BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

THE LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN SHORT PARAGRAPHS

-The attendance at court was not large this week.

-Come to Bellefonte on Saturday morning to see the Wild West Show. -Frank P. Blair was a business visitor in Pittsburg during the past

-Miss Emily Valentine, of Balti-more, Md., is the guest of her aunt, Miss Emily Natt, of West Curtin

-Mrs. R. S. Brouse returned home on Saturday from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Fred Topelt, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

-Mr. and Mrs. Harris Cook, of Altoona, were over Sunday visitors at the home of his father, Charles F.

Cook, of North Spring street. -Miss Carrie Anderson departed on Friday for Pittsburg where she will visit her uncle, John George. She expects to spend the summer there.

-Mr. and Mrs. George James, of Tyrone, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. James' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClellen, of North Spring

-Martin Luther Smith, formerly of -Martin Luther Shiften, to business in Spring Mills, now in business in Mawr, Pa., is a pleasant guest at the Spring Mills, now in business in home of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnstown, was visiting friends in home of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker, of East Linn street. ter part of last week.

-Mrs. Henrietta Nolan, of South Thomas street, departed on Friday for Johnstown where she will spend on East Linn street the past week. several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Otto of that city.

-On Sunday the Garman brothers had a little family reunion at this tened up this week by fresh coats of to the best and cheapest service.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young

Robert and Al. S. Garman of Tyrone —Miss Edith Otto, of Johnstown, Altoona, were guests over Sunday were here for a short stay.

-Among the new autos in town the past week is the Hudson six-cylinder this pla which G. M. Gamble purchased at Friday.

Williamsport. It is modern in all its —Jam equipment and among the best.

-The Lyric Theatre will be open 12 noon to give persons who are town to see the show an opportunity to witness the moving pictures.

this place, but now located at Hols-Berlin this week. ople, Pa., was a Bellefonte visitor last week from Wednesday until Friday.

ter again in Lyon & Co's store this chine in commission again and week waiting on trade in his customary affable manner, convincing all friends. Mr. Condo conducts the car-riage shops at Penn Hall, and has ____Ellis Stine, who has been firin some intention of engaging in other business visit of several weeks with relatives and friends in Harrisburg, Gettysburg of the Professors in the Mechanical and other places through the Cumberland Valley

-Miss Anna Eckenroth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Eckenroth, is quite ill with pneumonia at her parents' home on East Howard his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lan-can procure street. It is the earnest hope of her dis, of east Curtin street. Mr. Landis the hospital.

who made her appearance at their Smith, home last Friday evening. The new who w naturally causing great ing court. joy and is heartily welcomed.

-Edward Beezer, who has been sucin Bellefonte among friends. arettes and cigarette paper to min-He had been to Snow Shoe in his car ors. The local authorities mean to and found the roads so good that he rigidly enforce this law. continued his journey to our town.

nicely and he will soon be able to return to his home.

-Calvin Smith, eldest son of Register J. Frank Smith, left Monday for Johnstown where on Tuesday he pitched a successful game for the Johnstown club of the City League. Today he joins the week end trip of western part of the state.

-M. Ward Fleming, Esq., of Philipsburg, accompanied by Mrs. Fleming and little son, John Montgomery arrived in town Sunday and will be the guests this week of Mr. Fleming's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming North Spring street. While here Mr. Fleming will attend court.

-A. A. Dale, Esq., has been selected as the Memorial Day speaker at Spring Mills this year. We can assure the people of that section of Penns Valley that a treat is in store A. Shoemker, L. A. Shaeff for them. Mr. Dale is an orator of unusual ability and we feel sure that will receive both pleasure and profit from his address.

the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy may be opened up at an early date. Johnston, of East Bishop street. Mrs. Hartsock, before her marriage was Miss Nora Loveland and she made her with her sister, Mrs. Johnston.

high school, is a remarkable student gates to West Susquehanna Classis, in more ways than one. Not only which convened Monday evening at does she stand high in her classes, New Berlin. but in the past eight years she has never missed a day's attendance at school nor been tardy once. No othhas made.

Wilkesbarre, were in Bellefonte lookview to installing a public auto service between Milesburg and Pleas-ant Gap, to include the new Penitentiary site. They would install several passenger cars over this route, at popular prices for frequent trips at the home of his, brother-in-law to accommodate the large amount of travel between these point. They have a similar system in coarsile.

