

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

"The Girl of Eagle Ranch" at the opera house tonight.

Miss Katherine Curtin, of Roland, is visiting Mrs. Bruce Burlingame of Syracuse, N. Y.

Miss Anna Kelchline returned home recently from a six weeks' sojourn in Philadelphia.

Isaac Thomas, Jr., was the guest over Sunday of his brother, William A. Thomas and family at Tyrone.

Philip Beezer returned home Tuesday morning from the west where he purchased several car load of cattle.

Clement Dale, Esq., transacted legal business in Philadelphia and Clearfield, Friday and Saturday of last week.

Claire Selbert has resigned his position with the P. R. R. at Tyrone and is at present in Bellefonte with his parents.

Miss Edna Koontz returned home Sunday from a week's stay in Williamsport where she was having her eyes treated.

James R. Hughes, principal of the Bellefonte Academy, returned home on Sunday evening from a business trip to eastern cities.

Miss Nance Burrows, of Tyrone, has been the guest during the past week at the home of Mrs. Hugh N. Crider of East Linn street.

Robert Evey has resigned his position with the American Express Company, and accepted one with the Olewine Hardware Company.

Mr. Fred Gregg and child, of Sunbury, arrived in town on Saturday and are pleasant guests at the home of Mrs. George Ward, of this city.

Will Katz and Miss Nellie Flack left Sunday for New York City where they will select the spring stock of millinery for Katz & Company.

Former County Treasurer G. G. Fink, of Martha Furnace, was in town Saturday transacting business. He looks as if the farm agreed with him.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Homer Crissman have gone to New York state this week where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. A. B. Cromer, of Baldwinville, N. Y.

Mrs. A. G. Morris and Miss Morris have gone to Philadelphia where they will join Mr. Morris and remain for an indefinite time. During their absence their home on Linn street is closed.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hall and little child, of Conemaugh, visited friends and relatives in Bellefonte, Milesburg and Snow Shoe during the past week. Mr. Hall is an old Centre county boy who is making good in his new home.

The ex-sheriffs and deputy sheriffs of Centre county will hold their annual banquet at the Nittany Country Club on Saturday evening, February 22nd. This will be the third annual banquet of the association and a full attendance is desired.

Morris & Shaffer's new store opened for business on Wednesday with a fine line of goods. They wish to announce that the store will remain open until 8 o'clock in the evenings during the week days except Saturday when they will close at 10 p. m.

C. H. Kline, of State College, was a pleasant caller at this office while in town Saturday. Mr. Kline is an employee of the College Electric Light plant and is kept so busy that he very seldom comes to Bellefonte. We are always glad to see him when he comes.

Mrs. Lulu Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rote, of Coleville, returned home recently from Pittsburgh where she had been undergoing treatment in a sanitarium. She has been suffering from paralysis for over a year and we are sorry to say her condition is very little improved.

List of unclaimed letters for the week ending February 15th—Samuel Bell, E. M. Bingham, M. D., Miss Grete Eickel, Ebon B. Briggs, Morris H. House, John Leeb, Penna. Sanitary Construction Co., Dr. F. W. Sunday, Joseph Veda, James Valentine, Harry Worman (2)—H. C. Valentine, Postmaster.

Mr. Daniel Markie, who recently had sale at his home on East High street, has moved to the local burz, where they will make their future home, he having secured a good position at that place. The family departed for the Smoky City on Saturday with the exception of their daughter, Miss Roy, who followed the family on Tuesday.

A rumor has been in circulation in Bellefonte for several days that Mrs. Lillie G. Reeder, widow of the late Col. Wilbur F. Reeder, has been married in California. A careful inquiry among her friends in this place has failed to confirm this rumor, although it is said to have come from a reliable source. Her many friends and acquaintances in this vicinity will await further information with much interest.

On Saturday the Academy five met the St. Francis College basketball team in Bellefonte and defeated them by a score of 22 to 16. The locals completely outclassed the visitors in every department of the game, the visitors being unable to break up any of the fine combination plays which the Academy has mastered. In the second half the visitors only secured two points and substitutes were run in by the Academy.

