, Dr. E. M. Bingham, A. R. Clark, James Farak, H. Harner, Mr. J. W. Henney, J. W. Hickson, E. H. Jacob, McCarragher, Dr. F. M. Sudday.—H. C. Valentine, postmaster. Mr. and Mrs. William Whitmyer have closed up their house on Lamb street, and on Tuesday departed for Seaton, Somerset county, for an extended visit. Mr. Whitmyer's health has been below normal of late, and this trip is taken upon advice of his physician. They expect to be gone several months. Last Thursday about noon, while the children of Robert McMullen were playing in a coal house at their residence near Beaver & Hoy streets, they started a small conflagration which caused a general alarm of fire to be sent in. The companies responded but the fire was extinguished before they reached the scene. This week we started to print sale bills for the coming season. If you are having sale don't hold your copy until the last moment and then come with a rush. When all do that, we have to work day and night. Persons who have all arrangements completed for their Spring sale should get their copy early to the printer as in that way they get the best work. Adam Hazel, of Axeman, left this week for Niagara Falls where he will remain the next three months. While there he will be at the home of his son and among other Centre county friends who are located at that place and are prospering. If Mr. Hazel should strike a real soft snap at that place he might hesitate about coming back, no matter how well he likes the Springs home and Centre county democracy. The leading merchants of Bellefonte had an impromptu meeting at Caders bakery on Friday evening. They started in with a good lot of eats, and in an informal way discussed propositions for the general improvement of business in the town during the coming year. Several plans were carefully considered and some were adopted that may bring increased business to all, should they stick until they are fully matured. The Publicity Committee of the Woman's Club calls attention to the Study Class recently organized. Please bear in mind that this is an opportunity for everybody, men and women, whether club members or not. Greater enjoyment and benefit will be derived if some reading on the subject is done beforehand. No questions will be asked and there will be no examinations, but volunteer discussions will be appreciated. The subject for Jan. 20, is "The Discovery of America." The Parents-Teachers' Association extends a cordial invitation to the citizens of Bellefonte to attend a lecture on the subject of "The Child's Life from Birth to Sixteen Years of Age," covering the period of the child's life from twelve to sixteen years of age, which will be of general interest to the community. It is hoped that the attendance will be as large as the importance of Dean Holme's subject and the reputation of the lecturer warrant.

"The Lion and the Mouse" at the opera house next Wednesday night. Be sure to see the great Keene, magician, at the opera house Saturday afternoon and evening. A chemist from New York was in Bellefonte last week, assisting the Penna. Match Company in compounding a non-poisonous match. Mrs. Mabel Bennisson and daughter Nellie, of Jacksonville, were over Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Custard, State College. Harry Bowersox, who lately closed his restaurant in Crider's Exchange and secured employment in Altoona, will move his family to that city next week. See Gross' $125 grocery order this week. They will save you money for cash. Less expense than any other store in town. No dead beats. Full weight. The annual auditing of the borough accounts will be commenced in a few days by the borough auditors, C. K. Hicklen, Edw. L. Gates and Klins Woodring, Esq. Mrs. Thomas Shawley, of Curtin, who had been spending a short time with her daughter, Mrs. John Gross, on Valentine street, underwent an operation in the Bellefonte hospital this week. Her condition is said to be favorable. Had there been two members less at the regular meeting of council on Monday night the borough "Pops" would have had a goose egg score against them. Just two members present, Messrs. Beizer and Judge, and as five is the legal number required for a quorum, no session could be held. John McGinley, manufacturer of the "Nittany Club" and other well known brands of cigars, has lately been making some changes in "Scraper" on the interior of his store on High street. The partitions have been rearranged so that more space is accorded the pool room. His idea is to add another pool table in the near future. The Lyric announces a big special show for Friday night. A two reel feature entitled "The Massacre of the Fourth Cavalry" will be a hair-raiser; "My Wife's Away" will furnish amusement, and "Down by the Sounding Sea" is an interesting subject. In addition the orchestra will be present. 5 cents to all; no extra charge at the Lyric. Among the new automobiles in town the past week was a fine 6-cylinder Hudson car purchased by Col. W. Fred Reynolds through the Jno. Sebring agency from Keeler & Co., at Williamsport. The Col. turned in his Cadillac car in the deal. This latest model Hudson has all the modern appliances and conveniences and is among the popular priced cars. The "Lion and the Mouse," at the opera house next Wednesday evening, Jan. 15th, is a play that will please all classes. It is written by Charles Kibbel, the well known author of "The Music Master," "The Third Degree," etc., and while not a new creation of this gifted playwright it has never been produced in Bellefonte. It is a story of absorbing interest, and should be greeted by a crowded house. Harry Spicer, a former well known Bellefonte boy, now residing at Scottsdale, Pa., spent a week or more in this place visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Spicer. Harry has put on a considerable amount of avoirdupois during the past several years, and the appearance of the fat boy found some of the good things in life. He was accompanied to Bellefonte by his daughter, Miss May, who will remain for a while with her grandparents. A. E. Schad has rented the offices occupied by Dr. Fisher, formerly the Kiehl & Hastings law offices, on the corner of Beaver & Hoy streets, and will occupy them at once with his plumbing establishment now in the Eagle Block, which room will be used by Morris & Sheffer after April 1st with a general store. Dr. Fisher rented these offices for some time after J. A. E. Miller vacated them. Owing to extended illness the Dr. finds that he will not likely take up the practice again, and for that reason gave up his lease to Mr. Schad who was in need of a good location for his business. Mr. Schad will maintain his stock room in the basement of the armory. J. Finklestine, proprietor of the Racket Store in the Aiken block, will move his business to another section of the town before the first of April. Just where he will locate, Mr. Finklestine has not fully decided upon, but the probabilities are that he will secure the room in Crider's Exchange now occupied by William McClure, the harness maker. In this case Mr. McClure will move his establishment to the room lately occupied by Macker the grocer. Mr. Finklestine would also use the basement room, formerly a restaurant, as a part of his store. In case he decides to move there, the entrance will be remodeled, and a steel ceiling placed on the interior. Whatever you do, don't miss the magnificent four-reel production of "Queen Elizabeth," with Sarah Bernhardt in the title role, at the Scenic tomorrow night. Those who wish to avoid the rush at the evening entertainment should attend the matinee, at which time the same films will be shown. This will be the only opportunity you will have to witness this magnificent production. In these films you see the divine Sarah in all her glory; every expression is as perfect as art-photography can make it. The films are delicately tinted and do not affect the eyes. Many other cities and towns are charging 25 cents to see these films, but manager Brown will keep the price of admission down to 10 cents. Tuesday witnessed the final wind-up of the Macker green grocery in this place. During the forenoon and afternoon the store room was crowded with a throng eager to snap up bargains in cigars, tobacco, pipes, etc., as auctioneer Ishler offered them to the highest bidder. It was mighty tempting to the fellow who divorced himself from Lady Nicotine on the first of the year. Two of the counter were purchased by Fred Herman, and another by Williams Katz. Frank Blair, the jeweler, came into possession of the cash register. The proceeds of the sale will amount to about $350. This with some personal property aggregated over $600. Jno. Rocky got the automobile at $250. The store room will likely be occupied by Wm. McClure's harness store, Finklestine's novelty store will move in to Mr. McClure's present room in Crider's Exchange.