-The Lyric theatre will be open on Saturday morning. -C. C. Walker, of Orviston, was in Bellefonte last Friday transacting business. -Jesse Showers has resigned his position as machinist at the shirt factory and will seek work elsewhere. -J. Linn Harris, State Forestry Commissioner, departed Saturday afternoon on a business trip to eastern cities. -Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Corman, of Renova, were over Sunday guests at the home of Mr. Corman's parents at State College.

-Mrs. John G. Love has returned home from an extended visit at Atlantic City where she had been recuperating her health.

Association will hold its annual convention at Jersey Shore from August home in Coleville. 20th to the 22nd.

day from sunrise to sunset. -Miss Anna Barnard, of Bryn Mawr, Pa., is a pleasant guest at the kinds of vegetation along in fine home of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. John shape. Wheat fields are looking fine, -Miss Mary Sterett, of Titusville, and Miss Guthrie, of Philadelphia, ground, were guests of the McCalmont home —The

-The exterior of the drug store of C. M. Parris and the general store electric service are entitled to conof Morris & Sheffer have been brigh- sideration. The community is entitled residence of Mrs. Henrietta Nolan, of Mr. C. L. Gates, of East Lamb street, this place, returning to her home on Mr. Young is employed in the 12th -James B. Cook, who holds a responsible position with the Berwin-White Coal Company at Horatio, Pa. Saturday morning from 9:30 to spent Sunday at his parents' home in past month, owing to the demand this place.

-Mr. A. Lukenback, Nathaniel Yearick, of Jacksonville, and Rev Lukenback, Nathaniel -Rev. A. Davidson, a former pas-tor of the United Brethren church at West Susquehanna Classis at New -Dr. Allison, of Centre Hall

-W. H. Macker, who had an accident with his Ford car on the Snow -Jacob Marks is back of the coun- Shoe mountain last week, has his maready to answer all calls. -Miss Pearl Royer, the very compe that he is giving them rare bargains. tent stenographer for the Pennsylva—James Condo, of Spring Mills, was nia Match Company at this place. town the past week seeing his spent Sunday with her parents, Mr

-Ellis Stine, who has been firing the heating plant at the Bellefonts hospital, has resigned his position -Mrs. J. Harry Eberhart, of East and on Monday accepted a posi-amb street, left on Monday for a tion at the Bellefonte shirt factory. -Prof. Egbert, of State College, one

> Engineering Department, was in Bellefonte between trains Friday, while on his way to visit friends at Akron, Ohio. -Roy Landis, of Tyrone, was an

many friends that she may have a is in the automibile repair business at who were in town this week attend--The attention of all dealers -Edward Beezer, who has been successfully managing the Philipsburg the Legislature and signed by the -Tr Brewery for several years, spent over Governor, relative to the sale of cig-

-The Bellefonte Academy -Fred Johnstonbaugh, of Martha ball team crossed bats Saturday with ment there will be ample room for riding horseback Saturday evening in Furnace, was brought to the Belle- the strong Juniata College nine at fonte hospital last Friday suffering Hughes Field and succeeded in defrom a severe cut in the right knee, feating them by the score of 4 to 3. he sustained while chopping It was an exciting game from start to The wound is now healing finish and was witnessed by a large crowd. ed in town Sunday afternoon for a the Academy baseball team to the tion work for the J. G. White Company at Parksville.

> of the leg by a dog Saturday after-noon while delivering mail in the vicinity of Pleasant View. The wound was cauterized by Dr. Rogers and after laying off duty at his home at Martha Monday, he was able to re- years ago.

-Rembrant Peale was in town on Monday and in company with Thos. A. Shoemaker, L. A. Shaeffer and others inspected their limestone property in Spring township east of Pleasant Gap. This is the first time Mr. Peale saw the property although he -Mr. and Mrs. Gray Hartsock and is largely interested in the proposed little daughter, of Altoona, spent the operation. His presence here has led forepart of the week in Bellefonte at many to surmise that the property

-Mr. Howard T. Struble, of Zion, left on Monday for New Berlin in his auto car, taking with him his pas-Mr. Hartsock holds an excellent position in the passenger department of the Pennsylvania railroad at Altoona.

