HOWARD.

Whoever lets loose a sunbeam in this world starts a benediction among men. Whoever sets a little lamp where its beams may shine on a few feet of some one's path has done that which is worth while.

Presbyterian—Pastor W. F. Carson will preach at Jacksonville at eleven o'clock, and in Howard at three o'clock, sharp. As Mr. Carson is to preach to the graduating class at Port Matilda that evening, at 7:45 he must leave here on No. 55 at 4:17, and will begin the service here promptly.

Reformed—Pastor E. H. Zechman will conduct preparatory service at Salona at half past two in the afternoon of Saturday, March 29, and at Mt. Bethel at half past seven. On Sunday he will preach and administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at Mt. Bethel at ten o'clock, and at Salona at half past two.

Methodist Episcopal—Pastor James Edwin Dunning will preach at Beech Creek at half past ten, at Hunter's Run at half past two, and in Howard at half past seven.

Movings.

The following list of those who have changed places of residence at this present "spring moving time" may not be absolutely correct or complete. Any needed changes or additions will be noted next week:

Borough—Guy Swan goes from Jno. Lyon's house on Walnut St. to Le-moyne, Pa. Fred T. Burd, from George S. Williams house on Maple St. to Altoona. J. F. Condo, from Frank Butler's house on Walnut street to the new brick house, built by Mrs. D. W. Fletcher and which Condo purchased, on South Walnut.

Ward Schenck from the Thomas Mann house on South Walnut street, to the Abraham Weber property next door south of his post office. Walter Yearick, from the William Thompson house on Maple street to the Reformed parsonage, nearly opposite, on the same street. The new pastor of the Reformed church, Rev. E. H. Zechman, will make his home, for the present, with Mr. and Mrs. Yearick.

W. H. Sheets goes from the borough to the Fred Bowers' estate farm. Mrs. Augustus Johnson and family go from the house of Benjamin F. Holter estate to the Mrs. Dietz property vacated by Alonzo Henderson, who goes to the Frank Butler house vacated by J. F. Condo, and the Holter house will be occupied by John D. Lass, leaving the W. H. Thompson house on North Walnut street, which will be occupied by Mrs. W. R. Gardner, who comes in from her farm in the township, rented to W. C. Andrews, of Mackeyville. John E. Foreman leaves the old Reuben Fletcher house on Grove St., for the new house of Dr. H. O. McEntire. Jacob Ritzman will move to the brick house on Black street which he recently purchased from Edward Green, who will go into the James Leathers house adjoining the handle factory. Ambrose Thomas goes to the Irvin G. Lucas home and vacated by David E. Holter. Joseph R. Daughenbaugh came from the John Rouse house in the township to the George Long house in the borough. George H. Bulkley leaves the James Kane house, and goes to one of Balser Weber's houses near the rolling mill, and close to the new tower. John Lyon comes from the lumber camp in Liberty township, to his own home corner, Walnut and Mill streets, and James Eye from the same camp to the Thompson house vacated by Ambrose Thomas. Foster Gardner from house of Hayes Schenck to a farm near Salona.

Township—Frank Gettig comes from Nittany valley to the farm of John M. Robb. J. White leaves the Jackson Kline farm for one near Rooksburg, and George Wentzel, of Yarnell comes to take the Kline farm. George Dietz leaves the John Bower's place, and with Mrs. Dietz, will occupy the latter's farm back of town. Thomas Lucas leaves the Samuel C. Bower's farm, for a place in Nittany valley, and Wm. B. Smith takes the Bowers' place. William Dietz who has been tenant on the Robert Cooks farm, and Chester A. Neff, last year's tenant on the Furnace farm, now owned by G. Antis Confer, change places. J. R. Frazer goes from the J. Will Mays farm to Buffalo Run, and Lewis Dorman, of Nittany valley, comes to the Mays place.