Wm. Magee, of Philadelphia, was in Bellefonte on Tuesday evening, being on his way to his home. He had been spending several days in Centre Hall at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huetz. The young gentleman is a native of Bellefonte, son of the late R. M. Magee, Esq. For some years he has been holding a responsible position in the customs department in Philadelphia as an inspector. It is in order to say that in the latter part of his life Mr. Magee and Miss Lelia Huyet of Centre Hall, will be married at the home of the bride's parents, which accounts for his frequent visits to that section the past year.

Geo. T. Bush returned Sunday evening from a trip to New York and Philadelphia, where he attended several reunions. In New York on Friday night at the Hotel Manhattan a banquet and reunion of the Around the World tourists on the Cleveland was held at which about one hundred and twenty of the seven hundred and fifty of the cruise were present. In Philadelphia Saturday night the Swarthmore Alumni and old students gathered at a reunion and banquet at the Bellevue Stratford at which three hundred were present. Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer, who is spoken of for Wilson's cabinet, and Governor Chas. Miller, of Delaware, the only Republican elected in the last election in the state, both having been graduates of Swarthmore, were present and made addresses.

Murray Andrews departed Tuesday on a business trip to Philadelphia, to be gone several days.

Coming the "Rosary," at the opera house next Friday evening, February 28. This attraction is considered by the manager one of the best bookings of the season.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the Lutheran church will hold a fair at the W. C. T. U. room, February 21st and 22nd. All kinds of aprons, fancy work, home made candies, pies and cakes will be sold.

Dr. G. E. Hawes will preach Sunday night on "Reasons People Give For Leaving with a Church." The evening audiences at the Presbyterian church have been growing. "There's a Reason!"

Manager Garman personally recommended the "Rosary" as a fine attraction. When here formerly it gave splendid satisfaction. At the opera house next Friday evening February 28th.

Mrs. M. M. Summers shipped her household furniture Thursday, February 13th, to Niagara Falls, where Mr. Summers has been employed for some time. Many friends wish them success in their new home.

Mede Torsel, the enterprising west ward shoemaker, is putting a new floor in his shop on West High street, and will cover the same with linoleum. New counters have been added and everything will be made neat and clean.

The public sale at Bartley's livery stable on Saturday, and at Ammon Gramley's on Tuesday, brought a great many people to our town on those days. It was unusual, and yet this was all in the face of a great small-pox.

Walter Clark and little son John, of Bradford, Pa. are visiting relative this week at Bellefonte and Pleasant Gap. Mr. Clark was at one time foreman of the Republican office at this place, but now a linotype operator on the Bradford Era.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Club will be held on Monday evening, February 24th, at 7:30 o'clock in the High school building. The subject for discussion led by Mrs. Lewis Schaeffer will be, "Summer Gardens." Everybody is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Lieut. C. L. Arnold sail this week from China for their country and will be in Bellefonte soon after their arrival. Mrs. Arnold was Miss Anna Orvis, daughter of Judge and Mrs. E. L. Orvis, and it is about two and a half years since they left for the Philippines. Lieut. Arnold was recently promoted to Lieutenant Captain.

Solomon M. Stover, of Minnesota Lake, Minn., has been in this section the past week visiting his former friends and in company with Amos Garbrick were pilots into the Centre Democrat office as he gets the paper in his western home. From here he goes to Newmansville, Pa., to extend his visit before returning to his western home.

Basket ball fans were disappointed in the failure of Bucknell's team to appear in Bellefonte Saturday for their scheduled game with Academy. The team were not to blame, however, for their non-appearance, as it is said they were notified by their faculty to remain away from Bellefonte on pain of suspension, by reason of the smallpox scare.

Sebring's Garage sign is scheduled to come down by the time that Woodrow Wilson will be inaugurated president of these United States, March 4th. Now we are quite sure that Wilson will be inaugurated on that date, and we also are assured that the sign will not come down on that date—no matter what the court has decreed. Note this prediction for anybody who is afraid to come to Bellefonte on account of contracting the smallpox had better remain away, and in that way can possibly allay his fears and have peace of mind. Here in Bellefonte everybody is going around with their business as usual and give smallpox little consideration, until they meet outsiders who express their great fears, or read the exaggerated reports in the papers from adjoining counties.

