HOWARD.

Memorial Day.
 We gather where our soldiers sleep
 In spring's departing hours,
 The memory of the brave to keep,
 And strew their graves with flowers.
 One sleeps beneath the Northern pine,
 Crowned with the victor's wreath;
 Another where the Southern vine
 Weeps over the dust beneath.
 But soft the azure skies surround
 And white the lilies bloom,
 To deck the lowly Southern mound
 Or wreath the Northern tomb.
 For he who rests beneath the palm
 Strove in a hero's part;
 Misguided may have been the aim,
 But valiant was the heart.
 O, gray-haired heroes! ye who stand
 Where once did paths divide,
 Place ye the wreath with clasped hand—
 Your dead sleep side by side.
 Isaac W. F. Eaton.

The new general schedule of the Pennsylvania railroad which went into effect Sunday, made some important changes in the time of the passenger trains at this point. They now leave as follows:
Week Days.
 Westward—8:42; 12:38; 4:15.
 Eastward—10:04; 1:50; 9:01.
Sundays.
 Westward—8:42; 3:50.
 Eastward—10:22; 9:01.

Miss Carrie Butler was a Bellefonte visitor Saturday evening.
 M. J. Moss, of Chester, is a guest in the home of Charles E. Yearick.
 Blanche McCloskey was a Bellefonte passenger on No. 51, Monday.
 M. L. Beck left Saturday for a few days at Bellefonte and State College.
 Mrs. W. E. Confer and daughter, Pearl, spent Sunday with Clyde Lucas, at Tyrone.
 Mrs. W. I. Gordon, of Columbus, is a home guest with her father, Capt. H. C. Holter.
 Jacob Ritzman and H. T. McDowell made a business trip to Bellefonte, Monday morning.
 Mrs. Alma Kunes, of Blanchard, was the Sunday guest of her cousin, Miss Nettie Swartz.
 Miss Idella and brother Frank Williams looked after business matters in Bellefonte Wednesday.

Mrs. Clyde Lucas, of Tyrone, was the Saturday guest of her father-in-law, Reuben Lucas and wife.
 P. C. Holter put a good job of roofing on the home of Edward Casseberry, in the township, recently.
 Mrs. W. L. Cooke, Mrs. and Miss Sallie Wistar and Mrs. Adam Kline were Lock Haven visitors Wednesday.
 Mrs. Fannie A. McEntire, of Pittsburgh, was the guest, last week, of her brother-in-law, Dr. O. W. McEntire.
 The Misses Marie Packer and Florence Bickford, of Lock Haven, were Saturday and Sunday guests of Miss Woodward.
 Jacob Robb, Chester A. Neff and Robert P. Confer were chums on a little business trip to Bellefonte on Thursday morning.
 Harry Wetzel has taken the place of chauffeur to Sedgewick Kistler, of Lock Haven, with a prospect of going abroad during the summer.

Do not forget that Rev. W. H. Patterson, a former pastor, will preach in the Christian Chapel at half past seven this Thursday evening.
 John S. Longsdorf, of Herndon, Northumberland county, spent last Wednesday here with his former friend and neighbor, Jason Snyder.
 Miss Dorothy Weber is limping about somewhat slowly from the effects of a slip which severely sprained the ligaments of her left ankle.
 Malcolm Pifer, who spent several of the spring months in a vacation at his shop in Altoona, at the home of his parents, returned to his work Saturday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Gause, of Williamsport, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Leong, of Castanea, were among the relatives present at the funeral of Charles E. Neff, Monday.
 Mrs. C. M. Fox and Miss M. H. Lucas made a visit of sympathy to their afflicted relative, Mrs. Loudenslayer at Salona last Wednesday. Mrs. Fox remaining with her several days.
 A fresh bright face, under a targa of white hair, is an element of the attractive appearance of Mrs. Bessie Moore, of Altoona, who is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Rebecca Lucas.
 Francis Poorman, of Orviston, on his way to Bellefonte where he is serving the public as a jurman this week, stopped in town Sunday afternoon long enough to shake hands with some of his friends.
 Dr. William Bland, who practices his healing art upon the pedal extremities of that portion of the citizenship in Binghampton, N. Y., who limp their tortuous way along, is visiting his home people here.
 Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tipton, with their daughter, Miss Helene, have gone to McKeesport, where they will make a temporary and indefinite residence. We are in accord with many friends in regretting their absence.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Lucas, James Lucas, and Miss Jennie Lucas, brothers and sister of Mr. C. C. Lucas, with his daughter, Miss Miriam, came from their Moshannon home in their auto, Sunday afternoon, and remained until Tuesday.
 The time is just at hand when the plagues for holding the Farmer's Institutes in Centre county must be selected. It seems a very long time since Howard has had one. Will it have one next winter? If not, why not? Who knows?

 Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Muffy are making important improvements to their home which, when completed, will make it one of the handsomest and most comfortable in town. Among other things they are raising the roof, giving it more pitch and covering it with asbestos shingles.
 Dr. Kurtz enjoyed a few days' visit from his father last week, all the more because the venerable gentleman carries his years with as brisk step, ruddy countenance and cheerful voice as though he were seventy, instead of eighty-two. Another decade of them to the hale old man.
 Having served continuously since his arrival here, as bookkeeper for the Anderson Brothers, without vacation, J. R. Gorman and his wife departed Saturday evening for Altoona. Mr. Gorman returned to his work Sunday evening. Mrs. Gorman remaining for a week or more with his sister, Mrs. James Kennedy, at Duncansville.
 Next Sabbath evening, the series of "Children's Days" for this community will be started in the Christian Chapel, by the congregation of that church. The little people have been under training for the event, for several weeks past, and the occasion will doubtless be one of pleasure to all who are interested in child welfare.
 Concluding her first term at the Comb's Conservatory of Music in Philadelphia, Miss Helen Weber has the very flattering figure of ninety-three as her standing upon the report of her first examination. Her subjects, among whom the Howard letter wants to be counted one in good standing, are justly proud of her musical abilities.
 The reorganize ministerium met at the Manse of the Reformed church Monday morning, and discussed several matters having direct bearing upon the general welfare of the community, and the progress of the church in its mission of evangelizing the world. Rev. Walter Fay Carson read a thoughtful paper upon the "Power of God unto Salvation," in which he did not pretend to treat the subject exhaustively, but rather to make suggestions and sow a few seed-thoughts. Adjournment was made to meet again at the Reformed parsonage with Rev. Zechman as host at half past ten, Monday, June 23.

William Weber and Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Kurtz left Monday afternoon for York, where they will attend a convocation of the Knights Templar, of which both the gentlemen are members. Afterward Dr. Kurtz and wife will proceed to Washington, bent on seeing a real Democratic administration at work. It is on the way that Dr. will ask Senator Penrose to recommend him to President Wilson for appointment to the post of Surgeon General of the army; and considering his faithful service as local chairman of the Republican party, Penrose should do it, and then see that the Senate confirms the appointment.
 The prime purpose of the visit of Rev. Dunning to Mt. Carmel from which he returned Friday afternoon, was to attend the sessions of a Bible Institute at that place, conducted by Rev. J. E. Turner, of Rossmore, Ohio, who has spent some months in this work in several of the large towns of the centre of the State. The good work was brought to a sad and sudden ending, by the discovery of Rev. Turner dead in his bed, in the morning of Sabbath, May 18. Physicians who were called, expressed the opinion that he had met death in the early hours of the night, probably caused by an attack of acute indigestion.

It is with a good deal of pride that all Howard learns that our own citizen, Ronald Welsh, who will be one of the graduates at the coming commencement of Lock Haven Normal school, has developed his musical taste and ability until he now takes rank as a composer, and that some of his work has been found worthy of publication. Recently at a meeting of his class, Dr. G. P. Singer, principal, presented a new piece of music, under the name of "Classmates March in Two Step," written by Mr. Welsh, for piano and violin. It is now being orchestrated and will be rendered, for the first time in public, at the class ball during commencement week.
 The Sons of Veterans—local lodge Grove Brothers Camp No. 262 are displaying considerable energy in recruiting their body and in other directions. Organized a year ago with twenty-five charter members, they now number seventy-three and more are being added each month. The G. A. R. has delegated to them the arrangements for memorial day and in preparation for it they have already secured a dozen "arms and equipments" for the use of the firing squad, and at least eighteen of them will appear in new and handsome uniforms, with good prospects of soon uniforming the entire camp. Quite an ambitious programme has been prepared for tomorrow's memorial, and the camp will make a good turn out in connection with the other orders which will march.

Charles E. Neff, son of William H. Neff, of our town, died at his home in Castanea Friday of last week. Mr. Neff was born here fifty-one years ago, and grew to manhood in the immediate vicinity. He had been ill of a complication of painful diseases for some five months, and died, owing to him as a release from suffering. The body was brought here for burial in the Methodist churchyard, services being conducted in that church by Rev. E. Crumbringer, pastor of the United Evangelical church in Lock Haven, assisted by Rev. James Edwin Dunning. Mr. Neff married Miss Lulu Watson, of Boggs township, and one son, Roy, now grown and married, was the fruit of the union. With him remain to mourn their loss, the father, and the following brothers and sisters: William M. Renovo; Edward, of Chicago; Robert, of Tyrone; Mrs. Jennie Weirick, Mrs. Clara Dunham and Lot H. of Howard.