Light Assured. Under the provisions of the resolutions passed by council at its last regular meeting, a contract, backed by an acceptable bond, for lighting the streets of our town was signed last Saturday. The contract was made with the Centre Electric Co., which will operate under a charter recently granted to Abraham Weber, H. A. Moore and Philip C. Howard. By the terms of the agreement this company is to furnish fifty lights of 250 candle power each, placed as the council or its street committee may direct, and to serve them from sunset to sunrise every day in the year for six hundred dollars per year; and the light is to be turned on within ninety days after the execution of the contract. As announced before, the poles are all set, and cross bars attached, and so far as this goes the equipment is unusually fine. The poles are very tall, straight and well set, and the crossbars, with their insulations, are much neater than any others in town. The water power is in first rate order, and much work has been done in the mill preliminary to installing the machinery. There is, therefore, every indication that the contract will be carried out to the letter, and that within three months our town will be better lighted than are most towns of our size and population.

Dead. Mrs. Tipton, relict of Absealom Tipton, both of whom were long-time residents of this vicinity, died last Wednesday, after a brief and painless illness at the residence of her son-in-law, Jeremiah E. Ryan, in Buffalo. Mrs. Tipton was born, Rebecca J. Garman, at Salona, in June 1836, and married Mr. Tipton, a member of one of the old families of this community. To their union five children were born, one of whom, Mrs. Hunter, preceded her mother to the beyond, and the others live to mourn her absence. They are, George W., of New Kensington, Westmoreland Co., Pa., Mary E. Ryan, of Buffalo, Francis McEntire, of Williamsport, and Howard, of Howard. Mr. Tipton is remembered by her friends as a woman of gentle manner, kindly disposition, much self-possession and large intelligence, and was a favorite with young and old. In early life she connected herself with the Methodist church, and lived the life and died the death of a consistent follower of the teachings of the Christian religion. The body was brought here at 12.45, Friday, and service was conducted in the Methodist church, by pastor James Edwin Dunning; interment being made in the M. E. churchyard.

Appointed.

Dr. P. R. Oldring, V. M. D., who has been practicing his profession here for some years, sought a larger field for his work and arranged to move to Jersey Shore, where he has already established a practice, and will go there on April 1st, the customary moving day. In the meantime he was appointed to the position of meat inspector at the abattoir at Pittsburgh. The Dr. finds his work at Jersey Shore so promising that he is undecided as to whether or not he will accept the appointment, which is, however, none the less complimentary to his skill and qualifications.

John Weber spent a portion of last week in Philadelphia.

Miss Rebecca Lucas was the Easter guest of her uncle Oscar, at Altoona.

Mrs. R. H. Neff, of Tyrone, was a visitor among her friends here last Thursday.

Mrs. John B. Holter looked after some business matters at Blanchard last Friday.

Mrs. Matthew Rogers, Jr., and Miss Rosetta Cooke shopped in Lock Haven, Friday.

Robert and Ward Confer, of Renovo, visited their friends here Friday and Saturday.

The Misses Josephine and Mae Dietz were week end guests of Miss Hilda Wagner.

Miss Hilda Johnson spent the week end with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Anderson in Altoona.

Mrs. Tobias Wetzel, of Lock Haven, is the guest of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Wetzel.

Mrs. Zelma Jordan and Miss Mollie Yearick enjoyed their Easter Sunday at Atlantic City.

Samuel Schenck, employed at the electric light works in Altoona, spent Easter Sunday at home.

Ray Allison has abandoned peddling medicines, and established himself in the business of draying.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Butler spent Easter Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Dean Bennet at Mill Hill.

Mr. J. A. Levy, of Philadelphia, took advantage of Easter holiday to visit his friend, Miss Helen Bennisson.

A car load of cattle, mostly cows, was shipped from here to Franklinville, N. Y., on Monday, by Solomon Hooper.

Mrs. H. A. Moore took her cousin, Miss Jane Ryman, to Williamsport Monday to have her eyes treated by Dr. Haaskin.

