CURTIN.

Mrs. John Bryan and sister, Miss Estella Barger, are visiting their brother, John Barger and family, of Williamsport.

Mrs. Emma Bathurst is on the sick list; we hope she will soon recover. Mrs. Edward Funk visited her sister, Mrs. Harry Lutz, of Bald Eagle, part of last week.

Mrs. Austin Bathurst, of Mt. Eagle, was a welcome visitor at J. C. Barnhart's on Sunday. Edgar Neff, wife and children, of Milesburg, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Neff, on Sunday.

STORMSTOWN.

Prof. Patten, of State College, accompanied by five students of the Y. M. C. A., and D. W. Thomas, secretary of the State Y. M. C. A., after holding a series of meetings, which proved very beneficial, organized a bible class with J. F. Hick as president, and D. B. Strain, as secretary.

MOSHANNON.

Mrs. Lucy Watkins has returned home at Pleasant Gap, after spending three weeks with her brother, Wm. Holt, at this place. Edward Smoke made a flying trip to Philipsburg one day last week.

List of Movings.

Most of our correspondents this week favored us with a list of the movings in their respective localities. This is a valuable item of news, and is read by nearly all, as they are anxious to locate their friends in the coming year; and this is the way to get it.

BOALSBURG.

Samuel Kaup and two children, of Altoona, spent their Easter vacation at the former's parents, of this place. Bert Allen and family, of Centre Hill, spent Saturday in town.

John Jacobs and wife attended the wedding of Marion Burchfield and John Horner, at the home of the bride's mother, at Turkey Sink. Mrs. John Derner assisted her sister, Mrs. Wm. Johnson, of "State," in moving to her new home.

The party held at John Stammers, Tuesday evening, was well attended and all report having a fine time. Miss Elsie Rishel visited friends at State College for several days. Of course C. J. was happy.

Jesse Nevel and family, also A. A. Klinefelter and family, spent Sunday at the home of William Raymond. The "15th of January" will be played by the high school of this place in Boal Hall, Saturday evening; everybody welcome.

D. W. Meyers returned home last Thursday after spending a few months in the south with his son, Alvin. Mrs. J. P. Wagner and Mrs. Ira Howe, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of Daniel Meyers.

Herse Woome, of Wilkesbarre, and Mrs. Emma MacCaister, of Wilkesbarre, attended the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Hannah Woome, last Saturday at her home here. Services were held in the Lutheran church conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. J. Stonecypher.

Mrs. John Derner and son Paul and Miss Elsie Rishel spent a few days with friends in Pine Grove Mills, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Abner Murray and daughter, Miss Gussie, attended the funeral of Mrs. Murray's sister, Miss Emily Alexander, of Centre Hill, on Monday.

Mrs. Henry Hosterman entertained a few of her friends at her home on Saturday evening. The body of Mrs. John Coble, of Oak Hall, was brought here for burial Tuesday forenoon; services were held in the Reformed church, conducted by Rev. S. C. Stover.

Prof. Houtz and wife, of Selinsgrove, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Surtz's. Mrs. Margaret Lytle and daughter, Mary, spent last Friday at the Miller home.

Mrs. William Keller, of Axemann, is visiting at the Mothersbaugh home. Prof. Moyer will commence on the 7th, prox., a session of eight weeks of high school in our academy building for advanced scholars and those desirous of becoming teachers.

The studies include the higher branches of learning, and the general instructions are conducted on a plan almost equal to a college. From his well known abilities, no doubt, Mr. Moyer will secure a large class of students. A. E. Ziegler has moved with his family to State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Osman, of Harrisburg, spent Monday and Tuesday at his home. Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Wood, of Jersey Shore, formerly landlord at this place, came last Thursday to attend the K. G. E. banquet, and also to visit old friends.

Theodore Brown, of Milton, and Harry Brown, of Montgomery, were both home to attend the K. G. E. banquet. J. B. Krape, an employee at the Bellefonte hospital, came home last Thursday to attend the banquet, and visit his sister, Mrs. G. C. King.

RECENT DEATHS.

HOUSEMAN.—Florence Genevieve, daughter of Allison and Emma Houseman, died at the home of the parents in Altoona, last Wednesday morning of meningitis after an illness of two days. Deceased was born on May 2, 1910 and besides the parents is survived by one sister, Charlotte Pearl. Funeral services were conducted at the house at 7 o'clock Thursday evening and on Friday morning the remains were taken to Pine Hall, Centre county, for interment.

TIPTON.—Mrs. Rebecca J. Tipton, widow of the late Absolom T. Tipton, of Howard, Centre county, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Ryan, at Buffalo, N. Y., on Wednesday morning, of last week, after an illness of three weeks. The following children survive: George W. Tipton, of New Kensington; J. Howard Tipton, of Howard; Mrs. J. E. Ryan, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mrs. Edward McEntire, of Williamsport. The body was interred at Howard Friday afternoon, in the Tipton cemetery.

GEARHART.—Death claimed an aged citizen, of Philipsburg, last Friday, when at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry Washburn, at the St. James hotel, "Uncle Asbury" Gearhart, after a two years' struggle with kidney and heart trouble and other complications, passed into the realm of spirits. Francis Asbury Gearhart was born on the old Gearhart homestead in Decatur township, Clearfield county, about four miles from Philipsburg, June 4, 1838, and was there aged 74 years, 9 months and 17 days at the time of his death. His family consisted of thirteen children—six sons and seven daughters, only five of whom survive him, viz: Mrs. Harry Washburn and Mrs. Mary Gunnsallus, of Philipsburg; Alexander and Lloyd E., of Portage, and Herben C., of Morrisdale.

ROSS.—On Friday evening Mrs. Eliza J. Ross, of Tyrone, peacefully passed into the eternal world, after a few months of sickness with diseases incident to old age. Up until last August Mrs. Ross enjoyed the very best of health although she was nearing her eighty-ninth birthday. Her husband, George W. Ross, of Centre county, where they lived for nine years, after which they moved to the well known Ross farm, two miles east of Tyrone. Mr. Ross passed away in September, 1874. Interment was made on Tuesday morning.

Governor Fixes Arbor Days. Governor John K. Tener has issued a proclamation fixing April 11 and 25 as arbor days in Pennsylvania.

ANTY DRUDGE. Working Girl—"It takes half my money to get my waists laundered. I'd do them myself, but I can't get hot water in our boarding house." Anty Drudge—"Use Fels-Naptha Soap, dear, and you won't need hot water. You can do them in cold or lukewarm water, and you'll save that money."

A large part of every woman's life is spent in fighting dirt. Water is her chief ally. The other is Fels-Naptha Soap. Fels-Naptha makes dirt disappear. Fels-Naptha Soap is made especially for washing clothes in cool or lukewarm water. It does away with boiling and hard rubbing, steaming suds, and back-breaking work. Clothes washed with Fels-Naptha Soap are cleaner and fresher and last longer.

Be sure to follow directions on the Red and Green Wrapper. Fels & Co., Philadelphia.

Land Owners Organize. A large number of land owners of central Pennsylvania met in the Tyrone auditorium on Wednesday afternoon of last week and formed what will be known as "Central Pennsylvania Foresters Protective Association." The meeting was a very enthusiastic affair and was successfully planned by J. M. Hoffman who is devoting his time, money and talent in organizing associations of the above kind. After several very excellent addresses on forest fire protection the organization was formed and constitution and bylaws adopted.