—Miss Mary F. Schad, one of this graduates at the Reliefonts.

The Reliefonts of Rev. W. M. Hoover, Mr. John Royer, of Zion and Rev. Dr. A. M. Schmidt. Mr. Struble will attend the funeral of his uncle, Emanuel Pontinus, on Tuesday at Mifflinburg. The ear's graduates at the Bellefonte other members of the party are dele-ligh school, is a remarkable student gates to West Susquehanna Classis.

dially invited to attend a "Get Acsociation. The program will give something new and interesting every This week the Emerick brothers, of live minutes. Every one is expected to go to the Refreshment Table, and ing over the local conditions with a be served here, at your convenience during the evening. and get acquainted! Come! Come

-John S. Walker is expecting his new Pierce-Arrow car this coming week

-Miss Claire Mapes, of Clearfield, is visiting friends and relatives at this place.

-L. H. and W. J. Musser were bus ness visitors in Harisburg the latter part of last week. -Jack Lane spent the greater part f last week at Punxsutawney in the interest of the Basket shop. -Miss Grace Smith, of Spoemakersville, Pa., is visiting her friend, Miss Harriet Ray, of Howard street. -Every automobile that passes down High street gets two severe jolts due to neglect of the street. This should not be.

-Tuesday afternoon C. U. Hoffer completed his work at the Court House on the Philipsburg duplicates and returned home.

-Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker visited last week with her daughter, Martha, at Mount St. Clements and also stopped in Philadelphia and New

-Mrs. Edward Meese and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Meese, of Ty--The Central District Firemen's rone, arrived in town Saturday for visit among friends at their old

-Miss Nelle Conley left Bellefonte -The Bellefonte Chapter D. A. R. Thursday of last week for a visit to request all patriotic citizens to dis-play the American flag on Memorial At the latter place she will be the will be the guest of Miss Jean Wallace. -The recent rains are bringing all > oats are coming up nicely and some farmers report the corn up above the -The new electric company that is asking council for the privilege of entering this borough to supply cheap

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young, of -Miss Edith Otto, of Johnstown, Altoona, were guests over Sunday at spents several days of last week at the home of Mrs. Young's brother, shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Altoona. -Several columns of advertising were refused each week, during the made by our local merchants. business people know that circulation counts, and are willing to pay the

-Dr. Allison, of Centre Hall, was in town on Tuesday and was quite enthusiastic over a new substitute for automobile tire which consists of a omposition that takes the place of the inner tubes. He has taken the agency for this section, and claims it does away with most of the tire troubles.

-Since the Gray fire on Linn street sentiment is growing stronger for the purchase of a chemical outfit that in many cases could reach most fires and do effective work before the regular engines and hose are in opera-tion. It is quick work at the start counts. Most towns have such appliances.

-The rummage sale for the benefit of the Bellefonte hospital, is now in progress in the vacant room of the Aiken's building on Allegheny street. If you have anything that you can spare send it around and they will Democrats of Pine Glenn, was over Sunday visitor at the home of find a customer and in this way they town on Monday and among other this parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lancar procure funds that are needed at things lamented that the late frosts

lust owing to the large amount of the res

-The Bellefonte postoffice has not been removed from Temple Court, as was expected, and the indications are and make an example of the man who that it will remain there, owing to its cation being the most central. By making some alterations in the base- tig of North Thomas street, while the convenience of all the employees the vicinity of the United Brethren and the handling of the mails without church, was thrown from his horse any confusion or delay.

-Staff Captain C. B. Campbell will conduct a special meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night, May 28th. -Mr. and Mrs. John Munson and The Staff Captain is an officer of little son, of Parksville, Tenn., arriv-Army work and is an interesting visit with Mr. Munson's parents, Mr. speaker and a good singer. The pub-and Mrs. T. L. Munson, of North Al-lic is cordially invited. An excellent speaker and a good singer. The publegheny street. Mr. Munson is the chief engineer in charge of constructulation talent is being arranged.