Prof. A. C. Lucas, principal of the high school in Houtzdale, was a last week visitor at the home of his brother, C. C. Lucas.

Mrs. L. C. Thompson, of Orriston, spent a portion of last week with her father and brothers, (there were five of them at home,) here.

Mrs. Henry M. Confer and daughter, Miss Annie, and Mrs. Claude Moore, were between train business visitors at the Clinton county seat, Friday.

Rev. M. Stigers, who has been conducting Evangelistic services in the Church of Christ, was called home last week by the serious illness of his mother.

Prof. Harry Robb, an instructor in the Huntingdon Reformatory, a one-time principal of our borough schools and a native of this community, spent the Easter Sunday among his friends here.

The brightness of Saturday last was made all the brighter for their friends by the presence on the streets of Scott Holter and P. J. Kelly, both of whom have been invalids for some months.

Former Register Earl Tuten and the Hon. A. A. Dale, of Bellefonte, looked over our town on Friday last, but departed without taking any of it excepting two of landlord Fitzpatrick's good dinners, with them.

The Howard letters that is off to Paul Wagner for the compliment of the biggest and finest fish in a string of twelve, all of which were big and fine, that he and his friend Irvin Fletcher took out of the net last Tuesday.

Principal Milford F. Fletcher of our high school has arranged to open a normal summer school, beginning April 14, and to continue eight weeks. He will have both academic and teacher's departments. Many applications are already in, but there is room for more.

Mrs. John Meese, of Bellefonte, spent last week with the family of her brother-in-law, Shuman Fletcher. On Saturday last she was joined by another sister-in-law, the widow of Capt. J. W. Meese, who was, some years ago, the assistant postmaster of the very important office in that city.

Following the Evangelistic services recently held in the Christian church here, two additions were made to the membership—Misses Josephine McEntire and Mary Zeigler. The ceremony of immersion was observed Sunday afternoon in the Bald Eagle Creek, just west of town, witnessed by a large number of interested people.

Among the young people who came home from school or work to enjoy Easter time were, Misses Josephine Muffy, Helen Weber, Gertrude Thomas, Lauretta Weber, two brought with her pretty Mae McMullen of the Lock Haven Normal; Walter Strunk, Roland Welsh, Archie Condo, and probably some others who have not been observed.

Mrs. O. E. McEntire, who has been suffering ill health for some months, was taken to the Williamsport hospital, Monday morning, by her husband, Dr. McEntire, assisted by their daughter, Miss Josephine and Miss Zeigler. It is earnestly hoped that the skilled physicians at the command of that fine institution may succeed in restoring the good woman to perfect health.

L. H. Neff has been using the spare hours of the winter in making for his own home five pieces of handsome furniture, after the "Mission" style. They are a centre table, settee, rocker and two straight arm chairs, and when completed he will have the very best set of his kind in town; handsomer than the factory-made mission style, and better made than any factory turns out of that or any other style.

Some of our small boys are in the habit of playing ball behind the Christian Chapel, and recently one of the fine stained glass windows was broken. The authorities of the church politely request that the parents of these boys find them some other and more suitable place for their games. It is hoped this kindly hint may be heeded without further notice, and that legal measures will not be made necessary.

Many of us well remember Orlando Boves, who as a young boy, son of Andrew Boves, was much in our neighborhood, and all are glad to hear that he is at the head of the department of agriculture, in the Columbia University, of New York city. Prof. Boves is an alumnus of the Pennsylvania State College and, therefore, abundantly qualified for this important place. He was calling among his old friends here last Saturday.

The great storm which swept over the country Friday forenoon did not leave Howard unscathed, though the violence with which it struck elsewhere was greatly diminished by the time it reached here. Several of our people were caught out in it, and some of them were roughly handled. Among them were Thomas Boves and Miss Carrie Butler. Miss Butler was passing over the farm road from her home, and caught the full force of it unbroken, and was buffeted and drenched to the point of exhaustion. Telephone and telegraph wires were broken and tangled in all directions, and business did not resume normal conditions until next day noon. Buildings and trees suffered more or less in all directions. The barn of Mrs. W. R. Gardner lost both of its large doors and a portion of its roof, and other and less damage was noted at many places.

