HOWARD.

The time to take hold of one's self is in youth. Let us teach boys and girls that making a life is in every way finer than merely making a living—however much can be bought with the coin-fruit of skill and energy.

In Our Churches Next Sabbath.

Methodist Episcopal—Pastor James Edwin Dunning will preach the annual Memorial sermon in Howard at half past ten o'clock, and will preach at Kennedy at half past two, and at Beech Creek at half past seven.

Rev. M. C. Piper will preach at Curtin at half past ten.

Presbyterian—Pastor Walter Fay Carson will preach at Jacksonville at half past ten o'clock, at which time and place Children's Day will also be observed by appropriate exercises. In the evening at half past seven, he will preach as usual in the Brick Chapel in Howard.

United Evangelical—Pastor M. J. Snyder will preach at Fairview at half past ten, at Jacksonville at half past two, and in Howard at half past seven.

"The Green Front."

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Williams, who some years ago successfully conducted a similar business here, have opened an entirely new place for dispensing some of the dainties of life. In scope it seems to be a combination of green grocery, confectionery, bakery and ice cream parlor. The location is the old James Mehaffey house on Main street, which they purchased this spring, and are devoting what was the parlor and the one-time post office location to the business, having cut an opening between the parlor and the store room, and included the small room which was the post office proper. These three rooms have been torn out completely, and all done over, until to even one who was familiar with them, they are scarcely recognizable. All is new and fresh, clean and sweet, and most excellent taste has been brought to bear in the finishing and furnishing, particularly of the ladies' ice cream parlor. The color scheme is green and white, and the outside of the whole front is a soft green, from which the name "Green Front" takes its suggestion. The formal opening was made Thursday evening, and business started off with a promise of the success which the enterprise of the proprietors deserves.

Look Out Boys.

Stroudsburg, Pa., May 12.—Judge C. B. Staples, in Court today, announced that he would see that the new cigarette law, signed by the Governor, should be rigidly enforced. Judge Staples said it would not do for a boy to say he found the cigarettes, for that excuse would not be received. If a boy sees cigarettes lying in the street he has no business, under the new law, to pick them up.

His Honor stated that it was the purpose of the Court to enforce the law to the letter, and he added that, under its provisions, a boy had no right to have a cigarette in his possession.

Constables were informed that it was their duty to make boys tell where they got cigarettes and to help enforce the law.

The above quotation from the daily papers is printed here that the boys of our town who have been indulging in cigarettes may be warned as to what is in store for them. The law referred to is a new one, just passed by the legislature and signed by the Governor, and has not yet been formally published, but it is in force, all the same, and judges all over the State will be found enforcing it just as Judge Staples says he will; and its provisions and penalties are severe. Not only are dealers forbidden to sell them to boys but the boys themselves are to be punished for purchasing them, and even for having them in their possession, no matter how they get them. Notice that the learned judge says boys must not pick them up even if they find them lying in the streets. One of our merchants has posted a notice on the outside of the store that he cannot sell them to boys, and requesting them not to ask for them. It might be better, perhaps, if dealers would refuse to sell them at all, and thus help the boys in keeping the temptation away from them. The purpose of this law is to preserve the well-being of our growing boys and young men from the ill effects of the drugs and poisons with which cigarettes are loaded, and which scientists affirm are ruinous to the physical, mental and moral health, particularly of the young. Now boys, obey this good law, right from the start, and let it help you keep yourselves from the evils that follow the possession of these poisoned and drugged little beasts.

Returning from a professional visit out back of the Kennedy school house, in his auto, accompanied by Charles E. Fletcher and James Kane, Dr. Kurtz drove close to the closed-up blacksnake sunning himself on the end of a narrow little plank bridge, and halted long enough for Kane to get out and smash the old fellow's head with a billet of paper wood which was handy. Then, driving on, striking around his neck, hoisted him into the car and brought him home. By actual measurement he was five feet, ten and a half inches long.

William Singer Dead.

