The Home Circle

Pleasant Evening Reveries Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

The most perilous hour of a person's then get down to work with determi- younger generation. nation. "The road to wealth is as easy as the road to market." You must call to your aid all that can honestly asin you the courage and cheer-body after the spirit has departed, and there are none. can inspire no joy only as it calls up the sweet memories of old delights. A retrospection of our childhood home is good for us. It teaches us how fleeting time is; how the sweetest and best of life's joys must pass away, and how all important to be diligent in our efforts to make our election sure for that changeless kingdom where there when rightly made, and the memory been elected to a professorship in the true work, has the transpile in the memory been elected to a professorship in the hearts that are left behind.

of joy or grief, of ease or pain, with and deeds. its closing; these end up to the last hour of the twenty-four, to return to An oblig of wealth and fame is hurried along bilious fever. on the swift wings of time, as rapidly as the poor man oppressed with his heavy burdens, no faster, no slower. If a man had a fifty-dollar pup he Days come and go, with their clouds and their sunshine, their lights and let it have the run of the town day their shadows, and with their coming and night. But if he has a child it burden that we could not bear, and we can face it serene and fearless. We The most perilous hour of a person's life is when he is tempted to despond. The man who loses his courage loses all. There is no more hope for him than there is for a dead man. It matters not, however, how much he may be punished by circumstances if he only keeps his courage up, holds up his head, and with unconquerable will determines to be and do what becomes a not possess such surroundings, if the life is when he is tempted to despond. A large stone crusher, one of the most modern make; concrete mixers, to rest upon our laurels in peace, and let the world fare on in its folly and strife, its storm and passion, its work and worry. We have earned to right by years of labor and conflict, to do just as we have earned the right by years of labor and conflict, to do just as we please, to rest upon our laurels in most modern make; concrete mixers, traction engines and steam rollers are some of the shipments to Rockview to aid in the construction of roads and buildings on the penitentiary site.

"Jimmie" Boal (as he is familiarly that suit the dignity of age. If we do "Jimmie" Boal (as he is familiarly called) one of Boalsburg's oldest results. termines to be and do what becomes a not possess such surroundings, if the man; all that makes or unmakes. Keep fine mansions, carriages, services, a stiff upper lip. Realize that success or failure depends, after all, on you and you alone. A man makes his own ures that no one can take from us bed and must lie on it. So make up honor, wisdom, experience and the your mind that you will succeed and grateful love and respect of the

If a man ever really loves a woman, which some people doubt, it is a wosist you; can help you invest your man who never abuses him. Every savings, however small; that can devite you to further trift; that can devite your ways to man who never abuses him. Every woman seems to imagine that she is soon as she has "influence" over a man, she must reform him; that is, make Did you ever visit your childhood's home? Well we remember the last-visit to our own. The old house still stands, but what is it to us now that mother is not here, and my little brothers are all with her over beyond the wide river, waiting for us in a house not made with hands. It is the shell without the kernel. It is like the hody after the spirit has departed, and him different from what a man ever that changeless kingdom where there when rightly made, and the memory is no parting. The very best monu- of which remains with us until death, It is but for a day—one day at a time—and that is all. It may be a day of tow or grid of the starting point of all beautiful thoughts district convention which are the starting point of all beautiful thoughts most gifted ministers and orators.

An obliging disposition may keep and the scenes of tomorrow will soon son will bring in chicken broth and a banquet, be numbered with the past. The man kind words in case you have a run of

The Care of Children.

If a man had, a fifty-dollar pup he and their going, hurry us all to the is different. They are turned loose approach of that day that will come at a tender age to go where they but never go. In that one eternal day will and do what they please. Peowe shall reap the harvest from the seeds sown in this life. "And what tramps, dead beats, gamblers and disshall the harvest be?"

