

OVER THE COUNTY.

C. C. Brunhart, of near Wells Store, had a $2,000 suit last week. The citizens of Centre Hall are agitating a movement to start a civic club. Miss Jeanette Irving, of West Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. H. D. Davis, at State College. Miss Jennie Rupp has moved from Aaronsburg to the home of her brother John, at State College. Mrs. Phoebe A. Brungart, of Rebersburg, on the 19th of February passed her 88th birthday. She is still hale and hearty at this advanced age. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harshberger, of Altoona, are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Smetzler, in Centre Hall. Mr. Harshberger is a railroad man. Luther Musser, of near Penn Hill, was operated on for appendicitis recently. The operation was successful and he is in a fair way to recovery. Charles E. Flink, who has been a resident of Joliet, Ill., for several years past, has returned to his old home at Centre Hall, where he will again reside. Dr. and Mrs. G. G. Pond, of State College, who are abroad, are now sojourning in Munich. The Ponds expect to sail for the United States early in August. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Horner have decided to move from Centre Hall to McKeesport. John H. Knorr will take Mr. Horner's place in the Centre Hall meat market. John K. Thompson, of Phillipsburg, for a number of years a traveling salesman for the Lauderbach-Barber company, has been promoted to manager of the company's branch house at Du Bois. Jacob Lee will move from Centre Hill to Spring Mills, having engaged with C. P. Long, as a handy man on the various jobs. Mr. Long will have on hand during the next twelve months. The Rural Telephone company operating in Ferguson township, elected the following officers recently: President, Milton Shuey; secretary, Newton N. Hartswick; treasurer, Adam Kramine. The house appropriations committee consisting of the members of the legislature visited State College last Friday and made an inspection of the college building and equipment and studied the needs of the institution. During last week, Mrs. John Strouse, of near State College, while descending a stairway, let a lamp fall, which on striking the floor exploded, and not only pretty seriously burned the lady, but came very nearly destroying her home. The verdict of the lower court was sustained by the superior court in the Brunhart-Butler suit. Farmer Shreff Brunhart, of Centre Hall, had sued a bond, and received favorable verdicts before two or three judges in the lower court. Elmer S. Phillips, formerly from Madisonburg, but until recently employed at the Millburg Bugby and Gear Works, at Millburg, departed Tuesday of last week for Seattle, Washington, where he has secured a responsible position. Last week Miss Lella Huyett, of Centre Hall, went to Philadelphia where she will remain for a week or more at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest N. Mace, 1104 Locust street, and will spend a few days visiting friends in Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Krappe, who for the past few years have lived with Prof. C. R. Neff above Old Fort, on Wednesday left for Bellevue, Ohio, where they will make their future home. Mr. Krappe is a carpenter by trade, and will give his time to that vocation. John H. Puff, treasurer of the Centre Hall school board, received from the state $200, the appropriation due on account of maintaining a High School in the borough. The regular appropriation, received some time ago, was $693, making the total aid from the state for the borough schools, $893. The State College Lodge, No. 1032, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will observe the anniversary of the organization of their lodge on Friday evening March 14th by holding a banquet in the assembly room of the M. E. church at that place. Great preparations are being made to make it a success. Although improved to some extent, Mrs. Isaac Smith, at Penns Cave, is very much an invalid. She became ill about Christmas time, and complications developed. One of the results of her sickness is total blindness, and this alone is a sore affliction especially for one who never suspected weakness of the eyes. Adam G. Bloom, of Lock Haven, has been in Centre county doing work as a deputy of the order of Patrons of Husbandry. A number of Granges have been visited by him, and at each place new members were secured. At Washington Grange, above State College, eighteen members were initiated, and at Centre Hall eight. Paul Musser, the crack pitcher of Millheim, who last year was on the payroll of Griffith's Washington club, left for Georgia last Monday where he will be in training until the opening of the American League next month. Musser has all the qualities required of a first class pitcher, and with a little more experience in the fast set will develop into a star. David Zimmerman, who has been engaged in a big tea and coffee business in Pittsburgh, brother of William, Shuman, Kline and John Zimmerman, of Hecla Park, has for the last month been a patient in the Mt. Alto sanitarium in Franklin county. Mr. Zimmerman, while his condition is not critical, has been suffering from an affected lung, and has been receiving treatment in the hope of regaining his health. Ex-County Commissioner Harry Zimmerman has leased the farm formerly occupied by John Neese on the penitentiary site, his son Roy, has leased the farm formerly occupied by William Lytle and together they have leased the farm formerly occupied by James Neese, which three farms they will on the tenant plan for the next year or so when the state will be in shape to take them in charge. They are all Reynolds farms and are in a high state of cultivation. Mrs. Lydia Musser, one of Millheim's oldest and highly respected aged ladies, on Wednesday, March 6, passed the 87th year of her age. Although having attained this old age, Mrs. Musser is cheerful and happy and is seldom ill. Aunt Lydia, as she is known, in every one of her friends, has a pleasing disposition and is warmly attached to her friends, who congratulate her, coupled with the wish that her remaining years may be as pleasant as her cheerful disposition. Fatally Injured by Dead Body. Charles C. Craft, of Frederickstown, Pa., died at a Pittsburgh hospital, Monday, the victim of a peculiar accident. Craft was standing on the platform at Sheridan station on the Panhandle Railroad Sunday night, waiting for a train for Pittsburgh. The St. Louis express, going west, struck an Italian track walker, killing him instantly. The Italian's body was hurled through the air with great force. It struck Craft in the stomach. He was taken into the hospital and died of internal injuries without regaining consciousness.

