KURTZ :-- Mrs. Louisa G. Kurtz, widow of the late John G. Kurtz, and a former resident of Bellefonte, died Saturday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John P. Hackenberg, in Milton, Pa. Mrs. Kurtz was born came the owner and publisher of the listed, entrusting the management of his affairs to his wife and she continued the management and editing of the paper for three years, until Mr. Kurtz came home, having been honorzealous supporter of Lincoln's govern ment. In 1868 Mr. Kurtz sold the Central Press and moved to Aaronsburg. From there, in 1874, they moved to Milton to start a printing office, but abandoned it after the Milton fire of 1880, which destroyed the plant. Mr Kurtz died soon after the removal of himself and wife to Washington, where himself and wife to Washington, where Mrs. Kurtz resided for ten years with her daughter, Miss Carrie, now Mrs. Wirt Webb, of Washington, D. C. Then sho returned to Milton and spent the remainder of her days with her daughter, Mrs. John P. Hackenberg. Mrs. Kurtz' death came after a grad-ual decline due to old age. The de-cline has been marked only the past four months, as previous to that time four months, as previous to that time she enjoyed very good health. She retained her faculties to the end. Dur-ing her life, Mrs. Kurtz has been an active worker in the Lutheran church. She was a woman of great amiability and an entertaining conversationalist. Added to her naturally brilliant mind was a cheerful and hopeful disposi tion that made life brighter and hap-pler for all those with whom she came pier for all those with whom she came in contact. Two daughters survive: Mrs. Wirt Webb, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. John P. Hackenberg, of Mil-ton. Two sisters, Mrs. J. R. Foster, widow of Major Foster, dec'd, and a former editor of this paper, of Buf-falo, N. Y.; and Mrs. Ellen Kurtz, of Mifflinburg; are living. Inter-ment in the family plot at Mifflinburg on Tuesday. (Many of our older read-ers will recall this family. Capt. John ers will recall this family. Capt. John G. Kurtz was a quartermaster of the 148th Regiment, and was a brother of the late Frederic Kurtz, a former ed-itor of the Centre Democrat, who died here last June. Capt. Kurtz erected the building on High street, Bellefonte, now occupied by the Centre Democrat, which was originally built by him for his family residence and newspaper office. In 1900, forty years later, this same property was purchased by his nephew, Chas. R. Kurtz, and is now being used for a similar purpose.)

17.00 STYLEPLUS S (The Same Price The World Over)

Are You The One In Ten?

If you are like 9 men out of 10---You buy your Clothes on appearance. But if you are the tenth man, the one in ten-4 important points decide the real character and value of your clothes. They are style, fit, fabric and workmanship. Lots of clothes when they are new, seem to have style, seem to fit, seem to be well made, but the clothes that "always look well and always wear well" have the 4 essentials in extra big measure.

STYLEPLUS CLOTHES represent this class. They have built in values as well as outside appearance.

We admit that for $20 to $25.00 you can find clothes in other stores that equal STYLEPLUS CLOTHES in style, fit, fabric and workmanship. But you can't match them for anything else. The clothes are a revelation. The makers have the largest clothing equipement in the country and for 64 years have specialized on men clothes at medium prices. They are the largest buyers of woolens in America. They operate their plant by scientific management. Economies in force throughout their organization, runs into big figures. These economy means that STYLEPLUS CLOTHES $17. are made out of all wool special patterns. They mean that every coat is hand tailored, button holes hand made, canvas and tape thoroughly water shrunk, and linings that actually resent wear. Finally they mean that you save $3. to $8.00. Try on a suit to day and see how well it makes you look. No other store in town can sell you STYL-PLUS. Come to day while the assortment is largest.