The wonder where the great army of tramps, dead beats, gamblers and disreputable women come from. They are germinated from the seed gatherare germinated from the seed gather-We are prone to think of age as an ed in countless homes and sown forth after nightfall in search of regulations prescribed by the Commissioners, an undesirable thing, broadcast upon the streets of our crawlers and continue their onslaught sioners. we are prone to think of age as an jed in countiess homes and sown in the streets of our bully time, an undesirable thing, broadcast upon the streets of our bully there are compensations in being seventy years young. Life has and sof children who are heading in that direction, who, as far as care is concerned, are not given equal showling broadcast upon the streets of our crawlers and continue their onslaught until after the clock strikes the witching hour of 12. This may read like a fairy tale, but it is a fowl occurrence.—State College Times.

Guy S. Boone, a merchant, and Earl

FACT, FUN AND FANCY.

Bright, Sparkling Paragraphs-Selected and Original.

Within an Ace.—"I came within an ace of winning the game." "Then why didn't you?" "Because the other fellow had the ace.

The Cause.—"Waiter," he complainjust wait a minute, sir," answered the obsequious functionary, "those young ladies will have gone away."

What He Missed.-Mother-"It shocks me awfully to think you took er carefully and with a skilled eye the penny. Remember, it is as much "Well," he replied. "I'm not exactly a sin to steal a penny as a dollar. Now, how do you feel, Willy?" Willy—"Like a chump. There was a dollar right alongside the penny."

He Was Considerate.-- A man was approached by a friend who adds: "I thing it's a shame that you have not spoken to your wife for 15 years.

Distrimination.-Two lawyers before a probate judge recently got into a wrangle. At last one of the disputants, losing control over his emotions, exclaimed to his opponent: you are, I think, the biggest fool that you are, I think, the biggest tool that I ever had the misfortune to set eyes upon." "Order! Order!" said the judge, gravely. "You seem to forget that I am in the room."

Used the Ranges.—"Pa," said little Erank, as he turned the pages of his history, "can I ask a question?"
"What is it, my son?" asked his father, without looking up from his sporting page. "How did the cliff dwellers keep warm in the winter time?" "Why, I guess they used the mountain ranges. Now, don't ask me any more foolish questions.'

Where the Cat Was .- "What are the passengers looking out of the window for?" asked a nervous lady passenger on the train as the con-ductor came through. "We ran ovductor came through. "We ran ov-er a cat, madam," said the conductor. "Was the cat on the track?" she next asked. "Oh, no, madame" as-sured the conductor. "The locomo-tive chased her up the alley."

Several thousand prisoners in the from my Four of July vacation, I state penitentiaries believe in men being equal, but they have no doubt about themselves not being free.

Went straight as my feet could carry me to see Miss Malindy. I ax her how she was and she are and then I up and say, 'How is your ma standing the heat?' That's whar I drop my molasses jug. I didn't know her ma was dead."

Willing to Take a Chance.-The burly prisoner stood unabashed be-fore the judge. It was his first time in a court and before a jury. "Prisoner at the bar," asked the clerk, "do you wish to challenge any of the jury?" The prisoner looked them ov-"Well," he replied, "I'm not exactly wot you calls in trainin' but I guess I could stand a round or two with that old geezer in the corner.'

Wouldn't Do It .- "Oh, George, did tertainment committee, A. S. you see the description in this news-paper of the house where everything done by electricity?" exclaimed a young wife to her husband. "Would-How do you explain it? How do you n't it be lovely to live in a home like justify it?" "I didn't want to interrupt her," said the poor man. want to get anything is to touch a want to get anything is to touch a button." The man was gloomily responsive. "That wouldn't be of much use to you, Clara," he remarked. "Nothing could induce you to touch a button. Look at this coat, and myoh, look at everything I wear!"

> Seeing Things .- A gentleman in a Ard. Manchester restaurant the other day thought he would have a joke with the waiter and asked him if he had ever seen a sausage roll. "Say," said the waiter, "I have not only seen a sausage roll, but I have seen a biscuit box, and a table spoon, a chimney sweep, a chain link, a nosegay, a camera slide, a garden fence, a sword fish a wall flower a tran turn a cake fish, a wall flower, a trap turn, a cake walk, a mountain climb, a sky lark, a honey comb, a half crown—" But a honey comb, a half crown—" But by this time the gentleman joker was half way down the street in a dazed condition.

