GEORGESVILLE, No. 1.

Ezra Harter, one of our up-to-date farmers, uses his manure spreader to haul his manure out into the fields upon heaps and then spreads it by hand. That is what I call modern farming. J. E. Zettle, Miss Helen Zettle, Mrs. R. E. Sweetwood and son and Harry Vonada Sundayed at Jeremiah Zettle's. Misses Pearl and Amy Heckman spent Sunday afternoon at Samuel Harter's. Now, you good looking spinsters, don't sigh, merry times are coming; J. W. E. has a new touring car. Toot! toot!

GEORGESVILLE, No. 3.

The rain of late has caused a delay in putting out spring crops. Frank Confer is a regular visitor at A. C. Confer's. The stave sawing at Finkle's Gap is about completed. James Evans received his new Ford car last week. Mrs. A. P. Heckman, who had a back set, and her daughter Amy, who had her arm fractured, are both getting along fine, under the care of Dr. Zettle, who is a young physician and just starting in business. J. E. Zettle expects to go in the goose raising business; he has leased a piece of land along Muddy creek where he expects to put up his coop and build a large pond. No. 1 scribe was helping his mother-in-law clean house last week; he is good at most anything, especially catching chickens.

CURTIN.

Henry Shultz and M. D. Garman spent Sunday in Flemington. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Culvert and children and the former's mother, Mrs. Culvert, spent Sunday at the home of Henry Shultz. Wm. Barger, who is employed at Altoona, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Barger. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Billet of Coleville, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Doughman, on Sunday. We hear of a wedding in the near future; boys get your bells ready and give them a good old fashioned serenade. Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin and children and Thomas Beaver, of Bellefonte were guests of Mrs. H. R. Curtin on Sunday. Harry Curtin was in Tyrone one day last week and visited his aunt, Mrs. Vanscoyoc. Mrs. Wm. Brooks spent over Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Blon Williams, of Curwensville. Quite a number of people attended the baptism in Milesburg on Sunday. Miss Beatrice Bieri, of Tyrone, was the guest of Miss Estella Barger over Sunday. Joseph Funk, of Bellefonte, visited his son, Edward, on Tuesday. Mrs. Barney McGovern and two sons, of Bellefonte, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Bathurst, on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Orlanda Bryan visited the former's sister, Mrs. T. G. Leathers, of Mt. Eagle, on Sunday. Miss Pearl Bryan visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harnhart. Mrs. T. G. Leathers and son, of Mt. Eagle, and Mrs. John Freeze, of Holts Hollow, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bryan, on Wednesday.

ZION.

The weather conditions are very favorable for farm work, cold, wet, and disagreeable. Fishing season opened Tuesday but the weather was not in prime condition and the catch was poor. Farmers are busy with their spring work; many of them expect to sow their oats and barley next week. Our supervisor with a crew of men is going over the roads taking off the loose stone, opening the water courses and putting them in good shape generally. John Eby got a car load of implements last week. Thomas Homan, who had been working in Trenton, New Jersey, for about a year, came home the other day. He had been somewhat indisposed and came home to recuperate. Wheat and grass are looking fine. Fruit trees will be covered with an abundance of blossoms and everything looks prosperous, even the new administration.

AXEMANN.

The grammar school closed on Monday. William Steele and wife and their two sons visited at the home of Austin Johnson at Stormstown last week. Mrs. Curtia White, of Juniata, visited over Sunday at W. S. White's. The many friends of Mrs. Walter Weaver, who has been quite ill, will be glad to hear she is getting better again. Mrs. Andrew Kuhn is still confined to her bed; her many friends wish her a speedy recovery. A. S. Johnson, wife and two children, of Stormstown, visited friends at this place over Sunday. Rev. Frum started a revival meeting at this place on Sunday night. There will be preaching every night this week. William Owens, who is employed at Harrisburg, is visiting his family this week. Rebuked.—The deacon's wife wanted to jot down the text, and leaning over to her scapegrace nephew she whispered: "Have you a card about you?" "You can't play in chapel," was the solemn reproving answer.

BOALSBURG.

John Stover, of Altoona, visited his parents, Wm. Stover, of this place, several days last week. Quite a number of our town folks were present at the party Monday evening, given at the home of Mrs. John Leech, of Shingletown, in honor of her birthday. All report it an evening well spent and wish her many more birthdays. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fogleman and son Roy, of Lemont, took supper Sunday evening, at the Amos Koch home. John Allen transacted business at Tyrone several days the past week. John Patterson left Monday to work for Willis Houtz, east of town. Roy Coxey, of Connellsville, is spending several days with his parents of this place. Of course Ruth is happy. Misses Helen and Anna Martz, of Shingletown, spent Thursday evening with friends in town. David Stuart, of Pittsburg, was the guest of his brother, Wm. Stuart, for a few days. George Houtz left for State where he will be employed this summer. Misses Myrtle and Sara and Harold Kilmelter are visiting friends at Colyer. L. E. Kidder and wife, Peter Ishler and wife and son George were Bellefonte shoppers a day the past week. Harry Koch, of Pine Grove, spent Thursday night with his parents of this place. Harvey Brownback, of Philadelphia, was looking after the interest of the Brick Motor Co., of which he is agent, spending a week with their salesman of our town. Elmer Houtz took some of our young men to Bellefonte Saturday evening in his automobile. Who says Fred is learning the butcher trade? How about it M? John Fisher, of Bellefonte, is visiting friends, also doing some trout fishing. Don't forget the sale Friday at the home of Mrs. Hannah Woerner, deceased's, home; also household goods will be sold. I love the sunshine, but oh, you rain. "Violet."