The Methodist congregation elected the following Board of Trustees for a three year term at a meeting on Monday night: M. R. Johnson, W. T. Twitmyer and James K. Barnhart. Mr. Brandman, manager of the Lyric, has added a number of additional seats to his theatre, utilizing an amount of vacant space in the front of the building. The floor was also raised at that point. The work was done by A. W. Stine, the carpenter. The annual meeting of the Patrons Insurance Company was held on Tuesday at the Garman House and was well attended. The regular routine business was transacted. The former officers were re-elected with the exception of C. D. Meek, as vice-pres., who succeeds Hiram Thompson, both are of College township. Then it arrived on March 22. It will be the year 2000 when it comes so early again. Easter comes very close to setting a record this year. It can never come earlier than March 22. The only time it did or could do this from the year 1801 to 2000 was in 1818. This was made possible by a full moon on March 21, and the day following being Sunday. This coincidence does not occur more than once in a century and it is only then that the Feast of Ascension can occur in April, and then only on April 30. As Easter is the most important of all the movable feasts of the Christian church, it determines all the rest. Hence this year Ash Wednesday comes on February 5, Ascension Thursday, May 1, and Pentecost, May 11. Sixty-seven years ago and 56 years ago Easter occurred on the same date it does in 1913. The next year when Easter will pay an early visit will be in 1940, when it comes on March 24. In 1951 it arrives on March 25, in the year 1815 it fell upon March 26, also in the years 1826, 1837, 1883 and 1894. It will come again March 26 in 1967, 1978 and 1989. The latest Easter of the Nineteenth and Twentieth centuries was in 1859, when it fell on April 24, in 1848 and 1905 it occurred on April 23. A Large Menagerie.—Miss Birdie Wolf was recently married to Robert R. Fox in Brooklyn in the presence of eighteen Foxes and thirty-one Wolves. Among other guests were John Bull, William Duck, Dr. Joseph Sauer and his fiancée, Miss Loretta Sweet. The couple will live in Lyons, N. Y.

JOSEPH'S ANNUAL White Sale now on, Greater Than Ever Before, at Astonishingly Low Prices . . . To Convince Yourself, Give Us An Early Call. Joseph & Company. A Bright Boy.—For more than a week a school teacher had been giving lessons on the dog, and so when the inspector came down and chose that very subject, there seemed every prospect of the class distinguishing itself. Things were progressing quite satisfactorily, and the teacher was congratulating himself on the trouble he had taken, when almost a question was asked which made him tremble for the reputation of his scholars. "Why does a dog hang his tongue out of his mouth?" asked the inspector. "Yes, my boy," he said to a bright looking lad who held up his hand, while the light of genius was in his eye. "To balance his tail!" shouted the bright boy. Marriage Licenses. Seven Kochik - - - - - Clarence Mary V.