The death of William Singer, a native of Romola and well known here, in New York last Friday, has an interest for our community because two of his sisters, Mrs. John M. Robb and Miss Melinda Singer, are residents of our village. Another sister is Mrs. William Beck, of Nittany, and still another is Mrs. John Rayhorn, of Junata. Mr. Singer married Miss Edna Traflet of Howard, who died in Bellefonte some years ago, leaving two young sons, Edward, now aged twenty-two, and John, eighteen years old, who are now making their home with a sister of their mother, Mrs. Minnie Moore, at Ashville, North Carolina. Arrangements were made to bring the body here for burial at Romola, but before they could be carried out it was buried by a close business associate and friend in New York. Mr. and Mrs. John Rayhorn and their daughters, the Misses Mabel and Catherine, with Mrs. Catherine Berger, a sister-in-law, came on Sunday morning to attend the funeral, but soon after their arrival they received information of the burial in New York and were obliged to return to their homes without being able to pay the last tribute of affection to their relative and friend. Mr. Singer's age was not far from fifty years.

Mrs. Will Schenck shopped in Lock Haven Saturday.

Miss Mollie Daughenbaugh was a Lock Haven visitor, Tuesday.

Glaire Lyon is laid up, temporarily, by a big healing on his dexter hand.

Mrs. John Krapp and daughter, Helen, shopped and visited in Lock Haven Tuesday.

Mrs. August Johnson and Mrs. Ward Schenck were Lock Haven visitors on Friday.

Superintendent of State roads, William Austin, of Blanchard, greeted his friends here Thursday.

Miss Carrie DeLong Ford, of Blanchard, spent Sunday with her friend, Mrs. W. I. Harvey.

Miss Eulodine Ertley, of Marlon township, was a Sunday guest at the home of Charles E. Yearick.

Mrs. Lionel Walker, of Jersey Shore, spent a day or two of last week with her family and friends here.

Abram Thomas, of Paintersville, Mifflin county, was a last week's guest of his brother Ambrose.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wyland enjoyed a Sunday visit from their daughter, Mrs. Kunes, of Blanchard and her children.

Mr. Claire Leathers and Miss Hilda Wagner drove up to Milesburg for the Commencement exercises Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Clarence Johnson, with her children, Dean and Vonda, are spending two or three weeks with Mrs. Melvin Schenck in Clearfield.

Alvin Confer, one of the trainmen on the Beech Creek railroad, whose headquarters are at Avis, took a few days off last week to look after his family.

H. Adam Kline is the latest addition to the goodly company of auto owners and users in our town, and there are others who will soon join the crowd.

Cameron Holter spent a portion of last week painting the roofs of the C. C. Lucas buildings with the excellent roof paint for which his father is agent.

"Jack" Shay, who helps push things in the big Renovo shops, stopped over at home last week, and helped his wife through with the hard job of housecleaning.

Mrs. Charles Bowes and Mrs. Mathias Walker were among the eastward bound passengers on No. 50 housecleaning, and Mrs. Shay says he is the best help she ever had.

Capt. H. C. Holter, who is building an important barn at Unionville, was severely hurt by the falling up on him of a heavy piece of lumber, and is at home nursing himself back to good health.

"Gust" Johnson stopped over for Saturday and a part of Sunday, while on a business trip from Olean to Williamsport, Md., the present scene of L. A. Anderson Company's labors for a visit with his family.

Mr. Oscar Lucas has a pleasant habit of bringing some of his young gentlemen friends, who abound in that railroad town, home with him when he makes his regular week-end visits. Last Sunday it was Mr. William Perry who was the pleasing guest at the hospitable Lucas home.

Rev. W. W. Patterson, formerly pastor of the Christian churches at Blanchard and Howard, has been invited to deliver the Memorial address at Blanchard, and his friends in Howard are taking advantage of the opportunity to have him preach here in the Christian chapel at half past seven of the preceding evening, Thursday, May twenty-nine.

A little business trip to the west end a few days ago showed the spirit of improvement operating there: Samuel C. Dower has placed new roofs upon several of his more important outbuildings, and Al. Strickland is having the old house which he recently purchased of "Squire Laird Curtin, done over outside and in, by expert carpenters, Joseph and John F. Schenck.

