They say Elmer Wolf and Adam Brungart are the overseers of the H. M. Walker farm of dead and live stock for the following summer.

The people all seem to enjoy this cold weather. I guess it is because we are having all prospects of getting ice. Now boys watch your chance.

JACKSONVILLE.

Well, the stork has been busy and on the 21st left a bouncing boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beightol's and they have concluded to keep him; mother and babe are doing well. Last Thursday a young daughter was left at the home of Perry Fahringer, just below the Centre county line in Clinton county. Mrs. Fahringer's mother, Mrs. Rachel Shamp of this place, was taken down to look after the household duties.

A great many of our folks are still having colds and grip.

Glad to report Mr. Franklin Weight, who has been housed up for about nine weeks, so much improved as to walk out a little again.

Harry Whitman and Roy Harter, who have been working at the Lock Haven paper mill for several weeks, with many others have been laid off for an indefinite time.

Bruce Beightol and Leon Ertley left for Hayes Run Fire Brick works the past week and failing to get a job there, went to Orviston where they have secured work.

Many of our farmers have been busy plowing, hauling manure and getting ready for spring the past week. But since the ground hog made his appearance the weather has changed and if he can hold the weather a few days more the next will be ice harvest.

BRUSHVILLE.

Sunday was ground hog day and he certainly saw his shadow, so look out for six more cold weeks.

Some of our farmers have been doing some plowing.

Last week the cry was, mud, mud, I am so dreadful tired of this mud I do not know what to do with myself, but the tune has changed. They now say, why I was only out a few minutes and I nearly froze.

Our farmers are living in hopes of getting ice now.

C. E. Ducker stepped on a nail last week which disabled him for a few days.

- We will soon hear the cry, O Yes! O Yes! at public sales.

On Sunday evening we had a man get out of bed and ask what calls were on the telephone line. Of course there were a few words exchanged. Is it any wonder?

J. A. Wagner, our new mail man, is well liked on this route.

Many people wonder who the scribe is. I will be frank with you. It is I. I'm the guy.

ZION.

Sunday was an ideal winter day and if Mr. Woodcho was onto his job he certainly saw his shadow.

Candlemass is the week of doughnuts. But John says he has dyspepsia and will only eat the holes, and his wife will keep the circles for can rings.

Joe Kane and wife were Howard visitors over Sunday.

Cole and Crawford, agents for the Delaval cream separators, have set up several new machines in our valley recently.

Quite a few of our farmers have purchased their clover seed for this spring's sowing. Expecting an advance in price they bought early to avoid the rush.

Most of the wheat is going to market at one dollar a bushel.

Mrs. Emanuel Garbrich is confined to the house with rheumatism.

Several of our boys took in the Mrs. Tom Thumb shows last week. So also did B. A. Noll and son Kermit.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. Harry Harro entertained quite a number of her lady friends at her home last Thursday evening.

One share of the late Mrs. J. N. Dinges household goods will be sold at public sale, Saturday afternoon.

Services will be held in the Reformed church Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening of this week. Communion on Sunday morning.

David Stuart, of Pittsburg, spent over Sunday with his brother, William and family.

Joseph Funk, who resides with his granddaughter, Mrs. Elsie Laird, of Bellefonte, is visiting his son Edward at this place.

Samuel B. Leathers, of near Curtin, is quite ill at this writing; we hope for him a speedy recovery.

Some miscreant visited the barn of Harvey Barnhart last week and quite a lot of chow was stolen; we found out he should be dealt with according to law.

A quilting party was held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Bryan on Thursday; quite a number of ladies were present and all report a jolly good time and plenty of good things to eat.

Mrs. Henry Shultz called at the home of Lowrie Shope on Sunday to see her aunt who is ill.

Mrs. Adam Schroyer, of Milesburg, and friends called on Curtin on Friday.

Wm. Sheats of Howard, makes frequent visits to Curtin; we think there must be some attraction; how about it, A. D.?

Mrs. D. E. Shultz visited her daughter, Mrs. Jake Shay, of the Rolling Mill, on Thursday.

Thomas Beaver and bride came to Curtin on Saturday and boarded the train going east on their wedding tour.

AXEMANN.

If the ground hog didn't see his shadow on Sunday, it wasn't because the sun didn't shine, it never ceased to shine the whole day, now we will see if that has anything to do with the winter this time; we certainly have not had a severe winter thus far.

Those on the sick list this week are Mrs. Walter Weaver, Adaline Kline, one of Foster Jodon's children, Mrs. Joseph Meyers and some of the Kelly family who have been quarantined for smallpox. There are no new cases. The only ones having smallpox are Kelley's. We hope there will be no new cases.

The school directors ordered the schools closed for a few days.

George O'Bryan, the merchant and postmaster at this place, has a very sick horse.

Edgar Somers visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Somers over Sunday. He is employed at Niagara Falls and returned to that place on Tuesday.

Miss Marion Stover, of Bellefonte, visited friends at this place on Sunday.

Well! well! things are beginning to look rather suspicious, that kitchen shower on last Tuesday night up the country and we suppose the next we hear will be the wedding bells. How is it Frankie?

Mrs. James Somers was quite sick last week but is better at this writing.

Emanuel White returned from a visit with his son, J. B. White, of Altoona.

This Will Stop Your Cough in a Hurry

Save $2 by Making This Cough Syrup at Home.

This recipe makes a pint of better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer the most obstinate cough—stops even whooping cough quickly. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take four teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite, and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful. A handy remedy for hoarseness, croup, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles.

The effect of pine on the membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norwegian white pine extract, and is rich in ginseng and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe has attained great popularity throughout the United States and Canada. It has often been imitated, though never successfully. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Ayer's Pills

Good health demands at least one movement of the bowels each day. Just one Ayer's Pill at bedtime. Sold for 60 years. Ask Your Doctor.

SPRING MILLS.

Rev. Garis, of Madisonburg, filled the pulpit for Rev. Mattern last Saturday evening in the Evangelical church.

There is some move on foot to build a concrete walk from the foot bridge to the station; let the good work go on; every citizen should take an interest in it, and not only talk it but subscribe liberally toward it.

The sandwich party folk are having all kinds of hard luck; on one of their trips some scoundrel took off some of their wagons' wheels and hid them, which caused them a lot of trouble to get home.

Harry Rearick and wife, of Altoona, were here attending the funeral of Jennie Musser.

The ground hog saw his shadow good and proper, so look out for six weeks of cold weather; but not this time, as things have changed.

SOBER.

Mrs. O. J. Wolf is on the sick list.

Milton Vonada's were callers at Jacob Getzel's on Sunday.

Little Wolf has gone back to her place at Centre Hall where she is working.
