market, and it is only under extraordinary circumstances that hay is shipped there, and the conditions seem to be when the extreme in prices prevail. Thirty dollar hay was shipped there and now nine dollar hay is finding a market there.

The continued annoyance in shipping occasioned by having different names for the postoffice and shipping address has induced many of the citizens of Spring Mills to petition the Post Office Department to change the postoffice name from "Spring Mills" to "Rising Springs," the latter being the name of the shipping point.

On one of the Pennsy lines in Montgomery county there is a "Spring Mills" railroad station, and this obliged the railroad company to change Spring Mills to Rising Springs. Many packages find their way to Spring Mills (Montgomery county) that should be sent to Rising Springs, and while the railroad company corrects these errors, there are frequent delays in doing so.

"The Winning Girl," Three Nights. The attraction with the above title, which comes to Garman's opera house for three nights, April 24, 25, 26, secured a hit at Lock Haven recently.

The Express says: "The Winning Girl" company took the town by storm at the Garden Theatre.

Winsome Daisy Mason in the title role is all that the advance advertising claims for her and she made a favorable impression on the opening night that is sure to increase during the balance of the week.

Her support throughout is superb, the role of hotel clerk, taken by Frank King, being exceptionally clever. The sketch is a rollicking, swinging, happy musical comedy with all the necessary love songs, novel drills and humorous stunts, yet withal, clean and wholesome, and simply calculated to effectually drive the blues away.

The girls' chorus is above the average in personal charms and shapely beauty, while the several changes of costume all had that air of being "just out of the bandbox." The base ball specialty toward the close of the sketch was one of the favorite features and the beautiful and brilliant electrical see-saw in motion as the curtain dropped left an excellent impression with the desire for "just a little of the same," that insures a return trip for many of the first night's patrons.

The "Winning Girl" and her bunch of winning beauties are in town.

Preparing for Memorable Meeting. Preparations are being rapidly concluded for what gives promise of being the greatest reunion of Civil War Veterans ever held in this country, and which is to be held on the historic field of Gettysburg, June 29 to July 6 inclusive.

Accommodations will be provided for 40,000 persons. It is announced that a tent capable of holding from 10,000 to 15,000 persons will be erected on the battle field and that therein will take place the exercises to be held culminating in a great peace jubilee on July 4, when the chief orator of the occasion will be President Woodrow Wilson.

Justice White to preside over the exercises. The camp will cover 250 acres and will be maintained only for veterans of the civil war. The cost of the anniversary celebration, the fiftieth since one of the greatest battles in the world's history was fought, will be borne by the federal government and the State of Pennsylvania. $300,000 having been appropriated for the occasion.

Founders' Day at Juniata College. April 17th is observed at Juniata College, Huntingdon, Pa., as Founders' Day, making the anniversary of the founding of the institution in 1862.

On April 17th of that year, Prof. J. M. Zuck first met with three students, and since that time the history of the college has been a record of continued growth in faculty, students and material equipment. A faculty of twenty-three professors and instructors, an annual enrollment of over four hundred students, and seven large buildings on College Hill, give evidence to the development of the college. There will be a large gathering of old students and other friends of education who will be welcome.

$1000 Check Under Each Plate. As six married children of H. S. Byerly, a retired business man of Sharon, turned over their dinner plates at his home Friday they each found a check for $1000, indorsed by him. The guests had assembled for a turkey dinner, and after the father had said grace he gave a signal for the feast to begin, whereupon the guests discovered their gifts. Byerly remarked that they would enjoy the money better while he was living than after his death.

Another big real estate deal was consummated recently at State College by which the W. L. Foster store building, residence and the house occupied by John M. Shope, was acquired by Perry Homer Gentzel, of Sunbury, but formerly of State College. The consideration was $27,000. It is located at the corner of Pugh and College Avenue and is considered an ideal business location. A deal was also closed recently for all the lots on Atherton street and Nittany avenue in the Foster addition up to the farm buildings.

Quite an extensive sale of farm land occurred at Centre Hall recently. With the view of extending their farming operations, Messrs. J. W. Mitterling and John C. Rossman purchased all of the land comprising the Arney homestead lying south of the Brush Valley Road, owned by Benjamin H. Arney. There were twenty-six acres in the tract, Mr. Mitterling taking sixteen acres, and Mr. Rossman the remainder. The price paid was $100 per acre. Mr. Arney retained all of the land north of the road and the splendid buildings on it.