-Rev. John Hewitt, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, left Tuesday -Earnest Ardery, the auxillary let-ter carrier at the Bellefonte post of-fice, was severely bitten in the calf risburg Diocese of the Episcopal church in session there this week Bloomsburg has some very pleasant associations for Rev. Hewitt as it contemplation a pleasant motorcycle was there that he had his first-charge trip to New Jersey which they ex-

-Joseph Nolan, one of the employes of the Pennsylvania Railroad in their ware house at the freight station, suffered an injury to his left foot, ast Friday afternoon which will inapacitate him from duty for some time to come. He was moving some 95 G. A. R. will attend in a body the his foot breaking one of the bones in that member. Joe is able to be about now by the use of a crutch.

next Sunday morning and listen to a Memorial Day sermon delivered by Dr. George E. Hawes. In the after--The Ushers' Association of the Bellefonte Methodist Episcopal church is planning to give a unique reception and social to all people in any way either closely or remotely related to the congregation. They desire to promote the social side of the con-gregational life. Their reception is freshments will be served, and a roy--You and your friends are cor- al social time is anticipated. Every greet and treat you.

> -Edward J. Brown, Jr., accompanied by his wife and two children, arrived in Bellefonte last Friday from Parksville, Tenn., after an absence of several years. It is needless to say

-Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Jenkins, of Tyrone, were over Sunday visitors in Bellefonte.

-Misses Lena and Sarah Benner will leave on Saturday for Atlantic City, to be gone two weeks. -Fred Lane has accepted a position at the Bell telephone exchange and began his duties on Wednesday.

-Mrs. Calhoun Stewart, of State College, is stopping this week with Mrs. James Harris of North Spring

-Mrs. John Glen and two children, of Tyrone, are visiting Mrs. Glen's mother, Mrs. Wm. Clark of East Howard street. -Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mark,

Spring Mills, were guests during the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Heckman, of East Lamb street. -Dr. Ambrose M. Schmidt and Mr. V. Lukenbach are attending the sessions of the Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church at New Berlin

Herbert Hull, who is employed at a large fron furnace in North Tona-wanda, N. Y., was in Bellefonte with his family from Thursday until Monday of the past week.

-Mr. Jesse Underwood and little -Mr. Jesse Underwood and little child, of Sunbury, returned to their home Wednesday afternoon after a delightful visit with her sister. Mrs. delightful visit with her sister, Mrs. Harry Stevenson, of East High street. left at this office within a reasonble -Dr. J. E. Ward is spending this time, prosecution will follow. week in Wilkesbarre attending the district convention of the Susquehanna Dental Association. He will read a paper before the convention at the paper before the convention at one of its sessions.

school-year 1913-1914, will be held in ing the day. the high school building, Thursday May 29, beginning at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. Jonas E. Wagner, Supr.

High the day.

—The annual reception and dance of the Bellefonte Academy will be held Thursday evening, May 29th, at

-John Nighthart has just purchascar than our friend, Nighthart, will. Ere long he will be a past master at running it.

-If the meals are not served, on a pretty little baby girl arrived at his home on Sunday evening. Mrs. Longee will be remembered as Miss Margaret Steele of this place.

-Justice of the Peace Fergus Potter, of Linden Hall, was in attendance at court on Tuesday. Although seventy-eight years of age the Squire transact business. May he live to enjoy many more years of usefulness.

-Miss Jennie Morgan left on Wednesday afternoon for Philadelphia where she will meet Miss Ohnmacht and return to Bellefonte with her. Miss Ohnmacht who has been receiving treatment from a specialist is, we are glad to say, much improved in health.

-Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoge McEntire, of Knoxville, Tenn, are rejoicing over the birth of a dear little baby girl which the stork left at their home op Tuesday, May 13th. Mrs. McIntire was formerly Miss Edna Meyer, daughter of the late J. Calvin Meyer, of Bellefonte.

-Wm. Hipple, one of the staunch had destroyed the huckleberry crop. by James Cornelly, Albert Butler and

The residents along Linn street He says that if the elderberries are George Smith who will be employed travel than any part of the town dence the past week. The machine That is where oil would prove a great was equipped with an Atherton coas-The machine omfort to business people and resi- ter brake, solar lamp, and motorcy-Cyclists are requested to cle seat. keep a lookout for this machine as Mr. Witmer is anxious to locate it

-Donald Gettig, son of Lew Getand suffered a broken rib. The accident was caused by the horse slip-ping on the brick crossing. Donald is now able to be about but suffers considerable pain.