Representing their respective appointments in the Howard charge, Misses Marguerite Kane, of Howard, Zelma Sullenberger, of Fairview, Mary Frain, of Jacksonville, and Helen Garbrick, of Marion, accompanied by Rev. M. J. Snyder and brother Thomas Bechtel, started Tuesday afternoon for Millheim, to attend two annual conventions of Ministerial, K. L. C. E. and Sunday Schools, of the Centre District, of which Rev. H. E. Benfer is the Presiding Elder.

Mrs. William Heisel, the mother of Mrs. Fitzpatrick, who was badly broken up in the runaway accident of a few weeks ago, has convalesced so nicely that she was able to be taken to her home in Carnegie, on a hospital cot last Wednesday, arriving safely and without serious setback.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick, seriously hurt, at the same time is still suffering from the effects of the shock and bruising upon her eyes, and is undergoing expert treatment for them.

John Crayer, of Marsh Creek, who had his right leg broken in three places and ankle badly smashed in a freight wreck near Ralston, Lycoming county, some three months ago, was in town Thursday, walking about on crutches, though with painful slowness. It is now thought probable that he will be obliged to undergo a supplementary operation for the removal of a bone splinter, which a specialist thinks is the cause of a yet unclosed wound at the ankle.

B. Weber's Sons, at their store, and William J. Wilson, at his residence, both in Main street, have placed well constructed brick gutters, to carry away the surface water. These are a welcome addition to those which had been put down, on the same side of the same street; and when the several other streets are completed, that side of the street will be fairly well graded with gutters. No doubt others will soon follow, until the street will be well guttered throughout its length. "A guttation devoutly to be wished."

By reason of the number of appointments which must be filled by each of our resident ministers in charge, it sometimes happens in the course of the year that there is no preaching on Sabbath evening in any of our five churches. This would have been the case last Sabbath evening excepting that two ministers happened in town, and filled two of the pulpits by special announcement, and in the third a supply had been arranged for. Rev. Dunning and family were in Mt. Carmel, Northumberland county, visiting the Rev. Charles Dunning, and Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, supplied his several pulpits during the day. Neither of the Christian churches have stated preaching service at this time, but the pulpit of the Christian Chapel was filled by Elder W. W. Weirick, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., who happened here on business; and Elder Stiger, of Summerville, Pa., under similar circumstances preached in the Church of Christ.

Miss Sarah Sholly, of Yarnell, is a guest of her friend, Miss Eva Neff.

Rev. E. H. Zechman is in attendance this week upon the state meeting of the W. Susquehanna Classis, of which he is a member, at New Berlin, Union county.

UNIONVILLE.

Sunday evening at 7:30 Rev. H. K. Ash will preach the annual Memorial sermon to the surviving members of the G. A. R. in the M. E. church. Everybody earnestly solicited to attend.

The Centre County Pomona Grange meets today in the handsome grange hall at this place. It will be a gala day for the grangers. Don't lock your corn cribs or hay mows. They are an honest sturdy people, able to take care of themselves.

The registration of voters has been placed on the door of Grange Hall. Every voter should examine it and see that his name is in it.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. DeBayard, of Wilmington, Del., have been spending several weeks visiting at the home of Mrs. DeBayard's sister, Miss Clara Cadwallader. They will leave shortly for Saxonburg, Pa., where Mr. DeBayard will take the management of the Hotel Tredor, during the summer season. This is the largest hotel in the place and this will be the second or third season for this noted French Chef.

Charley Rowan, wife and bright little son, the only "pig in the pen" visited over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Rowan.

Mrs. Lilla Kizar Davidson, of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting friends in this county. She is expecting her husband, Dr. Davidson, to arrive in the near future. Mrs. Davidson is an ardent reader of the Centre Democrat and found it a source of great pleasure during her travels up and down the Pacific coast for the last two years.

Merchant H. M. Stere had quite a serious tussle with the quinsy but am glad to see him at his post again in the store.

Miss Beas Lansberry was stricken with nervous prostration and is quite ill at her home here.

