BIG ELK HANGS HIMSELF.

Can't Resist Temptation to Butt a Hanging Chain. "Bad Bill" monarch of the elk herd by John Kazmaier at the Sylvan Hills country seat near Altoona, is no more. The big fellow's death came about in a strange way. He hanged himself, but his owner is inclined to think it was not a case of suicide, but rather due to "Bill's" propensity to charge something.

A heavy log chain was hanging from a tree in that part of the preserve maintained for the elk, and the end of the chain reached to within five feet of the ground. Some time during the night "Bill" plunged headlong into what proved to be his noose. His antlers, which he could have shed on the fifth of next month, became entangled in the chain, and in his desperate struggle to free himself from the snare he twisted upward until his hoofs were lifted clear of the ground. There he hung until next day, when the keeper found him. Blood and tackle were procured to lower his 1000 pounds to the ground.

With something of the old fire, "Bill" rose on his hind legs and sprang forward, ran 20 feet, wobbled and toppled.

About three months ago "Bill" "treed" his owner, on whom he had charged, and kept him on the anxious limb for several hours. The elk was finally driven off with clubs and guns.

TO GOVERN ALL ADVERTISING.

Governor Tener has signed the bill which prohibits the making of false statements or advertisements concerning merchandise or securities or services. The act affects all publications within the state. Some of the provisions of the bill are:

Any person, firm, corporation or association who, with intent to sell or in anywise dispose of merchandise, securities, services or anything offered by such person, firm, corporation or association, directly or indirectly, to the public for sale or distribution, or with intent to increase the consumption thereof, or to induce the public in any manner to enter into any obligation relating thereto, or to acquire title thereto or an interest therein, makes, publishes, disseminates, circulates, or places before the public or causes directly or indirectly to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public of this state, in newspaper or other publication, or in the form of a handbill, book, notice, poster, bill, circular, pamphlet, or letter, or in any other way an advertisement of any sort regarding merchandise, securities, service, or anything so offered to the public, which advertisement contains any assertion, representation, or statement of fact which is untrue, deceptive or misleading, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not to exceed $1,000 or imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding 60 days, or both.

"The Third Degree." Charles Klein's great play to be offered at Garman's opera house, April 14th, remains the triumphant public benefactor that it was recognized to be on its premier evening a year ago. The play not only entertains its hearers, but it instructs the larger portion of its patrons in a harmful police practice of great interest to the commonwealth.

The interested attitude of the majority of the audience toward "the third degree" scene tends to indicate how few really are familiar with the method of police inquiry laid bare by the author of the play, Adele Hughes has made a great individual hit in the part of Annie Jeffrey.

Following are arrivals at the Centennial house, during the past week: Mr. and Mrs. Blain Port, George Eberhart, Christ Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garbrick, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clevestine, Sr., Mrs. E. Robb, C. N. Fisher, Philip F. Perry, Gentzel, Conrad Lesh, of Altoona.

If you want to see your town grow, remember you are a part of it and that its growth depends as much on your neighbors. Don't get the idea that the future prosperity of this town rests with a few, for it is the business of the many. Above all, don't criticize those who are trying to uphold the community and do nothing yourself. They at least have the proper spirit and just as long as you deny them your support, just that much harder will their work be. Be a booster for the town, lend your cooperation to those who had the nerve to start first. It is never too early to start and it is never too late to begin.

50th ANNIVERSARY.

Approximately $1,000,000 will be expended by the various states of the Union and the federal government on account of the celebration next July of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg.

Forty thousand veterans of that great conflict are expected to attend the semi-centennial at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania will be joint host with the federal government to the veterans and wonderful preparations are under way for the occasion.

So that the state may provide for its share of the immense outlay required for the celebration a bill will be offered in the house providing for a large appropriation. The federal government has already appropriated $150,000 conditioned upon a like sum being provided by Pennsylvania.

The quartermaster and commissary department of the federal war department have estimated the cost of providing on a basis of 40,000 veterans. This would run to about $6.16¢ for each veteran, or a total of $246,492.97. This does not include transportation.

Fine Wheat Fields. Persons traveling in the country these days report the wheat fields in the most promising condition. The winter was an open one with little snow, but the weather was favorable most of the time and little damage was done in consequence. The continued rains the past few days had the effect of filling the ground with moisture for a long season which will prove beneficial. During the month of April there is some danger of severe weather that can do damage to the grain fields and the early fruit buds. Up to this time weather conditions have been favorable for both.

A Cinder in the Eye. Who hasn't had difficulty in dislodging a cinder from the eye? Sometimes one can succeed with a corner of a handkerchief, but frequently the cinder is imbedded so that it is not got out in that way. It would be hard to find a more sticky substance than chewing gum. The next time you see anyone with a cinder in his eye just chew a piece of gum till it becomes soft and pliant, twist it to a fine point and you will find as soon as you touch the cinder with it out the cinder will come.

The school in which the wise are educated never closes.