-Gregg Post is now preparing for the coming Memorial Day exercises at this place, which will be held on Friday of next week. The Hon. L. Walters, of Mt. Carmel, will be the orator on that occasion and he will be assured a large audience as so many missed the opportunity to hear him when he made the address last December at the Elks memorial exer-

-Henry and Samuel Noll, sons of Abner Noll, of Pleasant Gap, have in pect to take the latter part of this week, or the beginning of next. expect to visit their sister, Esther, who is a school teacher at Pleasant-ville, N. J. and before returning home they will take in the sights at Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

-The members of Gregg Post, No noon a fletail from the Post will visit and Meyers cemetery and decocrate the graves of deceased soldiers. Then on Sunday, June 1st, a detail and Zion for the same purpose.

-On invitation of Gregg Post, Dr. Hawes of the Presbyterian church, therefore entitled a "Get Acquainted" will preach the sermon Sunday Social. The time is fixed for Thursday evening. May 22nd, from 8 o'clock friends will be given the place of honto 10 o'clock. A program of interest or in the church. The theme chosen and pleasure has been arranged; re- for the day is one that is simple, but wonderfully fitting. It is, "Some Me-morial Day Thoughts." In the ev-Methodist of the town and vicinity, ening, at the same church, the coner pupil of the public schools ever dualinted" reception and social at the daughter of Dr. Edith Schad. The family and friends of Miss Schad are naturally very proud of the record she has made.

Set of the town and vicinity, entry, the same church, the consider daughter of the basked to schools ever dualinted" reception and social at the way associated with or interested in the church, is most cordially invited. Some Things Most Surely Believed by Christians." The pastor selected this theme because of the recent as a sembles at Atlanta, Ga. He will call way association will be asked to consider way associated with or interested in the church, is most cordially invited. Come and see how handsomely the sembles at Atlanta, Ga. He will call way association will be asked to consider way associated with or interested in the church, is most cordially invited. Come and see how handsomely the sembles at Atlanta, Ga. He will call way association will be asked to consider way associated with or interested in the church, is most cordially invited. Come and see how handsomely the sembles at Atlanta, Ga. He will call way associated with or interested in the church, is most cordially invited. Come and see how handsomely the sembles at Atlanta, Ga. He will call way associated with or interested in the church, is most cordially invited. Come and see how handsomely the sembles at Atlanta, Ga. He will call way associated with or interested in the church, is most cordially invited. The pastor selected this them because of the recent as a semble way associated with or interested in the church, is most cordially invited. The church, is most cordially invited. The consider way associated with or interested in the church, is most cordially invited. The cordinal way associated with or interested in the church, is most cordially invited. The cordinal way associated with or interested in the church, is most cordially invited. The cordinal way associated with or interested in the church, is most cordially invited. The cordinal way associa attention to the great fundamentals of all churches of the evangelical beliefs

-William Walker now claims the credit for catching the largest trout captured in these waters this season, that their many friends were glad to and it is up to the other followers of welcome them back to their old home Izaak Walton to take off their hats to town again. Mr. Brown is now employed by the J. G. White Company, before the 1:05 train came in he a large contracting firm, who have a caught a trout in the canal near John to accommodate the large amount of travel between these point. They have a similar system in operation at Wilkesbarre and find it is a profitable investment. As there is considerable travel daily from Pleasant Gap, Axemann, the new penitentiary, and Milesburg to Bellefonte, the public no doubt would patronize such a convenience and it would prove a benefit to the town. At present there is no prospect of a trolley being located for this purpose and an auto line as suggested might answer the purpose.

Register J. Frank Smith, of east Linn a large contracting firm, who have a big contract to complete for the Tennessee Power Company in the vicinity of Parksville. He is in charge of one of the commissary departments, while a daughter is in the hospital corp and a son is in the clerical dealer of the Swar Albertine Phillipi, of Crystal City on the 6th of May and immediately started on his honeymoon. Dr. Hosterman is quite well known in the canal near John Dubbs' implement store, that when being contract to complete for the Tennessee Power Company in the vicinity of Parksville. He is in charge of one of the commissary departments, while a daughter is in the hospital corp and a son is in the clerical dealer that there was a big trout in the canal near John Dubbs' implement store, that when being contraction complete for the Tennessee Power Company in the vicinity of Parksville. He is in charge of one of the commissary departments, while a daughter is in the hospital corp and a son is in the clerical device corp and a son is in the clerical device of the commissary departments, while a daughter is in the hospital corp and a son is in the clerical device of the commissary departments, while a daughter is of the vicinity of Parksville. He is in charge of one of the commissary departments, while a daughter is in the hospital corp and a son is in the clerical device of the commissary departments, while a daughter is in the vicinity of Parksville in the vicinity of Parksville. He is in charge of the vicinity of Parksville in

