HOWARD.

Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept.—St. Paul.

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will preach at Snow Shoe Intersection, at 7:30 in the evening of Saturday, the twenty-second; at Marion at half past ten, Sunday morning and at Curtin at seven o'clock Sunday evening.

Reformed—Pastor E. H. Zechman will conduct preparatory service at Jacksonville at half past two in the afternoon of Saturday, and in Howard at half past ten, Sunday evening. On Sunday he will preach and administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at Jacksonville at ten o'clock, and in Howard at seven o'clock.

Easter Sunday.

Easter was originally a festival in honor of "Eastre," a goddess of light and spring, and was celebrated in April whenever the month was called "Easter month" by the Anglo-Saxons. Since the dawn of the Christian religion it has been celebrated as an annual church festival commemorating the resurrection of Christ, and its observance is almost universal among church people. After many years of acrimonious discussion its date was fixed by the council of Nice, before whom Constantine brought the subject, in 325, by establishing a rule which makes Easter day to be always the first Sunday after the full moon which happens upon or next after March 21, and if the full moon happens on a Sunday, Easter day is the Sunday after. By this arrangement Easter may come as early as March 22, or as late as April 25. "It is a sacred festival, has been observed from the very beginning, and is celebrated in every part of the Christian world with great solemnity and devotion." Formerly, the celebration has had, and even yet has, taken many forms in many countries, and in many ages. At an early day Christians saluted each other with a kiss and the words, "Christ is risen," to which the response was made, "He is risen indeed," and it is said that this custom is still in vogue in the Greek church in Russia. In the northern countries of England the men parade the streets on Easter Sunday, and claim the privilege of lifting each woman they meet three times from the ground, receiving in payment a kiss; and upon the next day this order is reversed. In some parts of Ireland the legend was current that the sun dances in the sky on Easter Sunday morning; whence Sir John Suckling of the seventeenth century, when celebrating a wedding, wrote: Her feet beneath the petticoat, Like little mice stole in and out, As if they feared the light; But, O! she dances such a way! No sun upon an Easter day Is half so fine a sight.

Miss Mabel Rayhorn is the guest of her friend, Miss Emma Robb.

C. A. Morris spent Sunday with his particular friend at Mill Hill.

Edward Shope visited his daughter at State College Monday and Tuesday.

Charles Mayes, of Milton, was the Sunday guest of his brother, J. Will Mayes.

Milford Kunes, of Blanchard, was a Sunday guest of Miss Rosetta Cooke.

Miss Emma Grugan, of Lock Haven, is a guest at the home of Isaac R. Williams.

Archie Condo, who is profitably employed in Philadelphia, is resting for a few days at home.

W. C. Meyer, of State College, was a guest of the C. E. Yearick family Monday and Tuesday.

Frederic Leathers and Joshua Pheasant were among those who officially visited the Altoona conference.

Miss Gertrude Thomas, who is making good at Albright College at Myerstown, is at home for Easter vacation.

M. L. Beck was a week end visitor in what old Judge Anthony used to call "the Everlasting State of Williamsport."

John David Hall, a Howard township boy of years ago, now a business man in York, Pa., visited friends here last week.

Clarence Lucas, late of the Snow Shoe Times, is resting from his labors for a week or so with his brother C. C. Lucas.

Miss Lillian Gardner, of Mackeyville, and Mrs. William Gardner, of Renovo, were dinner guests of Mrs. Fannie D. Gardner, Monday.

Good substantial cross bars, arranged to carry four wires, have been placed upon the new poles set recently for lighting the town.

The body of an infant child of Charles H. Neff, of Custant, was brought here Sunday afternoon, on No. 55, for interment in the M. E. churchyard.

Charles M. Confer and his little daughter, Josephine, of Niagara, spent last week at their old home here. He reports a new little daughter, six weeks old.

Cameron B. Holter, of Columbus, O., is spending a few weeks at home to recuperate his health, somewhat impaired by close confinement to his work and studies.

Mrs. C. E. Yearick and Mrs. Robert Cooke represented her Howard friends in a surprise birthday party tendered Mrs. Albert Womelsdorf, of Marion township last Monday afternoon.

Prof. George P. Bible's lecture last Tuesday evening was a fine exposition of some of the best philosophies of life, and well worthy of a much larger audience than was in attendance.

A new and easily handled two-wheeled truck for baggage has been installed at the station by the railroad people, and the Express company has followed suit with a standard four-wheeler.

Methodist Episcopal—Pastor James Edwin Dunning will preach at Curtin at half past ten, at Kennedy at half past seven. At the latter place the sermon and the music will be special reference to the Easter celebration.

