Paul Keller came down from Altoona for a week-end visit with his parents, B. K. Keller's.
Helen Brooks entertained her friend, Mr. Boyle, of Altoona, over Sunday.
The popular play entitled, "The Daughter of the Desert," was rendered at Noll's Hall, Pleasant Gap, on Saturday night last, and proved a howling success. This famous play is now being staged throughout the west and is meeting with unprecedented success everywhere. The play was located in Arizona at the time of the Apache Indian raids in 1882. Six years previous Mr. Arlington, father of Ruth, had been mysteriously assassinated and her mother dying from grief a few weeks later. Ruth swears vengeance upon her father's murderer, of whose identity, however she is ignorant etc., etc. It is alleged that the play is one of the few that recite facts that really occurred and not the work of fiction.
Program Characters—Harold Morton, a railroad surveyor, Geo. Wise; Clarence Oden, an Arizona rancher, Fred Lose; Samuel Hopkins, a land speculator, J. L. Crust; Pedro Silvero, a Mexican renegade, Frank Milward; Jim Parker, a gambler on the square, W. D. Herman; Bill Jones, a sure fire sheriff, Lloyd Samsel; Ruth Arlington, a daughter of the desert, Ruth Kerstetter; Lucy Hopkins, her college chum, Mabel Keene; Mrs. Ogden, an Arizona widow, Mrs. J. T. Noll; White Bird, an Apache Indian girl, Mrs. J. L. Crust.
Cows boys, etc. Act I—Interior of Arlington ranch house. The accusation. Act II—Same as act I. The arrest. Act III—Hotel at Tombstone. The rescue. Act IV—Same as act 1 and 2. The recovering. Specialties between every act.
The play was rendered on Saturday evening last at Noll's Hall for the benefit of the Pleasant Gap Fire Co. The hall was packed to overflowing and the actors one and all acquitted themselves equal to professionals.
By request the same aggregation will repeat the play at Noll's Hall on Saturday evening next, March 1st. All are cordially invited to attend. While the play in point of rendition was superlatively grand, the Prof. Breen orchestra is alone worth the price of admission. Make no mistake; come and enjoy the hilarious festivities.

ZION.

Stovepipe Takes His Ears.
V. A. Burchard, a prominent churchman of Monessen, Pa., met with a peculiar accident which cost him the larger portion of both his ears. Burchard was down under a large stovepipe he had just put up, fixing a valve, when the pipe fell heavily, passing over his head, shaven his ears off as cleanly as a knife could have done it. Burchard's ears were replaced in their original position but it is doubtful whether the operation will be a success.

Anty Drudge Shows Mrs. Positive Her Mistake

Mrs. Positive—"There's no use talking, one person can only do a certain amount of work in a certain time, and I don't see how I'm going to get time to make the children's clothes. My work has piled up so I can't see any way out, what with housecleaning, blankets to wash and only one pair of hands to do it all."

Anty Drudge—"That used to be true about only doing a certain amount of work in a certain time, but it's not any more. If you will do your work with Fels-Naptha Soap, you will save time and strength and be able to make the children some pretty clothes, too."

Try Fels-Naptha Soap once and you'll never bother with other kinds. Doing unnecessary work is not wise. Many women think that they cannot do their washing unless they stand over a tub of hot water and rub up and down on a washboard, wearing out their clothes, hands and nerves.

A woman doing her own work should have any help that can be found for her, and a great help has been found and is being used by hundreds of women. These women do more in a few hours than others can do in half a day because they use Fels-Naptha Soap.

Fels-Naptha Soap dissolves the dirt that you would otherwise have to rub out on a washboard. And it does this in cool or lukewarm water.

Follow the directions on the Red and Green Wrapper.
