EDITORIAL.

Rapid progress is being made on the new tariff bill that will be presented to the next session of congress.

Assistant Secretary Wilson, who was continued over from the Taft administration, got a little gay the other day and resigned, because the President and Secretary Bryan had not consulted him.

Think of it, President Wilson has trouble in finding suitable persons to fill the important positions abroad. He can find the men who have the ability, but they are not in evidence thus far where they have the ability and are willing to put up, or can afford to put up, from $50,000 to even $70,000 for the privilege of filling an honorable position abroad to which there is a salary of only $17,500 attached.

All the occupants of the White House were vaccinated this week. This included President Wilson and family. Smallpox has broken out in several departments at Washington and extreme care is being taken to prevent its spread.

The Hon. James I. Blakeslee, of Lehigh, Pa., who is the present secretary of the Democratic Party of Pennsylvania, and who was recently appointed the 4th Assistant Postmaster General, recently announced that his promotion to public office in Washington will not interfere with him filling his regular duties each sabbath as superintendent of the Episcopal Sunday School at Lehigh, Pa., and has assured the scholars that he will be there as usual.

Down at Harrisburg they are having all kinds of fun at the expense of Governor Tener who tried to prevent the legislature from investigating the number of employees about the state capitol and what services they were rendering.

Starting Early. William Draper Lewis, Dean of the University of Pennsylvania Law School, is boomed as Progressive candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania in 1914.

Strong movement for furthering of Dean Lewis' candidacy is launched secretly by leaders in Progressive party throughout the State and is being quietly developed.

Dean Lewis, who was interviewed at Harrisburg, says its news to him, but admits his name has been mentioned in connection with the Governorship but without finality.

Taft Wants Picture of T. R. Former President Taft has missed one personal belonging which he left when he quit the White House—a picture of Theodore Roosevelt which hung on the east wall of his private office.

Last week a letter came to the White House offices requesting that the picture be taken down and sent to the New Haven hotel where Mr. Taft expects to live for several months after he takes up his duties as a Yale professor.

MERIT SYSTEM ONLY.

"I am going to take the Post Office Department out of politics, if I can find a way to do it," said Postmaster-General Burleson, recently.

Mr. Burleson declared that he would not be a party to any attempt to raid the Post Office Department in the interest of mere partisanship.

Taft put a lot of politicians in the classified list at the close of the campaign. That was political service—not civil service. Men who get in the employ of the government under civil service should originally start on their merit, not on their political service.

Pay For Work Not Done.

The committee that is looking into the fraud by which some employes of the legislature at Harrisburg draw big pay for which no work is done—a long established practice—struck a pay streak on Wednesday. For instance, two men who get six dollars a day each as custodians of the house wash-room testified that they give only superficial attention to their jobs.

Lewisburgers Fat Plums.

In handing out some of the nice fat plums that are at the disposal of Gov. Tener in his executive management of the state, he has shown no partiality in the preference to the natives of Union county.

Ex-Congressman Fecht, who was defeated last November, was last Thursday appointed a member of the State Water Supply commission, a body that is important in the control of all grants of charters in the commonwealth. The salary connected with the position is $3,000 per annum, and this will be a salve for the political wounds of an enforced retirement through the election of a Democrat in the person of Hon. F. L. Dershem.

Another native of Union county to land a dandy job is Charles D. Wolfe, ex-mayor of Williamsport, who was appointed assistant fire marshal of the state at a salary of $4,000 per year. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wolfe, of Lewisburg.

HUBLERSBURG.

Miss Lula Zerby, of Jersey Shore, spent Easter with her friend, Miss Nellie Rathmel.

Misses Rosalie and Estella McCornick, who are attending school at Susquehanna University, are spending their vacation with their parents.

Miss Grace McGinnis and Jacob Bergstresser, of Altoona, spent Easter at the home of E. L. Bergstresser.

Miss Seliger, of Youngstown, Ohio, is conducting a singing school at Hublersburg every Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Mary Condo, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Wm. Decker visited friends in Zion, Sunday.

F. W. Carner, who is employed by the P. E. R. Co., spent Easter with his family.

Lloyd Rogers and Arthur Fulton, of Bucknell University, spent Easter vacation with friends and relatives.

The baccalaureate services will be held on Sunday evening, March 30th, in the Reformed church. The commencement exercises will be held on April 2nd in the Old Church.

SCOTIA.

Those who spent Easter at this place were, Miss Hermie Cronemiller and brother Max, and Carl of Bellefonte, with their aunt, Miss Dora Ghaner.

John Lauffer visited over Sunday at Jersey Shore with his son, J. E. Lauffer, and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Young.

A play party: A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Ira Korman's, at Oak Hill, Thursday evening, March 20th, 1913.

UNIONVILLE.

On Thursday at quarter after 12 o'clock, John Bruss and George B. Stere broke ground out for the foundation of John B. Stere's new brick house which will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

Recently a Unionville woman sent her son a pumpkin pie by parcels post to Fort Collins, Colorado. The pie arrived in good shape and "Cornie" described it as having been extra fine.