To avoid any possible danger at the crossing on the Walnut street road to Romola the railroad company has placed a watchman at that point. Of course this is but temporary, as when the handsome overhead bridge shall have been completed, this crossing will be closed.

Evangelistic services have been conducted in the Church of Christ during the past week, by Rev. J. W. Stigers, of Summerville, Jefferson county, Pa., assisted by Rev. Charles Swisher, who has been installed as the regular pastor. Mr. Swisher is a young man, and brings his bride with him, making a welcome addition to the citizenship of the borough.

Our long-time fashioner of ladies hats, Miss Mittie H. Lucas, has spent the winter in Eastern cities looking up new ideas, improved styles, and good bargains in millinery, and now has her new stock opened up ready for business at the old place. Miss Lucas's long experience and well known good taste qualify her for catering to the most particular requirements of her patrons and she invites early callers.

All his friends are pleased to learn that Rev. M. J. Snyder, who has acceptably preached at three appointments, Howard, Fairview and Jacksonville, for the past two years, has been returned for another year. By a change in the field Mr. Snyder's charge has been enlarged by the addition to the above named of three appointments, Snow Shoe Intersection, Curtin and Marion. This doubles the number of his preaching places, and adds so much to the distances to be traveled that he will be obliged to keep a horse hereafter, and preach three times each Sabbath.

FROM ILLINOIS.

Kaneville, March 1st.

Dear Editor: I thought your readers might be interested in knowing the contents of my brother's, Benjamin F. Gramley's will. He bequeathed his second wife, Helen, the use of his home and everything in it. At her death his house and lot shall be given to Ira Gramley's youngest son, Benjamin aged 4 years, who is named after his grandfather. The widow shall have one-third of the rent from the old homestead—150 acres—during her lifetime. At her death it shall be sold to the highest bidder. The farm is now occupied by Ammon Gramley formerly of Bellefonte. The farm south of Kaneville was sold to Irvin Gramley—160 acres at $150 an acre. To Charles Gramley was sold the farm known as the Tuller farm—160 acres at $150 an acre. His son, Ira, sold the farm he lives on—160 acres at $150 an acre. To Catherine Fuller, his daughter, he bequeathed his other house and lot in Kaneville, valued at $1200, and $8000 in money; and the balance is to be put in first mortgage or trust and she shall have the interest during her life time after her death it shall go to her children, Esther Smith, his daughter, shall have the home at Aurora, Ill., valued at $2200, and $7000 in money; the balance in trust of which she shall have the interest paid to her during her life time, every year, and at her death it comes back to B. F. Gramley's heirs. U. M. Gramley, of California, shall receive in cash $5000 and the balance in trust, of which he shall receive the interest during his life time and at his death it shall fall back to B. F. Gramley's heirs. The two last families have no children and he appointed his three sons as executors, Irvin, Charles and Ira Gramley, of Kaneville, Ill. they to sell at public sale 80 acres of land next fall. The farms are all rented for this coming year, 1913. This will go into effect January 1st, 1914, and all notes outstanding shall be collected and paid over by his executors to the heirs who did not get any farms. In the obituary notice of my brother, B. F. Gramley, in last week's issue, the names of two sisters were omitted. Mrs. Louise Small, of Smulton, and Chestie Wirt, of Rebersburg. JAMES J. GRAMLEY.

REPORT MOVINGS.

We ask all our correspondents throughout the county to try and favor us with a complete list of the "movings" in their respective localities. This is an important item of news that is read with interest wherever the Centre Democrat goes, and that is among former Centre constituents scattered in nearly every state of the Union.

In giving the names, kindly take a little pains to carefully write and spell each one, so that no errors occur. This list should appear in our next issue, and not later than the week following.

HUBLERSBURG.

The High School inspector and Supt. Eiters were to visit the High school last Thursday. They reported everything in fine condition.

Boyd Heckman loaded a carload of telephone poles one day the past week.

Miss Pauline Taylor, of Mackeyville, is visiting at the home of James Carner.

C. N. Decker, of Snydertown, was to Lock Haven on Saturday to see his sister, Mrs. John Devanny, who is there for treatment.

Loran Yocum, who is employed at Wadde, spent Sunday with his parents here.

The sale of Chas. Kling was largely attended and everything was sold at a fair price.

Rev. R. S. Daubert preached his farewell sermon in the Evangelical church on Sunday; he is going to Liverpool.

Albert Orr and family spent Sunday at the home of Harry Weaver.

Mrs. Cora Swartz and Mrs. Taylor Williams visited the former's sister on Thursday and Friday.

The baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the W. T. H. S. will be delivered in the Reformed church on March 30th, by Rev. Hoover, services to be conducted by Rev. Shultz.

Amos Wolford moved his household goods from Snydertown to Hublersburg, in the tenant house of John McCauley, the past week. Mr. Wolford expects to work for Boyd Carver this summer.

Quite a number of people attended the box social and oyster supper at Hecla on Saturday evening, and all report a fine time.

G. C. Pifer, who has been on the sick list, is now able to be at school again.

The K. D. & S. S. went on a straw ride to the home of Miss Grace Sigmond, at Salona, last Friday evening and everyone had a pleasant time.

Best For Skin Diseases.

Nearly every skin disease yields quickly and permanently to Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and nothing is better for burns or bruises. Soothes and heals. John Deye, of Gladwin, Mich., says, after suffering twelve years with skin ailment and spending $400 in doctors' bills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. It will help you. Only 25c. Recommended by C. M. Parrish, druggist, Bellefonte, Pa.—Adv. Mar.

UNIONVILLE.

A. T. Rowan slaughtered a Plymouth Rock hen that weighed 9 1/2 pounds, avoirdupois. Just how many quarts of "hen lard" they got, Andy didn't say.

On last Saturday evening, the 15th, inst., 42 friends and neighbors gathered at the home of George Bowman to give "up the pike," each armed with packages, baskets, etc., containing a variety of good things for the inner man. It was the 66th anniversary of Mr. Bowman's birthday. The guests say that they never attended a similar occasion at which their cup of joy was so completely filled. Everybody was happy and chin music was at its highest ebb. Mr. and Mrs. Bowman are very highly esteemed neighbors.

Mrs. Mame Fisher left for State College her future home, this Tuesday morning. She was a member of the M. E. church choir, and a teacher in the Sunday school, in both of which she will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Margaret Brugger and Dr. Wm. Peters visited at the home of Mrs. Chazy at Port Matilda, on Tuesday.

A grand entertainment by home talent is being rehearsed by the Modern Woodmen and Union Grange to be "plucked" in the evenings of April 4th and 5th. Particulars later.

It is rumored that Mrs. Cora Krepz will move back from Altoona into her old home in this place in the spring. Welcome home, Mrs. "Code."

Mrs. Julia Parsons, Mrs. Hannah Iddings, Mrs. Maggie Morrison, Mrs. Sallie Peters, Mrs. Jode Eckenroth and Miss Hattie Turner, all of Unionville, attended the M. E. conference at Altoona over Sunday. Good girls, all of them.

The carpenter shop of Albert Hartzel's has been fixed up for a dwelling house and will be occupied by Mr. Bud Irwin, about April 1st. He will follow the business of shoe mending and as he is a cripple, he earnestly solicits the patronage of the community at large. All work guaranteed.

Clean up the streets and alleys, put down good walks, trim down your shade trees, make free use of the paint brush, get out your lawn mower, set thine house in order." Remember, the external surroundings of the home reveals the character of its inmates.

The following friends and neighbors of Mr. Couster, who has lived on the township poor farm for a number of years, gave him a sort of farewell surprise party on last Saturday evening, to-wit: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Greenell, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller, Miss Alma Breon, Lester Breon, Miss Mabel Love, John Bruss and wife, Thos. McClincy and wife, Mrs. Jesse Hall and daughter, H. M. Miles and wife and Mrs. Budd Irwin. Mr. Couster will move to Bush Hollow about the first of April and the gathering together of his friends and neighbors to bid him farewell and wish him God speed in his new home, was strong evidence of the high esteem in which he was held by them. Of course, the usual amount of provender had been provided by the guests and, save the fact that Thos. McClincy and Howard Miles were obliged to take a dose of soothing syrup after the lunch, everything passed off most happily.

Here comes Fillmore, the lead pencil with another conundrum. He asks "what is nothing?" Now, Mr. Filley, if you will look into a French plate looking glass you will see it. (te! he! he! he!) Or maybe it's the hole in a doughnut after you eat the doughnut. You're easy.

D. Hall, with his two pretty daughters, became citizens of Unionville borough yesterday. He moved into his brother, Dan's, former handsome home which he purchased. They are twin brothers and now, there is only the street between them. Happy boys, they!

Maple syrup is on tap in this section of Uncle Sam's domain we must evaporate sugar water from ten gallons to one before it becomes syrup. Now, up at Charlotte, Michigan, where A. R. Alexander lives, all you have to do is to bore a hole into the sugar maple tree, insert a spigot and there you are! Draw out your syrup whenever you want it—just the right consistency. No boiling, no nothing.
