Those on the sick list are: Della Spayd, Israel Rachau, Elias Wert, and Frank Grenoble

On Saturday evening there was an-other quiet wedding in our neighborhood. There are still a few more back. At this rate what will we do for single folks around here?

Most of our people filled their ice ouses for the summer. There was one more added to Madonburg last week. It's a girl. How about it Jessie?

Quite a number of our young folks attended the minstrel at Millheim on Saturday evening. R. E. Wert, while working on the Gen. Wert lumber yards last week, had a tie fall on his head which caus-ed him awful pain for a few days.

The party at S. C. Yearicks was well attended on Friday evening. Rev. D. C. Caris preached his farewell sermon at Bethesda on Sunday orenoon. Last week one evening the office of

Wm. Keller took fire and burned to the ground with all its contents. The cause of the fire is not known. Recently thieves have been making their rounds to barns. They had bet-

1306 Stafford Ave., Scranton, Pa .- "My boy took a breaking out first on his head and it spread all over his face and was even in his eyes. It started on his head like little blisters; they filled IL with water and then a * * scab came until it spread all on one side of his 3 face and head. It was on his neck and shoulder. He was crazy with itching and we could not sleep at night with him from scratching. I thought he would be blind in one eye. His eye lid was pulled down. I put rags on his hands to keep him from scratching. He would cry and kick all night. His hair came out gradually and his face was all disfigured.

"I put everything I heard tell of on him ild was no I would try Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

I washed him with warm water and Cuticura