The Rev. Victor L. Wagner and family spent several days at the home of Mrs. Wagner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stere. On Saturday evening he occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church and the unanimous verdict was that his sermon was fine.

The Rev. Mr. Carson held a series of meetings during the last three days of last week closing with communion services on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. The services were well attended.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Finch on Tuesday of last week, and on Tuesday morning of this week its young spirit was called home to the One who gave it. It was their first and only son, and the community sincerely sympathizes with the bereaved parents.

Leonard Watson, wife and little child, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Watson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Watson.

(Contributed)—There was a young man that I knew, who of late has become quite a beau, sir; and he drives an old horse that can go air, whose name he has just changed to Cio-cio.

Mrs. E. M. Griest, of Phillipsburg, spent Easter Sunday, and then some, at the home of her parents here.

Moving.—The following movings will take place here over I have learned: Mrs. Zach Holt has moved from the Shipley house to Tyrone; merchant N. M. Scott will move from the Cleaver house to the Shipley house; Wm. E. Hoover will move into the Cleaver house; Clair Bird, into the Elwood Fisher house; Miss Jennie Fisher will move into her own house; Mrs. Mamie Fisher has moved to State College; D. C. Hall into the former D. Hall property; William T. J. Eckert, the large house; S. K. Emerick off his farm into the Sade Emerick house; Mrs. Francis Ammerman will occupy part of the Emerick house; Jasper Holt has moved onto "Bunker Hill" in the T. E. Griest house; J. W. Bruns from the Dr. Russell property to his own new house on Tannery lot; O. L. Haneson to Centre Hall; Amanda Moran to a part of Harold Fisher house; F. M. Lamm will occupy his new home; Harry Biddle has gone to Tyrone, and Lewis Biddle has moved into part of George Forry's house.

The following happy-go-lucky people, so-wit: Mrs. John Hipple and daughter Hannah, John F. Holt, wife and daughter, Sarah, Mrs. Wm. Summers and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. James W. Holt, George Barton, wife and three children, E. P. Barton, Lawrence Barton, Mrs. J. St. Clair, Mrs. T. J. Eckert, Miss Mildred Williams, Miss Ruth Parsons, J. P. Brugger, wife and daughter, Margaret, Mr. George Hosband, son and daughter, Delilah, Mrs. Mary Holt, Mrs. J. W. Biddle and Miss Emma Robinson and Mrs. Mary Lansberry secretly conspired in their hearts to give Mrs. Andy Tate the surprise of her life. It happened on last Friday night. Mrs. Mollie Holt was the leading conspirator and whenever she shows her hand you may be sure it means success.

The Ladies' Aid society, of the Presbyterian church, will hold an "Exchange" on next Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. Cakes, pies, bread, etc., will be on sale. We would solicit for them the hearty patronage of the general public.

BLANCHARD.

In our churches next Sabbath—Christian—Sunday school at 9:30; social service at 10:30 and Christian Endeavor in the evening 6:30. S. J. McCracken V. D. M. Baptist—Sunday school at 10 a. m.; social service at 11 o'clock; Young People's Union at 6:30 p. m. S. Clark, minister.

George Miller and Blair Kunes, trustees of the N. C. R. R. at Avis, took supper at home Monday evening. They are making good as railroad men.

Samuel J. McCracken, pastor of the Christian church, returned last Saturday from a business trip to Canada. Owing to the ninety-mile blizzard which prevailed here last Friday noon a few small buildings were toppled over, but no great damage was done.

Mrs. Joseph Kunes, who had an operation performed at the Lock Haven hospital, returned a couple weeks ago and is getting along very nicely. She is seen walking around.

Rev. M. C. Prick, pastor of the Mill Hill Christian church, spent a few days last week at his daughter's home, this place.

Orlando Bowes, who was one of our town boys, a graduate of State College, and now following his profession in the agricultural business in the eastern part of the state, came to this place last Saturday to look after his farm.

George Eaton, who bought the Charles Johnston tract of timber, is moving his father's mill in the gap to cut the ties and etc.

Mrs. N. H. Johnston started for Iowa where she will spend the summer visiting her brother, Robert Gun-sallus.

Be sure to attend the opera house next Tuesday evening on the appearance of "The Slave Girl of New York."

20 YEARS.

At the tailor business, put me next to the art. Of knowing how to make old clothes look real smart. On Monday and Tuesday of each week I will make my rounds through the town on the hunt of duds that need soap suds. I will clean and repair all clothing with care, and return them to you with a price that is fair and square. G. W. CHAMBERS, THE TAILOR.

SPRING TERM ACADEMY.

Professor U. A. Moyer, Spring Mills, Pa., will commence a session of eight weeks of high school on the 7th inst. The session is especially for advanced scholars, and those desirous of becoming teachers, although others will be admitted. The curriculum embraces all the higher branches and the system adopted in the school is very thorough and is on a plane similar to a college. Mr. Moyer is well known for his erudition and high ability as an instructor and his remarkable success in training and instructing students so thoroughly, that when they graduate it is with high honors. From present indications the professor will have a large class of pupils.—Adv.
