SPRING MILLS.
The late rains brought out the fishermen; O. F. Funk is the champion; so far he has gotten six suckers. Mary Slegal, head nurse of the Lock Haven hospital, spent a couple days with her parents. Most people slip up on their own smoothness. The Ladies' Temple, No. 163, K. G. E. degree team went to Centre Hall last Tuesday evening to confer the degree on five new members, after which they were served with a fine lunch. Many a man would be like Job if it did not cost so much. Boyd Auman, of Columbus, Ohio, is home for a few days visiting his parents. Mrs. George Huss is offering her property for sale; it is located near the station; a chance for some one. Many a preacher smoothers the truth in his attempt to protect it. M. L. Smith, of Johnstown, is here visiting his brother. John Hagan, the boss carpenter, has just completed all but painting the Farmers Mills church, which will add greatly to the appearance. Windom Gramly says most men like to let their light shine when they get a new car. Some think they are saints because their neighbors would be relieved to have them go to glory. Habit severs the good as readily as the bad. Small talk often makes big trouble. Every act is some kind of a prayer.

UPPER MARION.
Miss Flora Bartley returned home after a short visit with friends at this place. Miss Carrie Bowen returned home after a few week's visit with friends in Bedford. Miss Zilla Clemens and friend is spending a few days at Zion. The next time a certain young man takes a young lady home he shouldn't get sick. Miss Mary Bowen spent Sunday with her parents at this place. Come again, Mary; glad to see you. C. S. Garbrick has taken the job of hauling Clayton Duck's props to Howard. Nearly everybody is on the sick list; hope they will soon recover. Say, R. you will have to hurry or your younger brother will beat your time.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION.

Dear Editor:—I will take the liberty to address a few lines to you with the hope of seeing same in the next issue of the Centre Democrat. I am glad to inform you that I am receiving copies of the Democrat since my son Oscar of Bellefonte subscribed for and ordered same sent to my address at Detroit. It is a very welcome visitor and like meeting old Centre county friends. I hope to get my family here in the spring and make this my future home; and if I do, the Centre Democrat will have to make its journey up here every week in the future as I could not get along without it. Mr. Editor, Detroit is the place for a laboring man; plenty of work and good wages, and living is cheaper here than in Bellefonte in everything but rent and coal. Beef, pork, flour, coffee, sugar, potatoes, and all necessities of life, are 10 and 20 per cent cheaper than in Bellefonte, and nobody is scared about hard times here as many were in Centre county after election. The Bower Roller Bearing Company, where I and my son are employed, are going to enlarge their factory in the spring, and there are many more industries in progress of construction at present, so it does not look as if capitalists were alarmed about hard times. Nobody thinks about hard times—everyone seems to have money and is happy. I believe this is a healthy place as I am feeling better since I came here than I have for years past; you can't see any hills or mountains here, nothing but level land, a great river and a great city, and from the banks of the River Detroit you can look across into Windsor, Canada. It is a grand sight for anybody who has never seen anything but hills and mountains. The weather thus far has been like spring here and not like mid-winter. There are many men from Pennsylvania, as a mechanic or laboring man can get more money for his services here than in any state, and an employer and not looked upon as a slave, as they are by the employers and bosses down in Bellefonte. Now if I have not intruded, I hope to see this in print, and will endeavor to do better in the future. GEO. D. KELLER, 565 Belvedere Ave, Detroit, Mich.

MONEY FOR SCHOOL FUND.

State Treasurer Arranging for Awards Under New Code.
State treasurer C. F. Wright is having a search of the books of his department made to ascertain the amounts of money due to the new state school fund now that the State Board of Education has completed its plans for the investment and administration of the money, which is to be devoted to the Commonwealth's educational foundation under the school code. Pennsylvania is one of the few states which had no state school fund until the enactment of the code, but steps are being taken to provide it for the future. Under the code 80 per cent of the net income from the state's forest reservations, which now amount to from $6000 to $7000 per year; water rights, which have heretofore not yielded much income; sales of real estate of the state, which is comparatively small and escheated estates, which aggregate from $20,000 to $25,000 a year, together with any legacies, will go to the school fund. These money will be due the fund from the date of its approval in 1911, so that the state will start off with a fair sum.

Sandwich Butter.
Instead of putting all the seasoning with the meat or other filling for sandwiches, try combining it with the butter. It will be more evenly blended and more easily spread than when plain butter is used. Rub one cupful of butter to a cream, add two tablespoonfuls of prepared mustard, two tablespoonfuls olive oil, a little salt and pepper, yolk of one egg and a teaspoonful of lemon juice. Blend well and set away to cool, then spread on thinly sliced bread and add a small slice of ham or chicken. Press slightly.

Warrior's Mark to the Front.
Warrior's Mark the hustling little city of Huntingdon county, is no back number these days, in fact the past summer and fall has seen this place a regular bee hive of industry. Over four thousand dollars were spent by the state in repairing the roads, making them the best in that section of the county. Besides the above amount spent in making good roads, the residents have been busy building new homes and remodeling the old ones. Martin Beck has had erected a magnificent two and a half story brick containing all the most modern improvements. This home alone will cost at least four thousand dollars. Mrs. John Bell has had erected a splendid two and a half story frame dwelling, with all modern conveniences. Walter Switzer, who purchased the Clayton Burkett home, has placed at a great expense, Squire Cox has repaired his home and outbuildings and made them look like new. Howard Burkett, owner of the old Exchange Hotel building, has added many improvements to his new holding. Much grading has been done and a street is among the items that go to make a property look pretty and add value to the same. The town has also had new lights placed throughout the principal streets making the place very city like. Persons thinking Warrior's Mark is a dead one should visit the little city and see the many improvements and beautiful homes that go to make a place an ideal habitation.—Tyrone Herald.