His Order.—The proprietor of a certain restaurant had leased the reverse side of his bill of fare to a car-riage manufacturer, who prints ad-vertisements thereon. The other day "Was the cat on the track?" she next asked. "Oh, no, madame" assured the conductor. "The locomotive chased her up the alley."

Wanted to Fight.—In a certain road in Nevada the trains are very slow. A passenger riding on one of the trains became disgusted with the slow speed, and, calling to the conductor, asked: "How far to the next station?" The conductor replied, "Fifty miles." "And how long have you worked on this road." "Twenty-five years." "Is this your second trip?" Then the conductor wanted to fight.

Vertisements thereon. The other day a customer in a great hurry ran into the restaurant, sat at the table, and was handed a bill wrong side up by the fiurried waiter. The customer put 'n his pince-nez, curled his moustache with a left hand, and shouted in a voice of thunder: "Bring me a filleted fly, a landau on toast, two victorias devilled, and a fried dog-cart! Got any wheelbarrow stew?" The poor waiter fled.

Taking No Risk.—The tramp sat, serene and dirty, on the back door is step eating the breakfast for which he worked on this road." "Twenty-five years." "Is this your second trip?" Then the conductor wanted to fight.

An Opinion on Hosiery.—A plump little woman stood beside a counter in a big store where "bargains in ladies' hose" were on sale. She selected a pair and held it toward the small boy who was assisting the salesladies, saying: "Til take six pairs like this." The boy glanced from the hose to the lady and colly drawied: "I wouldn't if I were you; cheap hosiery is never elastic at the top."

Where Was Ma?—Mr. Johnson explained how he was rather peremptorily dismissed by his lady love in this way: "Yer see, when I got back"

Taking No Risk.—The tramp sat, serene and dirty, on the back door step eating the breakfast for which he had asked, and the servant stood looking at him curiously. Presently the knight of the road observed the attention she was paying him. "Wotter yer lookin' at me for?" he asked in idle curiosity. "Think I'm a long-lost cousin?" "No," replied the maid. coolly; "but I must say you remind me of a man I used to know." "Sweetheart?" asked the tramp coyly. "None of your business!" was the maid's retort. "But something happened to him which'll never happen to you." "What's that? Died a millionaire, did he?" The maid's reply was crushing: "No; he was accidentally drowned while bathing."

OVER THE COUNTY.

During a recent windstorm a large tree was blown across the stone wall surrounding the Centre Hill cemetery and tore a large gap in the structure. The repair work was done by John Horner, of near Tusseyville.

Mrs. J. H. McCool, of near Tusseyville, has been a great sufferer from poison on her face. For a time her eyes were almost swollen shut, and her condition was alarming, but she called) one of Boalsburg's oldest residents, a deaf mute is ill with dropsy of the heart. He is being cared for at the home of Mrs. George Boal by trained nurses employed by his nephew, T. D. Boal.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Bittner of Beech Creek and daughter Miss Edna, left Thursday for State Colledg to make that borough their future resi-Mr. Bitner has begun erection of a home and expects to do much of the work himself, being an expert carpenter. One day last week Dr. John Hardenbergh, of Milheim, killed a black-snake, 40 inches long, that was living high on young chicks taken from his brooders. For several days the doctor had been missing "peeps" and luckily he finally discovered what was happening to them.

P. A. Leaster sold his farm, west of Centre Hall, to Prof. C. L. Goodling, of State College, and another gentleman who is connected with the State College public schools. The sum paid been elected to a professorship in the department of Zoology at Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y. His work ments that can be erected to our and will do more to protect and rememories here are the living ones we strain its inmates than the grandest have reared by good deeds in the and most eloquent sermons from the which time he will remove his family to that place.

starting point of all beautiful thoughts district convention which will be held in their room, at Mill Hall, on the evening of May 30. It is expected that nearly 2000 members will be present. us no more. Whatever may be in your wash tub and flat irons floating A fine program has been prepared, store for us in the future, the scenes of the past shall know no tomorrow, months in the year, but the same realists of the past shall know no tomorrow, months in the year, but the same realists of the past shall know no tomorrow, months in the year, but the same realists of the past shall know no tomorrow.

