it—they will give you two hours of solid fun for a little money.

The Ladies' Temple of the K. G. E. conferred the degrees on five new members last Tuesday and afterward they served a fine lunch.

It is useless to say anything about the depth of the mud around C. P. Long's store, so long as our supervisors travel it in such a good natured way. Dr. Leib will move to Centre Hall in the spring; sorry to loose the doc-

A. N. Finkle, with his crew of men, is going over timber tracts of Wm. Allison, cutting such timber that is going back every year. C. H. Breon, who has been employed for the past two years in Allison Bros. grist mill, has resigned and gone to Altoona to look after a job.

The ice harvest was a fair crop and everyone got plenty except Meyer Bros. butchers; they built an ice house up along Sinking creek and hauled in the saw dust. Now they are waiting for high water to fill the fce house full of water then let it freeze. Bill said it would save a lot of work. Your head is level; go ahead, Bill. Fishermen observe the trespass