Every theatregoer in this city knows that "The Rosary" is the most talked-about play in the popular priced houses last season. This play struck a responsive chord in the hearts of the people, with its many human interest qualities, it proved to be immensely popular. Owing to its last season's success, "The Rosary" is being repeated again this season by the well known producers, Rowland and Clifford, and it comes to this theatre on Friday, February 28th. Prices 25 cents to $1.00.

Hon. Harry W. Bass, L. R., the only colored member of the State legislature, will speak at the Court House, Bellefonte, Pa., on Thursday, February 27th, 1913, on "The Emancipation Proclamation." Mr. Bass is the father of the bill providing for the celebration of the Emancipation celebration to be held in September 1913. He is an eloquent orator and scholar. There will be a short address by Mayor John J. Bower and H. C. Quigley, Esq., will preside over the meeting. All are invited to attend. No admission will be charged, only a free will offering.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moore, of North Tonawanda, N. Y., who were guests at the Bush House for several days, left Tuesday afternoon for home. Mr. Moore, who was formerly president of the Nittany Furnace at this place, is now in charge of a big iron plant at North Tonawanda and one of his objects in coming here was to secure men for his plant. He was not able to secure the number he wanted. However Martin Stover, Stuart Hampton, Dennis Mongan, H. C. Kellerman, John Anderson and William E. Mongan, accompanied him back to New York and will secure employment.

Centre county received mention in a number of city papers last week concerning the large auction sale in Philadelphia of the extensive collection of the late John Miles Hale, who before his death was a well known resident of Philadelphia, and whose sisters and nieces live there now. Mr. Hale was a member of the Centre County Bar Association and will be remembered by many Bellefonte people. Beside the extensive collection of autographs Mr. Hale had a fine collection of coins and many other curios, from which has already been realized the sum of $25,000, and not all sold as yet. A signed letter of Nathan Hale, the Revolutionary patriot who was executed as a spy, brought $1,500, and was the prize of the sale. One Washington document brought $900, and a Lincoln letter over $300. The collection was one of the most extensive in the United States.

James H. Potter and son, Donald, departed Tuesday on a business trip to New York City.

Mrs. Frank Lukenbach and Mrs. Forster, of Tyrone, are visiting among Bellefonte friends on Wednesday.

Mrs. James R. Hughes and her sister, Miss Emma Green went down to Williamsport Wednesday where they will remain for several days.

Misses Anna and Caroline Valentine departed Wednesday afternoon for Camden, South Carolina, a well known winter resort, where they will remain for some time.

Charles Chandler, who lives near the Academy, will move his family next week from their present location into the home of Harry Haug's houses on South Penn street.

W. Blaine Port has decided to close his tailoring shop in basement of the Lyric Theatre and will go to Altoona where he has secured a good position at the tailoring trade.

Mrs. Harry Cox and little son, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Seehler, of North Spring street, departed for their home in Franklyn, Pa., on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huber and two daughters, Helen and Donna, of Clermont, McKean county, are visiting at the home of Harry Haug's houses. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Shirk, on north Thomas street.

The condition of C. M. Garman, who submitted to a serious operation in New York, last week, is reported favorable for complete recovery, which will enable him to his many friends who surround him.

Reube D. Grafmyre, of Altoona, is spending a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Grafmyre, of Milesburg, and visiting friends in and around Bellefonte. Reube is working for the Penna. R. R. Co.

There was a large attendance at the public sale at Frank Bartley's livery stable last Saturday and it is said everything brought good prices. Mr. Bartley's automobile was sold to George Doll, the ice man.

Morris & Sheffers new department store opened up for business on Wednesday with a fine line of goods. They have a large room in the Eagle block and everything is in the best of trim.

Mrs. Maggie Lergett, head nurse at the Bellefonte hospital, arrived home on Monday evening from a month's visit to Dennison, Ohio, where she had gone on account of the serious illness of her mother.