> Miss Mattie McCool, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. McCool, of near Tusseyville, is on an enforced vacation from the Freeburg music school. About ten days ago she and a number of classmates were preparing a spread for companion guests, when in some manner she got one of her fingers into a power bread cutter, and snipped off the point.

> E. S. Erb, the chemist of State College, is the owner of some thrifty hens. Not being content with their rations during the day, they meander

> Guy S. Boone, a merchant, and Earl E. Meyer, a miller, both of Loganton, have formed a partnership and will engage in the manufacture of lumber, ving purchased a saw mill Shreckengast, The bought two valuable tracts of timber land, one from Mrs. Leah Her-man, on the Summit, and the other from Nathan Haugh, in Brush Valley.

ward Lane, of Sotis Point, New York, are at the home of Mrs. Lane's brother, William Stiver, in Centre Hall, in the registers office have made an Mrs. Mary Barr, of Tyrone, is also a investigation and they declare this guest at the Stiver home. They will the shortest will ever filed there. remain until after the 6th of June in order to attend the memorial ceremonies provided by the Methodist church for all deceased pastors of

The committee for the Williams reunion met Saturday evening at Port Matilda, and selected Saturday, August 16th, as the date for holding their annual reunion in the Miles Grove at largest trout ever captured in this Martha. The following officers were section of the state. elected: Jacob Woodring, Pres., Jno. Williams, Vice Pres., Edgar Williams, Rec. Sec., G. G. Fink, Treas. Transportation committee, G. G. Fink; en-

Several months ago Joseph Ard, of Woodward, purchased a Jersey bull calf in Massachusetts, which was shipped to him by express. According to the laws of Pennsylvana, the calf had to be tested for tuberculosis when it became six months old. Dr. M. P. Fiedler, veterinarian, recently made the test, as well as testing the entire herd—eight head of full Jerseys—and they all tested fav-orably, much to the delight of Mr.

Altoona District Epworth League convention will be held in Philipsburg June 3 and 4. Rev. Geo. M. Glenn and his hospitable people will be the hosts of the convention. day sessions will be with discussions of practical league methods, the speakers for Tuesday and Wednesday evenings being Dr. Fred Clare Baldwin, pastor of Calvary Methodist Episcopal church, East Orange N. J., and Dr. W. B. Hollingshead, of the commission on finance, New York City.

The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, I. O. O. F., and Daughters of Rebekah were in session at Gettysburg last week, and there were over 1200 delegates and spectators in attendance. The representatives there from Centre county were: Centre Hall, J. W. Whiteman; Spring Mills, F. S. Musser; Millheim, Frank Kister; Boals-burg, E. H. Williams; State College, John M. Shope; Lemont, J. H. Shuey; Bellefonte, Thomas S. Hazel; Cen-tre Hall, Mrs. George Nearhood; Mill-

Class No. 7 organized their class on Class No. 7 organized their class on Thursday evening at Mrs. G. C. Hosterman at Boalsburg. It has nine pupils as follows: Miss Carry Rishel, Misses Rachael and Margery Rothrock, Miss Helen Martz, Mabel Myers, Mabel Koch, Irene and Ruth Ross and Ruth Young. Ruth Young is the secretary; Mabel Myers, president; Rachael Rothrock, vice president; Helen Martz, treasurer; besides all the committees they are in. We wish them abundant success in their work. The name of their class is "Sunshine and name of their class is "Sunshine and Club," and the motto is "We do good for others"; the flower, "For-get-menot"; hymn, "Do something for somebody."

Is the man who profits by his mis-takes better off than the man who never makes any?