-Mr. and Mrs. David Barlet spent Sunday in Altoona with her son, Sidney Barlet and family. -Edgar A. Shirk left last week for Clermont, Pa., where he has secured good position in a large tile factory -Mrs. Nancy Jane McMinn, of Curtins Works, spent Tuesday in Belle-fonte very pleasantly at the home of Mr. F. Potts Green, of East Linn street.

-Mrs. Benjamin Bradley, Jr., gave a thimble party to a number of her lady friends at her home on North Spring street, Wednesday afternoon from two until five o'clock. It proved a very enjoyable occasion.

-All persons having old newspapers and magazines on hand which they are willing to contribute for the benefit of the hospital, are requested to have them ready next Wednesday when a drayman will call for them.

-Mrs. Thomas Eisenbuth, of Weikert, Pa., spent Friday in Bellefonte at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Witmyer. We are sorry to state that since her return home she has been quite ill and is confined to her bed. -Mrs. H. S. Gunsallus had her

-The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Brethren church will hold an their church, corner of Thomas and High streets, Saturday, May 24th. -An examination for entrance to All kinds of fancy articles will be for the Bellefonte High School, for the sale. Lunch will also be served duro'clock in the Bush Arcade hall. No invitations will be sent out but ed a new Ford roadster, which is a all friends, former students and padandy. There is no one in our town trons of the Academy are cordially who will take more pleasure out of a invited to attend.

-Oliver P. Bell, who is engineer Theodore Cherry's fireman on the Lewisburg passenger train, has moved his family, which consists of his wife the tap at Longee's restaurant at and himself, from their former home State College, it is due to the fact that in Sunbury to Bellefonte and are now comfortably located in a cosy flat in Mrs. Crider's Exchange.

-Mrs. William Witmyer and Miss Clara Solt are attending the Evangelical Sunday School and K. L. convention of the Centre District at Miliheim this week as delegates from this place. Mrs. Witmyer will is still hale and hearty and able to remain in Millheim the balance of the week visiting relatives. -Calvin Faust, whose wife formerly Miss Lulu Rine of this place, is quite ill at his home in Altoona. He was a fireman on the Pennsylvania railroad and was compelled to give up his position on account of ill health. It is hoped that his condition may change for the better short--Dr. G. E. Hawes left on Friday for Pittsburg where on Sunday he occupied the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church. In his absence his pulpit here was occupied by Rev. Fletcher, of Callensburg, Clarion county, who preached two excellent Dr. Hawes returned home on Tuesday. -R. B. Taylor left for Washington

Pa., Tuesday afternoon accompanied Tyrone.

Tyr -Manager Brown will present this evening at the Scenic the Vitagraph two-reel film entitled "The Artist's Great Madonna," a play of great drainatic power. On Friday evening there will be presented a Lubin play entitled, "A Broken Vow." On Saturday night there will be another special feature, a Pathe picture called "An Exciting Honeymoon." -The Bellefonte Lodge No. 1314.

Knights of Columbus, held a special meeting in their hall in the Reynolds building on Tuesday evening which was largely attended. Important business was transacted including he conferring of the 1st degree on six men members as follows: W. H. Armstrong and J. R. Gilligan, of State College, and Harry Mueller, J. A. Lane, J. F. Bertram and Rev. S. P. Caprio, of Bellefonte. After the meeting a smoker was held which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

-On Monday morning about 4:30 o'clock the fire alarm sounded for the South ward and on investigation it was found that the fence in the rear of the Brant house had caught fire, and but for its timely discovery would have communicated to the buildings and possibly caused a ser lous conflagration. As it was Mr. Noonen soon had a garden hose on the flames and the fire was extinguished without the assistance of the fire companies. The fire started from some ash barrels sitting along side of the fence.