G. M. Hanna, of Lock Haven, has rented the room in Crider's Exchange now occupied by William McClure and will open up a meat market there about the 1st of March. Mr. McClure will move his harness shop into the room formerly occupied by W. H. Macker.

We are glad to say that the Glass Works proposition is coming along nicely and one of those interested assures us that it is a positive go. There were rumors to the effect that it had fallen through but we are authorized to say that it is not so.

A Women's Exchange is being formed for the purpose of selling needle work and handicraft. Its opening and first public sale will be held soon after Easter. Those desiring to contribute are requested to communicate with Mrs. Nora Sheldon or Mrs. J. Thomas Mitchell.

On Saturday, February 22nd, the Workmen's Bargain store will start an immense "Selling Out" sale. Their immense stock must be positively closed out and the store will be secured. Goods will positively be sold at cost. See their list in this issue.

Mrs. F. H. Montgomery and little daughter, of Jacksonville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Case, of Pleasant Gap, Pa. Mrs. Montgomery is a sister of Mrs. Casebeer and in company with the latter will leave for Somerset Saturday where they will visit relatives in their old home.

The White Rock quarries at Pleasant Gap are working at full time and increasing their output daily. Eighteen new men were put to work with in the last week and it is expected that as many more will be employed during the next ten days. A new steam shovel has been installed for hauling the rock.

William Tibbens, a brother of Henry Tibbens, who left this section thirty years ago made his first visit to his native county this week. He was born and raised in Marion township but is now a resident of Keokuk, Iowa.

There are very few men in Bellefonte who are better preserved than our good friend Dr. E. S. Dorworth, who is still hale and hearty and attends to his professional duties every day as usual. On Wednesday, February 19th he was 79 years old and there was a dinner at his home in honor of the happy occasion, at which the doctor is aiming to reach the century mark and we hope he may succeed.

On last Saturday evening, Mrs. Sarah Fulton gave a necktie shower at her home on Pine street in honor of her son, C. W. Patterson Fulton, it being his twenty-second birthday anniversary. There were a large number of guests present and all enjoyed themselves immensely. A splendid supper was served which included all the delicacies of the season. Harry received a large number of very handsome neckties besides other presents. It is the wish of his many friends that he may live to enjoy many more birthday anniversaries.

The board of directors and board of trustees of the Y. M. C. A. were feasted on roasts Thursday evening on Friday night last, the occasion being the annual banquet tendered the governing boards by the members. Mr. Chas. M. McCurdy was toastmaster of the evening and interesting responses were made by Mr. W. J. Campbell, asst. state sec'y; Robert R. Reed, of State College; Dr. G. E. Hawes and Dr. John Hewitt, of Bellefonte, and others. The event proved one of the most enjoyable in the history of the association.

This week Dr. Thos. Vantrien, while in Philadelphia purchased two volumes entitled "Watrous' Annals of Philadelphia" which he presented to the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. library. They are interesting books and are appreciated. This week an additional filing case was added to the "Watrous' Annals Reference Library," at the same place, which was needed to contain the numerous volumes that have been added in the past year. This library was selected by Miss Rebecca N. Rhoades and has proven a great convenience to the public. We understand that quite a number of new works will also be added to it this coming year.

Miss Helen Williams entertained a party of ladies at her parents' home on east Linn street last Friday evening.

Manager Brown of the Scenic has provided a splendid program for tonight. The principal feature is a beautifully colored, two reel, Pathe picture, entitled "The Way of Duty." Be sure and see it.

Superintendent F. H. Thomas and his right hand man, William Barlett, master mechanic at the Bellefonte Central shops, departed Wednesday afternoon for Pittsburgh to purchase some new machinery.

The Lyric Theatre an excellent program of pictures are being shown every night. None but the best is the motto at this theatre. Bailey's orchestra is an additional feature that proves a delight to the large audiences, who attend this pretty play house.

Morris & Shaffer's new store in the Eagle block is now open for business and they extend a general invitation to the public to come in and inspect their new selections. Remember that everything in the store is new and up to date, and at prices that will be attractive.