BLANCHARD.

In our churches next sabbath: Christian—Sunday School at 9:30 a. m., followed by preaching at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor in the evening at 8:30. Samuel J. McCracken, V. D. M. Baptist—Sunday School at 10 a. m., followed by preaching at 11 a. m. Y. P. U. at 6:30 followed by preaching at 7:30. S. S. Clark, minister. Our expert plasterer Irvin Scantlin, is plastering some new houses at Orviston which were erected by the Centre Brick and Clay Co., for the purpose of using them for dwellings. Gladys Welsh, of Romola, visited Mrs. McCracken last week. Mrs. E. Weber Thomas and mother, of Camden, N. J., spent a few days with her home folks of this place last week. They returned home on Tuesday. Mabel Page accepted a position as clerk with the Orviston Supply Co., at Orviston. After being sick for a week, D. M. Burlew, our famous shoe artist, is back to his duty again. James Wilson was taken sick Saturday. He is being attended by Dr. McDowell Tibbens. Albert Winslow on Monday began to remodel the chimneys of his house and will put an iron roof thereon. The Blanchard letter joins the community in wishing Reuben Heverly and his bride all the good fortunes and happiness that the future can provide. Charles Johnston is busy in getting the lumber in shape to ship to State College where he expects to build a house. Frank Hessinger is able to be about his duties again after being sick for over a month. Virgie Ridge accepted a job as pan tender for the Penna. Fire Brick Co. at which job he is one of the best.

She Was There.—A traveling man from Cleveland had just been married and with his little bride was spending the honeymoon at a summer resort. One evening as they entered the dining room as usual, the young husband saw an old customer seated nearby. "Say, dearest," he whispered, "There's Mr. Jones over there. You won't mind if I go over and dine with him, will you? Think how fine it will be to get back from my wedding trip with a smashing big order." The little bride agreed, rather ruefully. Her traveling man hurried over to Jones, shook hands with him, and ordered his dinner, which included roast lamb. Then he began to talk business. He was so in earnest about it that he didn't notice when the waiter removed his meat dishes and placed a dessert before him. Then suddenly he looked down at his plate and exclaimed: "Why, where's my lamb?" A little voice in the corner piped out: "Here I am, dear."

It isn't always philanthropy that prompts a man to be looking for the "good things" he can do.

To Defeat Winter Ills

START NOW Susceptibility to colds, sore throats, tonsillitis and such, indicate impoverished vitality—lack of reserve strength to weather changing seasons. A spoonful of SCOTT'S EMULSION after each meal starts healthy body-action like a small match kindles a great fire—and more: it makes rich, healthy, active blood—fortifies the tissues and stimulates the appetite—it makes sound body-strength. SCOTT'S EMULSION is the purest cod liver oil, made cream-like and palatable without alcohol or drug—the quintessence of purity. Reject imitations they are impostors for profit. SCOTT & BOWNE, Bloomfield, N. J. 12-58

When Run Down in physical condition it is usually because the action of the organs of digestion has become irregular or defective. Times Have Changed.—"I did not have a very nice time when I first went to Annabel's, little Madge announced on her return home. 'Annabel was cross as could be; she would not let me play with her doll or touch one of her playthings.' 'Well,' replied the mother, 'when I was your age, had I gone to see a little friend and she would not let me touch her playthings. I should have gone straight home.' 'But times have changed since you were a little girl, mother,' Madge replied after due reflection. 'I slapped her face and stayed.' Wanted It Quick.—A little Irishman in a state of great excitement and disapproval ran into the lobby of a hotel. "I want a room," he said to the clerk, "and I want it quick." "What room do you want?" inquired the clerk politely. "I want 37!" "But 37 is already occupied—Mulligan has that room." "I know he has," responded the little Irishman. "I'm Mulligan, and I just fell out of the window." Many a man who tries to emulate the busy bee merely succeeds in getting stung.

Designed and Patented in 1887 The Standard Ever Since CORTWRIGHT METAL SLATE Roofs put on twenty-six years ago are as good as new to-day, and have never needed repairs. What is the result? Why practically every other shingle manufacturer is trying to imitate it, so be not deceived—look for the words "Cortright Reg. U. S. Pat. Off." embossed on the corrugation. It is put there for your protection. Accept no substitute. For Sale by CORTWRIGHT METAL ROOFING COMPANY, PHILADELPHIA, PA. 50 North 23rd Street.

Racial pride.—Racial pride is a kind of patriotism that lasts as long as any sentiment. The story is told of a stranger in Milwaukee, who, seeing an Irishman at work in the street, asked him what was the population of the town. "Oh, about 40,000," was the reply. "Forty thousand! It must certainly have more than that," said the visitor. "Well," said the Irishman, "it would be about 275,000 if you were to count the Dutch."