Mrs. Nora Becker, after spending five or six weeks visiting her mother, returned to her home in Philadelphia on Monday.

The Unionville baseball team are making grand preparations for a grand game with the Milesburg boys on Decoration day. They have a fine play ground here and they expect to clean out the Milesburgers to a "frazzle". Particulars next week.

The Amateur drum corps, is practicing for Decoration day. Col. Al Roberts, one of the finest tenor-drummers in America will be present with us. The Rev. Dr. Ash will be the orator of the day to assist in the ceremonies. Decoration day is always a gala day for Unionville and we usually have a very large attendance.

Mrs. Catherine T. Comly, relict of the late John Comly, died at her home in Unionville, Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock from a complication of diseases incident to old age. She was aged 82 years, 3 months and 7 days, leaving to survive her two sons, R. Comly, of Union township and W. H. Comly, of Tyrone and the following brothers: C. E. Green and James R. Green, of Centreville, Elk county, and one sister, Mrs. Rebecca Rudolph, of Brockport, same county. She was born in Elk county, Feb. 13, 1836 and was the daughter of John and Mary Green. Her husband preceded her to the grave 14 years ago. They have lived in this town since 1874. Funeral will take place from her late residence on Thursday 2 o'clock p. m. The Rev. Dr. Ash officiating. Interment in upper cemetery. This esteemed, beloved mother in Israel was almost a life long member of the M. E. church and notwithstanding her advanced age was always in her accustomed place and almost invariably the first person to enter the church for services until she was stricken down with disease about three weeks ago. 'Twould be well for all of us, were we to imitate the beautiful life of this beloved woman.

AARONSBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mensch, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Harter and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walker, from Bellefonte, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mensch.

Rev. Barry and lady friend, from Centre Hall, were entertained at the Lutheran parsonage on Monday, where they enjoyed their dinner very much.

Misses Florence and Martha Haines spent Saturday in Millheim with their girl friend, Esther Rishel.

Mrs. Anna Kurtz, from Bellefonte, was the welcome guest of her sister, where she was very pleasantly entertained for a week by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mensch.

Mary Stover, an esteemed lady of Aaronsburg, left on Saturday for Akron, Ohio. Fred Guisewitz, of Akron, Ohio, met her at Pittsburg and Rev. B. M. B. Shneider, now of Clarion, formerly of Aaronsburg, was there and pronounced the words that made them one. They will reside at Akron where Mr. Guisewitz holds a good position.

SPRING MILLS.

A. C. Dunlap made a business trip to Lewisburg last week.

Miss Bertha Reamy, of Pleasant Gap, is visiting her friend, Mary Condo.

Earl Smith, of Potters Bank, moved his family into one of C. P. Long's houses last week.

Anna Cummings has gone to Centre Hall this week to sew for Mrs. A. G. Lieb.

Quite a few of our people attended the services in the Georgevalley Lutheran church, Sunday evening, held by Rev. B. F. Bieber, a former pastor.

The annual festival of the Civic club of Boalsburg will be held in Boal Hall on the evening of May 30th, of good things to eat. Lunch will be served from 5:30 to 8 o'clock. Come early and bring your friends and help us to keep the lights burning. Price of lunch 25 and 15 cents.

The Unrivalled Popularity of

THE SIM CLOTHES

Season after season and year after year hasn't come by chance or luck. To satisfy and please as many patrons as these two stores are now doing, is summed up briefly by unusual good clothes at fair, honest and moderate prices. The Sim Store was started in a small way 13 years ago and its principles since then has been one of fair dealing, and its progressive policy of showing not only good dependable clothes, but clothes that in style and making were superior to any others. Each year we have striven hard to outdo our formerefforts and the steady growth of this business plainly shows our efforts are understood by the public; for each year or more people turn to this store as their favorite trading place not for a day or a season but to remain firm and steadfast customers. Such things are not by chance. The clothes, the prices, the fair and reliable manner we strive to merit your patronage are the causes for this. Think these things over, and never were we quite so able to demonstrate to you that these clothes we are showing are superior clothes in fit, tailoring, style and quality and our prices are the most reasonable.