Street Car Moves Balky Horse.
A new cure of a balky horse was found in Williamsport a few days since. It stood still on a trolley track with a dray attached and when it would not move the car gently shoved the dray, which impelled the horse to keep ahead of it. After being pushed that way for some distance the horse decided to use its own powers of locomotion and got out of the way of the car.

HANDS BROKE OUT IN LITTLE BLISTERS

Fingers Split Down from Nails, Swollen and Inflamed, Unable to do Work, Very Painful, Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, Hands Entirely Healed.

2234 So. 13th St., Philadelphia, Pa.—"For a long time the skin on my hands was tender and dry, and my fingers stiff. They were split down from the finger nails and were swollen and inflamed and very red around the finger nails. It was also necessary to keep my hands out of cold water as this seemed to irritate them and I was unable to do my work for some time. It was very painful. I tried several so-called healing ointments without effect, finally they broke out in little blisters which spread all over the fingers. I was getting discouraged when a friend called to see me and advised me to try the Cuticura Remedies, telling how her hands were affected in a similar way and were cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I purchased the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after two or three days noticed a marked improvement. I kept on until I used three boxes of Cuticura Ointment and three cakes of Cuticura Soap after which my hands were entirely healed and I have had no trouble since. I always try to have the Cuticura Ointment on hand and in case of a cut or scratch apply it immediately." (Signed) Miss Clara Waldron, Nov. 1, 1911.

A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c.) and box of Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are often sufficient when all else has failed. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 25-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. 7, Boston." Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

ARE UP AGAINST IT.

Supreme Court Decision Puts Renovo School Board in a Hole.
"A case of great interest to the people generally has just been decided by the supreme court of Pennsylvania in an opinion by Justice Elkin. He holds that the tax collector elected by the people is entitled to collect the school tax and receive the commission therefore instead of a collector selected by the school board. The case was that of the regularly elected tax collector of McKeesport against the tax collector elected by the McKeesport school board. Justice Elkin holds and is sustained by all the members of the supreme court, that the intention of the new school code was to preserve in office all tax collectors elected to collect school taxes and it can make no difference under what act taxes to be collected by him were assessed. In the McKeesport case fees of $710 had been paid on taxes collected by the School Board. Lawyers in Pittsburgh who have been consulted say the members of the McKeesport board will have to pay the commissions due the regularly elected tax collector out of their own pockets if the collector they authorized to supplant the regularly elected collector does not refund the fees paid him. A similar situation exists at Renovo, where the board elected a collector chosen by the voters, and in view of the decision given by the supreme court, the up-river people will view with interest the manner in which the members of the board will extricate themselves from their unenviable position.

Burned at Butchering.
Benjamin Smith, aged about 30 years, was badly burned while butchering at his home above Jersey Shore last week. He was taken to the Williamsport hospital where it was found that his burns were of a very serious nature. Smith was in the act of rendering lard in a large kettle when it was overturned in some manner and its hot contents were spilled over his face and arms. He was soon a mass of flames and was considerably burned before assistance arrived and the flames extinguished.

Skunk Hides by Mail Whew!
Peter L. Treut, of Lancaster, draws the line on the sending of skunk hides by parcel post. Recently such a package, identified by its odor, was left at the office. Rules were consulted, but as the package was stamped it was sent to its destination. Then the new order was made.

Graft Skins of Dog on Lad.
The skins of the stomachs of eight puppies were grafted on the legs of Ralph Keris, a seven-year-old boy, of St. Louis, who was burned Dec. 6, when his clothing caught fire. The greater part of the injuries are now cured, but five more dogs will be sacrificed to provide skin.

This Home-Made Cough Syrup Will Surprise You
Stops Even Whooping Cough Quickly. A Family Supply at Small Cost.

Here is a home-made remedy that takes hold of a cough instantly, and will usually cure the most stubborn case in 24 hours. This recipe makes a pint—enough for a whole family. You couldn't buy as much or as good ready-made cough syrup for $2.50. Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 2 1/2 pints of warm water, and stir 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (5 cents worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste—children like it. Braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough. You probably know the medical value of pine in treating asthma, bronchitis and other throat troubles, sore lungs, etc. There is nothing better. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacal and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula. The prompt results from this inexpensive remedy have made friends for it in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been limited often, but never successfully. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Willing to Sell to State.
A dispatch from Harrisburg says: The State Board of Education was informed that the West Chester, Bloomsburg, Lock Haven, Edinboro, Clarion and California State Normal schools had indicated willingness to sell their properties to the state so that the commonwealth might have entire control. Communications from other schools relative to the sale of stock were also discussed. The board will favor a bill for state aid in caring for blind children under school age whose parents are unable to provide for them, but other legislative matters will be considered at a special meeting in February. The control and investment of the state school fund created by the code was arranged.

Dog Holds Up Train.
When a highly bred and prized bull dog jumped from the baggage car on an express train near Sunbury after it had chewed itself loose from its leash, the train was stopped while the crew chased it over snow-covered farm lands for half an hour. The animal was finally captured. Express employees said the dog was insured for one thousand dollars.

Robber Uses Ammonia.
A. E. Bower, a Lewisburg jeweler, was almost blinded by a highwayman late Thursday night. The man broke into Bower's store and being refused jewelry threw ammonia into the merchant's face. He will lose the sight of one eye, but was evidently not alarmed and fled as he took no valuables.

What a place of silence this world would be if people would only think twice before they speak.
