BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Mrs. Sarah Fulton and son, Harry, spent Easter with friends in Juniata. Miss Grace Lyon attended a dance at Mt. Carmel on Tuesday evening of this week. Miss Rebecca Rhoads was a passenger west on Tuesday to visit her brother, Joseph, in Altoona. "A Slave Girl of New York" at the opera house Tuesday evening. Startling exposures of the underworld. James Barret left on Saturday for Michigan to become a resident of Detroit if he finds suitable employment. Billy Swope was out of town over Sunday, as he says "to spend Easter with his parents at Petersburg, Huntingdon county." Mrs. E. P. Moore and daughter, Katherine, who have been spending the winter in Bellefonte with friends, returned last week to their home in Tyrone. J. T. Zeigler, janitor at the court house, changed his place of residence from Pleasant Gap to Bellefonte today. He will occupy a house on east Bishop street. Stewart Rockey, who is employed at Altoona, was in Bellefonte on Friday. He is a son of J. B. Rockey, of Fillmore, and was on a visit to his parental home. Coming, Saturday evening, March 29th, fifty college boys in musical comedy, "The Yankee Brigands." Up-to-date music. Prices 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents and $1. James Krape, of the hospital employ, with his lady friend attended a banquet given by the Knights of the Golden Eagle at Spring Mills last Thursday evening. Dr. Ezra Youcum departed on Monday for Northumberland where he joined Mrs. Youcum, who has been visiting among friends. He expects to return home on Friday. Merchant Joe Katz, of Lewisport, spent part of the week in Bellefonte. He reports the industries about Lewisport running in full blast and business generally good. Sheriff Lee was a passenger on Wednesday afternoon's train for Philadelphia and back. He is on his way to Philadelphia to attend to some business. C. D. Young, head clerk in Secher & Co's grocery, has moved his family and household goods from Thomas street to the house recently vacated by Harry Weaver on Howard street. Mrs. Wilbur W. Waite and two children, of Stormstown, were the guests over Sunday of her sister-in-law, Miss Ella Waite, and brother Darluis, at their home on Thomas street. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Otto and family, of Johnstown, were over Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Otto's mother, Mrs. Henrietta Nolan, on Thomas street. They returned to their home in Johnstown on Monday. Charles Roth and grandson, Leroy, departed Saturday for Williamsport, the former to spend Easter with friends and make arrangements for the accommodation of Leroy, who wishes to remain in the Lumber City and grow up with its prosperity. Floyd M. Shook, son of Mrs. Sarah Shook, of this place, left on Saturday for Dayton, Oregon, to become general manager of an undertaking establishment. The young man is a graduate of an embalming and undertaking school, and by careful study has thoroughly prepared himself for a responsible and lucrative position. Harry Fravel, of Philipsburg, was in Bellefonte on Friday on his way to State College where he spent the night and part of Saturday, returning home in the afternoon. Mr. Fravel is a contractor by occupation and his mission is to make arrangements for the accommodation of Leroy, who wishes to remain in the Lumber City and grow up with its prosperity. Mrs. George Keller and children, Oscar, George, Jr., Mary, Joseph, Hazel and Mildred, departed on Saturday for Detroit, Mich., where they will make their future home. Mr. Keller has been employed at good wages in the latter place for some time past, and is convinced that it is a good place to live. Recorder Francis Speer received word last week of the death of his nephew, Irvin Speer, which occurred at his home in St. Louis, Mo., on Thursday from spinal meningitis. The young man was aged 14 years and is a son of Irvin C. Speer. His illness was of short duration, as only two weeks previous his uncle, Francis Speer, had a lengthy letter from him. Last week, as we were going to press with the paper, a form dropped and a large part of the local page was "blotted" or "messed." It took some time to gather together the pieces, and some articles had to be omitted from that issue for want of time to fix it up. The greater portion of the advertisements in the "Want Column" suffered on that account, and had to be omitted. Rev. Traub, a young theological student who will shortly graduate from a Lutheran college, was on Sunday favorably voted upon by the Lutheran congregation at State College to succeed Rev. Sassafras as their pastor. Mr. Traub has not as yet accepted the call but it is understood he will do so. He is very well known in Bellefonte, having occupied the pulpit in the local church on a number of occasions, and it would be a pleasure to his admirers to have him choose his first charge in Centre county. The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Club will be held on Monday evening, March 31st, at 7 o'clock. The conspicuous feature of this meeting will be Dr. John Hewitt's address, "The Future of Woman." Dr. Hewitt needs no introduction to the public, and the fact of his accepting this subject, goes without saying that he will handle it in his masterful manner. Men and women are urged to be present and to take part in the discussion of this up-to-date subject. The address begins at 8 o'clock. Chas. W. Weaver, formerly of Linden Hall, has abandoned rural life with its incessant farm duties to become a citizen of Lock Haven. Mr. Weaver was in Bellefonte on Tuesday on his way to the latter city where he expects henceforth to make his home. He recently made sale of all his farm stock which included the best to be found on a well conducted farm. Mr. Weaver has a number of sturdy sons who will find no difficulty in securing employment. The farm recently vacated at Linden Hall will be tenanted by Daniel Klingner.