-The Academy minstrels drew large audiences at the opera house neavy iron castings when one fell on services at the Presbyterian church Thursday and Friday evenings of last week and the performance was declar-ed to be better than ever before. The Academy minstrels have come to be permanent thing, looked forward to with increasing interest each year. There were about forty guests in at-tendance at the minstrels from out of go to Snydertown, Hublersburg town, fathers, mothers and friends of the students being present from Jamestown, N. Y., Pittsburg, Con-Jamestown, N. Y., P nelsville, Shamokin, Wilkesbarre, Pottsville and Reading, Lebanon and Luthersburg. The receipts of the show amounted to $401.00. The Academy cleared about $150.

Marriage Licenses.

Walter D. Ludwig - - Boalsburg Harriet P. Johnston - Philadelphia Mary E. Stover - Aaronsburg, Pa. Paul E. Bradford - - Centre Hall Lydia E. Meeker - - Spring Mills Thomas Symmonds Towando, N. Y. Beulah Bryan - - - Bellefonte Chas. E. Snyder - - State College Gretta Mingle - - - State College Edward H. Grapp - - - Pittsburg Sarah Kepler - - Pine Grove Mills

The Judicial contest in Clearfield county for the coming year is warming up. Judge Allison O. Smith wil have strong opposition, due largely to the character of men who posed in that community as the court's po-litical advisors, and brokers of liquor licenses. At least three tickets will be in the field.

One fault in the way of living of not a few people is that they never make company of their own families.

Penny a Word Adv.

Any subscriber can insert a want advertisment in this column one issue free, if it does not exceed 25 words; charges to others, one cent a word, first issue, no advertisement less than 25 cents; two issues 40 cents; three issues 60 cents. No advertisements will be answered from this office.

ARCHITECT:-Anna W. Keichline, Bellefonte.

HOUSES:—For sale and rent. J. M. Keichline, Bellefonte, Pa. x-50 FOR SALE:-A cow will be fresh soon. G. B. Gummo, Stormstown

WANTED:—A good girl for general housework.
Address box 237, Bellefonte, Pa. 21-4f
FOR SALE:—Six thorough bred Scotch Collie pups. Address John E. Ertel, Coburn, Pa.

FOR SALE:—Extra fine Jewel tomato plants. Mrs. W. H. Macker, 113 East High St. x22 FOR RENT:-5-room house at $6.75 per month. Apply to Jacob Marks, Bellefonte, Pa. 21tf FOR RENT:-Brick livery stable, centrally located. Inquire of Lyon & Co., Bellefonte, FOR RENT-Basement room in Lyric Theatre building. Inquire at Workmen's Bargain Store. 8-tf

FOR SALE:—1909 model motorcycle in good condition, $90. Lloyd Sampsel, Bellefonte, R-2 x21 FOR SALE:-Lot of Canton flannel gloves. Cheap for cash. Address Box No. 2, Bellefonte. x21 WANTED:—A home for a boy 10 year old, on a farm. Apply to C. C. Shuey, Guardian, Belle-tonte. LOAN:-Money to loan $1000, $1500, $2000, $8000, $8000, on good security. J.M. Reichline, Ellefonte.

FOR RENT:—Farm near Pine Glenn, known as Zimmerman farm, 45 acres cleared. H. H. Fye, Moshannon, Pa. xxl MEN WANTED:—For day and contract labor.

Apply to Superintendent Bellefonte Lime Co.,
Salona Clinton County. Pa x21

FOR SALE:—Pair match black horses, weigh 2950, 6 and 7 years old. For particulars apply S. O. Blooming's store, Philipsburg. Pa. FOR SALE:—An iron safe, in excellent con-dition; will be sold at a bargain. Rebecca N Rboads, 135 west Linn street, Bellefonte. 20tf FOR SALE: 120 ft: hay rope, fork and pullies, in good order, l'carriage good as new, l'spring wagon. Call on Ira C. Korman, Oak Hall Sta

WANTED—Moulders and laborers. Good wages and steady work. Globe Iron Foundry Co., Johnstown, Pa. x22 FOR SALE:-Full blooded Rhode Island Red chickens from State College. Eggs 50 cts. a setting. George W. Zerby, Tusseyville 12 24 HOUSE FOR RENT:-Four rooms and kitchen $7 and water rent, centrally located: ; given at once, rent begins May 1st. A.C. Mingle FOUND:—A pocket book, in Beliefonte on Saturday evening, owner can get same by call-ing at this office, proving property and paying for this notice.