WILSON—William H. Wilson, an employe of the Juniata erecting shop, died at his home in Altoona Sunday night of heart trouble. He was born Sept. 3, 1858, in Philadelphia, and had been a member of the Methodist church for over twenty years. He leaves to survive his wife and four children.

CASEBEER—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Casebeer will sympathize with the loss of their infant son, Charles Dickens Casebeer, Jr., who died at their home on East Curtin street, Sunday evening at 7 o'clock aged five weeks. The body was placed temporarily in a receiving vault in the early afternoon and will be taken to Somerset, Pa., for interment.

TAYLOR—News was received here last Thursday that Wilson R. Taylor died suddenly of heart disease at his home in New York City. He is survived by a widow, who was Miss Julia Powers, daughter of the late Mrs. Susan Powers of this place. His death, following so closely upon that of Mrs. Taylor's mother about seven weeks ago, is an extremely sad blow to his widow and friends. Interment Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y., Sunday at 4 p. m.

MRS. ASH—Mrs. Elizabeth Lucas, wife of Miles Lucas, died at her home at Fairview in Boggs township, Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock, as the result of a stroke of paralysis. Her maiden name was Elizabeth DeHaas and she was the daughter of the late John DeHaas, who was born in Curtin township about fifty years ago. She was married to Miles Lucas, who survives her with one daughter, Amelia, wife of Charles Chapman, of Curtin. The funeral will take place this Thursday at 10 o'clock. Interment in the Fairview cemetery.

MULBARGER—Mrs. Emma S. Mulbarger, wife of John Mulbarger, died Monday morning at 6 o'clock at the Bellefonte hospital after a short illness from pneumonia. She resided at her home on East Nittany street. The deceased whose maiden name was Miss Emma Shawver, was born in Snyder county in 1866, and was in her 47th year. She is survived by her husband, John Mulbarger, and following children, John, Samuel, Orris, Irvin, Annie, Cora and Sarah. The funeral will take place this Thursday morning at 9:30 a. m. from the house, Rev. Stimer, the Free-Methodist pastor at the Forge, will officiate. Interment will be made at Shiloh cemetery.

HARMAN—Mrs. Sarah Harman, a former resident of Centre county, died at her home in Portsmouth, Ohio, Friday morning, February 14, after a brief illness from heart disease. She was born in Pleasant Gap, Centre County, Pa., and her maiden name was Sarah C. Noll. She had passed the 31st milestone in life's journey and was a highly respected christian lady. She is survived by her husband, John Harman, and following children, John, Samuel, George, William, and Mary. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon. Interment at Portsmouth.

PACKER—John Packer, a citizen of Boggs township, residing at Pleasant Valley, passed away at his home in that place, Monday evening, February 17th, at 5 o'clock. He had been ill for several days with pneumonia. The cause of death was the bursting of a blood vessel. Deceased was born at Marsh Creek, Centre County, Pa., and was forty-three years of age. He was the son of Edward and Amelia Packer. He was married to Mrs. Carrie Miller, of Curtin township, who survives him with the following children: Henry, Mary, Edward, Rosie, Thomas and Vera, all at home. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Ira, of Yarnell, Cleveland, of Orviston; Mrs. Fannie Gilbert and Bessie, of Pleasant Valley. The funeral will take place today (Thursday) at 10 a. m. from Fairview church. Rev. Barck, of this place, will officiate. Interment in the Fairview cemetery.

SANDS—John Henry Sands, for many years a leading business man of this community and one of its oldest citizens, passed away at his home on North Allegheny street, Saturday morning at 1:30 o'clock. His death was due to the infirmities of old age. The deceased was born in Rosentia, Baden, Germany, March 13, 1825, making his age 87 years, 11 months and 1 day. When a young man he came to New York where he worked at his trade as a baker. While in that city he returned to Germany several times, and on one of his trips was united in marriage with Miss Frederika Von Seber Schlinker, of Wurtemberg, and brought her to this country. In 1868 he came to Bellefonte and engaged in the baking business in the building now occupied by Joseph Ceader. He has very successful at this business and became very well-to-do. He was also interested with Adolph Post and A. G. Curtin, Jr., in the Glass Works and Nail Works. About thirty years ago he sold his bakery and retired to private life. He was the oldest Mason in Centre county, being a member of Bellefonte Lodge No. 268 F. & A. M. and also Constans Commandery K. T. He was also a member of the Lutheran church of this place. His wife preceded him to the grave January 5th 1894, but he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Louisa Lane, wife of John N. Lane, of East Linn street, and the following grandchildren: Jas. B. Lane, Lebanon, Ohio; John H. Lane,

