Only ten days until a Democratic administration will be in charge of the government and nobody is scared. Why should they be?

The cabinet makers are, as busy as ever and all have Bryan scheduled for Secretary of State. One day Hon. A. Mitchell Palmer is Attorney General, or Secretary of the Treasury, and then only a plain congressman. In a recent interview Senator Penrose proclaimed himself a pronounced Progressive. He is for all the modern reforms, and says the will of the people must prevail. Never did a big boss humble himself more than Penrose now is doing. Heretofore, he

The following is taken from the Williamsport, Pa., Sun and will not be much comfort for those 1500 Repub-licans who hope to have their appointments confirmed by the U. S. Senate before March 4. Senator Penrose was in Williamsport on the 12th, and the Sun says:

"Senator Boise Benrose gagged Republican hopes centering around the postmastership here, when he gave his opinion that there was absolutely no chance of President Taft's nominations being confirmed by congress. In the words of the senator "the postoffice issue here was of scant importance be-cause of the almost absolute certainty that President Taft's nomination would not be confirmed." Coming from a man as close to President Taft and as close to the postoffice depart-ment as Senator Penrose is, his statement can be regarded as authorita-
