CURTIN.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lutz and two children, of Bald Eagle, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Barger over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlanda Bryan were visitors at the home of John Kelley's at Yarnell on Sunday.

Earl Meyers and sister, Miss Susie Intersection, visited at the home of D. E. Shultz on Sunday

A surprise party was held at the home of Orlanda Bryan on Friday ev-ening in honor of his daughter, Miss Hilda, it being her 15th birthday. Those present were the Misses Lillian Grassmyre, Rose Neff, Bertha Prince, Louisa and Stella Grassmyre, Barnhart, Adaline Gingher, Crossmyre, Charlie DeHaas, Isabell Crossmyre, Mary and Gilbert Neff. Wm. Sheats, of Howard, Will Neff, Victor Barnhart, Ralph Gingher, Clair Prince, William Crossmyre, Orn Hull and Paul Gingher. The evening was spent in play-ing games and social chats then all departed for their several homes wishing Miss Hilda many more happy returns of the day.

A jolly crowd of young folks went to Howard on Friday evening to the home of Mrs. White where they were most royally entertained. The evening was spent in playing games and dancing, and at a reasonable hour all departed for their homes having enjoyed themselves to their utmost, wishing there would be more such social gatherings.

Quite an excitement prevailed on Tuesday when Capt. Henry tried set his car load of wood up the D. H. & C. Then he attached the endless chain to the engine but the chain broke and the Capt. did tremble. Don't get your wood hauled in the wrong place the next time.

Samuel B. Leathers, of near Curtin, is still very ill. His many friends hope for him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Jennie Curtin, who has been visiting her son Latimere, for some time, returned to her home on Monday.

Rev. J. H. Fleckenstine departed for Lewistown on Monday evening where he will attend conference during the week.

STORMSTOWN.

There was quite an excitement last week when a mouse attacked a married woman and frightened her nearly to death. Her screams brought her husband to her aid, and after quite a battle, the husband succeeded in killing the little mouse. Some girls get scared at a rat, but we never heard of a woman getting scared at a measly little mouse

On Thursday evening a jolly crowd of young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lytle's to help celebrate Miss Hazel's birthday. The evening was spent in playing games and music which was furnished by Lytle and Miss Dora Harpster Mrs. and the rest took an active part in the good grub. singing, after which refreshments were Say, you served which consisted of ice cream, cake and candies of all sorts. #### LETTER FROM A KANSAS READER PANTHER RUN.

Holton, Kansas, Feb. 24, 1913. Editor Centre Democrat:-Thinking that a line from this part of the west would be of interest to your many readers, I will try and give you something of our city and county. Holton is the county seat of Jackson county, and is a city of four thousand, sit-uated eighty miles north west of Kanthe sas City, Mo., in the garden spot of Kansas. We own our electric light and water system and have sanitary sewerage, all owned by the city at a cost of $125,000 which is paying 10 per cent. net on the investment. We have fourteen churches. We have a and was on his way up Salt river. modern High School building of Said times were too hard here for twelve rooms and two public school him since they have changed the presbuildings of ten rooms each; also Campbell College, of the U. Jackson county is thirty miles square and has a population of 23,000. We have four railroads, three of which go through the county seat. Farming and stock

278 car loads of apples, 32 cars peaches, 14 cars strawperries, 5 cars cherries. We have the largest straw-berry plant fam in the United States, consisting of 245 aces, devoted to the exclusive sale of plants. There is situated in this county the great Pottonatomie Indian Reservation, eleven miles square, of as fine farming land as there is in Kansas. It has a popu-