Baltimore, Md. Mrs. Robert Fay, of Altoona, Fred and Elliot Lane of this place. The funeral took place on Monday at 2 p. m. from his residence, Rev. Walter H. Traub, of the Lutheran church, officiating. The funeral was in charge of the Masonic order. Interment in the Union cemetery.

HUNTER—On Saturday, February 15th, at 5:30 p. m. Steele Collins Hunter, one of Bellefonte's oldest citizens and a veteran of the civil war, died at his home on South Allegheny street. After an illness extending over a period of almost a year. Death was due to rheumatic gout with other complications incident to his advanced age. The deceased was born at Bolling Springs, Centre County, Pa., December 10, 1830, and was aged 82 years, 2 months and 5 days. He was the son of William and Margaret Steele Hunter. Early in life he learned the carpenter trade and became a successful builder and contractor. During the civil war he served in Company 3, 3rd Provisional Pennsylvania Volunteers. For many years he was a member of Gregg Post, No. 95, G. A. R., but of late was not affiliated with that organization in politics he was a staunch Republican and for ten years was Court Crier, during Judge Love's term on the bench. He was married twice, his first wife being Catherine A. Holt, of Boggs township, who died in 1867. His second wife was Miss Amanda Stitzer, to whom he was married, Dec. 9, 1869. Surviving him are his wife and the following children, Frank T., and Mrs. Mary Evans, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Laura Hathorn, of Corsetown; William D., of Oakland, California; Mrs. Margaret Hill, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Chas. C., of West Allis, Wisconsin; and Bertha, at home. He also leaves three brothers and three sisters, as follows: Frank and William, of Axemann; George T., of Elkhardt, Ind.; Mrs. Elizabeth Fish, of Lewistown; Mrs. Marjorie Mallory, of Milton; Mrs. Margaret Van Tilberg, of Elkhardt, Ind. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence on South Allegheny street, Rev. E. H. Youcum, pastor of the Methodist church, of which deceased was a member, officiating, assisted by Rev. C. C. Shuey. Interment in the Union cemetery.

Marriage Licenses. George E. Grenoble - Spring Mills Lizzie V. Bressler - Rebersburg Charles W. Wolf - Aaronburg Centre Co. Cummings - Woodward Roy H. Musser - Woodward Eva L. Feldler - Woodward Emmet G. Brooks - Centre Hall Mary L. Bloom - Centre Hall Richard Emerick - Lock Haven Laura Mann - Howard Harry N. Rocky - Zion Clara E. Curman - Zion Clement Shope - Runville Bessie O. Shirk - Runville Martin A. Stover - Coburn Beulah M. Stover - Coburn