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Thomas R. Thomas to Evan L. ones, premises in Philipsburg; $800. William J. Royer to Edward A. Horner, tract of land in Potter twp.;

Harry Beck to Thomas D. Decker, ract of land in State College $550. Harry A. Robins to Mary E. Cole, tract of land in Philipsburg; $200. Sarah J. Richards to Edward Craft, tract of land in S. Philipsburg; $500. R. Milton Krebs et ux to Clayton orl, premises in Ferguson twp.; $800. John Crawshaw et al to Harry B. Miller et ux, premises in Philipsburg;

Margaret Hartswick to F. M. Alexander, tract of land in College twp.;

Louisa Smull to George H. Smull, tract of land in Miles twp.; $1. Geo. R. Clark et ux to William K. Osman, tratwp.; $400. tract of land in Ferguson

Willard Crispen et ux to Harry F. Crispen, tract of land in Snow Shoe twp.; $1000. F. W. Crider et ux to Andy Wato-witch, tract of land in Snow Shoe John Hamilton et ux to Jessie E. Davis, tract of land in State College: $350. Mary A. Lons et al to Thomas F. Lons, tract of land in Spring twp.;

John Hamilton et ux to E. S. Erb, premises in State College; $400. John B. Musser to J. K. Gramley, ract of land in Miles twp.; $3500. Mary Martin to Harvey Lutz, tract of land in Walker twp.; $1225.

John Hamilton et ux to Arwilla Heberling, premises in State College; William L. Foster et al to J. A. Fries, lot in College twp.; $400.

INSTRUCTION FOR FARMERS. Two Important Measures Have Be-

Pennsylvania will take steps towards improving agricultural conditions through two laws signed by Governor Tener. The first provides that County Commissioners shall aptached for the call with one of the tramps that County Commissioners shall aptached for the killing of the course Carl talked propriate money for co-operative ex-experts to give instruction in agri-culture.

The first bill of which Representa-tive Gibson, of Lycoming county, is the author, recites the movement of the federal government to co-operate with the Pennsylvania State College with the ultimate object of locating a trained agriculture agent in every county. The federal movement plans that the state authorities shall bear portion of the cost.

The sum of $1500 annually must be appropriated by the County Commissioners from the county funds for agricultural extension work in coperation with Pennsylvania State college to encourage improved methods of farm management and home economics and giving practical instruction and demonstrations in agri-

Headquarters shall be provided in the County Court House and the mon-ey shall be expended under rules and

Under the second law the Secretary of agriculture is empowered to appoint ten expert instructors in science of agriculture and $40,000 is appropriated for the purpose. The instruction shall be given at such times and places as prescribed by the

Will of 8 Words Holds. The shortest will on record in Luzerne county was that filed last week by William Freudenberger as execu-tor of the estate of his wife, Louise Freudenberger. The estate is valued Mrs. M. M. Lane and son, Rev. Ed- at about $8000, and is disposed of in the following will: "Everything have I leave to my husband."

> A Big Trout.
>
> James Moyer, of Yeargertown, was a lucky trout fisherman around this part of the country Tuesday. While fishing at Honey creek above Reedsville, he landed after a hard battle a trout that measured 26 inches and weighed six pounds. This was the > Dr. King's New Life Pills will relieve constipation promptly and get your bowels in healthy condition John Supsic, of Sanbury, Pa., "They are the best pills I ever and I advise everyone to use again. used, and I advise everyone to use them for constipation, indigestion and liver complaint." Will help you. Price 25c. Recommended by C. M.

Parrish, druggist, Bellefonte,

There is Comfort in knowing that you can obtain one tried and proved remedy thoroughly well adapted to your needs. Every woman who is troubled with headache, backache, languor, extreme nervousness and depression of spirits ought to try what a difference they will make. the system they insure better digestion, sounder sleep, quieter nerves, and bestow the charm of sparkling eyes, a spotless rosy complexion and vivacious spirits. Thousands upon thousands of women have learned, happily, that Beecham's Pills are reliable and

The Unfailing Home Remedy Sold everywhere. In boxes, 10c., 25c. The directions with every box are very valuable—especially to women.