Joseph & Co's Millinery opening will take place on Thursday and Friday of this week. The famous orchestra at the opera house Tuesday evening, April 1st. A play with a wholesome moral lesson. Joseph & Co. announce Thursday and Friday, March 27th and 28th, as their opening days for displaying pattern hats a millinery novelties. The china hall on High street, for many years conducted by Henry Linn, was this week purchased by M. I. Gardner, who will at once take charge. Mrs. Harry Haag and daughter Sarah, departed Monday for Johnstown to be present at the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mabel, to Mr. Nelson Doolinger. A number of our boys who are students enrolled at State College, are spending their Easter vacation at their parents' homes in Bellefonte. Some of them are also away on trips in connection with their studies. The ladies of the United Brethren church will conduct a sale of bread, pies, cakes, rolls, candy and ice cream, in the room adjoining the church, on Friday afternoon and evening. The ladies respectfully invite your patronage. W. C. Raymond, of Linden Hall, while in Bellefonte informed us that his recent public sale was a top notcher, some of his horses selling for $283, $275, etc. There appears to be a steady demand for good horses with prices a secondary matter. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Donachy left yesterday for Altoona on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Frank Derstine. Mr. Donachy will return home at the end of the week, while Mrs. Donachy will continue her visit and later go to West Virginia to see her daughter, Mrs. G. C. Tuten. The Ladies' Aid society of the Lutheran church will hold a fair in the W. C. T. U. rooms, Petrikon Hall, all day Saturday, March 29th. Home-made pies, cakes and bread, as well as a nice assortment of aprons will be made. The patronage of the public is solicited. "Mother," a beautiful drama acted by the Pathe company, is a two-reel feature at the scenic tonight. Tomorrow night Mr. Brown will have another excellent two-reel play entitled "The Millionaire," by the Lubin company. In addition to these there will be several other reels shown. Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Kepler, of Pine Grove Mills, were in town on Saturday on their way to Washington, D. C., on a little outing of a few weeks. Mr. Kepler hopes to meet and congratulate the new president while at the National capitol. The boys who were injured in the auto accident last week are reported to be improving nicely and thus far no serious complications have arisen with any of them. Some of them are able to be about, though not fully recovered from all their injuries. See the large advertisement in another part of this issue for the Chalmers automobile, the car that is sold by the Geo. Beezer garage. They have already made several deliveries in this section of the 1913 models and they are giving the best of satisfaction. From many sources, we learn that a great number of our town patrons of the drama are already arranging to attend the performance of Charles Klein's great play, "The Third Degree," when presented in Bellefonte, Monday evening, April 14th. J. Mac Hentley, who has been in the employ of the Bellefonte Electric Company as one of their most competent electricians, recently resigned his position and this week left for Altoona to take up a similar line of work for the Penna. Railroad Company. Dean Holmes, of State College, will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, morning and evening, next Sunday, March 30th. Dr. Hawes, the pastor, is at Pontiac, Mich., attending in a series of meetings in the First Presbyterian church of that city. He will be absent for ten days. Prof. Angel, the Williamsport eye specialist, at one time a periodical visitor to Bellefonte, was in town for a few days this week. The Professor was forced to abandon his trips some time ago because of lack of business, but concluded to do a little reconnoitering on his old hunting grounds. J. Frank Young, who had been a resident of State College ever since the closing down of the Bellefonte foundry, under the management of J. H. Lingie, has again come back to Bellefonte to live and has moved his family to the Gillen property on Logan street. He is employed at the factory of shoe-making by the new foundry firm. There truly is a rare attraction at the T. Gerberich home on Washington street that is worth a visit to see. They have a large crocus plant that is in full bloom with over three hundred buds. It has been in bloom for over a week and many people have stopped to see the wonderful display. Mr. Gerberich invites all his friends to visit his home to enjoy the rare sight. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Yearick, of Altoona, were over Sunday guests at the home of Mr. Yearick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Yearick at this station with the Aaron family. Mr. Yearick holds a good position at Altoona where he has been located for some years and is engaged in the sales department. Their business extends into this and adjoining counties. For several nights last week Mr. Brandman, proprietor of the Lyric, had trouble with his picture machine getting out of order. He was compelled to forego a whole evening's entertainment last Wednesday, and he promptly came to the conclusion that he needed a new machine. This he ordered, and it is now installed, giving his patrons the highest satisfaction in perfectly flickerless moving pictures. There will be no further danger of having an evening's entertainment curtailed by machine troubles. On Friday, April 4th, Roland Miller, who resides near Coleville, will have public sale of all his farm stock and household goods and shortly after will move his family to Ford City, Pa., where he holds a good position as superintendent of one of the departments in the Pittsburgh Glass factory. Mr. Miller was employed for a long time by the same firm in overseeing the shipment of stone from Bellefonte to the factory, but lately they abandoned his part of the industry, and offered him a position at the factory which he accepted. Thus he could not properly oversee the farm work at this place, and he concluded to place it in other hands and move to Ford City. The greatly admired draft team of Mr. Miller's is advertised to be sold along with other stock, as will be found in our sale register.

State College Red Men Banquet. Friday evening proved a gala time for Hictoka Tribe No. 481, I. O. R. M. of State College, it being the occasion for their annual banquet. Plates were laid for sixty, and the spacious wigwam presented an animated scene. Short addresses were made by a number of speakers, among whom was Mrs. McCollough, of New Jersey, representing the Pocahontas lodge. Bellefonte was represented by J. Ellis Stine, a member of the tribe.

In early life she united with the Presbyterian church and has been an active worker in the same. She was a student of the bible, many portions of which she memorized, and carried out its precepts in her life—choosing to serve rather than be served, her interest in later life was that she could no longer minister to the comfort of others. Hospitable, generous almost to a fault, to know her was to love her. Next to her love of God she loved children, and few indeed of those who have grown up in Centre Hall during her long life there, but have cause to remember her loving kindness. She has gone but leaves the influence of a life so sweet, so pure, so true that it is an inspiration to