While standing at the railroad station Saturday morning the Howard letter noticed the following list of citizens get on train No. 51, bound for Bellefonte: Miss Mollie Yearick, Mrs. I. D. Jordan, F. E. Field, David Welsh and family, Mrs. Ward Schenck, Mrs. Augustus Johnson, Mrs. Hastings, J. B. Diehl, Mrs. Adam Kline and Harold, Frank Strunk and Gilbert, Clarence Yearick and family, Charles Bowser, Bessie Packer, Amber Confer, Joseph Weller, Victor Johnson, Willard and Gilbert Neff, Han, Johnson, Doc, Confer, Theo. Schenck, Gilbert Schenck, Charles DeHaas, and Curtis Butler, Victor and Ruth and Viola Thompson had already started with a horse and buggy. I have information that about half of those who were left in town also went westward on the two following trains. Of course it was purely incidental that Saturday was the day for the appearance of the widely advertised circus in Bellefonte.

 Because of the kindness of the Evangelical and Reformed congregations of Jacksonville, in setting aside such of their services last Sabbath as had been appointed for the same hour with the Children's Day service in the Presbyterian church, the interest and value of that occasion were very much enhanced. At the service in Howard, Sabbath evening, pastor W. F. Carson earnestly expressed, for himself and the congregations, the high appreciation which he and they have of the courtesy of their brethren of the other denominations as manifested not only by this action, but also by their attendance upon the Children's Day meeting, and also of the active interest they took in everything connected with it. The Howard letter is pleased to comply with the request to give this wider publicity to feeling of thorough good fellowship with which the Presbyterians regard the courtesies of their christian brethren.

STORMSTOWN.
 Rain! Rain! We are having our rainy season now.
 The festival at Stormstown was well attended. The most popular couple being Mr. James Hunter and lady friend, she doing the kind act of getting him a watch.
 Mrs. D. C. Harpster and daughter, Dora, also Mrs. Wade Lytle transacted business in Bellefonte last week.
 Fred Hartsack and Mr. Rocky attended the festival at Stormstown. What is the attraction, boys? Well just ask S. and A. H. We think they know.
 The Waddle ball team are having a festival at that place on Saturday, 31st, at which everybody is invited.
 Clark Hartsack was down from Juniata, over Sunday to visit his wife, who is staying with her father, W. G. Furst, for a short time, on account of her illness.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beck and little son visited at the latter's home on Sunday.
 May Zeek who has been on the sick list for the last two months, is able to be around again.

An Acrobatic Trout.
 Tuesday evening, whilst a number of jurors were admiring the beauties of the falls in Spring Creek above the city bridge, they were regaled by the acrobatic stunts of a monster trout. One juror, who is a good churchman too, avers that this trout was about a yard long, as thick as his limb above the knee, and had fins on him like a Japanese fan. This trout's stunt, for their amusement, consisted of jumping up on the first landing and disporting there awhile, whipping his head with his tail, and, finally, he took a spring board leap into the pool and disappeared from view.

Getting The Most For Your Money

IN CLOTHING

Spending, $10, $15, $20, $25, for a suit of clothes is easy, if you have the money to spend. But buying Clothing to get the best returns for your cash, that's not such an easy matter as many men have found out to their sorrow. You go into a store and see a suit of clothes marked $15 or $20, it's a good suit, it looks well on you and you like the pattern and color, you buy it, you pay out fifteen or twenty dollars, hard earned money, without inquiring into the matter sufficiently to satisfy yourself that you are getting value received. The chances are five to four you are not because for that same money you can buy better clothes here, or the same clothes for less money. This is not idle talk, either. These two stores by special trade prices are placing before you the greatest clothes values ever seen. A little investigation and this will be apparent to you. Whatever your position in life, whatever your special requirements may be—as regards clothes—you'll find in this new first goods we are showing a suit exactly fitted to your special needs.

The sharpest critic; the most exacting style mentor can be suited from this immense stock and we guarantee a saving on these prices that makes it worth your while to investigate. Suits in all cuts $10, 12.50, 15, 18, 20, 22.50 25 and 30.

We Are Going to Sacrifice 350 Women's and Misses Suits and Coats

That were originally marked $25.00 to $35.00 but which have since been reduced to $19.75 will now be closed out each at $15.00

The unusual feature of this Sale—and one that you want to bear in mind when taking note of the great money-saving opportunity it affords—is that in almost every instance the reduced price represents a decided reduction from what the garment was originally marked.

For instance, suits that were reduced to $19.75, originally sold at $30 or $35, and at all other prices the same condition prevails. You see, therefore, that you will be able to save much more than the difference between the reduced prices and tomorrow's clearance price—$15.00.

Remember, this is our own stock—the same excellent styles and qualities that we sell regularly—reduced for this great clearance. The styles are the season's best; the materials include cloth fabrics of unusual excellence; the workmanship insures satisfaction in appearance and wear.

Another point to remember is the great amount of service you can get out of any of these garments. You can wear them from now on all through the summer, and many will also be found serviceable for the fall.