CURTIN. Those who spent Sunday at the home of Roland Bryan were, Mrs. Wm. Gates, of Mt. Eagle, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Leathers and son, of Mt. Eagle; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cartright, of Milesburg; Samuel Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. George Bryan, of near Curtin; Mr. and Mrs. Orianda Bryan. Mrs. Henrietta Kline, of Bellefonte, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Henry Shultz. Wm. Prince and daughter Bertha left on the 1:05 train Friday for Osceola Mills, being called there by the serious illness with pneumonia of Mr. Prince's son-in-law, Roy Hazzard. Henry Shultz is attending the United Evangelical conference at Lewisburg during the week. A jolly crowd betook themselves to the home of Arthur Bathurst at Mt. Eagle on Wednesday evening, where they were most royally entertained. It being Mr. Bathurst's 40th birthday, Refreshments were served, consisting of chicken and waffles, ice cream and cake. At a reasonable hour all departed for their homes wishing Mr. Bathurst many more happy returns of the day. Mrs. Elmer Bryan was called to Hays Run by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Reeder; we hope she may soon recover. Miss Kathryn Parker, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Jerre Glenn. Laird Curtin, wife and little daughter came to the Curtin residence on Monday where they will make their future home. Eckard has some notion of going to housekeeping as he was at a sale recently and bought a bed and some other articles; good luck to you. Mrs. Ray Lutz and little son, of Bellefonte, are week-end visitors of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bathurst. BOALSBURG. Miss Annie Lohr spent over Sunday at her home in Centre Hall. Miss Esther Brown left on Monday for Harrisburg where she expects to spend part of the summer. Mrs. L. E. Kidder and daughters Mary, and Mrs. Elizabeth Brown are spending this week in Altoona, attending Methodist conference at that place. William Stover, of Peru, is visiting this week with his son William and family. Miss Nannie Gingerich, of State College, spent over Sunday at her home here. The play in the Boal Hall, Saturday evening, was very well attended. Mrs. Bell will have her spring millinery opening Saturday, March 15th. Miss Mabel Meyers returned home last week after spending several months in Altoona. Remember the Special Sales Day on Wednesday and Thursday of next week. There will be bargains galore. SERIOUS HEART DISEASE SOON CURED By the Great Specialist, Dr. Franklin Miles, Who Will Send His New Book and a Complete Treatment Free. Sick people whose hearts are weak, deranged or diseased, who have short breath, palpitation, irregular heart-beat, pain in left side, shoulder or arm, or dropsy, should by all means send for the Doctor's new Book and Free Treatment. He cures many cases usually relieved in day or two. So remarkable are the results that he wishes every sick person to test this great treatment at his expense. His book will show that he is recommended by Professors, Physicians, Bishops, Statesmen, Bankers, Editors, Prominent Citizens and others. These treatments are the result of 25 years of extensive research and remarkable success in treating the various ailments of the heart, stomach, liver, kidneys and nerves, which so often complicate each case. So astonishing are the cures effected, in most cases, that he is led to make this very liberal and unusual offer. You may never have such an opportunity again. No death comes more suddenly than that from heart disease. Send for Remarkable Cures in Your State. Mr. Gilbert Hallie, Altamont, Ill., cured after several physicians failed. Mrs. Elvina Sonder, Decatur, Neb., after 10 failed. Charles E. Smith, Wayne, Mich., after 3 failed. Mr. P. W. Runyan, Spencer, Iowa, after 3 failed. Mrs. Lizzie Ewing, So. Charleston, O., after two pronounced her incurable. Mrs. Joan Norman, Heltonville, Indiana, after several failed. Mr. Ira Dexter, Friendship, N. Y., after 2 failed. Many have been cured after the most eminent physicians had failed. Send at once to Dr. Franklin Miles, Dept. B. 475 to 485 Main St., Elkhart, Indiana, for Book and Free Treatment before it is too late. BELLEFONTE LUMBER CO. BELLEFONTE, PA.

Aggregate Statement of the Tri-ennial Assessment of Centre Co., Pa., as made by the Assessors for 1913.

Table with columns: DISTRICTS, Houses and Lots, Seated Lands, Unseated Lands, Horses and Mules, Cows, Occupations, For State Tax, Dogs. Rows list various districts like Bellefonte Boro, Centre Hall Boro, etc., with corresponding values and counts.

In accordance with the Act of General Assembly, regulating the Triennial Assessments and constituting a Board of Revision, the County Commissioners of Centre County publish the above statements made by the Assessor for the several districts of Centre County for the year 1913 upon all property taxable by law. And further give notice that Friday, February 28th, and Saturday, March 1st, 1913, have been fixed upon which finally to determine whether any of the valuations of the Assessors have been made below a just rate; reserving, however, the right to perform the duties of a Board of Revision upon the same day, and at the same time and place, of holding the appeals for the several townships and boroughs, as provided by Act of 27th of April 1909, P. L. 244. The rate of millage for 1913 has been fixed at 7 mills, and includes millage to raise funds for the annual sinking fund, and interest on county bonds, and for outstanding notes and other current obligations of the county.