for this notice. AGENTS WANTED:—Men and women for one of the best paying propositions ever offered, no previous experience required, for particulars. Address Box 253, Miffinburg Pa. x23

GOOD INVESTMENT:—Invest your money in South Dakota land where land has put many a man on easy street. Where land can yet be bought from $15 up, write to box 34 Canning S. Dakota. PLANTS:-Early cabbage, cauliflower, tomato, egg, beet, celefy, mango, and asters, for sale at Howard; will be on curb market the 7th of May at Bellefonte. Mrs. W. B. Johnston, How-ard, Pa. AGENTS WANTED:-Five to seven dollars daily selling New Fibre Brooms. 100 per cent. profit. Every lady will buy. Start canvassing at once. Sample by express 25 cents. Barlett Brush Works. Elmira. N. Y.

Brush Works, Elmira, N. 1.

WANTED:—Farmer (married) to take charge of farm and property of Ross Mountain Park Association, New Florence, Pa. For full particulars, call on or address: J. P. Orr. 804 Union Station, Pittsburg, Pa. or J. A. Wagner, New Florence, Pa. FOR SALE:-The Spring Mills hotel; can be purchased at any time; is a licensed house, good country stand close to railroad, and a desirable place of business. Good reason for selling, terms to suit purchaser. Address M. C. Stover. Spring Mills. Pa. x21 LOST:—Cow, light yellow in color, points of horns cut off; missed May 7. Please notify John Kacanek Clarence, Pa. Lostiat same time Brindle cow, very large, Notify Mike Basala, Clarence. Or telephone to Wm. Takash, Clar norm Frick boner and engine. Rope feed Cir-curiar rig with two good saws, board edger. Cut-off rig. Lineshaft pullies and beits, all in good condition. Mill can be seen in operation till about June. 10th will sell at a bargain. Apply to J.L. Wolfe Livonia. Pa. x22 POR SALE:—At private sale on my farm. I mile south west of Yarnell, bay mare. 7 yrs old, weight 1350; bay horse. If yrs old, weight 1500; set of new tug harness, new Conklin wagon 3% inch truss axle, narrow track. 3% inch Conklin wagon, barrow track. Terms to suit the buyer. Chas M. Brown, Yarnell.

FARM—For sale or exchange: situated about 5 miles west of Bellefonte containing 100 acres, about 50 being cleared, balance in timber; good house, bank barn and other outbuildings; fruit and well on farm. Will sell cheap on easy terms. and well on farm. Will sell cheap on easy terms, or exchange for property that will bring in monthly rent. Address A. I. Garbrick. Bellefonte. Route 1.

FOR SALE:—Day old chicks from laying strains of S. C. W. Leghorns and prize winning Plymouth Rocks, until Aug. 1 I insure safe delivery and stock true to name, hatches coming each week. Leghorn chicks, $8.00 per 100. Plymouth Barred Rocks, $10.00 per 100. E. W. Shreckengast, Prop. Tkeystone Hennery, Tyleryille Pa.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

Estate of John Guiser, late of Mingoville, Pa. deceased.

Letters testamentary in the above named estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to said estate, are requested to make payment and those having claims or demands against said estate are requested to present the same duly authenticated for settlement without delay to

C. E. GUISER,

Mingoville,

J. H. GUISER, Hublersbug, Exrs.

MARKET QUOTATIONS. Bellefonte Produce. Butter 250 Eggs 16c Bellefonte-Grain. The following prices are paid by C. Y. Rye Corn Oats

You Send Us Your Order We Send You The Goods

Our co-operation with the Parcels Post service enables you to get all your drug store goods right to your door with comparatively little or no delay. Send your order by mail, telephone or telegraph. In fact, get it to us in any way and we give you just as prompt and efficient a service as though you shopped at our store in person. Everything we sell is guaranteed to give full service and satisfaction. If there is any cause for com-If there is any cause for com-plaint we cheerfully refund your money. Everything at-tended to promptly, efficiently and well from tooth picks to toilet goods.

Krumrine's Drug Store, BELLEFONTE . . . PENNA