A Philadelphia commission firm has a man in Penna Valley buying up hay, and a number of car loads have already been shipped from Centre Hall and Spring Mills. Timothy is preferred, but lower grades are also purchased. The price runs from $12.50 for the best timothy down to $9.00 for mixed lots. Very little hay from this section reaches the Philadelphia

Formaldehyde for Treating Grain. The treatment of smut in wheat, oats, barley and other grains with formaldehyde recommended by the Colorado Agricultural Experiment Station is as follows: Spread the seed grain on a piece of canvas on hard, level ground and sprinkle the grain with a solution of formaldehyde (1 pound) in 40 gallons of water. This solution is sufficient to treat 2500 pounds of grain. After sprinkling the grain is covered over with blankets or canvas for three or four hours. The covering is then removed and the grain spread out and allowed to dry until it may be taken in the hand without the kernels sticking together, when it should be sown.—The Pharmaceutical Era.

Why They Laughed.—Four little girls were dressed to represent the word Star at a school concert, and each had one letter of that word pinned onto her white dress. Each letter began the verse of a song. "Now, my dears," said the teacher, "form yourselves in position and wait until the curtain goes up." The little girls did as they were told and while the piano played the accompaniment the curtain went up. Instead of applause to greet the little girls there were shouts of laughter. They had formed in the wrong order, making the word star backward—rats.

A Surprise Party. A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hoy, of near Bellefonte, Friday evening, in honor of their daughter, Kathryn. The evening was spent in playing games and singing and about ten o'clock they were invited to the dining room where refreshments were served. Miss Kathryn was very much surprised and her friends departed in the wee hours of the morning wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Those present were: S. H. Hoy and family, Allen Hoy, Elizabeth Hartman, of Rockview; Margaret and Agnes Hartle, Hilda Saxton, of Spring Creek; Sarah Rishel, Uriah Stover, Loren Rae, Gilbert Lutz, Mark Williams, of Axeman; Meriam Hazel, Harold Hartwick and Harry Nighthart, of Bellefonte; also Ruth Benner, Minnie and Benner Shuey, of Axeman.

Anniversary of Titanic Disaster. Monday was the first anniversary of the Titanic disaster, when 1,503 persons, including some of the most famous men and women in America and abroad lost their lives in the icy waters of the Atlantic with the sinking of the gigantic White Star liner. Only 703 of the 2,206 souls on the Titanic were rescued. These were taken aboard the Cunard liner Carpathia, Captain Rostron commanding, and carried to New York.

Chalmers "Thirty-Six" gives the answer to both

--to the man who is thinking of buying a cheap car:

The difference between the Chalmers "Thirty-Six" and some other car you may be thinking of buying is probably about $300 or $400.

But the difference in value, we can honestly assure you, isn't less than $1000.

Nowadays it is not merely enough that an automobile run. You can take that much for granted with almost any car. What you should look for is permanent satisfaction, comfort, good looks, elegance of equipment. You want a car you can be proud of. You want a car that will be good 5 or 6 or 8 years from now.

The Chalmers "Thirty-Six" is such a car.

Built in the Chalmers shops, manufactured—not assembled—made of the best materials and under the most rigid inspection, the "Thirty-Six" offers all you can ask in a motor car. If you are going to spend your money at all for a motor car, isn't it wise economy to put $300 or $400 more to it and make your first investment really good?

--to the man who is thinking of buying a high priced car:

Just what more do you get in any high priced car than you get in the Chalmers "Thirty-Six," at $1950? Can you go any further in a day or a month? Can you go any faster, (except at great risk)?

Can you ride with any greater comfort? Can you get any more conveniences to make driving easy and pleasant?

We honestly believe that many people choose high priced cars simply because they are high priced.

We know of many who have paid more than they really needed to pay—simply because they didn't realize that a medium priced car like the "Thirty-Six" would give maximum service.

We know these same people are paying out monthly far more in up-keep than they would need to pay for such a car as the "Thirty-Six."

To all such we say, "See the "Thirty-Six"; ride in it; try it out thoroughly. It is a car you can be proud of—a car that will save you money—but not at the cost of satisfaction."

Won't you give us the opportunity of demonstrating the Chalmers "Thirty-Six"? Please phone or call.