The home of Irvin M. Lucas, in the ridges, with their daughter Beulah as hostess, was the scene of a merry party of our youngsters last Friday evening. Some twenty five of our boys and girls made up the group, and secured the team and services of Thomas Butler to take them out. Mud was plentiful, but that did not matter, and the enjoyment of the occasion was none the less because of it. Fun, frolic and feasting ruled the evening and the happy party, whose names follow, are yet enjoying the remembrance of it all: Genevieve, Lina, Helen and Hazel Fletcher, Hilda Wallizer, Ruth Kane, Mary Regal, Esther Gardner, Kline Wolf, George Holter, Gregg Wentzel, Curtis Solt, George Columbine, Willard Holter, Gilbert Neff, Albert Robb, Henry Confer, Harry Dorman, Percy Dorman, Arthur Wentzel, Ralph Mays, Arthur Strunk, and Cora Lucas, chaperone.

JUNIATA COLLEGE

The Spring Term of Juniata College will open Monday, March 31st. There will be regular classes in all departments, with special classes for teachers, preparing for provisional, professional and permanent certificates. Large faculty. Good equipment. Information given freely. Write for circulars.

Tommy's Right.—"And now," said the teacher, "we come to Germany, that important country governed by a Kaiser. Tommy Jones, what is a Kaiser?" "Please, ma'am, a Kaiser is a stream of hot water springing up an' disturbin' the earth."

I. Harvey Brumbaugh, PRESIDENT, HUNTINGDON, PA.

Guaranteed Relief from Lameness. If you had recommended the use of a remedy in several hundred instances, and had, in every one of those instances, guaranteed relief and satisfaction or money back; and if you had not been called upon to refund the money in a single instance, nor heard of one in which the remedy had not given absolute satisfaction—would you not have faith in that remedy?

Green's Pharmacy Co., THE REXALL STORE.

This is the record that has been made by Rexall Rubbing Oil. We have recommended its use to athletes in limbering up stiff muscles and joints—to others suffering from chapped hands—to others who had caught cold in the muscles or were suffering from muscular rheumatism, and to others for sprains and bruises. In each case we guaranteed Rexall Rubbing Oil to relieve, or money back. Not only did no one ever ask for a return of the money, but scores upon scores of grateful users thanked us for recommending Rexall Rubbing Oil to them. Undoubtedly this will be the case with you. No matter what the cause of your lameness, nor what has brought about the inflammation of the muscles, use Rexall Rubbing Oil. It will relieve you, or your money back. Prices, 25 and 50 cents. Sold in this community only at our store.

There was a very pleasant evening spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Dorman, on the evening of the 19th of March, which was a surprise party for S. Clair Dorman. Those present were as follows: Miss Liddle Long, Mildred Beck, Miriam Hoy, Helen Hoy, Sancta Showers, Anabel Showers, Naoma Gunsallus, Dorothy Gunsallus, Isabel Dorman, Dorothy Dorman, Mary Dorman, Susie McDowell, Eva McDowell, Emma Lee, Lenora Nolan, Miriam Beck, Dorothy Emerick, Edna Kessinger, Myrtle Kessinger, Lillie Diehl, S. Dorman, Mr. and Mrs. William Poorman, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dorman, all of Snyderdowntown and Nittany. The evening was spent in a most pleasantly by playing games—the most interesting game was the Quaker wedding. The evening was also spent by music from the phonograph and piano. At 8 o'clock guests were invited out to the table for refreshments, ice cream and cake. When all were at the table the children all repeated the Lord's Prayer, and after supper Mrs. William Poorman played the piano and sang a few selections for the children and then they all departed for their homes wishing Clair many more happy birthdays.