A Dictagraph Secures Confession. Williamsport that the wonderful new telephone contrivance known as the dictagraph figured prominently as a means of obtaining the confession from John Carl, the tramp, being held in the Lycoming county jail for the murder of a companion, James Kilgallon in the "Bum's Hole" near Williamsport some weeks ago. The instrument which recently has been successfully used by the Burns de-tective agency and other officers of the law in trapping criminals was installed by the county of Lycoming, the county commissioners having agreed to bear half of the expense.

The dictagraph was installed in Carl's cell while the hearing at Alderman Paul's was in progress. County Detective Tepel did the work, as-sisted by the deputy sheriff and an-other party. When Carl was brought caught in the raid after the killing of Kilgallon. Of course Carl talked tension work to improve and develop agricultural resources of the respective counties. The other appoints ten experts to give instruction in agripert stenographer, was seated with pert stenographer, was seated with pen and pad. Every word that pass-ed between the men was recorded.

oner with a typewritten copy. was dumbfounded, and the confession friends. was soon forthcoming.

It was taken down in shorthand and then typewritten, after which it was signed by Carl, and is now in the It has just been made public at possession of District Attorney Hoag-

> Will Mean Heavy Expense. If the Superior court decision de-claring the law which allows a man to plead guilty of a crime without appearing before a grand jury of the Court of Quarter Sessions unconstitutional, will stand, it will cost all counties a goodly sum annually in witness fees.

Under the present conditions a defendant may plead guilty any time, and his case be disposed of by the court. By the new decision the grand jury will have to hear the prosecu-tor and witnesses in each case.

It will double the amount of the grand jury work and will make the county pay witnesses including the prosecutor, mileage for witnesses in each case, all of which is now saved when a defendant pleads guilty.

The Houser Reunion.
The third annual reunion of the ouser families will be held in grove at Rock View Sta., Centre county, Pa., on Thursday June 19, 1913, to which en and pad. Every word that pass-d between the men was recorded.

When the conversation ended Mr. with them as possible. The officers are Rogers transcribed his notes and the doing all in their power to make it county detective confronted the pris- a success; so come and enjoy a day woods and meet your old

For further information, address the ndersigned, A. R. HOUSER, R. F. D. No. 2, Bellefonte, Pa. undersigned,

Shabby Furniture Made Like New

The woodwork in your home that's worn or scratched, marred or shabby, can be made like new at trifling cost.

Peninsular Lac-Stain

stains and varnishes at one application. It will renew the finish on any woodwork or furniture, or with it you can secure perfect imitations of expensive hard woods-oak, mahogany, walnut, cherry or Flemish oaks, etc.

Our booklet, "Cozy Homes" was written to help you keep your home attractive and inviting. It tells you how you can do these home painting jobs yourself.

Ask for a free copy.

The Potter---Hoy Hardware Co. Bellefonte, Pa.

LOW RATE Sunday Excursion

> $3.00 Trip Round

WASHINGTON

SUNDAY, JUNE 8

A Rare Chance to Visit the National Capitol See the National Museum with its interesting exhibits, the Beautiful Congressional Library, Magnificent Capitol building and Corcoran Art Gallery, all of which will be open on this date.

A DELIGHTFUL SUNDAY PLEASURE TRIP.

SPECIAL THROUGH TRAIN LEAVES Bellefonte Sunbury -Oak Hall -Linden Hall 4.25 a. m. 4.31 a. m. Mifflinburg - -Vicksburg - - - 6.16 a. m. Lewisburg - - - 6.28 a. m. Centre Hall Montandon - - 6.38 a. m. Northumberland - 6.50 a. m. Coburn -- 5.23 a. m.

RETURNING, Special Trains leave Washington 5.40 P. M.

Tickets on sale by Ticket Agents during week preceding date of excursion. Consult Ticket Agents or David Todd, Division Passenger Agent, Williamsport.