PIANO CONTEST ACCOUNT. 1-254.239. 2-170.050. 3-119.225. 4-122.325. 5-106.255. 6-291.005. 7-310.230. 8-131.629. 9-300.203. 10-155.094. 11-307.975. 12-155.205. 13-209.187. 14-422.690. 15-138.018. 16-270.595. 17-339.518. 18-139.000. 19-206.900. 20-204.940. 21-222.611. 22-298.365. 23-161.030. 24-186.927. 25-119.0773. 26-119.915. 27-120.515. 28-128.195. 29-81.150. 30-176.025. 31-152.215. 32-302.901. 33-171.625. 34-152.906. 35-170.235. 36-172.715. 37-208.528. 38-28.305. 39-176.935. 40-192.257. 41-156.203. 42-125.020. 43-171.079. 44-122.280. 45-170.469. 46-141.705. 47-178.318. 48-192.515. 49-145.130. 50-201.735. 51-225.505. 52-187.215. 53-202.072. 54-176.935. 55-205.420. 56-200.817. 57-178.200. 58-186.125. 59-187.730. 60-174.426. 61-196.720. 62-258.150. 63-151.180. 64-190.765. 65-250.457. 66-190.410. 67-138.090. 68-206.265. 69-326.185. 70-187.900. 71-161.805. 72-183.094. 73-209.115. 74-188.015. 75-249.550. 76-168.960. 77-177.900. 78-197.430. 79-175.225. 80-159.940. 81-176.405. 82-179.700. 83-151.835. 84-179.577. 85-197.916. 86-228.099. 87-175.600. 88-295.875. 89-170.505. 90-170.921. 91-203.885. 92-311.827. 93-203.455. 94-182.589. 95-194.687. 96-153.513. 97-178.520. 98-181.671. 99-149.560. 100-316.155. 101-163.015. 102-321.525. 103-152.105. 104-153.315. 105-158.000. 106-146.202. 107-150.125. 108-150.010. 109-159.543. 110-155.450. 111-103.025. 112-113.806. 113-123.210. 114-249.930. 115-119.821. 116-127.525. 117-140.425. 118-115.620. 119-105.000. 120-311.275. 121-356.565. 122-218.704. 123-388.157. 124-201.201. 125-153.130. 126-350.715. 127-62.889. 128-102.910. 129-132.905. 130-227.060. 131-141.725. 132-119.315. 133-86.325. 134-119.025. 135-291.095. 136-213.325. 137-156.007. 138-176.636. 139-172.622. 140-138.201. 141-161.120. 142-199.990. 143-151.005. 144-157.265. 145-159.543. 146-114.910. 147-229.468. 148-168.815. 149-165.791. 150-506.030.

Penny a Word Ad. Any subscriber can insert a want advertisement in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words; charges to others, 50 cents a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents. Two issues 40 cents; three issues 60 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

FOR RENT—House in Bellefonte. Inquire of E. J. Gillen. 407

FOUND—Bunch of six keys in Bellefonte last August. Call at this office for same. 408

STORE—Good-paying store for sale in Bellefonte. Inquire at this office. 51

$400 to loan on first mortgage improved real estate. W. D. Zerby, Atty. Bellefonte. 17

FOR SALE—Sharps separator No. 3. will sell cheap. J. J. Vonada, Nittany R. F. D. 1

FOR SALE—An up-to-date cigar store; finest location in Bellefonte. Inquire at this office. 51

FOR RENT—Basement room in Lyric Theatre building. Inquire at Workmen's Bargain Store. 54

FOR SALE—Two Racine incubators, 22 egg capacity; $12 each, both $22. B. M. Stover, Bellefonte, Pa. 51

FOR SALE—Three seated platform spring wagon in splendid condition. Jacob Long, Mazonburg, Pa. 51

FOR SALE—White iron bed and springs, both good; will sell both for $4. Mrs. E. M. Woodring, Port Matilda. 51

FOR SALE OR RENT—8 roomed house on Aurora Hill, Call or address Haupt and Brown, Bellefonte, Pa. 19

FOR SALE—Model "T" Ford roadster; mechanically in good condition. Apply to W. I. Miller, Bellefonte. Bell phone. 54

FOR SALE—Fine black mare, 8 years old, works any where; will sell reasonable if taken soon. W. T. Colyer, 4 mile east of Old Port. 10

FOR SALE—Choice lot of fox-hound pups, bred from blood hound and buck hound stock. Call or address G. E. Haupt, Bellefonte. Bell phone. 51

WANTED—Second girl for restaurant kitchen; must be good pie baker. Wages $4 per week. Long's Restaurant, State College. Both phones. 11

FOR SALE—One hundred bushels apples; orders taken, shipments made in barrel lots. Inquiries answered. Commercial phone. J. E. Miles, Middletown, Pa. 11

FOR SALE—Pure bred white Leghorn baby chicks, $2 per hundred; eggs, $4 per hundred; after the 1st of February. Terms cash with order. John Heaman, Salsburg, Pa. 11

EG